FASHION PREDICTIONS.

Spring Color Combinations—A New Hatpin.

Gray united to one of the deeper and now fashionable shades of yellow is one of the happiest of color combinations.

The fashions of the season are far from tyrannical, and, if nothing is absolutely new, we can console ourselves with the thought that everything is permitted.

The double stem hatpins, which take a firm grip of the hair, are novelties that have recently been introduced with some success, though the older style is still preferred.

Just such smart little morning frocks as the one pictured are liked by the SMART DRESS IN SLIMMEST STYLE—summer girl. The shirt waist is of the mannish sort and the skirt is of the modish straight lines of the moment.

These May Mantle patterns are cut in sizes for misses of fourteen, sixteen and eighteen years of age. Send 10 cents each for these patterns to this office, giving number, skirt 758 and waist 757, and they will be promptly forwarded to you by mail. If in haste send an additional two cent stamp for letter postage, which insures more prompt delivery. When ordering use coupon.

We have never fully realized how this place has grown within the past year, but was very noticeably seen on entering the school room on Friday afternoon, May 24th, to listen to the excellent program given by the pupils of both rooms on the closing of the term of school. Every available seat was taken and some were obliged to stand during the program, as follows:

Opening—Greeting song by pupils; Recitation—Helping Mother, Ruth Cook; Primary motion song; Recitation—The Sick Doll, Naomi Wilcox; Song—Just Before the Battle, Mother, Pupils; Recitation—A Gentle Amos, Doris Panton; Song—Red Wing, Annie Russell Fern and Ethel Hart, Mary Pierce; Flag Drill by Primary grades; Song—Tenting on the Camp Grounds, Pupils; Recitation—Night, Evelyn Paston; Recitation—When Mother's Making Jam, by Leo Cook; Dialogue—Naomi Wilcox and Evelyn Paston; Song—Dixie Land, by Donald MacFarlane, Vivian Spooner, Evelyn Paston, Newton Strain, Wilma Bruchert and Verne LaCure; Song by Little Miss Leahman, age 3 years; Dialogue, by Mary Bruchert, Mary Pierce, Annie Russell, Bessie Roberts, Doris Roehbe, LeClair Ostrom and Fern Hart; Recitation—Mamma's Darling, Elizabeth Bruchert; Song—America, by all.

After remarks by some of the patrons of the school and a talk from each of the teachers in regard to the welfare of the school, all felt that the term passed had been a prosperous one. Miss Mary Pierce, a member of the 7th grade, was the pianist for the afternoon, and Arthur Roberts passed the eighth grade examination successfully.

The picnic held on the west bank of the Willamette Saturday, May 25, was quite well attended although the weather seemed unfavorable for an out of door outing. Thirty-five sat down to the beautiful picnic dinner, which the Ladies' Guild have the reputation of serving. The day was spent boating, lunch riding and gathering flowers and ferns. A vote of thanks is extended to Mrs. Emmons for furnishing the lunch for the delightful ride over and on the river in the afternoon.

LIGHTNING STRIKES PEOPLE AT AURORA

Seeking shelter under a Juniper tree from a storm which swept over Aurora last Sunday afternoon, Bernice Ramsey, Lela Gard, daughter of Harry Gard, Zelma Cumins, daughter of Eugene Cumins, and Frank Rinco, all excepting Miss Ramsey being former residents of Clackamas County, received an electric shock resulting from lightning striking the tree under which they were standing, all four being rendered unconscious for a short time, and Miss Gard for over two hours.

A team of horses tied under the same tree was instantly killed.

Dr. W. H. Snook, who was fishing in the neighborhood, was called and applied the necessary treatment, working especially hard with Miss Gard.

Quite a number of persons who were standing near the tree were knocked down by the shock and badly frightened, but receiving no injury. The four who were stricken have all recovered and feel no bad effect other than a noticeable stiffness and soreness of the muscles.

PITCHER ED WALSH IS TOO WILLING TO WORK.

"Ed Walsh is so willing that I hate to ask him even to pitch to his team," said Manager Jimmy Callahan of the Chicago Americans.

"Walsh participates in more games than any three pitchers, and I honestly believe he would be willing to pitch every game of a season if he thought the Sox would win a pennant through it.

"It's men like Walsh of whom I dislike to ask things. They're so blamed willing that you feel guilty when you call upon them in an emergency."

Progress.

"Is your son making any progress in his profession?" asked a friend of a Cleveland business man whose college bred son has just left his alma mater to go to work for his pater.

"Yes," signed the father. "He is making a good deal of progress. He has been in the office for two years now, and he's beginning to learn the rudiments of some of the things he thought he could teach me when he was first graduated from the university."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

AT YOUR BEST.

You are at your best when you are helping somebody.

You are that divinest spectacle on earth—a man at his best—when stirred to action by the appeal of some one who needs you, you open your heart, your hand, your purse.

It is so of man in the mass.

When a Chicago fire, a Galveston flood or a San Francisco earthquake makes instant appeal men move at their best. They act in mass on the high plane of a united ministry.

Such a response develops in a whole people all that is highest in feeling and noblest in action.

Do you know that every day there is an earthquake or a fire or a flood in somebody's soul?

Every day some man's substance is swept away; every day some woman's heart is rent by an earthquake; every day some child's life is flooded by sorrow.

You do not know about it.

If you did you would sympathize and help.

The calamity may come to your next door neighbor and you know it not. Your neighbor hides his wound. He fears humiliation or he questions the genuineness of your sympathies.

Now—

He has missed his chance to be helped by you, and you have missed your opportunity to be at your best.

It is true when all men respond to some great call made upon the common sympathy through fire or cyclone or flood, but it is truer when the concern of your neighbor becomes your concern.

Do not wait for fire or flood. Men and women and little children everywhere need you. They bear burdens you should help to lighten. They suffer pains you should help assuage. The wounded, the discouraged, the sick, the poor, we have always with us. Be at your best.

Help.

Help not only because you can relieve and bless, but because by doing so you can make most of yourself and live at your best—because you can develop in yourself that which we so greatly admire when a great people responds to a great need.

If you would be at your best—Help!

Know What She Wanted.

"Miss Boldie" said the shy student to the fair co-ed on the other end of the sofa. "If I were to throw you a kiss what would you say?"

"I'd say you're the laziest man I ever met."—Minnesota.
