AMERICA AT THEIR BACK

Says the London Economist: "Revolution or no revolution, investors who have bought Mexican industrial bonds seem to have enough confidence in Mexico's future to refrain from selling."

The other day President Madero floated a loan of $10,000,000 in New York, and the financiers who lent him this money told him that he could have very much more if asks for it.

It is to be hoped that his present attempt will prove futile. If he is sane now, if he ever was insane and returns to the old haunts will put him back into the old rut and some one will suffer for it.

This is what steadies the markets all over the world for Mexican securities. Even when the rebel victories, or apparent victories, were most frequent, and when report said that Zapata and Orozco were about to converge the Mexican capital, holders of that country's bonds held them without any tremors.

ROOSEVELT SAYS HE'LL NOT QUIT

COLONEL MAKES PLANS FOR FIGHT AS INDEPENDENT CANDIDATE

DEMOCRATS ARE INVITED TO AID

Judge Lindsey, of Denver, Going To Baltimore To Sound Leaders—Johnson To Name Committee

CHICAGO, June 24.—The nomination of a pronounced "progressive" at Baltimore will mean no change in the plans of Colonel Roosevelt to lead the new party born last Saturday.

This progressive statement came from him after there had been some discussion of the possibility that a "progressive" might receive the Democratic Presidential nomination.

Illinois Roosevelt men later discussed with him the new party plans to be pursued in this state. Later a conference was held which was attended by Chauncey Dewey, Medill McCormick, Walter Clyde Jones, candidate for nomination for Governor in the April primaries and others.

Mc McCormick said it had been decided to form the "Progressive Republican Party" in Illinois in opposition to the regular Republican organization.

He said the main elements in the new party at the start would be the Illinois Progressive Republican League and the Roosevelt organization, built up by Dewey and the other leaders of the Roosevelt men.

It is the expectation of the leaders to place a complete state ticket in the field, including Congressional and legislative candidates.

There was no formal meeting of Roosevelt followers today, but informal conferences were held, in which Colonel Roosevelt discussed the situation with leaders of the new party which sprang into being last Saturday night.

Senator Joseph M. Dixon, field general of the Roosevelt forces in the anti-convention fight, talked with his chief.

Governor Johnson, of California, on whom rests a part of the responsibility for the appointment of the committee of seven which will map out the new party, was the next to confer with the Colonel. James R. Garfield, and Gifford Pinchot followed.

No declaration was made by Roosevelt. He said he did not expect to make any until some definite program of progress was formulated.

Governor Johnson, who has been selected as chairman of the new organization prepared to leave for his home. Johnson was authorized to appoint a committee of seven to draw up a plan for permanent organization, but he announced his appointments would not be made public for several days.

It is not believed any member of this committee has been definitely decided on as yet. The opinion of Colonel Roosevelt was, owing to the multitude of complexities entering into the formation of the new party, several days of close study would be required, it being desired to give Democrats and Republicans, if they are true progressives, representation on the committee.

Judge B. H. Lindsey, of Denver, announced that he probably would go to Baltimore during the Democratic convention to study the situation there and to sound Democratic leaders regarding the new party.

BOURNE AGAINST TAFT

PORTLAND, June 25.—In a telegram from Washington today United States Senator Bourne announced that he would not support President Taft for reelection Mr. Bourne charges that Mr. Taft resorted to "steam-roller" methods in gaining the nomination.

U'REN DENOUNCES M'CUSKER BY WIRE

Accusing him of betrayal of his trust and "a violation of the letter and spirit of the law and of your oath of office," W. S. U'Ren Thursday night telegraphed Thomas McCusker, member of the Oregon delegation in the Republican National convention, demanding an explanation for McCusker's action in refusing to support the Roosevelt "program" in the convention.

TAFT REGULAR NOMINEE; ROOSEVELT ALSO NAMED

bearing the most specific instructions to place Theodore Roosevelt in nomination as the candidate of our party for President, and we therefore deem it to be our duty to carry out these instructions in the only practical and feasible way remaining open to us.

"Therefore, be it resolved, That we representing the majority of the voters of the Republican party and of the delegates and alternates legally elected to the National Republican convention in compliance with our instructions from the party voters, hereby nominated Theodore Roosevelt as the candidate of our party for the office of President of the United States, and we call upon him to accept such nomination in compliance with the will of party voters.

"And be it further resolved, That a committee be appointed by the chair in which to forthwith notify Colonel Roosevelt of the action here taken and request him to appear before us in this hall as soon as convenient."

The followers of Colonel Roosevelt met in Orchestra Hall, less than a mile from the Coliseum, and pledged their support to the ex-President. In accepting the nomination, Colonel Roosevelt appealed to the people of all sections, regardless of party affiliations, to stand with the founders of the new party, one of whose cardinal principles he said, was to be "Thou shalt not steal."

At a later time, probably in August, a National convention will be held. Colonel Roosevelt in accepting the nomination said he did so with the understanding that he would be willing to step aside if it should be the desire of the new party when organized to select another standard-bearer.

"Gentlemen, I thank you for your nomination and in you I recognize the lawfully elected delegates to the Republican convention, who represent the overwhelming majority of the voters who took part in the Republican primaries prior to the convention and who represent the wish of the majority of the lawfully elected members of the convention. I accept the nomination subject to but one condition.

"I feel that the time has come when not only all men who believe in progressive principles, but all men who believe in those elementary maxims of public and private morality which underlie every form of successful government should join in one movement.

"If you wish me to make the fight I will make it, even if only one state should support me. The only condition I impose is that you shall be entirely free when you come together to substitute any other man in my place if you deem it better for the movement and in such case I will give my heartiest support.

"It does not represent the masses of the Republican party. It was organized in cynical defiance of their wishes and it has served the purpose only of a group of sinister political bosses who have not one shadow of sympathy with the spirit and purpose of the Republican party of 50 years ago and many of whom have used the party merely as an adjunct to money-making either for themselves or for the great crooked financial interests which they serve."

"But we are more fortunate in one respect than our predecessors, for we who now stand for the progressive cause the progressive movement, have done forever with all sectionalism and we make our appeals equally to the men who fought under Grant and to the sons of the men who fought under Lee for the cause we champion as we emphatically cause of the South as it is the cause of the North.

"I am in this fight for certain principles, and the first and most important of these goes back to Sinal and is embodied in the commandment, 'Thou shalt not steal a nomination,' 'Thou shalt neither steal in politics nor in business,' 'Thou shalt not steal from the people the birthright of the people to rule themselves.'

"There is no use in holding primaries, no use in holding elections, if we permit a small group of unscrupulous politicians, some of whom are certainly acting in the interests of big crooked business to exercise the veto power over these primaries and elections by upsetting the results at their own pleasure.

"The old National committee, chosen by the politicians four years ago, made up a temporary roll, including some 90 fraudulent delegates who had not been elected by the people, and thereby they controlled a majority of the convention. This fraudulent temporary roll in turn chose a fraudulent credentials committee, and all the fraudulent delegates voting on one another's cases thereby made up the permanent roll which constituted the fraudulent convention."

"Then this fraudulent convention chooses a new and not less fraudulent National committee.

"The powerful crook, the political bosses, have and ought to have no feeling but contempt for the honest men who submit to their violent and unscrupulous dishonesty. If we permit fraud of this kind to triumph we do a shameful thing and show either that we are faint at heart or dull of conscience.

"Fundamentally, these principles for which I stand are, first, that the people have the right to rule themselves, and can do so better than any outsiders can rule them; and, second, that it is their duty so to rule in a spirit of justice toward every man and every woman without our borders, and to use the Government so far as possible as an instrument for obtaining not merely political but industrial justice.

"We practically apply the commandment, 'Thou shalt not steal,' and we wish to give a square deal to every citizen of this Republic so that he may have a chance to show the stuff there is in him, unhelped by privilege and unhampered by privilege for others."

"The decision of the Roosevelt people, under direction of their leader, to refrain from voting left no other candidate but Taft in the regular convention. The announcement of the Taft victory was greeted with cheering from his adherents and groans and hisses from the opposition.

VARICOSE VEINS

are oft times dangerous and should be treated with care. SILK ELASTIC HOSE... WOODARD, CLARKE & CO. PORTLAND, OREGON

When it became absolutely certain that Mr. Taft would be nominated without great difficulty the leaders in control of the convention decided to give him as a running mate his companion on the ticket in 1908.

CHICAGO, June 22.—Governor Johnson at 2:10 left the convention hall, declaring he would not sit in the convention during the nomination for president, nor be bound by its acts.

Governor Johnson, in a statement, said all of the California delegation desired to retire with him, but that he requested them to remain to carry out the general plan of the Roosevelt delegates.

The report of the committee on permanent organization, recommending that the temporary list, headed by Senator Root, be made permanent was adopted.

Senator Root came forward amid deafening noise of cheers, whistling and other signs of approval and disapproval.

When at last it became quiet, Mr. Root made a brief speech of thanks. He introduced Henry J. Allen, of Kansas, to make a statement.

Henry J. Allen's speech was a declaration that the Roosevelt people repudiated this convention, and its work and, without a physical bolt, appealed to the people. Allen began by reading the statement of Roosevelt.

Allen's first mention of Roosevelt's name started a tremendous cheering, in which all the Roosevelt delegations participated, with scores of people in the galleries. The Taft delegations sat still watching the rest of the crowd, but taking no part in the demonstration.

There were large sections of the gallery, too, where the people were sitting motionless.

With hope, but no certainty of adjournment some time before daylight Sunday, the Republican National convention was called to order this morning at 10:45 by Temporary Chairman Root. Several delegates cried: "A—aboard." Chairman Root seemed amused by the incident.

The convention immediately took up the report of the credentials committee seating the Taft delegates-at-large in Mississippi.

There were two reports. The minority report was tabled by a viva voce vote, amid cries of "Toot, toot." The majority report was adopted, seating the Taft delegates.

On the Second Mississippi District the committee reported unanimously in favor of the Taft delegates, and they were seated by the convention.

The Fifth, Sixth and Seventh Mississippi, the Fourth North Carolina, the Third Oklahoma and Second Tennessee were rushed through viva voce amid great confusion, shouts of "Let her rip!" "Exceeding the speed limit!" "Where is the traffic cop?" and the like.

Somebody had a whistle which he signalled like a street conductor. Washington delegates-at-large, one of the big cases over which a hot battle was expected, was next brought in by the committee.

P. H. Howard, a negro delegate from Mississippi, raised a point of order. "The steam roller is exceeding the speed limit."

This started a big laugh which Chairman Root suppressed in order to say: "The chair sustains the point of order." He added: "The justification is that we have some hope of getting through for Sunday."

The majority report favored the Taft delegates. Every Roosevelt member of the credentials committee signed the dissenting report.

There was some delay. A delegate shouted: "Say, Watson, sand your track!"

Halbert of Minnesota argued for the minority report.

Dovell, of Washington, followed for chair rule that while Dovell must not vote on his own case, he was entitled to present his case to the convention.

The Taft delegates were seated by a viva voce vote without the expected roll call.

The First district of Washington came next, the majority report favoring the Taft delegates. The Taft delegates were seated without roll call. The crowd began to sing "Merrily We Roll Along." Next came the Second Washington district. The Taft delegates were seated, as also were those from the Third district. This finishing the Washington contest—all in favor of Taft.

Under cover of the noise, the Californians started the old cry: "We want Teddy!" For their first time it got well going and the anti-Roosevelt people had a hard time drowning it out with other noise.
