Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE

OUT OF THE WAY It is 8:30 a. m. The street cars are lined up for a block. The cierks had come down earlier. These cars are filled with the bosses, hends of departments, professional men. Restless and fuming, a broker cries out, "What's the matter shoud?"

"Coal wagon down." "A coal wagon! Can't the company keep these people off the track? Must man miss an important engagemen; because of these drivers?"

The coal hauler, in order to relieve his rather weak team, had turned into the car tracks. Warned by the clanging bell he started off. The strain broke an axle and the wheel smashed down. Traffic was delayed ten min-

That was all, except that the driver would lose two days' work and $5. A bagatelle? Let's see.

The loss to the company, incorporated at $5,000,000, is a few nickels But the driver's loss? Capitalize his entire outfit at $150. Wagon, borses and harness are old.

How much has he lost? One thirtieth of his capital. A railroad company capitalized at $150,000,000 has a disastrous wreckloss $100,000. The papers make much of it. Well, the company loses one Ofteen hundredth of its capital. The railroad company may cut small fraction off the dividends at the end of the year or make up the loss in some other way, but the coal hauler must make up for the loss of the one thirtieth part of his capital stock by pinching economy.

Go to his home The wreck of the wagon is to the family a real calamity. It means dinners without meat. It may mean a failure to pay the rent. And in the end some bloodsucker may get a mortgage on team and wagon.

Ask the woman. Little John's coat is getting too worr and patched for school. His sister must needs a pair of new shoes. Her old shawl is good enough for "her," but father sufferers in the bleak winds because his underclothing has grown

Aye, drag the old trap off the track; We must get down to business,

And, alas for Christian charity under the sun, no one of those prosperous people who passed the sooty faced driver as he stood by the side of his battered wreck had perhaps a gilm mer of thought or pity for his tremer
