SISTER SUES BROTHER OVER MOTHER'S WILL

Judge Eakin has taken under advisement the case of Dora Toedtmier against Louis Toedtmier, Jr. The plaintiff, who is a sister of the defendant, is suing for a ninth interest in the estate of her mother, alleging that the defendant has broken the provisions of the will. The mother died July 25, 1904, bequeathing property valued at $1,000 to her son, Louis, with the stipulation that he support and educate his brothers and sisters. It is alleged by the plaintiff that her brother failed to support and educate the other children, and therefore he has forfeited his right to all but one ninth of the property. Frederick and Karl Koolmeier were named guardians of the minor heirs in the will, and by a court order they were given into the custody of their father, Louis Toedtmier, Sr. W. A. Dimick represents the plaintiff and C. Schuebel the defendant.

6 UNHAPPY WIVES GRANTED DECREES

GRACE JOSSA SAID HUSBAND OF TEN THREATENED TO KILL HIMSELF.

DEFENDANT HAS POISON IN POCKET

Guy Bowman, Seeking Divorce, Alleges His Spouse Began Flirting Soon After Marriage.

Clackamas county is making a new record in the number of divorces being granted. Hardly a day passes without several decrees being handed down and as many suits for divorce being filed. Circuit Judge Campbell Tuesday granted six decrees and three suits for divorce were filed.

Grace Jossa was awarded a decree from Carlos A. Jossa, cruelly having been alleged. The plaintiff charged that her husband carried with him a paper containing cyanide of potassium, and frequently threatened to commit suicide by swallowing the drug in her presence. She said he did this to harass her. They were married in Colorado City, Col., August 13, 1905. The plaintiff's maiden name, Grace Veima Taylor, was restored.

Caroline Benjamin was granted a decree from Andrew J. Benjamin. They were married June 16, 1906, in Ithaca, N. Y. Cruelty was charged. The plaintiff's maiden name, Caroline Odell DeFemer, was restored.

Mirtle L. Berge, who accused her husband of cruelty, was awarded a decree in her suit against Frank L. Berge. She charged that her husband objected to her relations visiting her, and on one occasion when one of her cousins visited them at their home in Portland, he said, "What in the deuce is she here for? It seems you have always got one relative around here." They were married January 1, 1890, in Waterville, Minn. The plaintiff was granted the custody of their child, Hazel, and $25 a month for maintenance and education of the child.

Ollie Wilson was given a divorce from Joseph Wilson, on a charge of cruelty. She was awarded the custody of their child Ruth, and the custody of their son, Lee. They were married in El Reno, Okla., November 26, 1912.

Catherine Souers won a decree from William P. Souers, and was awarded $25 a month alimony. They were married in Oregon City September 11, 1901. She charged that her husband threw her out of their home July 27, 1911, and her eyes were blackened.

Martha J. O'Malley was awarded a decree in her suit against Patrick O'Malley, she alleged cruelty. They were married in Chippewa county, Wis., November 18, 1895.

Alleging that his wife soon after their marriage began flirting with other men Guy Bowman filed suit for divorce against Kathryn Bowman. They were married in Oregon City, April 10, 1909. The plaintiff says when he remarried with his wife for flirting she said, "You leave me, I'll do as I please," and ordered him to leave the house.

Hazel Farrell asks a divorce from William J. Farrell on a charge of cruelty. They were married in Hood River, April 29, 1910. The plaintiff seeks the custody of their child, Hazel Irene, and $15 a month alimony.

John Cooper sued Amanda Cooper for divorce on a charge of desertion. They were married in Port Arthur, Can., November 19, 1904.

SPOUSE WANTED TO BREAK CHINA, HER PLEA

Declaring that he has repeatedly threatened to smash decorated china, painted by her, and from which she makes a good income, Annie Holman has filed suit for divorce from Guy E. Holman. They were married September 20, 1905, and the plaintiff alleges that her husband has been cruel to her in other ways. She avers that he has been cross to her son, Gustav Tingley, by another marriage, and that she had been compelled to keep the boy away from the husband. She asks the custody of their son, Edward Guy Holman, and $25 a month alimony.

WIFE SEEKS DIVORCE.

Sarah J. Daniels Monday filed suit for divorce against Henry S. Daniels, alleging that he is an inebriate and has treated her cruelly. She alleges that he beat her August 31, 1911, with his fists, and November 27, 1911, deserted her.

$3,500 ESTATE LEFT BY LARS TIDEMAN

The estate of Lars Tideman, who died August 8, 1911, was filed for probate Thursday. Mr. Tideman had lived in this county for many years, and was a well-to-do farmer. The estate is valued at $3,500 and his heirs are his widow and following children: Mrs. Lena Brandstrand, Alf Tideman, Inga Tideman, Laura Tideman, Lina Tideman, Mildred Tideman and Orla Tideman. The widow Antonetta Tideman was named executrix.

Mary Kirkley, in her will which was filed for probate Thursday, requests a tract of land in township 1, section south range 2 east, to her daughters Mary M. and Gertrude M. Kirkley. At the death of the property is to be divided equally among the other children, Jane A. Taylor, Josephine L. James, Joseph S. Kirkley and her granddaughter Dorothy Kirkley. The testatrix also bequeathed her daughter Mary M. $500. The will was dated February 20, 1908.

Miss Lena Chamberlain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Chamberlain, of Gladstone, who recently returned to this city from San Diego, Cal., where she spent five months, was married to Frank Port, formerly of this city, but now of Milwaukee, Wis., Friday. The marriage was solemnized at Mr. Port's parents' home at Milwaukee. Mr. Port meeting his bride to be at Chicago. The newlyweds have gone to New Orleans, where they will spend their honeymoon. They will live in San Diego.

MISS JULIET CROSS AND T. A. BURKE WED

Miss Juliet Cross, third daughter of the Hon. Harvey E. Cross, was married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents in Gladstone to Mr. Thomas A. Burke, formerly of Baker City. The wedding was a quiet one, only relatives and immediate friends of the bride and bridegroom being in attendance. Rev. T. K. Hammond, pastor of the Episcopal church of Eugene, and father of William Hammond, brother-in-law of the bride performed the ceremony. Stanley Young, of Vancouver, B. C., was the best man, and Miss Grace Cross, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. After the ceremony, which was performed at 7:45 o'clock, refreshments were served. The young couple will live in Gladstone, as Mr. Burke will become associated in business with Mr. Cross.

Mrs. Burke is one of the most popular young women in Oregon City and Gladstone. She is a member of the First Baptist Church in this city, and is a prominent member of several societies. Mr. Burke was recently graduated from college at Eugene.

POSTMASTER ASKED TO GET WIDOW HUSBAND

Postmaster Randall, who has by giving publicity to their letters, aided several girls in obtaining husbands, is in receipt of the following:
San Francisco, Jan. 29, 1912.
Postmaster Oregon City, Clackamas County.
Dear Sir:—I know you don't run a matrimonial bureau, but you may be able to help me. I have the leap-year fever. The only medicine to cure it is to get a husband. Any chance? Am an American, unnumbered, respectable, blue eyes, brunette, am 5 feet 4 inches tall, good temper, jolly, very affectionate and good cook. Thanking you beforehand for any assistance you may send, I remain very respectfully,
MRS. H. M. SPRING,
3374 Twenty-first street.
P. S.—Please excuse paper, best at hand.

SAYS HUSBAND KEPT DRUNK AFTER WEDDING

Declaring that her husband became intoxicated the day they were married and remained so for twelve days, when she left him, Susie Bishop, of Portland, Friday filed suit for divorce against C. H. Bishop. The young couple were married November 3, 1911, in Portland. The plaintiff says her husband cursed her, and otherwise was cruel to her. She asks that her maiden name, Susie Toole, be restored. The suit was brought by Brownell & Stone.

POSTMASTER SCORED FOR AIDING CUPID

Just because he tried to aid and did aid in several instances, love-lorn lads and lassies in finding helpmates, Postmaster Randall is having anathemas heaped upon his innocent head. When young men and young women from various parts of the country wrote to the postmaster asking him to find them wives and husbands, he turned the epistles over to the Morning Enterprise which gave publicity to the wishes of the writers with successful results in most cases. Now the postmaster is being roundly excoriated for his pains. He received the following letter today:
"Oregon City, Feb. 3, 1912.
"Postmaster Randall—I see by Friday's paper that another woman has asked you to get her a husband. If you are a healer of leap-year fevers, why not begin at home. Charity begins at home." There are plenty of immediate attention. It is not fair to the women of your own town for you to send all the good men away to other states. We don't care how many old cheap skates you send, but of course you are not going to send away any of that type for fear of losing your reputation.
"Now Mr. Randall, if you are not more loyal to the women of Oregon City in the future your position is in danger. When we women get to doing things you will have to go way back and sit down. So you had better look to your laurels.
"Yours truly,
"MRS. HUSBAND HUNTER.
"P. S.—Just a word of warning to the men of Oregon City. Men beware of the woman who is so impulsive that when she decides she wants a husband she can't wait to get paper, but grabs up any old scrap paper to write so important a message. She will have changed her name before your message reaches her."

COMMERCIAL CLUB IS ORGANIZED

Demand Also Is To Be Made For Another Station In City—Harry Williams President of Club

A Commercial Club was organized Friday night in Gladstone at a meeting of about forty citizens. A constitution and by-laws were adopted and the following officers were elected: President—Harry Williams. Vice-President—Charles Hageman. Secretary—Chambers Howell. Treasurer—Thomas Janit. Sergeant-At-Arms—Thomas Burns. A resolution was adopted urging the city council to file suit to enjoin the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company from erecting more feed wires in Gladstone. It was announced that the company had been erecting poorly insulated wires on the old poles, which are over the required height. The company has never had a franchise to erect wires in Gladstone, it was announced. The first wires were put up after the privilege of erecting wires for a motor line had been obtained from The Gladstone Real Estate Association.

The railway company recently asked for an exclusive and unlimited franchise in Gladstone, and that being refused, has not wired any houses in the city since then. It is thought that members of the council will file suit for an injunction today. Wires erected last week are said to be low and dangerous.

It was also decided by the club to continue the fight for another railway stop in the city. Some time ago application was made for a station at Alford street, but the railway officials, after conferring with prominent citizens of Gladstone, declined to make the order. Since then, however, according to the officers of the club, stations have been located at other places, although the railway men gave their excuse for not granting the application of the Gladstone citizens, that another stop would interfere with the present time schedule. About eighty families would be benefited by the station.

Coroner Wilson held an inquest at 2 o'clock over the body at the Holman Undertaking Establishment, the jury, which was composed of T. J. Myers, T. P. Randall, F. A. Ely, H. S. Moody, R. W. Porter and H. W. Trembath, returning a verdict in accordance with the facts. Mrs. Gozesky, who works in one of the paper mills, will make arrangements for the funeral today.

MILTON HARDING IS BURIED HERE

The body of A. Milton Harding, of the firm of Barn & Harding, agents for the Harley-Davidson Motorcycle Company, of Portland, was brought to this city Saturday afternoon, and the interment was in the family lot in Mountain View cemetery.

Mr. Harding sustained a fracture of the skull Thursday afternoon in a collision, and was taken to St. Vincent's Hospital, where he died at 4:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon. The young man was riding from his home at 802 East Ash Street to the place of his business at 72 Seventh Street when the accident occurred. He is survived by his mother and three brothers, Lyle, Dorris and Oleff Harding, all of whom live in Portland. Many of the young man's friends attended the services. Mr. Harding was a nephew of the late James Chase, of this city, and was 24 years of age. His father died many years ago, and is buried in Mountain View cemetery.

ENDS HIS TROUBLES BY DRINKING ACID

PAUL GOZESKY, UNABLE TO OBTAIN WORK, COMMITS SUICIDE.

MONEY LOST IN SALOON VENTURE

Man Is Dying When Physician Summoned by Chief Shaw Arrives—Loss of Arm Worried Deceased Greatly.

Despondent because he could not obtain work, Paul Gозesky, formerly employed by the Oregon City Manufacturing Company, committed suicide in his room on Water Street Saturday morning by drinking four ounces of carbolic acid. Death was almost instantaneous. The suicide, who was 36 years of age, survived by a widow and his mother.

Gozesky had been brooding over his failure to obtain work for several days, and informed friends that he was thinking of ending his life. He lost his right arm several years ago while working in a factory, and as a result, he was not regarded as an efficient workman. When he came to Oregon City, six years ago, he had considerable money, but after working several months at one of the mills, he invested the money in the Depot Saloon on Seventh Street. Trade was not good and he soon lost all he had. Meanwhile his mother married a second time, and he and his wife, his brother Michael, and his mother and her husband rented a house on Water Street in the rear of the Charman drug store.

Gozesky obtained work at the woolen mill as a screen tender, where he worked until last Christmas, when he lost his place. He searched in vain for another place, and finally began drinking heavily. Gозesky purchased the drug at a Main Street pharmacy, telling the druggist that he wanted it to make a solution to use in dressing an leg of a friend. When told that he did not need four ounces for that purpose, he said he would take that amount anyway, and that he would probably have to use it several days.

About an hour later the man's brother, Michael, informed Chief of Police Shaw that Paul had drunk the acid, and was dying. The chief summoned Dr. J. W. Norris, but when the physician arrived at the house, it was evident the man could not be saved. He died in about fifteen minutes.

JOSEPH HOWELL DIES OF HEART DISEASE

Joseph Howell, one of the most prominent pioneers of Oregon, died at Monday of heart failure. Mr. Howell had several attacks of heart failure during the past month, but his condition was not thought serious. He slept unusually well Sunday night, and Monday morning said that he had felt better than he had at any time the past month. Mrs. Howell visited a neighbor on business in the afternoon, and upon her return home, Mr. Howell said that he felt ill. He soon was stricken and Mrs. Howell called one of her neighbors. Mr. Howell, however, died in a few minutes.

Joseph Howell was born at Lancaster, Pa., January 5, 1829, and at the time of his death was eighty-three years of age. His boyhood days were spent in Columbus, O., and at the age of twenty-one years he came to Oregon where he has lived ever since. Most of that time in Oregon City.

Mr. Howell was married in 1856 to Miss M. V. Willis, who is also a daughter of prominent Oregon pioneers. Mr. Howell came with his parents to Oregon around the Isthmus of Panama. He fought in the Indian war, and was one of the soldiers who captured Chief Plontomoxox of the Walls Walla tribe. He was a valiant soldier and an honorable citizen. He was one of the oldest if not the oldest member of the I. O. O. F. order in the state, being a member of the local order. He was also a member of the Oregon Pioneer Association and always enjoyed attending the reunions of the pioneers.

Mr. Howell is survived by his wife and the following children: William H. Howell, of Oregon City; Joseph Howell, of Portland; George E. Howell, of Lamont, Wash.; Mrs. Mary Ellen Jagger, of Portland; Mrs. J. W. McGregor, of Portland; Mrs. Charles W. Martyn, of Portland. He is also survived by ten grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

SPRAYING MACHINES

YOU would not plant a field of potatoes unless you cultivate it properly, otherwise you know you could not get a good crop and you would be wasting your ground and your time.

An orchard is only planted once in twenty or thirty years and it is years before you get any returns. Considering the investment of time and ground you must realize the importance of giving it the necessary care.

DID you ever stop to think that the proper care of the orchard would make a bigger difference than the proper care of a field of potatoes, and that it takes less machinery and less work to do it.
COME in and ask us about Lime and Sulphur Spray and Spraying Machines for your fruit trees and see how easy it is to double your fruit crop.
