

HUSBAND TO SUE OREGON CITY GIRL

WILLARD METCALF BEAM, HOWEVER, WANTS WIFE TO GET DIVORCE.

SOCIETY MAN DOESN'T LIKE GOTHAM

Determination of Singer to Live in New York, He Says, is Cause of All Their Trouble.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—(Special.)—Announcement was made today that Willard Metcalf Beam, nephew of Victor H. Metcalf, secretary of the navy in former President Roosevelt's cabinet, would sue for a divorce in May from his young wife, the contralto singer who was Mary Adele Case of Oregon City, Or., before her marriage in January, 1910.

"I had my lawyer write to my wife that she could sue for divorce on any ground she liked, I didn't care," said Beam.

The young husband's reason for seeking a divorce is that his wife would not live in California.

"My wife wanted to live in New York," he explained, "but I would live anywhere but in California, and I told her that if she wouldn't live in California we had better separate."

That was in New York last May. I came out to California, which is the only place where I would live.

"She wants to return to the stage. I'll wait until the statutory period has expired, which will be next May and then I'll sue for divorce on the ground of desertion if my wife doesn't sue first. I don't care much how it comes out. There will be no trouble about the property. Anything that I have given her is hers. She's entitled to it. We never had any difficulty over money matters and won't."

Willard Metcalf Beam is well connected in this city. He is the son of the late I. Willard Beam, who was a prominent and prosperous business man. His mother was married last month to Charles Arthur Kelly. His sister is Mrs. G. L. Wakeman of Oakland.

Mrs. Willard Beam had a high reputation as a soloist when she left the concert stage for matrimony. As Mary Adele Case she sang in concerts in this city and Oakland, as well as throughout the country. She made her debut in the East and was highly spoken of. She went to Paris to perfect her art. She sang in this city in November, 1909. While here she was the guest of Mrs. Beam, her husband's mother, at the family residence, 903 Fell street. Prior to her marriage to Beam, she was reported engaged to a son of John D. Spreckles of San Francisco.

The couple were married at Calvary Presbyterian church, this city, in January, 1910. In the following September there were rumors of trouble in the Beam family, but they were silenced by the fact that the pair lived together in Portland subsequently. But the marital happiness did not last. For in May of this year there was a separation in New York and in May of next year there will be a divorce, if not sooner. Beam is a society man.

Declaring that he was cruel to her and struck her while they were living in Coville county, Wash., May Harris Thursday filed suit for a divorce from C. I. Harris. She says she was forced to leave him, and since then he has been interfering with her work, and trying to keep her from making a living for herself and her thirteen-year-old daughter. They were married July 4, 1896, in Lincoln, Neb.

Inez E. Winston seeks a divorce from William Winston, alleging that he deserted her October 19, 1910. They were married in St. Louis, July 31, 1910. George Seydel sued B. C. Seydel, alleging desertion. They were married in Pueblo, Col., November 30, 1903.

WIFE, IN SUIT, SAYS SHE WAS PRISONER

Ida West filed suit Monday for a divorce from Charles H. West, alleging cruelty. They were married May 31, 1910. The plaintiff says that while they were living at 406 Vancouver avenue, Portland, soon after their marriage, her husband refused to let her leave their home, declaring that he believed she wanted to go out to meet a man. She says she even would not let her go on the streets with her mother. The plaintiff was formerly the wife of Albert Montgomery, and asks that she be restored to that name.

Ethel L. A. Molineux, sued Arthur William Molineux for divorce, alleging abandonment. They were married in Boulder, Col., March 6, 1909, and she says he left her October 23, 1910. She says that her maiden name, Ethel L. A. Tucker, be restored.

WIFE IN SUIT SAYS HUSBAND IS SCOLD

Declaring that he is a scold and treated her cruelly Katherine F. Bock filed suit Friday against August F. Bock. They were married June 14, 1911. The plaintiff alleged that her husband frequently told her that he wished he had never seen her and he was sorry that he married her. She declares that he struck her November 6, 1911.

Ruby Greenwood filed suit for a divorce against Henry Greenwood, alleging desertion. They were married in The Dalles May 15, 1904. She asks for the custody of their child, Morris.

Mrs. Viola Ashbaugh, of this city, and Mr. William Morris, of Monroe, Or., were married in this city Monday evening, Judge R. B. Beattie performing the ceremony. The marriage was very quiet, and immediately after the ceremony the bride and bridegroom left for Portland, and will leave for their home at Monroe today.

Mrs. Morris is well known in this city, and is a daughter of the late Isaac Farr. Her mother is one of Oregon City's well known settlers. The bride has a host of friends in this city who extend their best wishes. The bridegroom is a well known young business man of Monroe, where he has lived for some time.

Miss Fay Izora Leek, the only daughter of E. L. Leek, was married at noon Sunday to James R. Livesay at the home of the bride's parents, Justice of the Peace Samson officiating. After the ceremony a delightful dinner was served. There were more than fifty guests, all of whom, excepting Mr. and Mrs. Samson, were relatives of the bride and bridegroom. Mr. Livesay is a farmer of Clackamas Heights.

SUMMONED BY LETTER, HE PAYS FINE OF $10

It was not necessary to send a constable for John Darnelle, formerly of Liberal, who was accused by Charles Kerns of assault. Before the alleged assault Darnelle had rented a farm at Waido Hills. When Kerns made the charge, Justice of the Peace Samson wrote to Darnelle, who immediately replied that he would appear in the court on the day set for the trial. He arrived promptly Tuesday morning, and after hearing the evidence, Mr. Samson fined him $10, which he paid. According to the evidence Kerns turned his hops in a public road, and Darnelle told him it was against the law. Darnelle said Kerns cursed him and made a motion as if to draw a pistol, whereupon he (Darnelle) picked up a rock, but he said he did not throw it.

WOMAN ARRESTED ON BENCH WARRANT

Judge Campbell Friday set the trial of Mrs. Jane Tweedy, charged with threatening to shoot a neighbor, for next Wednesday. The trial was to have been last Wednesday, but the defendant, who was out on a bond of $1,200, did not put in an appearance, and Judge Campbell issued a bench warrant for her. Sheriff Mass learned that she had moved from Logan, where she is alleged to have pointed a shotgun at a man named Allen, to Woodburn, where he found her and served the warrant. There is no provision in the county jail for women and Mrs. Tweedy was allowed to go to a hotel. She is married and has five children.

Trembath, deputy fish warden, testified that he saw Smith with a salmon in a basket at midnight April 6. J. Pierce, who was with Trembath that night, testified to the same thing. They declared they entered the barn and saw the defendant and the fish by the light of matches. Smith denied that he had the fish, and his testimony was corroborated by another witness.

ANOTHER TEACHER TO BE EMPLOYED

BOARD DECIDES INCREASE IS NECESSARY TO RELIEVE CONGESTION.

MRS. E. B. PORTER TO GET PLACE

Increase of Ninety-seven Pupils Over Last Year Making Total of 938—Reflects City's Growth.

To relieve the congestion in the Board of Directors Public Schools, the Board of Directors Monday night authorized the employment of Mrs. E. B. Porter as an additional grade teacher. In the third and fourth grades of the Eastman and Barclay buildings there are about 200 pupils, an average of 50 to the room, which is altogether too great a number to secure satisfactory results. City Superintendent Toose will give the new teacher about 40 pupils, making a combination third and fourth grade room, and this will leave each of the present teachers of the third and fourth grades 40 pupils each. One of the class rooms in the new high school building will be fitted up for the combination grade. There are now 938 students enrolled in the city schools, an increase of 97 over the enrollment of one month ago, showing conclusively that the city is growing and that the population is rapidly increasing.

The Board of Directors will hold a special meeting on the night of December 4 for the express purpose of preparing the budget for the 1912 school year, and upon this budget will be based the recommendation for a special tax which must be levied, according to law, prior to December 15. The school tax levy last year in Oregon City was nine mills, and it is not likely that the tax for the coming school year will be less, as the expenditures have materially increased because of the increased enrollment and the betterment of the standard of the schools.

Substitute teachers will hereafter receive $2.75 per day, regardless of the salary paid the teacher for whom substitution is made. The regular teacher will receive the difference between her salary and that paid the substitute in the event that consecutive employment does not continue more than a week. Superintendent Toose proposes to give temporary substitute work to high school students, who expect to fit themselves for teaching, and these students will receive $1.50 a day.

EXHIBIT REFLECTS COUNTY'S RESOURCES

The display in the Promotion Office is the largest since the Commercial Club opened its advertising office opposite the Court House. The Crown-Columbia Pulp & Paper Company installed an exhibit of paper Thursday, which is interesting to tourists and strangers that come to this city. This exhibit represents the various kinds of wrapping paper which is used by retail stores such as drugs, hardware, dry goods and grocery stores.

George W. Waldron, of Crescent Ridge has a display of beets and radishes and pears which is very creditable for his section, but the potato exhibit is taking the lead at present. G. Marquardt, of Clarkes, has extra fine specimens of the Gold Coin variety in the office. Fred Steiner, of Beaver Creek, is displaying a sample of American Wonders. Among the other potato exhibitors are G. T. Watts of Stone, M. Justin of Wilhoit, Berd Bird of Wilhoit, and J. Schirvin of Clackamas Heights.

D. A. Anderson, of Maple Lane, has a fine display of various kinds of vegetables, also of almond nuts grown on his farm. Phillip Strieb, Mayor of Milwaukie, says that Clackamas county is an ideal place to grow walnuts and to substitute his statement has a fine display of Franquette, Marquette and Webb walnuts.

George DeBok, of Willamette, has astonished the farmers by exhibiting a radish that weighs twelve pounds. William Schatz, of Stafford, has a fine display of grapes, and Guol Brothers, of Clarkes, have a turnip that weighs sixteen pounds. Mr. Rodermel, of Clackamas Station, is exhibiting fine onions. R. G. Pierce, of Falls View, has a fine plate of Jonathan Apples.

SHORT HAUL RATE IS GIVEN SETBACK

COMMERCE COURT ENJOINS ORDER GRANTED BY INTERSTATE BOARD.

INVESTIGATION IS TO BE MADE

Decision Not Expected For Several Months And An Appeal To Supreme Court is Probable.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Expected reduction of trans-continental railroad freight rates was held up today when the Court of Commerce granted a temporary injunction against the order of the Interstate Commerce Commission in what popularly are known as the Spokane and other Pacific Coast points rate cases.

The cases involve not only the "back haul" freight rates to Spokane and other inter-mountain points from Pacific Coast terminals, but also the application of the long and short-haul clause of the law. The effect of the Commission's order was to reduce the freight rates from Atlantic seaboard points to Inter-Rocky Mountain destinations.

In the reduction of the trans-continental rates, the Commission recognized the effect of water competition on the Pacific Coast, but held substantially that the rates from the East to cities like Spokane and Reno should be lower than the existing rates.

In the circumstances it is regarded as likely that whatever the judgment of that court may be, the controversy will be carried to the Supreme Court.

HIGH GRADE SPUDS WANTED IN SOUTH

Jobbers report a fair demand for quality potatoes for shipment to the Southern markets, but for other than fancy stock the market outlook was declared to be anything but favorable, for the immediate future at least. Oregon potatoes now going to California have to sell in competition with the best produced in that state, and if the views of dealers are correct the proportion of high-grade stock in the Oregon crop this year is relatively small.

"The output of strictly fancy potatoes in this state this year will probably be just about equal that of 1910," said a buyer. "On the other hand, the state has a crop of second and third-grade spuds a good deal bigger than that of last year, and this inferior stuff is the weak factor in the market at this time."

COUNTY TO COMPETE IN BIG APPLE SHOW

Secretary Lazelle, of the Promotion Department of the Commercial Club, said Friday that Clackamas county would have a fine exhibit at the Portland Apple Show which begins next Wednesday. The apples will be shipped from this city by boat Tuesday noon. All persons who contemplate contributing to the exhibit are urged to have their products at the Promotion Building not later than Monday afternoon. Mr. Lazelle went to Portland Friday afternoon and completed arrangements with Frank W. Powers, Secretary of the Oregon State Horticultural Society for the exhibit. A space twenty feet long and ten feet wide has been allowed this county. The show will be held in the Yacht Building. The display will consist of Jonathan, Northern Spy, Spitzenberg, Wagner, Gano and King.

FINE APPLES ARE GROWN BY C. E. NASH

C. E. Nash, who spent a month at Winlock, Wheeler county, Eastern Oregon, returned to Oregon City Monday morning. Mr. Nash recently purchased a ranch consisting of 880 acres, ten acres of which are in apples, and part of the other land in potatoes, and the former compare with the Hood River apples in flavor, size and appearance. The potatoes, which were brought here were eleven and twelve inches long, and were a cross between the Burbank and Early Rose. The apples were without blemish. Mr. Nash, before returning here, sold fifty boxes of apples at $1.50 a box.

Mr. Nash stated that the snow was about four inches deep in Winlock when he left and at Hood River when he passed through that place the young people were skating. He will remain here for about two weeks, and will be accompanied to Winlock by his family on his return.

ZIVNEY CASE DISMISSED. Judge Campbell Tuesday dismissed the case of the state against W. H. Zivney and Anna Guenther, accused of assault by Mrs. Mary Zivney. She alleged that she went to the home of Zivney, from whom she had been divorced, to see one of her children, and that he and Mrs. Gunther attacked her. The accused were fined $50 each in Justice of the Peace Davidson's court. An appeal was taken and Judge Campbell dismissed the case on the ground that the Justice of the Peace failed to turn in a copy of the complaint with the transcript of the evidence.

ZIVNEY CASE DISMISSED. Judge Campbell Tuesday dismissed the case of the state against W. H. Zivney and Anna Guenther, accused of assault by Mrs. Mary Zivney. She alleged that she went to the home of Zivney, from whom she had been divorced, to see one of her children, and that he and Mrs. Gunther attacked her. The accused were fined $50 each in Justice of the Peace Davidson's court. An appeal was taken and Judge Campbell dismissed the case on the ground that the Justice of the Peace failed to turn in a copy of the complaint with the transcript of the evidence.
