

The Secretive Jap

By ARTHUR W. BREWSTER

In America we have what we call self made men—that is, men so anxious to get on in the world that, beginning at the bottom round of the ladder, they climb till they reach the top. These men do this for themselves and often practice the greatest selfishness to attain their ends.

The Japanese have drifted into our navy as servants and have monopolized the field. When I was in command of the United States warship Albatross, I visited Japan and, in need of a body servant, brought away with me a man exactly five feet high and no more than sixteen and forty. No one could tell how old he was, and he gave no information on the subject himself.

After the fight, which started in the vestibule of an apartment house where Ulrich lived, at 11-12 East Sixty-third street, Dr. Washington was laid up at the hospital for several days with his right ear torn, his scalp cut and his face badly bruised.

Ulrich testified he found Washington in the vestibule of the apartment house, pushing into the keyhole of his door and that Washington struck the first blow. Mrs. Laura Alvarez, with whom Ulrich boarded, swore that when she passed Dr. Washington he said to her, "Hello, sweetheart."

Washington's story on the stand today was the same explanation he offered at the time of altercation. He swore that he was not peeking into any keyholes, that he was only searching the tenants' directory in an effort to find a family with whom he understood a friend was staying and denied positively that he had spoken to Mrs. Alvarez or any other woman.

Mr. Henry Combs was a Portland visitor Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. John Knight, of Portland, were visiting over Sunday his brother William Knight, of this city. Mr. Werf is moving into the house recently vacated by Mrs. Allen.

Glenn Coleman, who had his eye injured about a week ago, is able to attend school again. H. F. Madre, engineer for the Canal Company left for San Francisco Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Coffeen have moved to Portland. Mr. and Mrs. David Pierce are visiting their aunt, Mrs. H. S. Tice, of Adkins Mill.

Mrs. Hattie Hawk, of Portland, is visiting her brother, E. W. Hutchinson, and other relatives. Miss Wallie Harms, of Macksburg, and Mr. Hille Garrett, of Canby, were married November 1 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Garrett and Harry Garrett attended the wedding.

Queen Esther Cantata, under the supervision of J. R. Newton, will be played Thanksgiving week. About thirty people are practicing. Tom Mellem has sold his ten acre tract east of town to Mr. Lee, who moves in as soon as Mr. Warf moves out.

Carl Smith has accepted a position in the store of C. Wang & Co., as Ralph Mandeville has resigned. George Koehler was a Portland visitor last Saturday. Eugene Ogle returned from Oregon City last Saturday morning.

Everybody is enjoying the fine weather. Farmers are busy hauling potatoes, and from the amount of work coming, everybody will keep warm this winter. Robert Britt has gone to a Portland hospital to be operated on. Pete Hornig is drilling a well for Fred Holzman.

The Ladies Aid of the Christian Church met at the home of Mrs. O. R. Mack. The afternoon was spent in sewing.

Mrs. Edna Carr was visiting relatives in Canby last week. Warren Batey has leased the old Latourette place for three years, and will try farming.

FREE ASSAILANT OF WASHINGTON

FAMOUS NEGRO EDUCATOR FAILS TO PROVE CASE AGAINST WHITE MAN.

DEFENDANT HELD AS WIFE-DESERTER

Matron Declares Head of Southern College Greeted Her With "Hello, Sweetheart"—One Judge Dissents.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Booker T. Washington, noted negro educator, failed to obtain satisfaction at law today for the beating which he received at the hands of Henry A. Ulrich, a white man, Sunday evening, March 19. Ulrich was acquitted in the Court of Special Sessions this afternoon, of the charge of assault which Dr. Washington had preferred against him.

After the fight, which started in the vestibule of an apartment house where Ulrich lived, at 11-12 East Sixty-third street, Dr. Washington was laid up at the hospital for several days with his right ear torn, his scalp cut and his face badly bruised.

Ulrich testified he found Washington in the vestibule of the apartment house, pushing into the keyhole of his door and that Washington struck the first blow. Mrs. Laura Alvarez, with whom Ulrich boarded, swore that when she passed Dr. Washington he said to her, "Hello, sweetheart."

He swore that he was not peeking into any keyholes, that he was only searching the tenants' directory in an effort to find a family with whom he understood a friend was staying and denied positively that he had spoken to Mrs. Alvarez or any other woman.

The acquittal of Ulrich was not unanimous, Justice O'Keefe dissenting from the opinions of Justices Moss and Sellen. After Ulrich left the court he was arrested again charged with being a fugitive from New Jersey, where an indictment has been found charging him with deserting his wife.

Mr. and Mrs. John Knight, of Portland, were visiting over Sunday his brother William Knight, of this city. Mr. Werf is moving into the house recently vacated by Mrs. Allen.

BANKER EVARS IS CALLED VILLIAN

CASHIER OF INSTITUTION GOES TO JAIL IN DEFAULT OF $15,000 BOND.

TWO OTHER OFFICERS ARE ACCUSED

District Attorney Ask To Tell Whether Any Witnesses For State Have Been Assured Immunity.

CORVALLIS, Or., Nov. 4.—Refusing to make any defense and counselled by W. S. McPadden, of counsel for the state, as a "designing villain whose operations seethed with corruption," James Evars, cashier of the suspended First State Bank of Philomath, was today held by Justice Lane to the grand jury for two alleged violations of the state banking law.

In default of bail aggregating $15,000 on the two charges Evars was remanded to jail pending the convening of the grand jury November 24. In the preliminary examination of Evars, W. H. Fowler, of Portland, who with Charles H. Glos, of this city, appeared for the bank cashier, made a formal demand on Justice Lane that warrants of arrest be issued for A. J. Williams and S. T. Wyatt, president and director, respectively, of the embarrassed bank, alleging that these officers were equally guilty with Evars for the suspension of the bank.

Attorney Fowler also insisted that the District Attorney's office be required to announce whether or not witnesses for the state, particularly R. O. Arpe, assistant cashier of the bank, had been assured immunity from prosecution in return for their testimony for the prosecution.

APPLICATIONS MADE EARLY FOR FAIR SPACE

GLADYS SLOPER, secretary of Harding Grange, has notified the Clackamas County Fair Association that it will take the space occupied by its exhibit this year at the meeting next fall.

The Grange had one of the finest exhibits at the recent fair and expects to have a much finer one next year. Chairman also has notified Secretary Lazelle that it will have an exhibit at the next fair. Never in the history of the association have applications for space been made as early as this, and the prospects for the next fair are most flattering.

STEVENS SCORES STREET POLICY

CHARTER BOARD MEMBER SAYS MUCH OF THE WORK IS UNNECESSARY.

COUNCIL DEFENDED BY RECORDER

Andresen and Holman Excuse Themselves When Colloquy Grows Interesting—Tooze Takes Part in Debate.

H. E. Stevens, one of the largest property owners in Oregon City, who is a member of the charter board, which he is a member, Wednesday evening, excoriated the city council for its extensive street improvements. He suggested that a different method be provided in the revised charter. Mr. Stevens declared that it would take forty years to pay for some of the work that is being done.

Recorder Stipp, another member of the board, took exceptions to some of the statements of Mr. Stevens, and an animated colloquy between them resulted. Meanwhile Messrs. Andresen and Holman, members of the board, excused themselves and went home. That left only Chairman Harding, Secretary Stipp and Messrs. Tooze and Stevens, a bare quorum. Messrs. Stevens and Stipp disagreed radically as to the work on Washington street between Sixth and Seventh in front of the former's property.

This block was improved several years ago by the property owners, and Mr. Stevens contended that the recent improvement by the city was unnecessary. Mr. Stipp contended that it was absolutely necessary. "Why that is the best street in the city," declared Mr. Stevens. "Yes, since the city improved it," retorted Mr. Stipp.

"The last improvement was not necessary," said Mr. Stevens. "It was necessary," replied Mr. Stipp. "The old street was not satisfactory—it wasn't worth anything. Rollers went through it."

Mr. Stevens then declared that the improvement of Monroe street to be made at a cost of more than $24,000 was unnecessary. This is part of the work he said the residents of the city would be paying for for the next forty years. Mr. Tooze happens to live on Monroe street, and he has proved hard to have street improved. He and H. E. Cross, another extensive property owner, who opposes the work, have argued the question before the council. Consequently Mr. Tooze was pretty well fortified with arguments.

Several times during the debate Mr. Stipp told Mr. Stevens he (the latter) "was mistaken" and Mr. Stevens' retorts courteous were "you don't know what you are talking about."

In regard to the proposed increase of delegates, it was declared that there is no city in Oregon except Portland with accommodations of any kind for an increased delegation, and that the plan of requiring subordinate granges to pay their delegates' expenses would virtually prevent attendance from those at a great distance, thus putting it in the power of manipulators to select a grange center to suit their convenience, whether a populous or sparsely settled one.

ANDRESEN GOES FOR MAYORALTY

CHAIRMAN OF FINANCE COMMITTEE PREVAILED UPON TO MAKE RACE.

PETITION SIGNED BY 400 VOTERS

Friends Declare That President of Council Will Have No Opposition—Has Served City Six Years.

WILLIAM ANDRESEN, president of the city council, who has been urged for several weeks to make the race for the mayoralty, Saturday afternoon announced his candidacy for the office. He is the first man to offer for the office, and his friends are of opinion that he will have no opposition.

Mr. Andresen has rendered valuable service to the city as chairman of the finance committee of the council and is conversant with all city affairs. More than 400 voters signed the petition to have him make the race. He has been a member of the council six years and recently announced that he would not be a candidate for re-election. His letter to the citizens of the city announcing his candidacy for mayor follows: "Feeling it my duty to extend my appreciation to the citizens, who have so unhesitatingly signed the petition asking that my name be placed on the ballot for mayor, at the city election to be held Monday, December 4, 1911, I wish to extend my heartfelt thanks for the high esteem in which my services as chairman of the finance committee are held."

"After careful consideration, I respectfully accept the nomination, and, if elected, my aim shall be to execute all city affairs impartially and as faithfully and conscientiously as my ability will allow."

ESTACADA POWER PLANT IN OPERATION

The river wall dam and powerhouse at Estacada is in operation. President Joeselyn, of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company was present at the opening. The plant has a total capacity of 10,000 kilowatts, which will be generated within a short time. Machinery for the complete equipment of the power station has been ordered and is on the way.

The dam is one of the new American type and is hollow, part of the machinery being placed in the interior. A given amount of cement and steel, it has been proved, will resist a greater volume of water if erected in the shape of a hollow form than if built in a solid mass, as in the dams of the old type. This dam cost $2,000,000.

With Mr. Joeselyn when the dam was opened were F. W. Hill, general manager of the company; F. D. Hunt, traffic manager and B. Caldwell, superintendent of the light and power department.

AMENDMENTS ARE OPPOSED BY GRANGE

GRESHAM, Or., Nov. 8.—Rockwood Grange voted unanimously against the proposed amendments to the constitution of the Oregon State Grange. The matter was thoroughly discussed after the executive committee had disapproved of the amendments, and the vote sustained the committee.

It was urged that there is no necessity to increase the State Grange per capita tax, as conservative handling of the funds has given the treasury a large surplus, which is increased each year by the addition of new subordinate granges.

In regard to the proposed increase of delegates, it was declared that there is no city in Oregon except Portland with accommodations of any kind for an increased delegation, and that the plan of requiring subordinate granges to pay their delegates' expenses would virtually prevent attendance from those at a great distance, thus putting it in the power of manipulators to select a grange center to suit their convenience, whether a populous or sparsely settled one.

WHOLESALE JOBBERS continue to shade their sugar quotations and sales at this time are general 50c per hundred pounds under the prices listed. The list price of sugar is unchanged and purchases are billed out at that figure, but the amount of the cut is deducted when the bills are paid.

HOOD RIVER, Or., Nov. 7.—(Special.)—The latest thing in Hood River fruit for the public is canned apples, the big plant just installed by the Hood River Apple Vinegar Company having been started up today. The canning plant employs fifty hands and with labor-saving machinery also can turn out sixteen gallon cans of apples per minute. The apples used are culls which Hood River growers refuse to put on the market and when canned will go to bakeries and hotels for pies and apple sauce. Among them are the famous Splinterberg, Yellow Newtown, Orthers and other varieties slightly blemished. This is the first year canning has been resorted to to work up the poorer quality of Hood River apples and the result is expected to be so successful that plans are already being discussed by the company to enlarge the apple canning department of its plant next year.

BEST EGGS SELLING FOR 40 CENTS HERE Eggs are selling at retail from 35c to 40c in Oregon City. With cash buyers eagerly offering 40c a dozen for fresh rank eggs a dozen for Portland, the jobbing price Monday moved to 42 1/2c a dozen, although there are some who still insist that fresh eggs should not be quoted above 40c.

THREE BALL TEAMS TO HAVE NEW MANAGERS

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Three American league teams, Chicago, Washington and Cleveland, will have new managers next season. The Chicago White Sox will be under the leadership of Jimmy Callahan. Callahan replaces Hugh Duffy, who will take charge of the Milwaukee team in the American Association, at the helm of Comiskey's team.

The Washington team will be managed by Foxy Clarke Griffith, who for the past two seasons managed the Cincinnati team in the National league. McAleer, who formerly managed the Washington team, is now part owner of the Boston Red Sox.

The Cleveland team and its bunch of highly praised players, will have for their manager Harry Davis, twice a member of the world's champions. Davis replaces George Stovall, who brought the Naps from sixth place to third place in the 1911 American league pennant race. Stovall did great work with the Cleveland team and deserves more credit than he has been given for his work with the Naps.

It is said the New York Yankees will dispose of Hal Chase as their leader in 1912 and are after Harry Wolverton, who led the Oakland (Coast League club) last season. It would not be surprising to hear that Charles Farrell would try and secure George Stovall to manage his team next season.

Whether McAleer will replace Patsy Donovan with a new manager next season has not been decided yet, but it is possible that the former Washington manager will take his place on the field as manager.

Bobby Wallace, who led the St. Louis team through the 1911 race, is said, will be replaced by some other manager next season, but this is talk that has been floating around for some time.

RODGERS TO BE FIELD HEAD OF PORTLAND

PORTLAND, Nov. 6.—(Special.)—William K. Rodgers, second baseman of the Portland Beavers, will be captain of the 1912 Coast League club, presided over by Walter McCredie.

Manager McCredie made the announcement today and further corroborated reports that Tommy Sheehan, who captained the champions from the third station last season, would not again appear with Portland. "I don't know what will become of Sheehan," said Manager McCredie. "Tommy belongs to Brooklyn, from which club he jumped a reserve contract three or four years ago. I tried to buy him last spring but Ebbetts refused to sell. Rodgers, I think, will head the team in 1912."

WHOLESALE JOBBERS WIN BIG SUGAR FIGHT

WHOLESALE JOBBERS continue to shade their sugar quotations and sales at this time are general 50c per hundred pounds under the prices listed. The list price of sugar is unchanged and purchases are billed out at that figure, but the amount of the cut is deducted when the bills are paid.

Practically everyone is still loaded up with sugar. Jobbers have made more money from the recent advances than ever before in the history of the business. They purchased huge supplies much in advance of the time of delivery, and when the stock was delivered the market was always far beyond what they paid for the stock. While they are now in a hurry to let go of their supplies—in fact most of them have unloaded three quarters of their speculation—their profits are still very heavy even at the cut figures.

TEACHER VISITS PARENTS. Miss Mary A. Scott, Formerly of This City, Sees Model Railroad. Miss Mary A. Scott, who is a teacher of the primary grade at the Trout Lake, Wash., school, arrived in this city Wednesday evening for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Scott, until this evening, when she will return to Trout Lake to resume her duties. Miss Scott has been at Goldendale, Wash., where she has been attending a three days' session of the teachers' institute of Klickitat county. While the teachers were at that place they were well entertained, and one of the excursions given them was the visit to the model road, three miles of which have been constructed by J. K. Hill, this road costing $1,700,000. Mr. Hill expects the county to complete it in the near future, he having gone to the expense of building part.

PARK BAND STAND MAY BE REMOVED

COUNCIL CONSIDERS PLAN OF LOCATING PUBLIC COMFORT STATION ON SITE.

MANY COMPLAIN OF ASSESSMENTS

Meeting With Officials of Clackamas Southern to be Held to Consider Alleged Violation of Franchise.

The city council Tuesday evening virtually abandoned the plan of building a public comfort station in McLoughlin Park, and the Finance Committee was instructed to look into the feasibility of locating it in the Seventh Street Park. The Woman's Club, which was instrumental in having the McLoughlin home restored and establishing the park, objected to the building being on the beautiful grounds. Several suggestions were made regarding the location of the station in Seventh Street Park, and it was the consensus of opinion that it should be on the site of the present band stand. One or two of the councilmen thought that stand should be removed, and others thought it would be a good plan to raise the structure and have the station under it. A report will be made at the next meeting of the council.

Mayor Brownell appointed Messrs. Andresen, Meyer and Roake a committee to draft resolutions on the death of Rudolph Koerner, formerly president of the council. The improvement of Twelfth street by the Oregon Engineering & Construction Company was called again to the attention of the council.

Attention was called again to the alleged violation of its franchise by the Clackamas Southern Railway Company in the building of the trestle across Washington street at Fourteenth. It is contended that the trestle is only ten and one-half feet above the street, although the franchise provides that it must be twelve feet above the street. G. B. Dimick, secretary of the company, denies emphatically that the bridge has not been built according to the terms of the franchise. The street committee was authorized to meet with the officers of the company and make an investigation.

Colonel C. H. Dye declared that the assessment for work on Ninth street in front of property owned by him was excessive. The council will make an investigation today. The following were granted reductions in assessments for street work: Chambers Howell, $50; Charles Hanafor, $25; Margaret Herzog, $25 and Mrs. S. A. Chase, $25. Several objections were made to the assessments for the sewer in District No. 6.

HOOD RIVER, Or., Nov. 7.—(Special.)—The latest thing in Hood River fruit for the public is canned apples, the big plant just installed by the Hood River Apple Vinegar Company having been started up today. Eastern storage eggs are generally quoted at 27 1/2c a dozen for ordinary lots with selected at 28 to 30c. Eastern "fresh" are quoted at 32 to 35c a dozen.

A further advance of 1/2c a pound has been forced in the price of local cheese by Portland sellers. Tillamook offerings of fresh stock are unusually light; in fact present stocks are there are nominal. Higher prices are likewise being asked by Cheese of City makers. The market is firmer everywhere for fresh stock and locally flats are quoted at 16 to 12c higher, at least some are asking a greater differential than this.

NEW ERA.

Mrs. M. Stauber left Tuesday for Chehalis, Washington, to visit her three daughters and son.

Mrs. Fred Sichenhalter was up to visit her mother, Mrs. Joe Rief, last Sunday.

Wedding bells will soon ring again for several of our new Era maidens. Cupid has been pretty busy lately among the bachelors in this burg.

Mr. and Mrs. Meyers and two young ladies, friends from Minnesota, who are visiting here, were given a surprise party Saturday evening and a large crowd was there. All enjoyed themselves to full extent and were served with a good lunch. All departed at a late hour, hoping they

Mrs. Wurfel's sister, from Portland, is visiting her and son, from Reeves, Ill. are visiting his brother-in-law, Mr. Phelps. They will go from here to California, where they are looking for a location.

Miss Anderson's sister, from Astoria, is visiting her. Miss Anderson went to Portland Saturday and her sister came home with her. R. E. Irwin received the sad news of the death of his step-father, whom he visited in Iowa a short time ago. The teachers in Mr. Calvin's district held a meeting here Saturday afternoon. Through a misunderstanding the teachers of our school asked the patrons to assist them in providing a dinner for the teachers, as Mr. Calvin notified our teachers the meeting would be Nov. 4, Miss Anderson and Miss Lewis supposed it would be an all day meeting. A lunch was spread and all waited for teachers, but none appeared until 1 o'clock. The teachers were then invited to partake of the lunch but could not do full justice as they had all had dinner, and was quite a disappointment to all. There were about 12 teachers present. Miss Anderson gave a talk on primary reading. Miss Lewis on advanced reading and Mr. Coleman on a new method in addition.

Boy Hurt in Fall. James Bailey, son of J. M. Bailey, of Gladstone, sustained a fracture of his left arm in a fall from a raft.

Demand for swine supplies was somewhat slow and the market closed steady to a quarter lower. $7.00 seems to be the extreme top and shippers, from coast sources continued liberal, and markets in the East retained bearish sentiment to the extent to support better than a seven-cent market.

Sheep house trade steady to lighter and yearlings realized $3.85 and $4; ewes $3.15 to $3.25. Prices 15 to 25 cents over last week. Buyers were evidently short on mutton and a very satisfactory market ruled every day. Lambs sold at a wide range, with $4.50 established as a new top. Receipts contained both choice and poor quality. Killers got the good ones and the inferior grades went to the feed lots.
