The Rialto.

The architect of the famous Rialto bridge, in Venice, was Antonio da Ponte. The bridge is a single arch, ninety feet in length, and is exceedingly light and graceful. It is crossed by means of ascending and descending steps, dividing on the top are two ranges of shops, while the structure into three parallel streets.

FRAMERS DISCUSS REVISED CHARTER

MAYOR SCORES INSTRUMENT AT COMMERCIAL CLUB MEETING

STIPP EXPLAINS ITS PROVISIONS

Bush and Others Defend Proposed Plan Of Having Business Administration—Tooze Speaks Tonight

The revised city charter, which will be voted upon at a special election, was discussed at length at a mass meeting at the Commercial club Monday evening. About fifty taxpayers were present and the sentiment seemed to be in favor of the revised charter. It provides for the election of five councilmen, one from each of the three wards and two from the city at large. The council will be empowered to elect one of its members mayor and to appoint a business manager of the city at a salary not to exceed $2,500 a year. The council will name the chief of police who will name the patrolmen subject to the action of the council.

Livy Stipp, a member of the board which revised the charter, explained its provisions. He declared that there was no question that it was an improvement on the present charter. He said the results under the new arrangement would be much more satisfactory than under the present system. Frank Bush also commended the revised instrument, declaring that it would, if put into practice, give better satisfaction. He said that it probably gave the proposed business manager too much authority, but that was not a serious defect.

Mayor Dimick and O. W. Eastman spoke against the new charter. Eastman declared there should be at least nine councilmen as under the present arrangement. He said the new plan gave the business manager too much authority. L. H. Horton, president over the meeting. Councilman Tooze, a member of the charter committee and others will speak in favor of the new instrument at a mass meeting at Mountain View tonight.

The mayor said that the amendment gives the business manager too much power, and that the present council of nine men should not be curtailed.

"If you give the business manager too much authority," said the mayor, "he will think he owns the city. He could order all cross walks in the city changed from wood to macadam. The council should represent every part of the city. There has been a system of graft inaugurated in Baker. Oregon, by having the authority confined to a few men. The business of the city should be transacted in the council which is an open body, and where the people of the city may come."

Mayor Dimick criticized the charter provision giving the business manager power to advertise for bids through the medium of circular letters.

PARTY CATCHES 8 DOZEN CRAWFISH

A merry crawling party was given on the banks of the Tualatin river Sunday, the day being spent in fishing and picnicking. Eight dozen crawfish were caught and soon disposed of by the picnickers, and with other good things to eat that had been provided by the women of the party all did justice to the spread. The affair was given in honor of the third wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ruonich, Jr.

Present were Miss Edna West of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Smith, Mr. Adams, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. J. Ruppell, Robert Brown, Mrs. May S. Mills, Mr. and Mrs. D. Beagler, C. N. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. L. Ruonich, Jr., Green Mills.

E. G. CAUFIELD HEADS M'LOUGHLIN BOARD

At the annual meeting of the McLoughlin Memorial Association Saturday night, the following directors were unanimously elected for the ensuing year: E. G. Caufield, J. E. Hedges, George A. Harding, C. H. Dye, Rev. A. Hillebrand, Frederick V. Holman, E. E. Brodie, Dr. Andrews, C. Smith and George H. Himes.

Following the meeting of the association, the directors reelected the following officers: E. G. Caufield, president; Rev. A. Hillebrand, vice-president; J. E. Hedges, secretary; The Bank of Oregon City, treasurer.

It is probable that the McLoughlin Memorial Association will join in the movement already initiated by the Woman's Club to erect a statue of Dr. McLoughlin in McLoughlin Park, fronting the historic home of the Father of Oregon.

ETHEL CHENEY AND WILLIAM HINZ WED

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Dodson, of 1263 Ellsworth street Portland Saturday evening at 9 o'clock, when Miss Ethel May Cheney and Mr. William Hinz, both formerly of Oregon City, were married in the presence of about sixty relatives and friends. Rev. E. S. Bollinger, pastor of the Highland Congregational church, officiated. The bride and bridegroom were unattended, except by the flower girl little Miss Schenk, niece of the bridegroom. The bride was very prettily gowned in white chiffon over white taffeta, and her shiver bouquet was of white sweet peas.

Preceding the ring ceremony Edward Gray, of Portland, sang very impressively "Oh Promise Me," and after the ceremony sang "Garden of Roses." During the service Mrs. Thomas Keith, of Portland, sister of the bride, rendered "Forever Day." At the conclusion of the marriage refreshments were served. Many handsome gifts were received.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Dodson was handsomely decorated, the color scheme being pink and white, sweet peas and roses being used in profusion with artistic effect. The bride's table was prettily with its decorations of pink chertise and pink sweet peas, the centerpiece being a large cutglass bowl filled with white and pink sweet peas, and from the large brass candelabra were streamers of pink tulle.

The bride is a daughter of O. A. Cheney, formerly of Oregon City, and of the late Mrs. Nellie Cheney. She moved from this city to McMinnville, where she was in the photograph business until she went to Portland.

Mr. Hinz lived in Oregon City until about three years ago, when he went to Southern Oregon. He is the son of Mrs. Albertine Hinz of Portland, and of the late William Hinz.

Mr. and Mrs. Hinz have gone on their honeymoon, and upon their return will live in Portland.

DR. FORD OFFICIATES AT TWO WEDDINGS

Dr. T. R. Ford, pastor of the Methodist Church, officiated, Sunday, at two weddings. The first couple, Walter A. Barius, of Salem, and Beulah E. Ramsay, of Molalla, were married at the home of Dr. Ford in the afternoon. In the evening Dr. Ford officiated at the marriage of John D. Rauch and Mary Elizabeth Roddy at the home of the bride's parents in Wallamette.

HUSBAND SAYS WIFE THREATENED HIS LIFE

Alleging that she threatened to kill him with a butcher knife and a pistol Ernest E. Holmstrand Thursday filed suit for divorce against Minnie M. Holmstrand. They were married in Chattanooga, Tenn., in 1902. The plaintiff avers that his wife was continually finding fault with him and in September 1911 informed him that she no longer loved him. He asserts that under such circumstances marital life is no longer bearable.

Judge Campbell granted divorce Thursday in the following cases:

Emilie Brandenburg against John Brandenburg; Violet Harper against Bert Harper; Mary L. Von Gian against William C. Von Gian and Thomas C. Lewis against Clara Lewis.

TWO WIVES AND ONE HUSBAND WIN DECREES

Charles H. Sum, alleging cruelty, Thursday filed suit for divorce against Alice Jane Smith. They were married October 16, 1901. The plaintiff asks the custody of their three children. Judge Campbell granted Kate Bunte a divorce from Charles C. Bunte, the plaintiff being awarded the custody of their child. Peter Moritz was granted a decree from Elizabeth Moritz. Anna May Stumpf was granted a decree from Edward Stumpf and awarded the custody of their two children.

YOUNGEST LAYING HEN IS BANTAM

Oregon Washburn, a poultry fancier, of West Oregon City is the owner of probably the youngest laying hen in the state. The hen was hatched March 8 and laid its first egg June 24 and has been laying daily since. Its mother has hatched two broods since March 8. The chicken wonder is a white feather leg bantam, and under size even for that species. Mr. Washburn is confident the hen has established a new record for early laying.

Dead Men's Food In Yucatan.

From remote times the natives of Yucatan have been accustomed to making offerings to the souls of the departed, particularly a certain pie that they call "food of the soul." The crust must be of yellow corn, the interior tender chicken and small pieces of pork. These pies are wrapped in leaves of the banana tree and baked underground between hot stones. When done, they are placed on the graves or hung from trees close by. Sometimes, after leaving them there for an hour or two, the living take home the pies and enjoy them, saying that the souls have already drawn from them all the ethereal part of the substance.

STREET OILING IS GLADSTONE BOON

THOROUGHFARES TO GLADSTONE PARK TO BE PUT IN FINE CONDITION

JULY 18 WILL BE "PATRIOTIC DAY"

Women's Christian Temperance Union Plans Daily Program—Young People To Organize

The oiling of the streets of Gladstone will be a boon to the patrons of the Willamette Valley Chautauque Assembly which will begin July 9 and continue twelve days. The Portland road which is the main thoroughfare to Gladstone Park will be oiled from the Clackamas River to about a quarter of a mile above the chautauque grounds, the total distance being a mile and one half. It is expected that this work will result in the largest attendance of automobile parties in the history of the association.

Secretary Cross received a letter Saturday from S. Platt Jones, who has been engaged as platform manager, giving the information that he would arrive early and have everything in readiness for the opening. Mr. Jones is in LaGrande, Mr. Cross also has received letters from William Spurgeon, the noted London clergyman, John Mitchell, labor leader and J. M. Cleary, who will lecture at the chautauque. All are delighted with the opportunity to come. Mr. Cleary will lecture on "American Citizenship" July 18 which has been designated "Patriotic Day," when Meade Post, Grand Army of the Republic will attend in a body.

Women's Christian Temperance Union program will be given daily at the cottages, under the direction of Mrs. Eva C. Wheeler, Secretary of the Young People's Branch. A young people's branch will be organized the first day and will hold meetings daily topics having been selected which will prove attractive. A vespere conference will be held each evening at 6 o'clock, where by the chimney fire the young people can talk over matters of special interest to them. The Women's Christian Temperance Union programs will be as follows:

July 9th, 4 P. M.—Enrollment of Gladstone Y. P. B.

July 10th, 10 A. M.—Meeting Y. P. B. topic, "Parliamentary Usage."

July 11th—Topic: "How to Have a Good Time."

July 12th—4:30 P. M., prayer service.

July 18th—Medal Contest.

July 19th, 4:30 P. M.—"Young People for the Lord."

July 20th—"Flower Mission."

July 21st—"A Farewell Breakfast"

FOR YOUR LIVER

Agreeable Relief from Liver Ills Guaranteed by Miller Drug Co.

The man or woman in good bodily health is usually cheerful. Good health and a cheerful state of the mind—that combination permits you to get out of life all there is in it, to plan and work and play with vim and spirit and enjoyment.

When you have the "blues"—when everything looks dark and gloomy—when, in spite of the fact that you can't see anything much to worry about, you are glum and depondent and spiritless—it is a pretty safe bet that your liver is out of order.

And when your liver is not working right, you ought to worry. At least, you ought to pay attention and immediately seek a remedy. For the liver is the biggest and perhaps the most important gland in the body. It secretes the bile, which has an important work to do in connection with the digestion of food. It acts as a poison and waste product eliminator. If it does not secrete bile fast enough or does not properly remove the poisonous wastes, other organs are liable to become quickly affected, and the first thing you know you have other trouble—gout, rheumatism, indigestion, heartburn, dizziness, constipation, kidney trouble and a complexion: offensive breath, or some one or more of dozens of other greater or less ailments—all indications of liver weakness.

Resall Liver Salts is a combination of the medicinal salts best known and most used for affections of or arising from the liver. Pleasant, laxative, effervescent, it acts promptly upon the bowels, and thus helps to restore the entire system to its normal healthy state. We positively guarantee it. Your money back if not satisfied. 25c and 50c. Sold in this community only at our drug store. The Resall Store, Huntley Bros. Co.

FISHERMAN MEETS DEATH BY FALLING

The body of James La France, Secretary of the United Artisans, of Portland, and a member of No. 5683, Oregon Fire Camp, Woodmen of the World, will be buried at Estacada today. LaFrance was killed by falling down an embankment nine miles up the Clackamas River from Estacada while he was fishing. Coroner Wilson, assisted by Frank Ewing, Noble McMillan and Claire R. Waldroff, carried the body into the town. Dr. A. V. Adix made an examination and said death was due to injuries received in the fall. The body was found by a party of fishermen.

The man had apparently died suddenly, there being no signs of a struggle. The features were unrecognizable, the name being obtained from an envelope found in a fish basket which was by the man's side. The address on the envelope was 1035 Twenty-fourth street, Portland. On the clasp of the basket were the initials, "J. C. L." The letter was postmarked "New York, April 19, 1912."

Lewis Norman, superintendent of the factory of the J. C. English Company; Frank Benchley, Fred C. Baker, also employed by the English company, and Edward Unger, teller of a Portland bank, were the members of the party which reported the find to the coroner. They were fishing when a man with a rod and reel came down to them and said he had found the body of a man. The body was about half way between the trail along the river and the railroad right of way, which had been graded at this point.

The fishing pole was lying near the right hand of the body, and a haversack was on his back.

LaFrance left Portland June 13 saying he was going on a fishing excursion. He said he was going along the Clackamas River near Estacada.

Coroner Wilson notified the man's family of the finding of the body.

MRS. JACKSON DIES IN WEST OREGON CITY

Mrs. Fidella Jackson, wife of Tyler Jackson, of West Oregon City, died Saturday morning after an illness of about a year. The body was shipped to Lebanon, Or., Saturday evening, where the funeral services will be held, and the remains interred in the Lebanon cemetery. The United Brethren church will have charge of the funeral.

Mrs. Jackson was sixty-four years of age. She was born October 1, 1848, in Iowa, and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Miller. She came to Oregon about thirty-five years ago and settled at Lebanon, where she lived until about a year ago, when she came to Oregon City.

Mrs. Jackson besides being survived by her husband is survived by the following children: Mrs. William Blackburn, of Oregon City; Mrs. John Wallace, of Lebanon; Ivan Jackson, Mrs. Howard Tucker, of Lebanon; also her mother, Mrs. Miller of Lebanon, one brother, George Miller, of Black Rock, Wash.; two sisters, Mrs. Ann Luckey, of Portland; Mrs. McDonald.

DANCING FROCK

A dainty frock for a little girl is seen in the sketch. This is made of cream-colored mull batiste and cut with full long-waist and short gathered skirt. A deep yoke and part of the sleeves is cut from all-over eyelaid embroidery and through the bottom of this, through slashes cut in the embroidery a broad band of ribbon is run. Down the center front is a narrow tucked batiste flanked on either side by lace insertion. The skirt is trimmed with one row of lace insertion between two groups of tucks. A ribbon sash run through broad heading of the embroidery marks the waist.

To Pop Corn.

Here is the proper way to pop corn: Put the regular quantity—that is, a very small quantity—into the popper and hold it under the cold water faucet long enough to thoroughly saturate the kernels. Shake the popper and place it on the back of the range to allow the corn to dry, then pop. The kernels will be very large, and there will be no hard center.

A Saving Farmer.

A man with New England small town recollections says that one Yankee storekeeper used to pull a fig in two to make the pound weight balance to a hair.

This same man was also a road contractor and had to provide lunch, to be eaten by the workmen by the farmers who gave their time to the county two or three days a year. There was considerable kicking about the lunch, especially the bread and butter.

"I always knew old man Jones was pretty tight," said one farmer, "and I know that butter is sticky and high, but I didn't think he'd cut bread with a greasy knife."—Chicago Post.

STREET WORK GOES TO LOCAL COMPANY

JOHN QUINCY ADAMS, JACKSON AND SIXTEENTH TO BE IMPROVED

120 DAYS TIME LIMIT IS FIXED

Portland Railway, Light & Power Company Wants City Help Build Big Canemah Walk

The city council, at a meeting Friday night, awarded the contract for macadamizing John Quincy Adams street, from Eighth to Fourteenth, Jackson street from Twelfth to Sixteenth and Sixteenth street from Division to Jackson street to the Oregon Engineering & Construction Company. The report of the special committee which had examined the bids was adopted. New specifications regarding the kind of rock to be used, extra work and the amount of time to do the extra work are included in the report. The successful bidder will be required to give a bond and must have the work completed within 120 days. If the improvements are not completed within the specified time a forfeiture of $20 a day for each additional day required to make the improvement will be exacted. The bids were discussed at length and several of the councilmen favored giving the contract to a higher bidder. It was shown, however, that this would cost the city and property owners a great deal more money, and that under the present contract their interests are safeguarded. The additional cost if the next lowest bid had been accepted for the improvement of Sixteenth and Jackson streets alone would have been $1,265.

The council was called to order by Mayor Dimick, the following members being present: Horton, Tooze, Albright, Holman, Pope, Hoake and Meyer. An ordinance providing for regulating the speed of automobiles, motorcycles, and other vehicles in the city was read for the first time. Another ordinance providing a punishment for the electric light, telephone and telegraph companies for not painting the poles was also read for the first time. Both will be called up for final passage at a meeting July 12. The ordinance relating to the painting of poles provides a fine of $50 for the first violation and imprisonment of not more than 25 days of officials for subsequent violations.

A communication from the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company relating to raising the Canemah walk was discussed. The company proposes to erect a wall almost five feet higher than the present one, which would prevent the city being flooded at high water, and to raise the roadway and tracks. It, however, suggests that the city pay half the cost. A resolution prepared by Mr. Tooze relating to the improvement was not introduced. Upon motion the mayor appointed Councilmen Tooze, Horton and Holman a committee to examine the plans and specifications and report as soon as possible.

The following were the bids for macadamizing streets:

John Quincy Adams street—Oregon Engineering & Construction Company $13,138.06; Kibbe-Wilten Company, $14,459.45 and North Coast Contract Company, $15,442.14, the bid of the Oregon Engineering & Construction Company being $1,321.39 lower than that of the next lowest bidder.

Sixteenth Street—Oregon Engineering & Construction Company, $7,840.25; Kibbe-Wilten Company, $8,361.41, and the North Coast Contract Company $8,906.04, the bid of the Oregon Engineering & Construction Company being $521.16 lower than that of the next lowest bidder.

Jackson Street—Oregon Engineering & Construction Company, $7,782.10; Kibbe-Wilten Company, $8,528.23 and North Coast Contract Company, $8,780.04, the bid of the Oregon Engineering & Construction Company being $744.18 lower than that of the next lowest bidder.
