Canby and North Clackamas

CANBY.
 Roy Knight and Tom Johnson left this week to work with the steam shovel.
 Frank Dodge has erected a new barn on his place north of town.
 Mr. Church has moved into the house recently vacated by Mr. Masterton.
 Alberta Gilmore is on the sick list.
 Mr. and Mrs. Will Rice, of Millbank, S. D., are visiting friends and relatives in Canby and surrounding country this week.
 C. E. Lucke shipped out a carload of hogs Wednesday of this week.
 Pearl and Nellie Hampton were visiting their sister, Mrs. Volney White, of Marquam, this week.
 The Canby Creamery is doing a rushing business.
 Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Sr. was visiting their daughter Mrs. Solan Kinzer, of Sandy, this week.
 Margaret Higgenbotham, "Hello" girl of Aurora, was calling on the "Hello" girls of Canby between trains Sunday afternoon.
 The Canby Canal Committee had a surveying party out this week. Your correspondent didn't learn what their intentions were, but presumably another railroad.
 Earl Robbins, who has been attending college in Seattle, has returned home.
 Mrs. George Ogle has a Christmas cactus which certainly is a beauty. The plant is of uniform size and is one mass of blooms, redish-pink in color. Mrs. Ogle counted one hundred and five perfect flowers on the plant at one time.
 The Southern Pacific Company, with the help of individuals will plat the grounds around the depot and make a park. A florist of Portland will furnish the rose bushes. J. R. Newton is the promoter of the good plan. Other individuals will be asked to help.

The Canby Canal Committee contemplates walling the well that supplies the city with water, with concrete.
 Mr. and Mrs. Otis Morris, of Aurora, were visiting friends in Canby Sunday.
 Louis Pope, who was confined to her bed for a week with a severe cold, is able to sit up.
 Gilbert Hutchinson is better.
 Hattie Meyers, of Portland, is home for a week's visit with her mother.
He Never Got His Money.
 Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve cured his eyes and he did not want it. Painless and harmless, 25c at all dealers. For sale by Harding's Drug Store.
TWILIGHT.
 The "silver thaw" did a great deal of damage to our telephone line.
 Mrs. Emily Shaw, school supervisor, visited the school last Friday.
 Mr. Henry Scheer, who has been confined to his home for a month by sickness, is not improving as his friends would wish.
 Miss Marie Harvey was a Sunday guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Harvey.
 George M. Lazelle and M. J. Lazelle attended the Congregational Brotherhood Tuesday evening at Oregon City.
 Mrs. Henry Scheer received the sad intelligence of the death of her sister, Mrs. Lessie Russell, of Wauatche, Wash. Mrs. Russell has many friends here, formerly being a resident of Mount Pleasant. She leaves to mourn her loss four small children, besides a father, mother and many other relatives.
 Mrs. A. H. Harvey is suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism. Wallace McCord has accepted a position with the telephone company. A meeting was held in Twilight hall Sunday evening, when a Community Club was organized with twenty members. The following officers were elected: President, George Lazelle; vice-president, Curtis Dodds; secretary, B. L. Harvey; treasurer, Leslie McDonald; sergeant-at-arms, Mr. Bullard.

 School commenced Monday with Mr. Warner as teacher. He is lately from the East and comes well recommended, and the school board feels fortunate in securing his services, as good teachers are scarce this time of year.

BARLOW.

Death has once more visited the Preston family. Ralph Preston succumbed to tuberculosis in the Milwaukee sanitarium January 11, he being the third victim in death in the family inside of three months. Ralph was aged 20 years, a boy who was highly respected by all who knew him. His death was sudden and also a shock to his many friends, as it was reported only a short time ago that he was improving. The remains were shipped to Aurora Saturday where they were interred in the Aurora cemetery. He leaves three half sisters to mourn his demise.
 Ferd and Fredy Rodby, of Portland, came up Saturday to attend the funeral of their friend, Ralph Preston.
 Mr. and Mrs. Lindahl, of Woodburn, visited at the Irwin home Sunday.
 The Nazarenes are holding services in their new church.
 Mrs. Wm. Keebaugh has been very ill with neuralgia, but is improving.
 Mr. Phelps' son has arrived home from Canada.
 Willis Young, of Portland, is visiting his uncle, W. W. Jesse.
 Avon Jesse and Miss Alma Eckerson were canvassing for the Journal, in Barlow, one day last week.
 Mr. and Mrs. Wurfel were visiting Jas. Ogle's family in Aurora Sunday.
 George Berg has returned home from Corvallis, where he was attending school.
 Mr. and Mrs. John Davenport, of Los Angeles, Cal., have been visiting Mr. Davenport's sister, Mrs. Sage, for several days.
 Following are the names of the pupils who were neither absent nor tardy during December: Room 1—Frank Harter, Edward Dregine, George Ziegler, Lona Parmenter, Cecelia Johnson, Stella Berg, Orville Widdows, Thelma Andrews, Esther Armstrong, Ida Sletaker, Lester Armstrong, Charles Dregine, Irene Armstrong, Alice Wroelstad, Malla Grindeland, Edna Phelps, Cora Ausve, Arthur Krueger, Cora Keebaugh, Milton Johnson, Clarence Johnson, George Armstrong, Nellie Berg, Room 2—Florence Widdows, Ethel Armstrong, Lynn Van Cleve, Cora Larsen, Helmer Sletager, Harold Sage, Abe Widdows, Palma Wroelstad, Elmer Irwin, Eva Harter, Clarence Hansen, Carl Brudwig, Agnes Berg, Mabel Armstrong, Herbert Keebaugh, Laura Sanford, Emma Berg, Marie Harter, Sanford Wroelstad, Katrina Johnson.

Charles R. Crane, of Chicago, says President Taft is bungling the Russian situation. Mr. Crane is the gentleman who failed to be appointed minister to China.
 The Syracuse Post-Standard thinks "the great weakness of the House of Representatives is that the freshman class is too large."

GRANDMA IN THE OLD ARM CHAIR.

Come here, my boy, and a story I'll tell.
 Grandma will tell story, will make the bump well;
 And up I climb upon her knee,
 In the old arm chair she cuddles me.
 Listen! Once there was—O, you must keep quiet—
 A quaint little mill and a brook which ran nigh it.
 A tiny maid came down to the brook,
 Sat on the bank and cast in a hook;
 Pretty soon, a jerk! out came a fish;
 Listen! then came a boy with a nice little dish;
 But my peepers were closed, I'd gone with the fish,
 And lived o'er the scene, much as Grandma would wish.
 While in Grandma's arms in the old arm chair;
 So many, many things happen there.
 I see the maiden, I see the brook;
 I see the fish caught on the hook;
 And the quaint creaking of the old chair
 Gives a feeling of safety one only gets there,
 In the arms of Grandma in the old arm chair.
 And when I awake and rub my eyes,
 Look around and wonder, wonder where;
 Why it's only me and Grandma in the old arm chair.
 Tenderly she puts me upon the floor
 And watches me toddle to the open door.
 Presently I come back, and up the stair,
 The same old story over, in the old arm chair.
 How often the times that when I tell,
 She kissed the spot and made it well,
 Just like the story books would tell.
 I ran to Grandma with each tale of woe,
 I'd toddle as fast as I could go;
 And I'd have a good cry if I found her not there—
 My dear old Grandma in the old arm chair.
 So, one day they told me to be very quiet;
 Grandma's chair seemed so lonesome when'er I came nigh it,
 O! Grandma, where are you? O, tell me where!
 I cried, we're so lonesome, both me and the chair.
 But she never came back—she'd left me there.
 So sad and lonely, everything seemed bare,
 For they'd carried her out of the old arm chair.
 In a grave on the hillside, 'neath a green willow tree
 Sleeps the dearest old Grandma, ever was to me.
 When at the side of her grave I oft wonder where
 I will ever see Grandma in the old arm chair.
 I guess 'twill be in heaven, and I guess I'll go there;
 Indeed! I go now if they'd tell me where; I'm so lonesome for Grandma in the old arm chair.
 REFRAIN—Dear Grandma where are you? O, tell me where!
 Come back to me from that lost somewhere.
 I am lonely tonight—so lonely tonight
 For my Grandma in the old arm chair.
 —EMMA JENNINGS.

"CAMP COOKING" IS NEW O. A. C. COURSE

CORVALLIS, Or., Jan. 17.—Camp cooking is the substance of a new course "for men only" at the Oregon Agricultural College short course, which is attracting many men, a number being members of the faculty. Twice a week they meet in the domestic science laboratories, and Miss Ava B. Milan and her assistant, Miss Bertha Edwards, teach them such simple forms of domestic science as may be applied to the bonfires of camp and trail. The commandant of the regimental corps of cadets, the dean of the school of commerce, the recorder of the faculties, and teachers from the art and public speaking departments are among those enrolled.

ALL ELEMENTS IN CUBA ARE UNITED

CRISIS AVOIDED BY REMOVAL OF REASONS FOR U. S. ACTING.
 TEXT OF AGREEMENT KEPT SECRET
 Gomez' Hand Greatly Strengthened By Belief That Agitation of Veterans Has Reached End.

HAVANA, Jan. 17.—The conference at the President's palace adjourned at 1:05 o'clock this morning. It was announced that all the elements had reached an understanding to unite in the policy that would remove any excuse for intervention.
 The details of the agreement have not been divulged.
 President Gomez conferred with prominent political leaders regarding the action to be taken in connection with the notification from the American Secretary of State, that the United States government might be compelled to intervene in Cuban affairs.
 The persons summoned to meet the President were General Emilio Nunez, General Mateilo Alonso, Colonel Manuel Aranda and Colonel Galvez, representing the veterans; General Euzbio Hernandez, president of the Miguelistas; Governor Asbert, of Havana; Alfredo Zayas, vice-president of the republic, and Gonzales Lanuza, General Freyre Andrade and Antonio Gonzales Lanuza, the Conservative leaders; Miguel Coyula, Wilfredo Fernandez, editor of El Comercio; Colonel Crestes Ferrar, President of the House of Representatives, and Dr. Antonio Gonzalez Perez, President of the Senate.
 The shock of the receipt yesterday of the news of the possible intervention by the United States was succeeded by a feeling of relief, consequent upon the general impression that the Knox note was intended merely as a caution similar to President Roosevelt's letter to Quesada, and not as a threat to proceed to extremes without further provocation.
 Gomez' hand has been strengthened by the quietus put on the agitation of the veterans.
 Speaking of Queen Victoria of Spain we are reminded that royalty must again give way to common mortals when we look upon Mrs. Ellis Brown of Shawnee, Okla., as the mother of five twins, all born within the last seven years.
 President Taft is standing between the American workman and free trade.
 The six great powers of the world have decided that there shall be no smashing of China.

CARNEGIE ADMITS IGNORANCE OF LAW

IRONMASTER, ON STAND, SAYS DETAILS WERE LEFT TO OTHERS.
 STEEL TARIFF NO LONGER NEEDED
 Millionaire Declares That Knox, His Legal Adviser, Never Explained Sherman Act To Him.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Andrew Carnegie, pressed hard today by members of the House committee inquiring into the United States Steel Corporation, admitted that he recommended the appointment of Philander C. Knox, the present Secretary of State, as Attorney-General in McKinley's Cabinet in 1901. Mr. Knox having been one of the general counselors for the Carnegie Steel Company after 1890, when the Sherman anti-trust law was passed.
 Mr. Carnegie repeatedly had declared before the committee that he never knew that the participation of his company in the steel plate pool and other like pools was unlawful, and Representative McGillivuddy, of Maine, sought to show that he had recommended to President McKinley the appointment of Mr. Knox after Mr. Knox, as counsel for the company, had left him in ignorance of the Government statutes so many years.
 Mr. Carnegie also told the committee that he believed no protective tariff was necessary on steel rails or steel products, with the exception of needles, which are not manufactured in this country. He asserted that Congress need have no fear that foreign rails would flood the United States if the tariff were removed.
 An uncomfortable half hour was given the ironmaster late in the day by McGillivuddy and he is to be recalled tomorrow, although he urged that he be permitted to conclude his testimony today.
 "You said that you did not know for many years the scope of the Sherman anti-trust law," said Mr. McGillivuddy in beginning his examination of Mr. Carnegie. "Between the years 1890 and 1900 you were the head of the Carnegie Steel Company, were you not?"
 "I never was its head, not even a director," Mr. Carnegie replied. "I was the majority stockholder, owning fifty-four per cent of the stock."
 Mrs. Upton Sinclair says her ideals of life are love and freedom. Those are also the ideals of Emma Goldman.
 Governor Woodrow Wilson says he believes in representative government wherein he falls in line with all the nomination seekers.
