

Milwaukee and Northwestern Clackamas

MILWAUKIE.
The Women's Work Club met Wednesday at the Grange hall. A large attendance was present, and the time passed in sewing.

The Boys and Girls' Club meets regular and is practicing for the play they are to give in February.

The Milwaukee Grange will hold an all day meeting Saturday, February 17, when routine business will be transacted and a fine dinner will be served at noon by the ladies.

Mrs. McCann is quite sick with influenza.

Mrs. McKinley, of Quincy addition, who has been very sick with typhoid pneumonia, is slightly better.

Mrs. Low Ham returned home from the hospital in Portland Saturday much improved.

Mr. Snyder, of Clackamas, is building a small house on his lot in the Henneman tract.

The Catholic church interior is being finished, and the church will be dedicated early in March.

Roses will be planted on the main side street of the school building on Washington's birthday, on the Harrison street side west past and pasties will be planted.

W. H. Council has the extension of Harrison street to the city limits graded and graveled and the property owners will soon lay the sidewalks.

Mayor Streib, Judge Kelso and W. H. Council went to Salem Friday to hear the argument before the supreme court of the Bonnett heirs against the city of Milwaukee.

W. M. Stone, from British Columbia, was a caller on Mr. and Mrs. J. Johnson Monday, enroute to his home after a trip around the world.

Mrs. C. H. Gale, of Oregon City, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Peery.

Mrs. Vanham, the freight agent, has moved her tent house north of the wagon bridge on the flat.

Mrs. Ella Maple is very much improved in health, and able to be out again with her friends.

The night cap social, given by the Women of Woodcraft Saturday evening, was well attended and a success socially and financially.

The Council met Tuesday evening. Regular routine business and all bills allowed. Application for water franchise by Minthorn Water Company was read and the same referred to the water committee.

Property owners along Monroe St., east of Main street, were represented in large numbers, and all in favor of improving Monroe street, and the majority were in favor of widening the street east of Irving street, also in favor of putting in sewer before any other facing is done.

The matter was referred to the street committee, to report at next meeting. The bids for the improvement bonds of Milwaukee were opened and are as follows: Cutter May & Company, of Chicago, Ill., $16954.25 at 50 par and the crude interest, the bid was for a straight ten-year bond, which can not be issued under the bankrupt bonding act, hence the bid could not be considered.

Charles S. Kidder & Co., of Chicago, Ill., put in a bid at discount of 86.5, but he could not check the bid so it was rejected. Parson & Co., of Chicago, Ill., bid at a discount of 47.5, and being a bid for a straight ten-year bond could not be considered.

First State Bank of Milwaukee put in a bid for $5000 or more, at par, and the crude interest, this being the best bid received, it was accepted by the council. Milwaukee has a right to be proud of its bank, as it put in a very good bid for the bonds and saved the city between $700 and $800. It is a very good showing for a bank of its size and age to bid for and take up a block of bonds for the figures given.

Church notes: Evangelical church, Rev. E. Radebaugh, pastor. Quarterly conference and sermon was held on Thursday evening and was presided over by Rev. E. H. Hornschuch. Sunday school 11:30 A. M., communion and sermon 11:30 A. M., Rev. F. B. Culver will preside and also preach in the evening at 8 P. M. Young People's meeting 7 P. M. Bible class, on Tuesday evening; prayer meeting on Wednesday evening; teachers' training, Thursday evening. Choir practice, Friday evenings.

Rev. E. Radebaugh will preside at the First Evangelical church in Portland on exchange with Rev. T. B. Culver.

CROUP ENDS LIFE.

Many Children Die of Croup Every Year Before a Doctor Can Be Summoned.

Parents of children should be prepared at all times for a spasm of croup.

Keep in the house a remedy that will give instant relief and keep the child from choking until the arrival of the physician.

Get a 50 cent bottle of HYOMEI today and in case of an attack of croup pour 20 drops into a kitchen bowl of boiling water. Hold the child's head over the bowl so that it can breathe the soothing, penetrating vapor that arises. In the meantime send for a physician.

This treatment has saved the lives of many children and is a precaution that all parents should promptly take.

HYOMEI is sold by Huntley Bros. Co. and druggists everywhere and is guaranteed for croup, catarrh, asthma and bronchitis. 2-16

Life.

Life is a riddle because it is a fragment. We are only able to read one volume of a story that extends to many volumes. In a word, we know in part and consequently prophecy in part.

OAK GROVE.

The Teachers' District Institute will be held at Jennings Lodge Saturday, February 17. Prof. J. Dean Butler, of this school, will speak on "Civil Government."

The Oak Grove Mercantile Company's store was broken into Monday morning by a supposed tramp that slept in the house of E. C. Warren. The front door was pried open and $1.95 taken and a $25 overcoat, belonging to Mr. Hamstreet, also a box of crackers.

H. C. Werner, of Oregon City, has purchased the business of the Oak Grove Mercantile Company.

Mr. Hamstreet was a Portland visitor Monday morning.

Miss Lucile Clemmons, of Portland, was a caller here Monday.

Several couples went to Milwaukee Saturday evening to attend the dance. All report a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Worthington gave an informal evening at home Friday to a number of the neighbors. Music and cards were indulged in until a late hour. Light refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. Isabel Hilton, mother of Mrs. J. H. McArthur, is quite ill and slight hopes are entertained for her recovery.

George Bigham's children have been very sick with colds. Mrs. Bigham's father, Mr. Copeland, is down sick now with lagrippe.

Mrs. Piffner is taking treatments from the cancer doctor in Seattle again. When Mrs. Piffner returned home they thought the cancer was cured, but new symptoms developed and she had to return to Seattle again for treatment.

Miss Emma Spangler has rented her house to a family from Pendleton. The family will move within a few days.

Arthur Kuehl is finishing his new house now, and will have a beautiful home when completed.

Mr. Percival and family are visiting his sister, Mrs. M. A. Rice, and family. The two families were Portland visitors Saturday.

S. S. Endicott, of Camas, Wash., spent the week's end with his son and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Endicott.

Mrs. Lena Skoog and Miss Kate Stein went to Vancouver, Wash., Friday and spent the day with Mrs. Julia Hoff, who is sick at the home of her mother, Mrs. Garner. Mrs. Hoff is improving slowly.

Chas. Voshub has been confined to his home with inflammatory rheumatism several weeks. He was able to be out Sunday for awhile.

Walter Terwilliger, of Courtney avenue, has started a new house on his property, and will live in it temporarily.

Mrs. Emily Shaw, county school supervisor, was a caller on Prof. Butler Monday morning.

Ruth and Albert Terwilliger are again in school here.

Irving Hanson was hurt while playing at school, and developed pneumonia. He has been quite sick for over a week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Lowe, of Portland, are visiting Mrs. Lowe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Davenport.

Indeed Not.

The Optimist—I never think of death. The Pessimist—Death will not return that snub.—Satire

Canby and North Clackamas

CANBY.

Mrs. Will Leach, of Needy, is visiting at George Spencer's for a few days. J. Berberndt, who died February 8, was buried Saturday at the Zion cemetery.

Mr. Berberndt formerly lived in Eagle Creek. He leaves a widow and seven children—five girls and two boys, all grown.

Ruby Smith and Chester Willis were Oregon City visitors Sunday.

The Robekahs gave a social and supper Tuesday night. All had a good time.

Kenneth, the little son of O. R. Mack, is confined to his home with a severe cold.

Ed. Hutchinson is sick with an attack of grip.

Johnnie Wells has sold his farm south of Mackburg and is moving into Canby.

W. A. Winder has just filled a large order for cement building blocks, from Aurora.

Mrs. Lilly Winks, of New Era, was a Monday caller at the Ogilvie home.

Ora Lee was a Portland visitor Sunday.

The Misses Hattie and Edna Hutchinson visited their cousin in Hubbard last Saturday and also attended the dance in the evening.

Rev. A. H. Mulkey, of Gladstone, will preach at the Christian church, February 18. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

Mike Hurlis was in Oregon City Monday on business.

Mr. Garrett and family move this week to Needy. We are sorry to see them go, especially the young people.

There is strong talk of several cement buildings going up in Canby in the spring and with the prospect of a railroad coming into Canby. It begins to look like our little town is coming to the front.

A surprise party was tendered Miss Lillian Wang at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wang last Tuesday night by sixteen of her friends. Five hundred was played and a delicious lunch was served at twelve o'clock. Nell Hampton won first prize and Fred Hampton the booby prize.

The following were present: Nell Hampton, Pearl Hampton, Ora Lee, Helen Graham, Mildred Wang, Lillian Wang, Edna Hutchinson, Hattie Hutchinson, Fred Hampton, Carl Lucke, Henry Combs, Bennie Davenport, Mr. Graham, Laurence Masterton, Roy Lee, Dr. Arthel Murdy.

M. T. Mack was in Oregon City Monday on business.

Mrs. P. L. Coleman was a Portland visitor Sunday.

Charlie Thomas went to Portland Sunday to see his wife who is sick in the hospital. Mrs. Thomas is getting better.

Life Saver

In a letter from Branchland, W. Va., Mrs. Elizabeth Chapman says: "I suffered from womanly troubles nearly five years. All the doctors in the county did me no good. I took Cardui, and now I am entirely well. I feel like a new woman. Cardui saved my life! All who suffer from womanly trouble should give Cardui a trial."

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

A HUMAN DERELICT.

An emaciated old man dropped dead on Canal street this morning. There was no money in his sleek, shabby clothes, but he was evidently not a drinking man. He could not be identified. The body was taken to a morgue.—Chicago Newspaper.

Six lines of coppered type. Life is so cruel to some! Nature is so careful of the type and so heedless of the individual, and the big city is so heartless.

The submerging of this old human wreck, worn and waterlogged, makes scarce a ripple on the wide waters.

Who was he? The recording angel alone knows. He lived perhaps much as you and I have lived. There was a happy childhood, and he knew joy and sorrow and love and regret, prospered and failed, worked and saved, made and lost, until the day came when he was alone, friendless and weak and falling.

I ask you: Were you ever a poor boy in a great city? Men hurry on intent upon their own. Piled tier upon tier in the great commercial palaces are the abundant masses of swollen fortunes. Happy shoppers fill the great stores. Sated men and women roll luxuriously in costly carriages, while you—

Your head is dizzy as you peer over the verge of a bottomless pit. Behind those plate glass windows are heaped huge pyramids of food, while you are faint with hunger. Here is a crushing sense of the world's cruelty. But to be thus—and old!

There is the alternative—to beg or steal. If you can squeeze back your pride and beg few will stop to listen. If you steal they will put you in an iron cell.

Sympathy? Charity? The city is too busy. It does not know. There are so many frauds. The city does not understand nor discriminate.

And so the "infernals" go gradually down, down, down, to that lowest plane of life whose outer verge is starvation or suicide—or—

Unless some tender human heart shall help what shall become of these? Nature will not be merciful to the down-trodden.

Let it up to you to give and help these down-trodden.

Washington's Etiquette.

Every action in company ought to be some sign of respect to those present. In the presence of others sing not to yourself with a humming noise nor drum with your fingers or feet.

Speak not when others speak, sit not when others stand and walk not when others stop.

Turn not your back to others, especially in speaking.

Be no flirtatious; neither trifle with any one that does not delight in such familiarities.

Read no letters, books or papers in company except when necessary; then ask to be excused.

Come not near the books or writing of any one so as to read them unasked. Let your countenance be pleasant, but in serious matters somewhat grave.

Baby O'Grundy.

Was born on a Monday. Walked on a Tuesday.

Wore trousers on Wednesday. Played football on Thursday.

Was married on Friday. Grew whiskers on Saturday.

Fell in love Sunday. And that was the end of Baby O'Grundy.

Here is a Remedy That Will Cure Skin and Scalp Affections and We Can Prove It.

The Huntley Drug Store says to every person be it man, woman or child who has an irritated, tender, inflamed, itching SKIN or SCALP, you need not suffer another day. "We have a refined skin preparation that acts instantly and will bring you swift and sure results."

One warm bath with ZEMO SOAP and one application of ZEMO and you will not suffer another moment and you will soon see a cure in sight.

ZEMO and ZEMO SOAP are proven cures for every form of skin or scalp affection. They are sold by one leading druggist in every city or town in America and in Oregon City by Huntley Bros. Drug Store.

They Didn't Like Games.

Shelley a vicar of games was approximately Swift's view that "games are the recreations of people who do not think." The world he felt was so "full of a number of things" that it was absurd to waste time on such trivialities as pegtopps and marbles. Elderly gentlemen might appropriately play with marbles or pegtopps (just as elderly gentlemen nowadays play golf in order to divert their minds from anxiety as to the price of stocks and shares, but why should a boy do so when life may be a fair-land, beginning at his door and ending in his hands?)"—The Bonhomme's Tale of 1803.

An Idea That Failed.

In 1870 a Scotchman named Johnston patented a treasure safe for ships designed to render loss of specie and other treasures by wreck impossible. His proposal was that an unsinkable safe should be suspended at the ship's davits, ready to be lowered into the water at a moment's notice, and be invented a contrivance by means of which the safe would detach itself on emergency and float about until picked up by another vessel. Ship's captains, however, declined to entertain the thought of having a safe full of money hanging at the davits ready to the hand of any who cared to tread to a dark night and the navigable qualities of the chest to make off with it. Exchange.

Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve

SUIT FOR SPRING.

Knotted Sashes a Feature of the Mode.

TAILORED SUIT OF PRUNE CLOTH.

A touch of grace is added to the severe tailored suit by a soft, knotted sash of silk. This pretty spring suit of prune colored silk and wool fabric has trimming bands of velvet in the same shade and a knotted fringed sash of prune satin.

Be a Good Loser.

If there is anything that is irritating it is the way that some people talk of their troubles, as if they were a kind of treat—not cheerfully, but with a kind of gloomy joy; in a word, they are resigned. It is only mighty big humbugs that will say they are thankful for troubles. We may eventually live to see that they were right and best for us, but at the time it is sheer hypocrisy to waggle our heads solemnly and say, "Happiness is a snare anyhow; it is foolish for anyone to expect happiness in this grizzly old world."

People who talk that way don't deserve happiness. We weren't put here to be miserable. The idea that life is for suffering and not enjoyment is fast being shelved. If the Lord approves of lamentation and tears he would not have put so much in the world to make us hopeful and happy.

There is nothing more common than trouble. We all have our troubles, but it is the wise ones of earth that keep their burdens in the background. It is so common and cheap and selfish to be continually parading one's griefs and disappointments. Whatever our lot, we should all learn the wisdom of that helpful little prayer, "Help me to win, if I win may, but if I may not win make me a good loser."

Concerning Women.

The famous lucky pette-lout of the Stroud family is now on its way to McKinney, Tex., where Miss Rosabel Hines will be the nineteenth bride to wear it. The pette-lout was made fifty-five years ago by Miss Emma Stroud at Madison, Ga. She saved it for her daughters, and now her granddaughter is wearing it.

Ellen Terry says that when men writers draw a good woman they are inevitably depict a silly one. She characterizes Helena in "All's Well That Ends Well" and Julia in "Two Gentlemen of Verona" as "doormat women."

Imogen is the most attractive of Shakespeare's women, says Miss Terry. Queen Olga of Greece has a confession album. It contains the names of most of the crowned heads of Europe who have been induced to answer more or less personal questions propounded by the queen. Edward VII. of England has written after the question, "What is the most objectionable man you know?" the answer, "The man who points an umbrella at you and shouts, 'There he is.'"

The queen takes the album when she travels and is said to display unconcealed delight in exhibiting its contents to her royal acquaintances.

A Purple Gown.

An admirable new gown model is of plum purple with a straight narrow skirt trimmed below the knees with a deep fold of the material piped with black satin. There are two swinging panels at the back, which give a broad effect across the waist at the back. This, by the way, is one of the dominant features of this winter's styles and will be seen on every kind of gown.

The coat is quite large and does not follow the slim, straight lines that all the tailors made conspicuous last summer. It has a black satin cord across the back a little above the waist, which holds the material in, and a plenum or lower part, which fits the hips snugly and reaches halfway to the knees.

There are two buttons to fasten it above the waist line in front and a voluminous collar square across the back and running to points at the waist. This is made of French gray broadcloth finished off with a band of the material and with an Egyptian design in tubular black braid in the middle of the back.

FARM LOANS.

Rev. R. H. Owen Officiated.

Rev. R. H. Owen, of Camas, was the officiating clergyman at the funeral of Mrs. Charlotte Thomas, of Portland, instead of Rev. I. Jones, as reported. Rev. Owen was assisted at the services by Mr. J. R. Griffiths.

MANAGER ATZ SELLS PLAYER FOR 15 CENTS.

A queer deal was pulled off by Jack Dunn and Jake Atz, the Baltimore and Providence managers, recently. They were talking about Pitcher Pierce. "How much would you give for him?" asked Atz. "Oh, I wouldn't go higher than 15 cents," came back Dunn.

"Taken," said Atz, and he made out an agreement, which both managers signed. Dunn handed over the 15 cents. Atz looked at it for a moment and then said: "Here, Jack, I've never skinned any one yet. Take this back and I'll give you a bonus of 15 cents."

The Providence owners, however, refused to ratify the agreement.

HURLER CHISHOLM QUITS.

One of Country's Best Men Hangs Up Spiked Shoes For All Time.

The amateur athlete world has lost a valuable athlete by the retirement of G. A. Chisholm. He stated recently that he had hung up his spiked shoes forever, as he has an excellent chance to go into the steel business in

CHISHOLM GOING OVER THE STICKS.

Pittsburgh and is not going to let athletics interfere with the opening of a lifetime.

There was not the least doubt that he would have been one of the American team to go to the Olympic games this year, for James E. Sullivan picked him some time ago as the best hurdler in the country. In the meeting in England last summer, where Harvard and Yale competed against Oxford and Cambridge, Chisholm won the high hurdles in 15.25 seconds, which is a new record for the event at meetings between those colleges. He graduated from Yale last year.

OUR STAR JOCKEYS ABROAD.

Yankee Riders to Receive $150,000 While in Europe Next Season.

The restriction placed upon racing in the United States has caused our greatest jockeys to go abroad. The knights of the pluck were unable to make a living here and they migrated across the pond to the turfmen there were eager to pay them princely salaries. This season there will be on the race tracks of England, France, Germany, Austria and Russia the following American jockeys:

Danny Maher, Skeets Martin, Frank O'Neill, Johnny Roff, Winnie O'Connell, J. Archibald, J. Sumpter, D. Winfield, Guy Garner, Eddie Dugan, Milton Henry, Nash Turner and Willie Shaw. The average sum that each jockey will receive will be $12,000, or an aggregate amount of $150,000.

TO BUY 6,000 DOZEN QUAIL.

California's Game Commission Plans to Ship Birds From Mexico.

California's game commission will buy 6,000 dozen of quail from Mexico at a cost of $15,000, which will be placed in the Folsom state farm and propagated for distribution throughout California.

When placed on the state farm they will be cared for by convicts and as they reach the proper age will be liberated in different sections with bands of native quail.

Cricketers Abandon Trip.

The proposed trip to England by the University of Pennsylvania cricket team has been abandoned owing to the expense involved. Instead the Quaker cricketers will tour Canada last year, and a more extensive schedule of games will be arranged than ever before.

Lacrosse Popular Abroad.

Lacrosse will jump into popularity in Europe should the projected visits of the Young Toronto, Vancouver athletes, and perhaps St. Catherine squad, all of Canada, make the trip next year for exhibition purposes.

People of India.

There are in India about 250,000,000 people who are supported by agriculture, 50,000,000 supported by industries, 8,000,000 supported by commerce, 3,000,000 supported by professions, and the balance are dependents.

Sedentary habits, lack of outdoor exercise, insufficient mastication of food, constipation, a torpid liver, worry and anxiety, are the most common causes of stomach troubles. Correct your habits and take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will soon be well again. For sale by all dealers.
