

GIANTS WIN FIRST FROM ATHLETICS

BENDER HAS SHADE ON "MATTY," BUT INDIAN'S SUPPORT IS NOT SO GOOD.

ELEVEN NEW YORKERS STRIKE OUT

Widely Breaking Curves of Philadelphia Twirler Fata To McGraw's Men—Score is 2 To 1.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—In the presence of what probably was the greatest throng of baseball enthusiasts ever gathered together, the National League pennant winners, the New York team, defeated the Philadelphia aggregation, 2 to 1, in the first game of the series for the world's baseball championship of 1911 at the Polo Grounds.

The national commission announced that 38,281 persons had paid admission to witness the contest, and that the gross receipts were $71,352. From an artistic point of view the game was ordinary and there were scarcely any difficult chances or opportunities for sensational plays such as frequently bring a crowd to its feet. It was a pitchers' battle from inning to inning, with the Indian, Bender, having a shade the better of it in the early part of the contest.

The Chippewa fanned Snodgrass, Merkle, Fletcher and Mathewson twice each, while Devore, Murray and Herzog swung futilely at the ball once each. Doyle and Meyers were his only opponents not retired on strikes.

Mathewson scored five strikeouts—Lord twice, Oldring, Baker and Barry once. He gave but one base on balls; while Bender passed four and hit one man.

Baker and Oldring, of the visitors, were the only men on either club to get more than one hit. Each got two and both of Oldring's smashes were for two bases. The only other extra base hits were made by Meyers and Devore, the latter's double sending the New York catcher home with the winning run in the seventh inning.

Eddie Collins, the brilliant Philadelphia second-sacker, made a bad hobble of an easy chance on Herzog's grounder in the fourth inning which allowed the fast-flying Snodgrass to score from second. This run tied the score. The only other misplay was an excusable muff by Third Baseman Baker, of Philadelphia, of a thrown ball by Thomas to catch Snodgrass, who was attempting to steal third.

The fleet New York runner came into the bag feet first, striking Baker on the arm and causing him to drop the ball. The umpire had declared Snodgrass out, but changed his decision when he saw the ball roll away.

First Inning. Athletics—Lord struck out. Mathewson's control was perfect, and Oldring fanned. Collins flied out to Devore. Athletics, No runs.

New York—Devore was out. Bender to Davis. Doyle got a hit to right. Snodgrass struck out. Doyle stole second, as Thomas' throw was low. Murray struck out. No runs.

Second Inning. Athletics—Baker singled to right. Murphy sacrificed, Mathewson to Merkle. On a passed ball, Baker took third. Baker scored on Davis' single to left. Barry out, Mathewson to Merkle. Davis taking second. Thomas out. Herzog to Merkle. One run.

New York—Merkle out. Collins to Davis. Herzog, who took Fletcher's place in batting order, went out when Barry threw him out at first. Fletcher struck out. No runs.

Third Inning. Athletics—Bender out, Mathewson to Merkle. Lord flied out to Murray. Oldring doubled to left. Collins walked. Baker struck out. No runs.

New York—It was Indian against Indian when Meyers faced Bender. Meyers flied out to Oldring. Mathewson fanned. The Indian's pitching was beautiful to see, his curves breaking over the edges of the plate. Devore walked. Doyle flied out to Lord. No runs.

Fourth Inning. Athletics—The game so far had resolved itself into a pitchers' duel, and while the play was in progress there were long moments of intense silence. Only when a hit was made or there was some brilliant fielding play did the crowd vent its enthusiasm. Murphy fouled out to Meyers. Davis went out. Fletcher to Merkle. Mathewson worked his famous fadeaway and mixed it up with a big drop and high fast one. Barry popped up to Fletcher. No runs.

New York—Snodgrass took his base on balls after Bender had got two strikes on him. The fourth ball hit Snodgrass on the wrist. The crowd Snodgrass on the wrist. The crowd let loose, and there was a pandemonium of sound. Murray out, Collins to Davis. Snodgrass took second on the play. It was an attempt at the hit-and-run play. Bender's blinding speed was too much for Merkle and he struck out. Collins made a mess of Herzog's grounder and Snodgrass scored. Collins tried to nail Snodgrass at the plate, but the throw was a trifle wide and on the play Herzog took second. Fletcher struck out. One run.

Fifth Inning. Athletics—Thomas drove a long fly to left, which Devore captured after a smart run. Bender singled to left. Merkle took Lord's grounder and threw to Fletcher, forcing out the Indian. Oldring doubled to right. Lord taking third. It was Oldring's second two-base smash. With Collins at the bat the Philadelphia crowd in the stands went wild. Merkle took Collins' grounder and touched him out. It was a close play and saved a couple of runs from being scored. No runs.

New York—Collins took Meyers' grounder and shot it to first. Mathewson struck a single to center. It was the second hit made against Bender. Devore couldn't reach Bender's fast bases and fanned. It was Bender's seventh strikeout. Thomas made a beautiful stop of what should have been a wild pitch by Bender. Doyle was hit by the Collins-Davis route. No runs.

Sixth Inning. Athletics—Baker caught a line away on the end of his bat and sent it to center for a single. It was the sixth hit made against Mathewson. Baker started to steal, but Murphy spoiled the play by fouling into the grandstand. Murphy sent a high fly to Snodgrass. Baker out, stealing. Meyers to Doyle. Herzog threw out Davis. No runs.

New York—Bender hit Snodgrass on the arm as the batter taking first. Murphy sacrificed. Snodgrass went to second. Murray's bunt was taken care of by Baker, who got it to Davis just ahead of the runner. Merkle struck out. Snodgrass stole third. Baker dropping Thomas' throw. Baker was spilled in the arm in the play. The game was delayed while Baker's scorers gave Baker an error and did not credit Snodgrass with a stolen base. Thomas getting an assist. Herzog walked on four wide ones. On an attempted double steal, Snodgrass was caught at the plate. Thomas threw to Collins, who snapped the ball back to Thomas, who touched out Snodgrass as he led into the plate. No runs.

Seventh Inning. Athletics—Barry struck out. Thomas flied out to Snodgrass. Bender went out, Fletcher to Merkle. No runs.

Eighth Inning. Athletics—Lord fanned. Oldring flied out to Devore. Collins out, Mathewson to Merkle. No runs.

New York—Murray flied out to Lord. Merkle beat out a bunt. Herzog fanned. Fletcher flied out to Murphy. No runs.

Ninth Inning. Athletics—Baker out to Merkle, unassisted. Murphy pops to Meyers. Davis grounds to Merkle. No runs.

ATHLETICS DEFEAT GIANTS IN SECOND

BAKER'S HOME RUN OVER FENCE IN SIXTH PUTS MCGRAW'S MEN TO ROUT.

MARQUARD IS FINALLY TAKEN OUT

Plank, Steady All Through Game, And Allows Only Five Hits—30,000 See Great Contest.

SHIBE PARK, PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 16.—(Special.)—One solid swarmer in the right field fence from Frank Baker's war club won the second game in the world's championship series for the Athletics here today by three to one from the New York Giants.

The deciding wallop came in the sixth inning. Eddie Collins had poked one into the crowd for two bases, and with the score tied 1 to 1, Baker delivered the home run. He leaped against the ball good and hard and as he followed Collins across the home plate such a scene broke loose as staid Philadelphia has seldom seen. Thirty thousand fans, who hung, breathless on the struggle, split the air with one roar of joy. It was all over in less than a minute. The Athletics were never in danger.

The first run for the Athletics was made in the first inning, when Lora crossed the pan on a wild pitch by Rube Marquard. In the second inning Oldring misjudged a double by Herzog, who scored for New York when Big Chief Meyers delivered a nice clean single. From the start of the game McGraw's beauty, Marquard, was wild. In the middle of the struggle he settled down but weakened again in the eighth when McGraw jerked him out of the box, sending Crandall to bat. Crandall delivered the goods, but Plank, who was steady as a rock throughout the game, held the Giants hitless and the deed was done.

Thirty thousand persons flung themselves into the park and 5,000 others packed temporary stands and the roofs of adjoining buildings. The ground rules agreed upon provided that a hit into the crowd should go for two bases and anything over the fence, for a home run.

The Athletics made four hits and the Giants five.

First Inning. New York—Devore struck out. Doyle flied out to Lord. Snodgrass was hit by pitched ball. Murray drove a line fly to Collins. No runs.

Philadelphia—Lord singled to right and went to second on Murray's fumble. (Crandall warmed up the Giants.) Lord took third on Oldring's beautiful sacrifice, Marquard to Merkle. Lord scored on a wild pitch. Collins beat out an infield hit. Marquard was visibly nervous. Baker struck out. Murphy was the third out on a fly to Devore. One run.

Second Inning. New York—Merkle was retired, Barry to Davis. Herzog drove a double to center, Oldring misjudging the ball. Fletcher was thrown out, Collins to Davis, Herzog taking third. Herzog scored a moment later on Meyers' pretty single. Marquard struck out. One run.

Philadelphia—Captain Davis was retired, Doyle to Merkle. Barry drove a hard fly to left, which Devore got under but muffed. Barry taking second. Thomas lifted a fly to Devore. Plank was out, Meyers to Merkle, on a slow grounder towards first. No runs.

Third Inning. New York—Devore struck out the second time during the game. Doyle flied out to Lord. Snodgrass singled to right. Murray was retired, Plank to Davis. No runs.

Philadelphia—Lord fanned. Oldring lifted a fly which Meyers took care of. Collins flied out to Devore. No runs.

Fourth Inning. New York—Merkle was thrown out, Collins to Davis, on a pretty pick-up. Herzog lifted a high one to Barry. Fletcher was thrown out by Barry to Davis. No runs.

Philadelphia—Baker retired, Doyle to Merkle. Marquard had steadied down and was pitching a splendid game. Murphy gave Devore an easy out on a high fly. Davis made the third out on a foul to Meyers. No runs.

Fifth Inning. New York—Meyers was out, Baker to Davis, on an easy chance. Marquard fanned on four pitched balls. Devore struck out for the third time in succession. No runs. Up to this time Plank had five strikeouts and Marquard two.

Philadelphia—Barry bunted and was thrown out by Marquard. Thomas was thrown out, Fletcher to Merkle. Three balls dropped of Plank. No runs.

Sixth Inning. New York—Doyle out at first. Davis unassisted. Snodgrass singled to left, and in attempting to stretch it to a two-bagger, was out to Barry at second on a beautiful fly. Murray struck out. No runs.

Philadelphia—Lord drove a high fly to Snodgrass in right center and was out. Oldring flied out to Devore, the latter backing against the temporary fence to take the ball. Collins doubled to left. Baker drove the ball over right-field fence for a home run, scoring Collins. The crowd went wild, and it was several minutes before they quieted down. Murphy ended the agony for New York by striking out. Two runs.

Seventh Inning. New York—Merkle singled to center on the first ball pitched. Herzog lifted a fly which Oldring took care of. Fletcher flied out to Baker. Merkle was caught off first on a pretty throw, Plank to Davis, making the third out. No runs.

Philadelphia—Davis drove a hot liner to Doyle and sat down. Barry lined a terrific hit to Herzog which nearly lifted the New York third baseman off his feet and was out. Thomas lifted a fly to Fletcher and retired. No runs.

New York—Meyers lined out to Collins. Crandall went in to bat in place of Marquard. Collins also got Crandall's grounder, retiring the New Yorker at first. Devore struck out for the fourth time. No runs.

Philadelphia—Crandall replaces Marquard in the box for New York. Plank fanned on three beauties. Lora lifted a foul, which Merkle muffed, giving the Philadelphia a life. Lora then fanned. Oldring was out at first on a very hard chance by Herzog. No runs.

Ninth Inning. New York—Doyle lifted a foul to Thomas. Snodgrass struck out. Murray retired the side on a hit to Collins, who threw to Davis. No runs.

ATHLETICS VICTORS IN GREAT BATTLE

BAKER'S "HOMER" IN NINTH TIES SCORE AND GAME IS WON IN ELEVENTH.

COOMBS OUTPITCHES MATHEWSON

Philadelphia's Third Baseman Hero Of Two Contests By Mighty Home Run Smashes With His Willow.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—(Special.)—The Philadelphia Athletics won again today from the New York Giants in the world's championship series. The score was Philadelphia 3, New York 2.

Philadelphia made nine hits and two errors and New York got three hits and made six errors.

Philadelphia outplayed New York especially in the field.

The turn in the tide came in the ninth. Always invincible, Mathewson had bled the Athletics through eight desperate innings. One run by the Giants in the third made it look like a sure thing. Hope was almost gone when Baker came up in the ninth. One husky swat drove the leather into the right field seats for a home run and the battle was on again. In the tenth inning both Mathewson and "Iron Jack" Coombs pitched masterly ball. Both teams were on edge and neither could score.

In the eleventh Collins poked out a single to center. Baker was there again with another, and before the scoreboard marks went up both had scored the pan. As a last rally Herzog doubled for the Giants in the eleventh. Then Becker, the former Boston home run hitter went in to bat for Matty. He delivered, and partly by a fumble by Collins, Herzog crossed the plate, but Becker was too ambitious and was out stealing, and the game was done.

The Giants made three hits and the Athletics nine. Collins, Baker, Davis and Barry each made two hits and Lapp one. Herzog, Meyers and Mathewson each made a hit.

Philadelphia—Oldring out, Herzog to Merkle. Collins singled to center. Baker beat out an infield hit to Herzog, taking second, and Collins taking third. Fletcher dropped the ball. Herzog fanned. Davis grounded, Collins scoring. Davis singled to right, scoring Baker. Murphy out at third, Murray to Herzog. Davis out, stealing. Meyers to Doyle. No runs.

New York—Herzog doubled to left. Fletcher flied to Lord; Meyers out, Collins to Davis; Collins fumbled, but recovered it in time to retire Meyers; Herzog went to third; Becker batting for Mathewson; Becker hit to Collins, but was safe; Herzog scoring; Collins fumbling; Becker out, stealing; Lapp to Collins. One run.

Judge Beattie Marries Couple. Dora Woodward and Thomas Sackett, of Silverton, were married by County Judge Beattie.

Spanish Laziness. If the Spaniards may be regarded as indolent as a race the accusation might be leveled against their neighbors, the Portuguese, with greater justice. Galicia has supplied Portugal with labor for centuries, and the little city Galegos are figuratively the bees in the Portuguese hive. Southerly tells a story of an Englishman at Oporto who asked his servant to carry a box.

"I am a Portuguese, not a beast," exclaimed the offended native, who walked a mile to find a mule to carry the burden.

Workers on Stits. Thousands of men in England earn their living during a considerable portion of the year by their ability to walk and work on tall stits. Most of them are employed in the big beds of Kent and other districts, where they have displaced the high stipladders formerly in use. During the pole stringing season the stit walkers, twelve feet from the ground, perform the work with ease and without loss of time or motion. A trained stitman will do the work of four or five men working with stipladders.

RAIN PREVENTS GAME AND GIVES PITCHERS FOR NEW YORK CHANCE TO REST.

BAKER AND COOMBS HEROES OF HOUR

Philadelphia Is Baseball Mad And Attendance Today Is Expected To Break Shibe Park Record.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 18.—(Special.)—The fourth game of the Giants-Athletics championship series was postponed today by the national baseball commission on account of the bad condition of the grounds following the heavy rains which have been falling here since last night.

The Giants are elated over the delay, as they believe the rest will put Rube Marquard, who will pitch the fourth game, in better shape. They declare that Mathewson will also have an opportunity to rest up, so that he can pitch the fifth game of the series.

The Athletics are contented, too, saying that they have an advantage in the resting up of Plank and Bender. Philadelphia is baseball mad as a result of the one-game lead the Athletics hold, and it is estimated that tomorrow's attendance will be the largest ever gathered in the park.

The weather forecast is for clear tonight and tomorrow, which should leave the field in good shape.

Baker, the hard hitting third baseman, is sharing the honors as a popular idol with Jack Coombs, who pitched the game of his career against the Giants. Both are receiving ovations wherever they appear, and the fans talk of nothing else.

The Giants spent the day quietly in their quarters at the Hotel Majestic. They are unpopular with the Quaker City fans, as was shown by their reception on their arrival here, when the crowd greeted Snodgrass with hoots and hisses and cries of "Spiker" and "Dirty Ball." Other members of the Giants gathered about Snodgrass as if expecting an attack.

Snodgrass and the other members of the Giants denied the spiking of Baker was intentional, claiming that Baker stood in the path when Snodgrass slid feet first. Baker declared that the spiked ankle, while causing him considerable pain and making him walk with a limp, will in no way affect his speed.

"We are not beaten yet by a long shot," said Manager McGraw today. "The fact that the Athletics got away with yesterday's game does not mean that they have the series clinched. I expect to see our boys come right back and win the next game. Then we will see who will stand the gaff in the real finish."

CHINESE REBELS GIVEN HARD BLOW

INSURGENTS MAKE GRAVE ERROR BY FAILING TO FOLLOW UP VICTORIES.

MORAL EFFECT HELPFUL TO THRONE

Doubtful Provinces Slow To Join Revolutionary Movement And Peking Is Not In Danger.

PEKIN, Oct. 18.—The Chinese government asserts that it has won a great victory at Hankow and announced that the troops held the station, where the troop trains are arriving rapidly. Although this appears to be an exaggeration, the feeling prevails here that the government has really achieved an important moral victory.

The belief has been held here that if the first encounter between the revolutionaries and the loyal troops proved decisive, the supremacy would be settled there and then. Only a few unimportant towns outside of Hankow, Wuchang, and Han Yang have taken part in the rising. Nanking, Chang Sha, Canton and other cities of known revolutionary tendencies have not responded to the call of the insurgents, so far as can be learned. They are seemingly awaiting the result of the first encounter.

Had the rebels overwhelmingly won today's battle it was expected the provinces below the Yangtze-Kiang would be theirs. With other important cities in rebellion, the government would have been unable to concentrate its strength against the three in Hupoh province. The rebel leaders have shown characteristic weakness in not following up their early victories.

No news was received from Szechuen province. The American Legation failed to receive reports, except that from Consul-General Green at Hankow, announcing that the battle had been begun. Acceptance of the office of Viceroy of Hupoh makes Yuan Shi Kai demanded permission to raise his own division of 10,000 troops and also to cash a personal grant of 2,000,000 taels ($2,000,000). To this humiliation the regent agreed.

EASTERN CLACKAMAS

FIRWOOD. ELWOOD.

The lecture given by Mr. W. J. Wirtz Sunday afternoon was well attended. Mr. Wirtz spent the evening at E. D. Hart's.

Mrs. A. Malbar's sister, Mrs. Carrie Bird, of Pendleton, Ore., visited her last week.

Miss Swails spent the fore part of the week at Brightwood visiting relatives.

Warren Wilkins and Henry Kelseick returned from the mountains Thursday with a fine deer.

Several ladies and children spent a very pleasant afternoon with Mrs. Geo. Kelseick last Thursday.

The Misses Irene Alt and Marie Koenicke have gone to Portland for the winter.

A. J. Moxley is making progress with his house, which he started to build last week.

Kicked by a Mad Horse. Samuel Birch, of Beetown, Wis., had a most narrow escape from losing his leg, as no doctor could heal the frightful sore that developed, but at last Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured it completely. It's the greatest healer of ulcers, burns, boils, eczema, scalds, cuts, corns, cold-sores, bruises and piles on earth. Try it 25c at Jones Drug Co.

DOVER. Joseph De Shayer hauled lumber last week for Arthur Miller's new house.

Mr. Bewis is building a fence. Miss Alice Cooper returned from Portland last week.

Mrs. J. W. Miller entertained her son, Augustine and his wife the latter part of the week.

Birch Roberts is in the Hood River country packing apples.

Mrs. Cupp is entertaining her daughter and a friend, Miss Harris, from Salem.

Mrs. Bodley and daughter, Jessie, are here from Portland, visiting the boys and putting up fruit.

James DeShayer and family of Firwood, spent Sunday with his brother, Joseph.

Notice to the Tax Payers in Road District No. 33. At a recent meeting of the tax payers in road district No. 33 called by Henry Cromer, road supervisor, he declared that $800.00 was of the 1909 levy to be worked out in 1910. I contended that it was a part of the 1910 levy, which had already been voted on to be worked out in 1911. Mr. Cromer insisted that I was wrong and asking to be excused, said that he would go to a nearby store and telephone to the County Treasurer regarding the matter.

Mr. Cromer said to the people present that if the money on hand amounting to the said $800.00 was of the 1910 levy the vote that was being taken would be off, and if as he alleged it would be applied as voted upon. Mr. Cromer read a purported tele-
