MACK'S STAR THIRD-BASEMAN BRINGS IN RUNS WITH TWO SMASHES.

"PEERLESS MATTY" POUNDED HARD GAME HARDEST FIGHT OF SERIES

Bender is Almost Invincible After Giants Make Two in First— Wittee Does Well in Box.

SHIBE PARK, PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 24.—(Special).—With J. Franklin Baker once more starring as chief trouble maker for the New York Giants, Connie Mack's Athletics today made it three to one in the world's championship series over the National league leaders.

The Athletics batted Mathewson all over the lot. He was yanked in the eighth, and Wittee went in as a forlorn hope. It proved forlorn. With two runs in the first inning, following a triple by Doyle, it looked dark for the Mackmen until the fourth.

Just to make it good, Baker along the ball again for two strikes in the last half of the sixth, scoring Collins, who had led off with a single.

In the Giants' half of the sixth, Doyle pulled off the prize home run play of the series. Barry fooled him by pretending to catch a grounder which went to Baker, and Doyle was caught thirty feet off.

New York—Devore singled; Doyle tripled, scoring Devore; Snodgrass flied to Lord; Doyle scoring on the throw in; Snodgrass is credited with a sacrifice; Murray out, Davis, unassisted; Merkle fanned. Two runs.

New York—Herzog flied to Oldring; Fletcher singled to left; Meyers forced Fletcher, Thomas to Collins; Mathewson out, Bender to Davis. No runs.

Philadelphia—Murray doubled into right field crowd; Murphy took third on Mathewson's wild throw trying to catch him off second; Murphy spiked Fletcher slightly; Davis out, Murphy tried the squeeze play and Murphy was caught between third and home when Barry failed to bunt; Meyers retired Murphy unassisted; Barry safe on infield hit; Thomas fouled to Meyers. No runs.

New York—Devore flied to Oldring; Doyle flied to Baker; Snodgrass was hitless as he came to bat in the third; Snodgrass out, Barry to Davis. No runs.

Philadelphia—Bender out, Fletcher to Merkle; Lord singled to right; Oldring forced Lord, Fletcher to Doyle; Collins fanned. No runs.

New York—Murray flied to Baker; Merkle fanned; Herzog tried to hunt but was out to Davis, unassisted. No runs.

Philadelphia—Baker doubled to left, Snodgrass slipping on the soggy field and overrunning the ball; Murphy doubled to left, scoring Baker; Davis doubled, scoring Murphy; Barry out, Herzog to Merkle, Davis taking third; Marquard, Ames and Crandall are warming up; Thomas flied to Murrup; Davis scoring; Bender out, Fletcher to Merkle. Three runs.

New York—Doyle walked; Snodgrass fanned; Murray flied to Baker and Doyle was doubled, Baker to Davis. No runs.

Doyle was doubled up on a brilliant play. Doyle started for second with the crack of Murray's bat, but was fooled when Barry pretended he had caught a grounder, Collins covering second. Doyle was caught thirty feet off first. If he had watched the play he would not have been doubled.

Philadelphia—Davis out, Herzog to Merkle; Barry doubled to center; Thomas out, Fletcher to Merkle; Bender out, Herzog to Merkle. No runs.

New York—Merkle fanned, Herzog flied to Oldring; Fletcher singled to center; Meyers out, Collins to Davis. No runs.

Philadelphia—Lord safe, Fletcher's fumble; Oldring sacrificed, Merkle to Doyle; Collins sacrificed to Merkle unassisted, Lord taking third; Baker walked; Murphy out to Merkle unassisted, on an attempted hit and run play. No runs.

New York—Becker, batting for Mathewson, out, Collins to Davis; Devore singled to left; Doyle forced Devore, Collins to Barry; Snodgrass safe when Baker fumbled his grounder; Murray fouled to Thomas. No runs.

Philadelphia—Davis fanned; Barry fanned; Barry doubled to right, and took third on Murray's wild throw to Fletcher; Murray gets error, Thomas grounded to Herzog and Barry was run down by Meyers and Herzog, Thomas taking second; Bender out, Merkle, unassisted. No runs.

New York—Baker doubled to right, Herzog out, Collins; Meyers out, Collins to Davis. No runs.

POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—(Special).—Fighting desperately to the last minute, the New York Giants today plucked victory from defeat and prevented the world's champion Athletics from again grabbing the title.

Then Snodgrass, who had shown nothing in the series, bunted and Doyle took third. Murray then flied to Murphy, but Doyle was held so close to third that he could not score on the throw.

With awe we watch the little seed— As moisture soon its life expels, Then tiny leaves the embryo form; Until maturity its kind foretells.

Look upon it while you may, Breathe its fragrance while yet fresh, Soon will come the frosty hand— To lay it silent upon earth's breast.

Born but to die its only quest? Think you it but a worthless thing? No! No! All nature seems to say "To lonely nooks you pleasure bring."

Is man a kin to nature's flowers? To brighten lonely nooks so dear? Born but to die with blighted frost? No! loftier talents we must rear.

Midnight in the Ozarks, and yet sleepless Hiram Scranton, of Clay City, Ill., coughed and coughed. He was in the mountains on the advice of five doctors, who said he had consumption, but found no help in the climate, and started home. Hearing of Dr. King's New Discovery, he began to use it. "I believe it saved my life," he writes "for it made a new man of me, so that I can now do good work again."

FARMERS ANNOYED BY PHEASANT HUNTERS

Many of the farmers living in the vicinity of Clackamas and Milwaukee are making complaint of hunters, mostly young men ranging from the ages of seventeen to nineteen years, trespassing upon their premises and hunting for Chinese pheasants, and who are probably not aware that there is a law preventing the shooting of Chinese pheasants for at least two years.

George Mooney, who owns a twenty-two-acre farm near Clackamas, was in this city Wednesday, and said that on Sunday last week he found several hunters and ordered them away. Mr. Mooney has taken an active interest in the Chinese pheasants, and feeds them the same as he does his chickens. There are more Chinese pheasants this year than last year, and by giving them the proper protection they will soon multiply. There is also a law against women wearing the pheasants' plumage, and there is a game warden who will not be killed for the decoration of headgear. The game warden will probably be on the lookout for hunters in this county from now on.

The program for the dedication was arranged by Mrs. Ella E. Risher and Professor Pringston, and Miss Draper, the latter two being the teachers. The board of directors is composed of H. C.
