MISS WILLIAMS BECOMES BRIDE

POPULAR OREGON CITY GIRL AND H. A. BERKMAN ARE MARRIED

FORTY SEE IMPRESSIVE CEREMONY

Miss Huntley Plays Piano and Mrs. Burke Render Several Songs—Couple To Live in McMinnville

One of the prettiest home weddings ever solemnized in this city was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Miller, when the latter's sister, Miss Veda M. Williams and Mr. Herbert Alexander Berkman were married, the ceremony being performed Saturday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the presence of about forty persons all of whom were relatives and most intimate friends of the bride and bridegroom.

Preceding the marriage ceremony Miss Louise Huntley, who presided at the piano, rendered in a charming manner Mendelssohn's "Spring Song," which was followed by a vocal duet, "Oh, That We Two Were Maying," by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Burke, their voices blending beautifully. To the strains of Lohengrin's "Wedding March" played by Miss Louise Huntley the bride and groom entered the parlor. The bride leaning on the arm of her uncle, Hon. J. E. Magors, of Portland, and was preceded by Little Gordon Miller, nephew of the bride, who acted as ring bearer, and the little flower girl, Lucielle George, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert George, of Portland, and the bride's maid, Miss Marion Lawrence, niece of the bride, were met beneath a canopy formed of ivy and white cut flowers by the bridegroom and his best man, Mr. H. A. Berkman, of Portland. During the impressive ceremony, which was performed by Rev. S. P. Davis, of this city, a friend of the bride's family for many years, the couple stood beneath a handsome wedding bed formed of white hydrangeas and white daisies, which were suspended from the center of the canopy of evergreens. During the ceremony Miss Huntley rendered impressively "To Spring." Congratulations were extended to the young couple and luncheon was served. Mrs. Miller being assisted by her sister, Mrs. J. M. Lawrence, of Portland, Miss Louise Walker and Miss Louise Huntley. Mrs. J. W. Loder and Mrs. J. F. Clark pouring coffee.

The bride is very pretty in her handsome gown of cream colored messaline, with pearl and fringe trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Marion Lawrence wore a very becoming gown of white marquisette over yellow silk and carried white sweet peas and daffodils.

The color scheme of the decorations for the parlor, living and dining rooms was green and yellow, hundreds of daffodils being used entwined with Oregon Grape and ivy. Indian baskets filled with ferns and daffodils were used in all of these rooms making a most artistic finish. The electroliers were entwined with ivy, as well as the stairway which was banked with ferns and festoons of ivy. The bride's table was in yellow, the candles of which shaded with corresponding color.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Mary Williams and the late C. O. T. Williams. She was born and reared in Oregon City, and is one of the most popular young women of this city. She has won hundreds of friends by her sweet disposition, and her faithful church work, having been for the past year and a half superintendent of the junior work in the Baptist Sunday school, and has also been a Sunday school visitor of that denomination. During her work Mrs. Berkman visited the sick and poor. She is also one of the leading musicians of Oregon City, having been graduated from the Chicago Musical Conservatory in 1907 two years after entering. After her graduation from the Campbell Hagerman College at Lexington, Ky., and was very successful, being in charge of the work for two years, when she returned to Oregon City, and from here went to Bend, Ore., where she made her home with her sister, Mrs. J. M. Lawrence, for a year, and when she met Mr. Berkman who was a prominent real estate man of that city. She afterward returned to Oregon City, where she has since resided.

The bridegroom is a prominent real estate man of McMinnville, and is vice-president of the Weisly Trust Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Berkman departed in the midst of a shower of rice and old shoes on their honeymoon and will live in McMinnville, where they they have a bungalow. Before the departure of the bride she threw away her bouquet which was caught by Miss Allice Hollack, of Portland.

Many handsome articles were presented the couple the presents including brassware, china and linen. Among the gifts received by the bride was a handsome cut glass dish from the little children of her Sunday school class.

MISS ZINSERLING TENDERED SHOWER

Miss Estella Zinserling, daughter of Mrs. Lena Zinserling of Parkplace, was tendered a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Zinserling Tuesday evening and the young woman was presented with many handsome and useful articles. The evening was devoted to games and followed by refreshments, and a most enjoyable time was had. The marriage of Miss Zinserling to Mrs. James Munger will be solemnized in the spring. They are well known at Parkplace, where they have resided for some time.

Those attending the shower given in Miss Zinserling's honor were Grandma Proeger, Mrs. Fred Steiner, Mrs. Austin Rittenhouse, Mrs. A. W. Hayhurst, Mrs. W. A. Holmes, Mrs. F. Frazier, Mrs. Fred Vallet, Mrs. Frank Lucas, Mrs. Prieschoff, Mrs. Munger, Mrs. W. W. Smith, Mrs. Ware, Mrs. Heidy, Mrs. Paul Proeger, Mrs. Boerner, Mrs. John Kent, Mrs. Lena Zinserling, Miss Ivanna Munger, Miss Estella Zinserling, Mrs. DeFord, Miss Althea Lake, Miss Martha Prieschoff, Miss Katia Brunner, Miss Myrtle Holmes, Miss Ethel Butts, Miss Pearl Jones, Miss Reva Jones, Miss Frances Prieschoff, Miss Veda Heldy, Miss Iva Lake, Mrs. S. J. Jones, Miss Retta Ware and Mrs. Sam Case.

PARENT-TEACHER MEETING INTERESTS

The Parent-teacher meeting at Springwater Saturday was largely attended and the interest was keen. Miss Latta, the principal of the Springwater schools and Miss Harvey the primary teacher, with their pupils, had devoted much time and labor to beautifying the school rooms, and in arranging the excellent program.

Miss MacDonald read a paper on "The Ethical Value of Singing." Miss Thomas a paper on "How the Parents may Assist the Teacher." Professor James spoke on "The High School," tracing the growth of the Estacada High School; Miss Harvey on "Phonics," Miss Latta on "Real Methods vs. Pads," the Rev. C. F. Aue and the Rev. Charles Hayes of Portland, on "What is Real Discipline?" The primary pupils dramatized "The Three Bears." Wm. Jones explained the Waterbury system of heating and ventilating. Rev. C. F. Aue and Mrs. Aue played several very beautiful violin duets. The ladies of Springwater served a delicious lunch. Superintendent Gary presided.

WOMAN INJURED IN WRECK GETS $3000

A verdict of $3,000 damages for the plaintiff was returned Wednesday by a jury in Judge Campbell's Court in the case of Fannie Heylman, of Estacada, against the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company. The plaintiff while riding on one of the defendant's cars August 23, 1910 was seriously injured in a collision. She alleged that her spine was permanently affected. George C. Brownell and C. D. Latourette represented the plaintiff and J. E. Hodges and Wilbur Spencer, & Dibble the defendant. The plaintiff sued for $30,000 damages.

TENNIS COURT FOR HIGH SCHOOL PLANNED

A plan to have a tennis court in the northeast corner of the high school grounds was discussed by the school board Monday night. It was referred to the committee on grounds with power to act. Superintendent Toose was authorized to purchase thirty Indian clubs for the girls' gymnasium. Other business transacted was of a routine nature.

SOPHOMORES AND JUNIORS TO DEBATE

Superintendent of City Schools Toose has arranged a series of debates between the Sophomores and the Juniors of the High School. The plan is to have preliminary debates by the members of each class, which will start this week, from whom will be selected the teams for the final debate to determine the supremacy of the classes. The championship will be determined in April and the winners will be given a prize of $5.

C. N. GREENMAN IS BURIED TUESDAY

PROMINENT PIONEER DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS OF RHEUMATISM

FUNERAL IS HELD AT RESIDENCE

Transfer Business Conducted By Him in This City For Many Years—Crossed Plains in 1853

Clark N. Greenman, one of the most prominent pioneers of Oregon City, died at the family home, Twelfth and Main Streets, Sunday evening, after an illness of several years, of inflammatory rheumatism and asthma. The funeral services were conducted at the home Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and the remains were interred in the family lot at Mountain View cemetery.

Clark Greenman was born August 6, 1831, in Summit, O. His father died when the son was four years of age, and Mr. Greenman, accompanying his mother and sisters, came west in 1853. They crossed the plains covering the entire distance of 3,000 miles by team. It taking ten months to make the journey. Mr. Greenman's mother and sisters remained in Oregon, but Mr. Greenman went to the Sound country, where he spent the winter. In 1854 he went to California, where he engaged in mining, and later worked in the mines of Idaho, and in 1865 engaged in the transfer business in Oregon City.

Mr. Greenman built up a large business through industry and fair dealing. He was of a kind disposition, and had hundreds of friends among the old and young.

Mr. Greenman and Miss Isaphena Collard, a daughter of prominent pioneer, were married April 11, 1856. Two sons, Fred H. Greenman, of Oregon City, ex-county clerk and Ernest Clark Greenman, connected with the State Fisheries with headquarters at Bonaville, and daughter, Mrs. Lillian Shepard, who died in this city several years ago, were born to the couple. Mr. Greenman is also survived by his widow.

FINAL TRIBUTE PAID MISS MARTHA GROSS

The funeral of Miss Martha Gross was held at the Willamette church Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, the services being conducted by Rev. A. M. Dart. The church was crowded with friends of the young woman.

The interment was made in the Stafford cemetery, many friends following the remains to the grave. The floral tributes were beautiful. Henry Bowers, George Bowers, Edger Miller, Gus Miller, Pearl Overton, Herman Lavancher were the pallbearers. Miss Gross was born April 24, 1837, in Speth, North Dakota, and came to Oregon with her parents, Gottlieb and Christina Gross, when she was about one year old. The family first settled at Stafford, where they remained until about four years ago, when they moved to Willamette. Miss Gross had been ill for several months. She is survived by her parents and the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. Minnie Pfallinger of Sacramento; Mrs. Pauline Teskie, of North Dakota; Mrs. Louise Chapman, of Winters, Cal.; Ferdinand, Adolph, Mike, Guy and Edward Gross of Oregon City; Samuel Gross, of Hartman, Wash.

MRS. ELLEN OGLE DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Mrs. Ellen Ogle, of Molalla, died after a lingering illness March 6, and the body was interred at the Adams cemetery last Saturday. The funeral was largely attended, the services being conducted by Mr. Shoemaker, of Molalla. Mrs. Ogle was a kind and devoted wife and loving mother and was respected by all who knew her. Before her marriage she was Ellen Sawtell, second daughter of Henry C. and Nancy J. Sawtell, pioneers of the 50's. She was born near what is now known as Clarkes, Clackamas County, Oregon, June 1, 1837. She was married to Thomas J. Ogle June 28, 1875. She was fifty-four years of age. Mrs. Ogle is survived by her husband and one son, Otis Ogle, and by three brothers and two sisters, George Sawtell, of the Dalles; Fred Sawtell, of Goshen, Cal.; Frank Sawtell, of Molalla; Mrs. Elize Dougherty, of Molalla, and Mrs. Jane Batey, of Wapato, Wash.

FALL CAUSES DEATH OF AGED RANCHER

P. E. Bailey, an aged resident of Sherwood died Thursday at the Good Samaritan Hospital in Portland, as a result of a severe fall he sustained two weeks ago. He ruptured a blood vessel in his head and was unconscious until his death, with the exception of a few minutes two weeks ago when he was able to recognize his wife. He immediately lapsed into unconsciousness and remained so until his death.

Mr. Bailey was a resident of Sherwood for the past forty years and operated a large onion ranch there. He is survived by his wife and nine children, one of whom is Miss Pearl Bailey of Oregon City, teacher in the fourth and fifth grades of the West Side school, who was called home to attend the funeral of her parent.

Mr. Bailey was sixty years of age. The date for the funeral has not been arranged for, but the services will be held at his late residence at Sherwood.

WILLIAM C. PHILLIPS, OF GLADSTONE, IS DEAD William C. Phillips, a prominent resident of Gladstone, died Thursday after a long illness. Mr. Phillips was born in Scotland sixty-two years ago, and had lived in Oregon several years. He is survived by a family.

MRS. LULA GIBBS DIES OF CONVULSIONS

Mrs. Lula Gibbs, wife of W. E. Gibbs of Oswego, died at the Oregon City hospital Wednesday morning. She was the victim of convulsions. Mrs. Gibbs recently arrived in Oswego with her husband, where they had intended making their future home. On Tuesday evening Dr. H. S. Mount, of this city, was called and found Mrs. Gibbs to be suffering from convulsions. Mrs. Gibbs was brought to the hospital where an operation was to be performed, but soon after her arrival here she was again seized with convulsions and died.

Mrs. Gibbs was twenty-seven years of age, and was born in Illinois. Her maiden name was Miss Lula Poole, her father is living, but her mother died several years ago. She was married about three years ago. The funeral arrangements have not been made.

O'MALLEY'S FATHER DIES OF PNEUMONIA

Information was received Wednesday morning from St. Johnsbury, Vermont by Mrs. Henry O'Malley that her husband's father, Patrick F. O'Malley, one of the well known residents of that city, died Monday evening of pneumonia, after suffering for six days. The funeral services will be held this morning, the interment to be in the cemetery at St. Johnsbury.

Mr. O'Malley was sixty-seven years of age. His death was a shock to his relatives in this city and Portland, as they were not aware of his illness. He is survived by his widow and 4 children, Arthur O'Malley, of Boston, Mrs. George Francis, of Boston; Henry O'Malley, superintendent of the bureau of fisheries of Oregon and Southern Washington with headquarters in Oregon City, and Miss Emily O'Malley, teacher in the Falling school in Portland.

DILLMAN QUILTS MILL TO BECOME FARMER

S. O. Dillman has left the employ of the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company after having been connected with that firm for the past seventeen years. He came to this city from Stockton, Cal., in 1895, where he had been connected with the California Paper Company. Mr. Dillman will give his attention to his fruit farm at Mount Pleasant where he has seventeen and one half acres. A large part of the farm is set to young bearing trees and strawberries.

Mr. Dillman has worked in almost every department of the big plant on the west side and has been promoted from time to time, holding when he left the company's employ the position of night superintendent of the Pulp mill.

EQUAL SUFFRAGE IS BIBLE CLASS THEME

The Friendly Bible Class held its regular monthly business meeting Wednesday evening at the Presbyterian church. The reports of the committees were heard and important business was transacted. John Meade, class president, gave an interesting talk, which was followed by several musical selections by Hugh and William Kennedy, who were forced to resign to encorea. A debate followed, Miss Maude Woodward presiding. The question was "Resolved, That Women have the right of Suffrage." Those on the affirmative were John Meade and Gilbert Morris, and on the negative were Paul Burrows and John Erickson. The judges, who were Charles Beale, William Kenner, and Amos Strosser, said that both sides had done well. The decision was for the negative side.

HANDSOME HOMES BEING ERECTED

BUILDING OPERATIONS IN SMALL TOWNS SHOW BIG INCREASE

OAK GROVE IS ONE OF LEADERS

Several Business Houses in This City Undergoing Repairs—P. M. Hart Erecting Fine Garage

Throughout the county building operations are active. Several handsome homes have been and are being constructed in Oak Grove. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Worthington have just taken possession of their new home on a lot commanding a fine view. The house is of bungalow style and is modern throughout. It has five rooms. The reception hall opens on the veranda, and into this room opens the living room, which is adjoining the dining room. The Dutch kitchen, bath and two bedrooms go to make up one of the neatest homes in the county. Among the comforts of the home is a large fireplace in the living room. The rooms are finished in light color highly polished. The building was constructed by Mr. Toates, of Milwaukie, E. C. Warren, of Oak Grove having charge.

A beautiful home to be erected in Oak Grove is that of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Warren, which will be completed about April 1. It will have large reception hall, in the rear of which is to be a handsome fireplace of white tiling over which will be two large electric lights. From this room will lead the living room and dining room on the east side, while on the west side will be the parlor and den, the parlor to be 16x16 feet and the living and dining rooms the same in size. There will be four archways.

On the second floor will be three bedrooms. The bath, which will be of white enamel, will be on the west side. Each bed room will be fitted with large clothes' closets. Among the conveniences will be the stationery wash trays in the full cement basement, woodlilt, electric lights, lavatories on both floors and built-in buffet. Mr. Warren is in charge of the work. There will be two cupboards, each having three windows, on the first floor and three on the lower floor. Mr. Warren is a prominent business man of Oak Grove and takes an active interest in the town, and the residence will be a great addition to the residence section.

L. E. Armstrong, of Oak Grove, has under construction a nine room residence, which will be one of the most convenient and attractive in that section of the county. This building will be modern throughout. It will have three dormer windows on the second floor, and will have a reception hall, living room, dining room, kitchen, bath, sleeping apartments, den, etc.

Many building in this city are undergoing improvements among them being the Duane Ely store, the Wilson & Cooke store and the building formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. Deutte on Seventh Street, which is now owned by Fred Bluhm. A fine garage has been built by P. M. Hart on his property at Twelfth and Jackson Streets. The house belonging to T. L. Charman on Twelfth Street near the Barclay school house has been improved by having a veranda and the rear renovated the carpentry work of which was in charge of Joseph Wilson, contractor. The painting and paperhanging was done by S. S. Mohler.

MORE RESIDENCES ARE BEING PLANNED

Dr. C. A. Stuart is building a bungalow of six rooms. The house will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Claire Evans, who recently arrived in Oregon City from Portland. The building is being erected by Flagler & Bagby, contractors, and will be ready for occupancy by the middle of April. The building is on Washington street between Third and Fourth streets. Dr. Stuart a few days ago purchased another lot on Second and Washington streets upon which he will build.

William Andressen is contemplating building a home on his lot on Jefferson street between Sixth and Seventh. The house he is now occupying will probably be removed so as to make room for his new home. This will be an eight room house, two story, and probably a full cement basement.

The work on the Elk's home to be built on Water street will soon be started. The building will have a full cement basement and be of 2 stories. The committee in charge of the building is composed of Bruce Z. Zumwalt, chairman, William Sheahan, J. P. Lovett, Theodore Osmond and Harry E. Draper. The building will be one of the finest structures in this city. The Order although only two years old has a membership of 258, many of the prominent and well known business men being members.

Throughout the county and especially along the Molalla road, many improvements are being made in the way of clearing land, and several homes will be erected. Frank Jaggard, one of the prominent residents of Carus, says that there is more clearing this year in that part of the county than there has been for the past four years. Clackamas county is an ideal place for a home, and there is no doubt that many persons will locate here when the colonists' rates are put into effect.
