SPOT HOPS IN GOOD DEMAND AT 38 CENTS

Spot hops are in better demand and from 38c to 39c and one-half cents a pound is being freely offered for good goods. Widner, Dorcus and Seavey are all said to be in the market at the prices quoted. Holders of hops have again strengthened their views and little goods remain. In all hands there is probably not more than 2300 bales in Oregon, and not many more in California. In Washington no hops are available at this time. The amount of hops remaining outside of the hands of brewers is insignificant, considering what even a few large brewers would want when they really enter the market. That the situation in the trade is the strongest of the season to date is now the general opinion of dealers generally. Spot goods, while firm, are no more in demand than are contracts for 1912. A three year contract has been written in Mendocino county, California, on the basis of 25c for the first year, 16c for the second and 15c for the third and last term. Growers are not offering contracts freely, and for that reason little business is passing. Reports from Willamette valley and from Washington yards indicate that the condition is normal.

DECREASE OF TEN CENTS IN POTATOES

Potato prices in Portland are being reduced slightly by holders in an effort to stimulate demand. There has been only a nominal call in the potato trade recently, and notwithstanding the light offerings stocks on hand are considered heavy. As a rule front street jobbers are quoting $1.75 per cent for choice stock. This is a drop of 10c from previous prices. Poor goods show sales down to $1.50.
