FRUIT PRICES LOW

The week to date has on the whole een a quiet one in the fruit trade. Prices in general held at a low range, and dealers do not look for any ery great change for the better in the near future.

Peaches are plentiful, the best offerings going at 55 cents a box. This month will practically finish the To peach season, but there will probably be some storage stock available the first week or two of November. Apples are coming in a free way and selling with moderate activity at an extreme range of $1 to $2 a box. Dealers say the bulk of the trade is in the fair to medium grades, which sell at $1.25 to $1.50.
