B. F. Mitchell, a real estate dealer in Oregon City, has purchased two Filipino horses, which have attracted much attention since being brought to this city. The horses have bodies and heads the size of an ordinary horse but their limbs are much shorter.

Mrs. R. H. Tabor entertained the Past Time Club at her home at Mel-drum on Monday last, and a most enjoyable time was had. The decorations were of roses and orange blossoms. Refreshments were served during the afternoon.

Miss Mina Blum, whose home is near Beaver Creek, spent Sunday there, returning to Oregon City Sunday evening. Miss Tina Blum spent Sunday at Clairmont with her sister, Mrs. David Scherrub, returning to Oregon City with her sister, Miss Mina Blum.

David McArthur, one of the prominent members of the Grand Army of the Republic, whose home is at New Era, was in this city on business Monday. Mr. McArthur has been taking an active part in the memorial exercises held by the G. A. R. in the schools in this city.

John Surfas, of Kellogg, Idaho, arrived in Oregon City Wednesday morning, having been called here by the death of his sister, Mrs. John Dou-

EDUCATION BOARD ELECTS TEACHERS

ALL INSTRUCTORS WHO FILED APPLICATIONS ARE AGAIN CHOSEN

TWELVE VACANCIES TO BE FILLED

Superintendent Toose And Principals Free And Bowland To Re- main—Applications Are Received

Every teacher in the Oregon City schools who filed an application was re-elected at a special meeting of the Board of Education Tuesday night. Because of the lateness of the hour, however, the Board did not fill any of the twelve vacancies in the corps, but will take this up as soon as more definite information relative to the qualifications of some of the applicants is obtained.

F. J. Toose, who has been superintendent of the city schools for the last three years, was re-elected Tuesday night, as were A. O. Free, principal of the Barclay building and N. W. Howland, principal of the East-ham building.

In the high school H. F. Pfingster, Mrs. Pearl C. Cartledge and Miss Evelyn Todd were re-elected, leaving three vacancies. Three instructors did not apply, Sigurd Anker, principal; Miss Lulu Kuna, commercial and science, and Miss Edith Baker, Latin, German and History.

The following grade teachers were re-elected:

Mrs. Estella Salisbury, Mrs. Quasie L. Hull, Nieta Harding, Ola Mickey, Katherine Montgomery, Queene Adams, Marjorie Caudell, Anna T. Smith.

Peter D. Forbes was re-elected instructor in the manual training department and Miss Lulu Porter was chosen instructor in domestic science and art. Miss Effie McDaniel, instructor in drawing, was not an applicant, and will give all of her time to the St. Johns schools next year.

The percentage of grade teachers not filing applications was greater this year than ever before, and the following grade vacancies have occurred due to the retirement of these instructors:

Barclay Building—First, Mrs. Helen Grises; fourth, Ruth Note; sixth, Viola Peddicord; third and fourth (in high school building), Miss Mary Scott.

Eastham Building—First, Christabel Jewett; third, Maude Mason; fifth and sixth; Ethel Park; fourth, Marcia Romie; sixth and seventh, Roma Stafford.

TEACHERS RE-ELECTED BY GLADSTONE BOARD

The Gladstone school district Tuesday night re-elected its entire corps of teachers. The principal, Brenton Vedder, will receive $100 per month, and the grade teachers will be paid $60. Mrs. Eva S. Henderson was elected primary teacher and Ethel E. Sharpe, Nellie Riehoff and Laura Purcell grade teachers. M. Johns was elected janitor at a salary of $40 a month.

CANEMAH GIRL BRIDE OF PORTLAND MAN

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Wednesday at the home of J. T. Searle, of Canemah, when his daughter, Miss Gertrude Isabelle, became the wife of Frederick A. Ulrich of Portland. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. W. Robinson, pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal church, the impressive ring ceremony being used. The Searle home was prettily decorated with palms, ferns and a profusion of cutflowers. The bride was very becomingly gowned in white silk tulle, and her long veil was held in place by lilies of the valley. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies, roses and white carnations. The wedding march, which was beautifully rendered, was played by Miss Esther Schumaker, of Portland. The bride entered the parlor escorted by her father, where she was given away in marriage to Mr. Ulrich. At the departure of the bridegroom and bride they were showered with rice. Many beautiful wedding gifts were received.

Mr. and Mrs. Ulrich will live in Portland where the former is well known, having been reared in that city.

Present at the wedding and reception were: Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Searle, Miss Gertrude Isabelle, Miss Esther Schumaker, of Portland; Harold Searle, of Canemah; Mrs. D. January and daughter, Gladys, Mr. and Mrs. E. Searle, Mr. and Mrs. William Harvey and son, William J., and Fred Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Searle, Mr. and Mrs. F. Ulrich, Miss Nell Searle, Edmond Searle, Misses Ellen and Annetta Searle.

The base ball team of the Presbyterian Sunday School issues a challenge to any Sunday School team in Clackamas County to a base ball game to be played the day of the picnic. The committee on games is composed of Superintendent Toose, President of Clackamas County Sunday School Association, J. Adams, Mr. Smith and Kent Wilson. The prizes for the events will be announced later.

CORRAL CREEK SCHOOL HAS FINE PROGRAM

The school at Corral Creek closed Friday afternoon with a basket picnic in the grove, and was one of the most successful affairs of this kind ever given in that part of the county. Among the features was a flag raising. The Mothers' and Teachers' Club presented the school with a handsome flag, and the presentation speech was made by Mrs. Norman Say. Mrs. Inza Wood, who has just closed a most successful term of school, had prepared an excellent program and the children taking part are deserving of much credit for the manner in which the program was carried out.

The children of this district are taking much interest in the coming district fair, and Mrs. M. C. Young, one of the prominent residents of that section of the county, has devoted much of her time in interesting many of the farmers in that section in donating prizes for the fair, and already has more than $312 subscribed. The district fair will be held the last week of June.

OREGON CITY HIGH WINS LEAGUE PENNANT

The Oregon City High School baseball team has been declared the winner of the pennant in the High School baseball league conducted under the auspices of the Clackamas School League, the Canby team having withdrawn its protest concerning the Molalla-Canby games April 6.

SKELETON OF INDIAN GIANT IS UNEARTHED

While James Wilkinson was excavating for John Lowry, who has the contract for the erection of several bungalows for H. J. Rigger at Greenpoint, Friday they unearthed the skeleton of an Indian giant. Mr. Wilkinson, with the aid of other workmen, gathered up the bones and will keep them. Many years ago a battle between the Clackamas and Molalla tribes of Indians took place near the mouth of the Abernethy river. The bones found, and it is thought the body lost is that of one of the warriors who lost his life in battle, and was buried by the members of his tribe.

TWILIGHT ACTORS DELIGHT BIG CROWD

The play given at Twilight Hall Saturday evening by the Twilight Community Club was well attended by the home people as well as from Mt. Pleasant and New Era. The play "Hans Von Smash," was rendered exceptionally well with probably Miss Marie Harvey starring for the women and George Laselle, playing the part of the proprietor of the farm, carrying out his role the best among the men. In fact all of the parts were well rendered and especially fine were Charles Schmeidecke as Hans, the leading comedy part and Mrs. Charles Schmeidecke who was the Irish girl. Miss Vera Camp was quite at home in representing a pleasant young lady of ability and Messrs. Bert Harvey and James Laselle played had actual experience on the road with a stock company, of course made all possible out of their parts. Miss Jesse McDonald who had the play in charge deserves much credit for the way it was handled.

PORTLAND LAWYER SAYS WIFE SULKED

GEORGE W. WILSON IS GRANTED DIVORCE HERE FROM MRS. V. M. WILSON

JEALOUSY OF CLIENTS IS ALLEGED

Defendant, Who is Daughter Of Multnomah County Official, Gets $1,000 Through Compromise

George W. Wilson, an attorney of Portland, and Mrs. Vera Marie Wilson, a daughter of Multnomah County Clerk Fields, of Multnomah County, were the principals in a divorce suit instituted August 4 in Clackamas County, and in which a decree has just been handed down by Circuit Judge Campbell.

WIFE SEEKS DIVORCE, ALLEGING CRUEL TREATMENT

The suit was settled without a contest, Mrs. Wilson accepting $1000 in lieu of property rights. The care of their 15-month-old son, George Lindsey Wilson, is divided, being given to Wilson and his divorced wife in alternate years. Mrs. Wilson is to receive from Wilson $25 a month during the years that she has the custody of their child.

John C. Shillock appeared for Wilson, but Mrs. Wilson was not represented by an attorney. She came to Oregon City and accepted service soon after the suit was filed.

Florence Stevens Monday filed suit for divorce against Orville A. Stevens, alleging cruelty. They were married in Oregon City, September 23, 1909. The plaintiff asks the custody of their children, Morleta and Lucy A. and says she is willing for the defendant to have the custody of Harriet M. and Marion H. She asks $12 a month alimony during the pendency of the suit.

2 HUSBANDS ASK DIVORCE

Alleging cruelty T. J. Merret Thursday filed suit for a divorce against Annie Merret. They were married in Spokane, July 14, 1904. George S. Penn sued Nora S. Penn for divorce alleging inhuman treatment. They were married in Vancouver, Wash., June 17, 1905.

2 WIVES WIN DECREES

Circuit Judge Campbell Saturday granted Adellah Mowery a divorce from D. D. Mowery. Lucy S. Dickson was awarded a decree from Andrew W. Dickson.

VETERANS AND PUPILS HAVE FINE OUTING

The pupils of the public schools of Gladstone, Parkplace and Mount Pleasant had a delightful outing in Gladstone Park Wednesday. Owing to the threatening weather the pupils of the Clackamas, Jennings Lodge and Milwaukie schools were unable to attend. About 100 members of Meade Post, Grand Army of the Republic, and the Women's Relief Corps, and guests of honor, were present and had a magnificent outing. Several of the veterans delivered addresses on patriotism, and were heartily cheered by the children and grown folk. Music was rendered by the Fire and Drum Corps and the Girls' Oak Grove Band.

Professor Vedder recited impressive verses, and Dr. T. B. Ford offered prayer. Mrs. Mattox, president of the Relief Corps also spoke upon patriotism and told what the women did during the Civil War to aid their fathers, husbands and brothers. The male quartet of the Parkplace school rendered several beautiful selections, and the girls' drill was beautiful. Captain James P. Shaw, Chairman delivered the opening address, which was applauded throughout, and the Rev. Henry Spless, of Clackamas, and J. S. Hamilton spoke feelingly. C. H. Dauchy gave an illustrated talk on flags, which was highly appreciated. The outing was thoroughly enjoyed by the veterans and children, and was such a success that it is decided to have one annually.

HENRICI SCHOOL HAS FINE CLOSING PROGRAM

The closing exercises of the Henrici school were held Saturday night at the school house, and was in the form of a basket social, when baskets containing luncheons were sold, the proceeds amounting to $35. Ice cream and cake were sold during the evening and an excellent program that had been arranged by the teacher, Miss Nellie Miller, and taken part in by the pupils of the school, was given during the evening. The interior of the school was prettily decorated with evergreen and flowers. There was a large attendance.

MRS. DOUTHIT DIES AFTER OPERATION

Mrs. Dora Douthit, wife of John Douthit, of this city, died at the Oregon City Hospital Monday evening, at 9:30 o'clock, where she had been taken to undergo an operation. Mrs. Douthit underwent an operation on Saturday and another operation was performed Monday morning. Mrs. Douthit has been ill for several weeks.

Mrs. Douthit was born in Butler County, Iowa, April 7, 1874, and at the time of her death was thirty-eight years of age. She was the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Surfas, the former having passed away in this city in 1888. She came to Oregon with her parents 27 years ago, and settled in Oregon City where she has since made her home, and where she is well known. About five years ago she married John Douthit, who survives her, and she also is survived by two little children by a former marriage, Ethel Younger and Reenie Younger; two sisters, Mrs. A. J. Ware, of Albion, Wash., and Mrs. Lillian Saunders, of Portland; five brothers, William Surfas, Edward Surfas, Charles Surfas, of Oregon City; Roy Surfas, of Bellwood and John Surfas, of Kellogg, Idaho. Mrs. Sarah Margaret Surfas, mother of Mrs. Douthit, also survives and resides in Oregon City.

The interment will be in the Mountain View cemetery, where a brief service will be held by Rev. J. R. Landborough, this being the request of Mrs. Douthit. The remains are at the home of Mr. Surfas, and will be taken from there this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

FINAL TRIBUTE IS PAID MISS SHANDY

The funeral of Miss Mable Shandy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Shandy, of Gladstone, was held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Baptist church, Rev. W. T. Milliken, pastor, officiating. Many friends of the young woman attended the services. Six young women were the pallbearers. They were Miss Verie Trimble, Miss Hazel Wyman, Miss Gladys Wyman, Miss Mable Mulkey and Miss Gladys Wyman. Miss Shandy, although a resident of Gladstone for only four months made many friends there. The interment was in the Mountain View cemetery. The floral tributes were beautiful.

Miss Shandy was stricken a short time ago with pneumonia, which resulted in tuberculosis. She is survived by besides her parents, two sisters, Clarence and Ernest, and one brother, Mrs. Guimond, of Gladstone.

GLADSTONE GIRL IS VICTIM OF PNEUMONIA

Miss Mable Shandy, seventeen years of age, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Shandy of Gladstone, died Thursday evening. The funeral services will be conducted this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Baptist church, and the burial will be in the Mountain View cemetery. Rev. W. T. Milliken, will officiate.

Miss Shandy came to this county about a year ago with her parents from Colorado. Her health had failed for several months. She died from tuberculosis superinduced by pneumonia.

PETER BODELL, AGED FARMER, DIES SUDDENLY

Peter Bodell, seventy-three years of age, died at his home near Redland Wednesday. He is survived by a widow, Mr. Bodell was a farmer and was one of the leading residents of his section. His death was sudden.

RURAL MAIL CARRIER'S AUTO STUCK IN MUD

Frank Whitman, a rural mail carrier, who recently turned his faithful horses, "Pet" and "Peggy," out to pasture for their summer's outing, and has since that time been making his rounds in an automobile, had the misfortune of getting "mired" Monday, and it was necessary to continue his work on foot. His family in this city were much concerned over his delay, but he made his appearance about 10 o'clock foot sore and tired. Tuesday morning he took "Peggy" on the trip and brought his machine back with him, fastening it to the rear of his mail wagon. Whitman says that a horse is about as good as an automobile, and some times better. He can always depend on his horses even if the roads are almost impassable in some places. He will continue to work out his road tax. The section where Whitman had the accident Monday had not been reached before by the driver with his shovel and hoe when he started working his road tax a week ago, and he intends to leave every morning from this city on time and care for these bad roads so that he may use his automobile the remainder of the summer.

CLARKES BEAT COLTON

The Clarkes base ball team defeated the Colton team in an eleven inning contest Sunday on the Clarkes field. The feature of the game was the pitching of Will Dalton, the spit ball artist. He was opposed by Ben Schinlegrau, who also did some fine heaving. The score was 3 to 2.
