FOOTBALL HALTED BY DEATH OF DIMICK

PORTLAND, Oct. 27.—(Special).—Announcement was made today by James Bach, faculty manager of the Columbia University football team, that the preparatory school would forego football for the season out of respect for the memory of Ralph Dimick, Columbia coach, whose death, as a result of injuries received in a recent game, caused gloom to settle over the Portland football field. The faculty decided to abolish football for the remainder of the season, out of respect to the memory of Ralph Dimick, the boys' beloved coach."

"The faculty deems that this action is consistent in view of the tragic death of the gridiron star and that it is the least it can do to honor his memory."

CUPID TRIUMPHS THO' GODS FAIL

BLOW-OUTS HALT CARS CONTAINING BRIDE-ELECT AND FIANCE IN RACE TO ALTAR.

COUNSELOR J. E. HEDGES TO RESCUE

C. E. Volpey and Margie Uding Are Married by Rev. J. O. Staats— Sheriff Mass Lends Helping Hand.

That misunderstandings, the unreliability of automobiles and other mishaps, cannot avert Dan Cupid's triumph, was proved in this city Tuesday night when C. E. Volpey, a rancher of Shorewood, and Miss Margie Uding, of Portland, were married at the courthouse by the Rev. J. O. Staats, following a romance, it is said that started in Iowa several years ago. But cupid cannot take all the credit for the victory for the little god of love was ably assisted by sixteen friends of the bride and bridegroom who came here in automobiles, and, late but not least, by J. E. Hedges, of this city.

Clarence Ireland, a wealthy ranch owner and Mr. Volpey started from Portland to this city in an automobile early in the afternoon to obtain their license. They had a blow-out when they arrived at the courthouse and they called Miss Quinn, deputy county clerk, over telephone, and she agreed to go to the courthouse and issue the license. They went to her home in Canby and brought her in the automobile to the office. Then arrangements were made with Mr. Staats to perform the ceremony. He was told that the bride-elect and her friends would arrive at 8 o'clock, when the ceremony was to be performed.

She did not arrive at the appointed time, however, and after waiting more than an hour and a half Mr. Ireland and Mr. Volpey decided to go to Portland to see what was the matter. Hardly had they left the city when Sheriff Mass and Mr. Hedges, who were walking along Main street, were stopped by an automobile party. Ex-Senator Caldwell and Dr. Littlefield, of Newburg, were members of the party. Mr. Caldwell had arrived in the Senate with Mr. Hedges and at once recognized him. The ex-senator explained that a wedding had been planned, the bride-to-be was in an automobile, which would arrive soon, but they could not find the man who was to become her husband, although they had searched the city high and low. Mr. Hedges and Mr. Mass agreed to assist in the search, but they also were unsuccessful.

Finally, Messrs. Volpey and Ireland returned from Portland, and just as Miss Uding and the members of her party were preparing to return to Portland the two parties met in front of the courthouse. Mr. Staats performed the ceremony, and the bride and bridegroom and their friends went to Portland. The witnesses to the marriage were Miss B. Franke and Mrs. Louise Wells. Mrs. Wells said that the party, of which she was a member, had been delayed by a blow-out the same as Mr. Volpey and his friends. There were three automobiles containing eighteen persons.

CAR CRASHES INTO AUTO INJURING TWO

What might have proved a fatal accident occurred at the electric car crossing at Greenpoint Friday afternoon, when an automobile driven by Gerald Warner, and containing Dr. Anderson, W. A. Schooley, Mrs. Peter Shriville and her little daughter, who were returning from Gladstone, where Mr. Schooley and Mr. Anderson had taken the woman and her little child to look at a piece of land, was struck by an electric car. The automobile was being driven at a moderate speed, and the driver and passengers did not see the electric car, as there was no signal sounded for the crossing by the motorman. The car struck the automobile with terrific force. Just before hitting the car the motorman sounded the whistle but it was too late for the automobile driver to clear the track. He jumped from the car. Mr. Schooley was struck by one of the automobile seats in the back and thrown from the machine. He was only slightly injured. Anderson, who was in the rear seat with Mrs. Shriville and the little girl remained in the automobile. The machine ran across a fence into the yard of the Straight home and struck the house. Anderson was thrown forward and out of the machine. His left leg was injured and he received a bad shaking up. The woman and child were uninjured.

The men who were in the automobile say that the electric car was running at a rate of about twenty miles an hour, and did not decrease its speed when nearing the crossing.

Myers, of Portland, performed the ring ceremony which was simple but impressive. The ring, which was carried by one of the flower girls, was buried in the heart of a beautiful rose. After the ceremony congratulations were received and the guests retired to the dining room, where a delicious luncheon was served.

Only the immediate friends and relatives of the bride and bridegroom were present. Many beautiful presents were received. Mr. and Mrs. Casto left on the evening train for Portland. The bridegroom tendered the mayor a substantial fee which Mr. Brownell declined. The happy young couple were delighted over the distinction of having caused the mayor to break a rule which he established when he assumed the duties of the office. Mr. Brownell, however, declared that he would not marry any more couples.

WEAK KIDNEYS MAKE WEAK BODIES.

Kidney Diseases Cause Half the Common Aches and Pains of Oregon City People.

As one weak link weakens a chain, so weak kidneys weaken the whole body and hasten the final breaking down.

Overwork, strains, colds and other causes injure the kidneys, and when their activity is lessened the whole body suffers from the excess of uric acid.

Aches and pains and languor and urinary ills come, and there is an ever-increasing tendency towards diabetes and fatal Bright's disease. There is no real help for the sufferer except kidney help.

Doan's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys and assist them in their work. Oregon City cures are the proof.

Mrs. John Beers, 204 Center St., Oregon City, Ore., says "Doan's Kidney Pills quickly relieved me of kidney and bladder trouble, evidenced by pain in my back and a tired feeling. Since taking this remedy, I can do my work without becoming worn out and my condition is better in every respect."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

SUED TWICE BY WIFE, HE DENIES CHARGES

The defendant in the divorce suit of Ida C. Bonner against Walter Bonner, Friday, through his attorneys Dimick & Dimick and J. E. Hodges, filed an answer in which he denies the charges of cruelty preferred by his wife. The couple were married twice, the first time in Goldendale, Wash., March 4, 1904. Mrs. Bonner obtained a divorce on a charge of cruelty and December 21, 1908, they were remarried. She alleged in her second petition that before the second marriage Bonner promised to treat her with more consideration. He admits that he tore a coffee mill from a wall of their kitchen, as she charges, but says he did not do it while angry. The mill, he declares, had not been used for some time, and his wife had tried to remove it. The defendant denies that his wife supported the family and says that he spent $500 and performed at least $800 worth of labor in repairing their home, for which he was to be given a half interest in it.

Bonner declares that when he left home, October 10, 1911, to work in Cumins' sawmill, his wife made him an affectionate farewell, and he had no idea she intended suing for a divorce. He further alleges that during his absence she sent his fourteen-year-old daughter Edna, by a former wife, to her mother, although he was the child's legal guardian. This, he avers, was done so the child could not be used as a witness against his wife.

The defendant asks that the suit be dismissed, and, in the event a decree is granted, that he be awarded a one-half interest in the home, which is in his wife's name. The property originally belonged to her and his claim is based on the money and time he spent in making the repairs.
