W. C. T. U. IN FAVOR OF EQUAL SUFFRAGE

An interesting and well attended meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held Tuesday afternoon at the Presbyterian church, Mrs. J. H. Olmsted, president being in the chair.

The subject, "Women's Suffrage," was discussed by Mrs. E. B. Andrews and Mrs. A. Nash, in favor of enfranchising women, and by Mrs. J. R. Landsborough against it. Many good points were brought out and all were much interested, many of those present taking part in the general discussion which followed.

A vote showed that all present were in favor of Women's Suffrage. The president reported having found it difficult to find anyone to present the negative side, but it was defended in true debater's style with such enthusiasm and versatility as to almost convince the hearers and speaker as well. Mrs. Olmsted sang beautifully "The Plains of Peace," after which a short business session was held.

The W. C. T. U. stands for all that is helpful to the home and the child, and every mother is invited to attend the meetings.

The first few days he got along all right but finally he was caught in the rain, which made part of the road impassable. The machine was disabled and he had to return to Oregon City on foot. "Peggy," was again put in commission on the route until the necessary repairs were made to the car. The machine again broke down Tuesday and Mr. Whitman had to telephone to this city for another machine to bring him and the broken car here. He has at last decided that it is the fault of the automobile instead of the roads, and is contemplating purchasing another machine.

Passed Along.

An old woman was once pouring a tirade into the ear of Charles Lamb more remarkable in length than substance. Observing that the noted essayist was fast lapsing into a state of oblivion, she aroused him by remarking in a loud voice:
"I'm afraid, Mr. Lamb, you are deriving no benefit from my observations."
"Well, madam," he replied, "I can not say that I am, but perhaps the woman on the other side of me is, for they go in one ear and out the other."

Power of the Press.

A newspaper can drop the same thought into a thousand minds at the same moment. A newspaper is an adviser that does not require to be sought, but comes to you briefly every day of common weal, without distracting your private affairs. Newspapers, therefore, become more necessary in proportion as men become more equal individuals and more to be feared. To suppose that they only serve to protect freedom would be to diminish their importance. They maintain civilization.—De Tocqueville.

DR. MOUNT ATTENDS DENTAL EXAMINATION

Dr. Clyde Mount, member of the State Board of Dental Examiners, is in Salem where the semi-annual examination is being conducted. He will be there the remainder of the week, and from the information that has been wanted to this city on the winds, the convicts will be delighted when the examiners and the students have finished their work. To make year, the convicts who have defective molars, cusps, bicuspids, etc. are the subjects operated upon in the clinics which are being held daily. This, it is whispered, is another of Governor West's policies. However, without reflecting in the least upon the men behind the bars, the gold that is being wedged in their teeth is probably the only honest gold some of them ever acquired.

MOLALLA STARS WIN FIVE IN SUCCESSION

The Mollalla Stars won their fifth game at Clarks Sunday, playing against the team of that town. The Stars were organized late in the season, and have played five games, winning all of them. ## LARGE AUTO PARTY NEAR TO MT. HOOD

A party of this city went to the Toll Gate near Government Camp Sunday, the day being an ideal one for the trip. The party left about 8 o'clock in the morning and returned home at 9 o'clock in the evening. A stop was made at Rhododendron Inn. There were fifty automobile parties at the inn. The Oregon City party was composed of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Daulton and two daughters, Misses Helen and Bess, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Latourette and son, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Logan, and Mr. William Sheehan and family, Miss Zida Goldsmith, Miss Cia Pratt, Miss Clothilda Ripzynski, and Ralph Parker. Joseph Sheehan and Ralph Parker made the trip by motorcycle, being the first to make the trip on a motorcycle tandem this season. The roads for automobile riding in that part of the country are fairly good, but for motorcycle riding they are too rough. The boys made good time, but were forced to push their motorcycles about two miles.

The Clackamas County Automobile Club is arranging a trip to Government camp in the near future.

Alleging that her husband has treated her cruelly and that she had to work to support herself, Sarah A. Lane Monday filed suit for a divorce against Andrew Jackson Lane. They were married in Portland November 14, 1906. The plaintiff says she has three children by a former marriage and she is the owner of real estate. She declares her husband has frequently said, "If you die those children will get everything and I won't get a cent."

T. J. Thomas, through Attorney George L. Story, filed suit for a divorce against Lizzie Thomas. The plaintiff charges that his wife is an inebriate and has been arrested for intoxication.

DILLMAN TO HAVE BUMPER BERRY CROP

S. O. Dillman, who has a 19-acre farm at Mount Pleasant, is having erected a canvas house, the dimensions to be 12x16 feet, and adjoining this will be a kitchen and pantry. Mr. Dillman has three acres of land in strawberries, and will commence picking this week. The varieties are New Oregon, Clarkes Seedling and Gold Dollar. The Clarkes Seedling and New Oregon, are excellent for canning as well as for table purposes, and are of delicious flavor.

Mr. Dillman has erected a structure on Seventh Street near the Brown meat market, where he has arranged to sell his berries. Although the vines on his farm are still young, they have been very productive, and he has decided to plant some on his farm in a choppy sea with a party of life-guards in an effort to save several drowning persons and fell out of the dory. His body has not been found because of the tragedy the marriage of his sister, Miss Fay Fitch, which was to have been solemnized this month, has been postponed. Mrs. G. W. Grace, of this city, received a letter from friends in Seattle that Mrs. Fitch, who lives in that city, was prostrated as a result of the tragedy. Miss Florence Grace was to have been an attendant at the wedding of the young man's sister. The family left this city about eight years ago.

ROBERT GREEN HIT BY STRAY BULLET

EASTHAM SCHOOLBOY ACCIDENTALLY SHOT ON RIVER BY E. T. FIELDS

PELLET, AIMED AT SNAG, GLANCES

Young Man's Condition Serious, But Dr. Sommer Thinks He Will Recover—Wound Near Heart

Robert Green, son of S. R. Green, was accidentally shot and seriously wounded Thursday afternoon by E. T. Fields, agent for the Southern Pacific Railroad in this city. The shooting occurred on the river in the rear of Frank Busch's store, at Twelfth and Main streets. Mr. Fields who was rowing on the opposite side of the river fired at a snag with a 22-caliber rifle, the ball ricocheting on the water and striking the lad, who with a companion had only a few minutes before got out of a boat.

Several workmen employed at a sand bank by Moffatt & Parker, contractors, saw the boy fall and went to his assistance. Sheriff Mass was notified and Drs. H. S. and Guy Mount were summoned. It was at first thought the lad had been shot through the heart, but an investigation made at the Oregon City Hospital showed that the bullet entered just under the heart and the physicians think he has a chance to live. Dr. E. A. Sommer, of Portland, performed an operation Thursday night.

Robert Green, who is sixteen years of age, is one of the best young athletes in the county. He has won several medals in school contests, and expected to enter several meets this summer. He was graduated from the Eastham school Wednesday, being one of the most popular members of the class.

An additional unfortunate feature of the accident is that Mr. Fields has been seriously ill for several months, having recently returned from San Francisco where he was given medical treatment. His friends fear the shock of the shooting may cause a relapse. He was attended by a physician Thursday night.

With Mr. Fields in the skiff was Frank Champion. After the boy fell the men who picked him up called to Messrs. Fields and Champion and they rowed across the river, the former explaining how he had fired at the snag. Sheriff Mass, the boy's father and the physicians carried the lad to the Oregon City Hospital where he was given immediate attention.

"I am not badly hurt," said the lad. "Why that is not serious. Don't worry about me."

EVERETT ELMER JUDD, OF MARQUAM, DEAD

Former Editor of Western Stock Journal Expires in Hotel

Dimick Pays Him High Compliment

Newspaper Man Revealed Little Of Life's History, But Is Believed To Have Been College Graduate

Charles M. Abbott, formerly editor of the Western Stock Journal, published in this city, died Tuesday at the Willamette Hotel after an illness of about one week. Mr. Abbott had worked as a newspaper reporter and copy editor in San Francisco, Oakland, Boston, New York and other cities in the East. He came to Oregon City about six months ago, and worked several weeks on a special issue of a newspaper, after which he obtained the editorship of the stock journal. Mr. Abbott vouchsafed little information regarding himself, excepting his newspaper connections and that his parents lived in New York City. He was an experienced newspaper man, a fluent writer and evidently a college bred man.

He complained several weeks ago of stomach trouble and remained in bed three days. Afterward he was apparently as well as ever, and resumed his newspaper duties. His last illness, however, was much more serious from the start and his physician, Dr. M. C. Strickland, said several days ago that he probably would not recover.

"I never knew a finer young newspaper man than Mr. Abbott," said Grant B. Dimick, Manager of the Western Stock Journal. "He was a well informed man, and a versatile writer. He knew little of the stock business when we employed him, but he made a careful study of it, and the last articles he wrote were highly praised by stockmen. While he told me little of his personal history, I am confident that he came of a well-to-do family, and was probably a college graduate."

A telegram announcing Mr. Abbott's death was sent to his parents in New York but no answer has been received. He told J. E. Hill, who nursed him, that his father was Hon. John T. Abbott, and his address was St. George Hotel, New York City.

Mr. Abbott was a Past Grand Member of I. O. O. F. Molalla Lodge, No. 184; attending the session of the Grand Lodge of Oregon at Salem in 1908; was a member of the Church of Christ; served South Clackamas County as deputy assessor for one year; also served on school board for a number of years. Always affiliated with the Republican party.

Deceased is survived by a widow, Ida E. Judd, a daughter, Lora S. Judd, his mother, Mrs. C. Jones, of Glad Tidings, two brothers in Helena, Mont. Otto Hand, W. H. Judd, one brother, Cyrus Judd, of Filer, Idaho; a sister, Mrs. Alice Reed of St. Johns, Oregon; youngest brother, Leon Judd, of Marquam and a half brother, Elmer Jones of Glad Tidings. The younger sister, Mrs. Grace Vaughn of Salem, Oregon, died in 1909.
