FORTY-SIXTH YEAR—No. 28.

OREGON CITY, OREGON, FRIDAY, JULY 12, 1912.

ESTABLISHED 1866

THOUSANDS ENJOY FOURTH EXERCISES

GANE CELEBRATIONS ARE HELD THROUGHOUT CLACKAMAS COUNTY

MILL PICNIC THROWS BIG PARK

Brownell, Hedges, Dimick, Eby and Other Orators Thrill Crowds—Weather is Perfect

The Fourth of July celebrations held at Willamette, Gladstone, Canemah Park, Logan, Molalla, Sandy, Hubbard, Estacada, Multnomah and other sections of the county were largely attended, the day being an ideal one. The celebration at Schnoor's Park given by the employees to the employees of the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company was attended by about 3000 persons. There were various kinds of amusements and everything including refreshments were free to the employees, their families, Meade Post, G. A. R. and their families, the W. R. C. and their families, B. T. McElain, mill manager and the other officers of the company were congratulated on the success of the picnic. Mr. McElain made a brief address. As he stepped upon the platform he was greeted by loud applause by the workers of the mill, showing the high esteem he is held by them, and also by the large number of other guests. The music was furnished by the Philharmonic band. The day's celebration closed with fireworks at 9 o'clock, which were in charge.

The floor managers of the dance, which was given during the afternoon evening were F. Hammerlee and Milton Price.

S. R. Green, who was sworn in as a deputy sheriff Wednesday, was gate keeper. Mr. Green handled the large crowd without any trouble and was congratulated by Mr. McElain. He finished in time to begin his police work in Oregon City at 6 o'clock. His appointment as deputy sheriff will be in force for one year.

The Gladstone celebration was attended by about 2500 persons. The affair was in honor of the installing of the water plant system in Gladstone and was given by the Gladstone residents and their friends. The morning was devoted to a program which consisted of the following numbers: Music, Chautauqua orchestra; invocation, Rev. A. H. Mulkey, of Gladstone; "Star Spangled Banner," Gladstone chorus; Declaration of Independence, Professor Brents, Vindicator of Gladstone; selection, Gladstone chorus; "Uncle Sam's Chorus," 20 school children under the direction of Miss Laura Purcell; "My Native Land," Gladstone Male Chorus; address, Judge Cleeton; basket dinner. The baseball game between East Side and West Side resulted in a score of 5 to 2 in favor of West Side.

Among the features of the sports at Gladstone were the races and contests, for which prizes were awarded as follows: clothes' pin race, Mrs. Mulkey; girls' potato race, Della Blount; tug of war, Galt's team; bicycle race, open for all, Leonard Williams; boys' bicycle race, Wilbur Williams; sack race, Delmar Rabe; 50-yard dash, open for all, Hugh Burns; nail driving contest, Mr. Owens; lean man's race, Garland Hollowell; running high jump, John Mulkey; 100-yard dash, Mr. Arnold, first; John Mulkey, second; nail driving contest, Mrs. Mulkey, first; Mrs. Streibig, second; fat man's race, H. Bean, first; Mr. Batdorf, second; John Mulkey, first; Hugh Burdon, first; John Mulkey, second; 220-yard dash, Hugh Burdon, first; John Mulkey, second; obstacle race, Leon Williams, first; Jay Mulkey, second; 50-yard women's race, Miss Arnold, first; Miss Adah Hurlbert, second; 440-yard dash, Hugh Burdon, first; John Mulkey, second; one-half mile relay race, Williams and Blount, first; Olds and Conway, second; 50-yard race for girls, Hase Mitter, first; Charlotte Lee, second; 50-yard race for boys, Leonard Rinehart, first; Ernest Scar, second; 110-relay race, Leland Gay and J. C. Davis, first; William McMan and Ingram Blitt, second; Jay Mulkey came out second in the bicycle race, open; Ned Frost, second in boys' bicycle race; Mr. Wheeler, second in sack race; John Mulkey, second in 50-yard dash, open; Charley Peters, second in running high jump.

Many Scottish people of Portland as well as of this city celebrated the Fourth at Canemah Park. The well arranged program was carried out as scheduled, and it was thoroughly enjoyed. The large delegation of the Portland people took an active part in the program which was one of the most enjoyable celebrations ever held by the Clan Macleay Society. Among the features of the program were dancing, bagpipe selections, sword dancing and races. Prizes were given for these.

Never before in the history of Logan was a more successful Fourth of July celebration given than on Thursday which was under the auspices of the Harding Grange. There was a large attendance and all attending enjoyed the excellent program. The early part of the day was taken up with a program both musical and literary, which was in charge of Mrs. W. P. Kirchem. Charles E. Spence, who is master of the Oregon State Grange, gave the opening address. Attorney O. D. Eby, of Oregon City, was orator of the day, and his remarks like (Continued on page 4)

DRILLING AT STONE OIL WELL RESUMED

Drilling has been resumed at the Stone Oil well and the management believes that oil and gas in paying quantities will soon be reached. Work at the well was discontinued about six months ago owing to a drill becoming fast in the hole. After several weeks of effort the workers were unable to remove the drill and it was thought that a new well would have to be sunk. An expert gas man who arrived here a few days ago declared that he could continue the drilling in the old well and was engaged. He has succeeded in getting beyond the drill that is fast. The company is receiving subscriptions for stock daily.

PARKPLACE BOY STRANGELY GONE

MOTHER THINKS LAD KIDNAPPED BY WOMAN REPRESENTING FATHER

SHERIFF ASKED TO MAKE SEARCH

Howard Ormiston Son of Mrs. R. E. Fields, Urged By Stranger To Show Way To Estacada

Believing that her fifteen-year old son, Howard Ormiston, has been kidnapped by a woman representing the lad's father, Mrs. R. E. Fields, of Parkplace Monday asked Sheriff Mass to make a search for the boy. Mrs. Fields, who was divorced from Elmer Ormiston about two years ago, told the sheriff that her son last Friday afternoon left his home in a wagon with a strange woman ostensibly for Estacada. The mother declared the boy had met the woman in Oregon City, and she asked him to go with her to the city in the Eastern part of the county, adding she did not know the way. She promised to pay him liberally. They drove to the boy's home, and he obtained the consent of his mother to make the trip promising to return the following day. Nothing has been seen of him since by anyone in Parkplace or this city, and the mother thinks the woman was employed the father to abduct the boy.

T. B. Long, Mrs. Fields' father and John Long, her grandfather, who are aiding in the search, also are of the opinion that the boy has been kidnapped. They were here all the afternoon conferring with the sheriff.

"Howard is a bright boy, and I am certain he has been kidnapped," declared John Fields. "He said he would return Saturday, and I know would have done so, had he been at liberty. I think the woman was sent here by the father to lure the boy from his mother. The woman said her name was Blahop."

Mrs. Fields is prostrated over the loss of her child. The boy has blue eyes, brown hair and weighs about 115 pounds. Mrs. Fields thinks the woman who lured him away was about twenty-one years of age. She drove two horses. Sheriff Mass wired the Marshall of Estacada regarding the mysterious disappearance of the lad and a search for him is being made there.

CHARLEY ROSS STORY IS NIPPED IN BUD

Another Charley Ross story has been nipped in the bud. Little Howard Ormiston, the fifteen-year-old son of Mrs. R. E. Fields, of Parkplace, was not kidnapped at all. The boy went to Estacada with a strange woman last Friday, promising to return to his home Saturday. He did not return that day and his mother became suspicious. She thought it probable that the woman had been employed by the boy's father, from whom she was divorced two years ago, to abduct the lad. The strange woman, however, had paid the lad to show her the way to Estacada. Then he wrote to Portland and wrote a note to his mother saying that he was all right. He returned Tuesday evening, and reported that the Elks convention in the big city was the best ever. Leave it to Howard.

SCHUEBEL LIBEL SUIT IS HARD HIT

COURT SUSTAINS DEMURRER IN ACTION AGAINST MORNING ENTERPRISE

PLAINTIFF HAS RIGHT TO AMEND

Attorneys Brownell and Hedges Dissect Complaint and Make Plain Its Weaknesses

The complaint of Chris Schuebel was knocked clear out of court Monday upon a demurrer, in his suit for $10,000 damages against the Oregon City Enterprise based upon the publication of an advertisement published in the Morning Enterprise over the signature of Gustav Schnoorr, who is one of the Republican nominees for Representative, and at the time of the publication was a rival candidate with Schuebel for a place on the Legislative ticket at the primary nominating election.

Attorneys George C. Brownell and J. E. Hedges appeared for the Enterprise and made a complete and comprehensive argument in support of their demurrer, which was promptly sustained by Circuit Judge Campbell. Schuebel was represented in court by C. D. Latourrette.

The attorneys for the defense declare that the action of the court is a great victory for the Morning Enterprise and that the case is more than half won. Judge Campbell held that the complaint was not sufficiently specific. The advertisement the publication of which Schuebel is suing the paper for $10,000 damages, was in part as follows:

"A man must be judged by his own words and deeds, not by the words of his enemies or false friends. For weeks Chris Schuebel has been attacking me most shamefully. Some person or persons must be supplying him with large sums of money and his vocation surely does not keep him very busy since he finds so much time to roam over the whole county telling others how very, very good he, himself, is and how despicable his opponents are. This I could not do. I have neither time nor money, nor 'brass' enough to slander and attack those who have always been friendly and kind to me. Neither can I understand how a person can afford to spend hundreds of dollars for the small recompensation he can honestly get if elected to the legislature. Mr. Schuebel tries to make his audiences believe that the 'interests' or certain parties have 'bought' men. Be not deceived! Not I, but he has been bought if signs fall not, and because he is used to being bought and being sold, as everybody knows, he made an effort to buy me in my own house. This happened March 31, 1912."

WIFE, SUIING, SAYS SHE WAS DESERTED

Alleging that he deserted her January 8, 1909, Sadie Austin Tuesday filed suit for divorce from Joseph Austin. They were married in Chicago June 4, 1898. The plaintiff asks that her maiden name, Sadie Holston, be restored. Judge Campbell Tuesday granted a decree of divorce in the case of Charles W. Robbin against Eva Robbin. Desertion was alleged.

P. R., L. & P. CO. MUST ERECT CANEMAH WALL

A resolution directing the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company to erect a wall of sufficient height and strength to protect the city during floods, between this city and Canemah was adopted at a meeting of the city council Saturday afternoon. The company submitted plans for a wall which would be satisfactory to the city council, but it insisted that Oregon City should pay half the cost. A committee, composed of Messrs. Toomey, Horton and Holman, reported adversely on the proposition that the city pay half the cost, the report being approved by the council.

An ordinance providing for the hardsurfing of Main street between Moss and the Abernethy Bridge was passed. The street committee reported upon the proposition to hardsurface Seventh street, and the City Engineer was instructed to make a statement showing the difference between the cost of hardsurfing and macadam. The engineer was instructed to report at the next meeting. It was announced at the meeting that the Oregon Road Oiling Company would begin oiling the macadam streets tomorrow.

The street committee reported favorably upon a petition to improve Division street.
CHILDREN'S MONEY STOLEN
While Mrs. Dave Catto, of Gladstone was at the chautauqua decorating the auditorium Monday some one entered her home and took $4.50 out of a trunk. The money belonged to the little boys.

$30,000 RAILWAY BONDS ARE SOLD

Since the contract was let for the clearing, grading and bridges of the route of the Clackamas Southern Railway the company has sold more stock than ever before in the same length of time.

More than $30,000 stock was sold in the last four days and other investors are about to close a deal for $20,000 stock. "Every thing is moving along far better than the board of directors had expected taking into consideration the activities of the Southern Pacific," said secretary Dimick. "The people of Clackamas County are not easily frightened especially when they are engaged in a work that means so much to them."

MILLS IS ELECTED LEADER OF ELKS

WISCONSIN MAN IS GIVEN GREAT HONOR WITH SHOUT OF ACCLAMATION

LEACH RE-ELECTED TREASURER

Grand Electrical Parade Witnessed By Portland's Greatest Crowd—Newspapermen Have Eat-est, Hoary!

OFFICERS ELECTED BY ELKS

Grand exalted ruler—Thomas B. Mills, Superior, Wis.
Grand esteemed leading knight—James L. King, Eureka, Kan.
Grand esteemed loyal knight—Charles P. Ward, Pasadena, Cal.
Grand esteemed lecturer—knight—Lloyd B. Maxwell, Marshalltown, Iowa.
Grand secretary—Fred C. Robinson, Dubuque, Iowa.
Grand treasurer—E. D. Ward, Leach, New York.
Grand trustee—John J. Faulkner, East St. Louis, Ill.
Grand inner guard—John Lee Clark, Albuquerque, N. M.
Grand Tyler—Patrick H. Shields, Clarkburg, W. Va.
Rochester, N. Y., elected by acclamation for 1912 convention.

PORTLAND, July 9, (Special).—With a mighty shout of acclamation that could be heard through brick walls to the street 110 Elk delegates today voted to Thomas B. Mills, of Superior, Wis., the office of grand exalted ruler for 1912, in the first session of the grand lodge of 1912, at the Armory.

The chorus of "ayes" that followed the placing in nomination of the name of Mills swelled to a great volume of cheering that lasted for several minutes. Delegates jumped on their chairs, and shouted in their enthusiasm. It was a great tribute to Mr. Mills, who has been called many times "the most popular Elk in Elkdom."

As had been expected, there was no opposition to his nomination for the high office, and it was when his election was made unanimous by acclamation that the delegates seized the chance for the great demonstration in his honor. Mills was nominated by Judge C. B. Friday, also of Superior, Wis., who declared as he rose to speak that the man who did not make his nominating speech should be shot.

Two other grand lodge officers were elected by acclamation without opposition. They were Charles H. Ward, of Pasadena, Cal., who was made grand esteemed loyal knight and Edward Leach, of New York City who was re-elected as grand treasurer. This is Mr. Leach's fifth year in this important office, and his re-election puts him in the position for the sixth successive time.

Pronounced by 250,000 people, the great majority of whom were visitors as the most imposing and elaborate electrical parade they had ever witnessed, the Elks' electrical parade tonight moved over its five-mile course accompanied by the unstinted applause of an enraptured multitude.

The streets covered in the parade were congested for their entire length with a solid mass of bustling, good-natured humanity that entered fully into the festive spirit of the occasion.

It was an occasion on which Portland people in their role of hosts made way for their guests who, being unable to secure seats in any of the spacious grandstands, were permitted to occupy all of the desirable vantage points from which to enjoy the magnificence of the pageant which was designed exclusively for their entertainment.

A beefsteak dinner was given to visiting and local newspaper men after the parade.

VISITING ELKS ARE SHOWN CITY

LOCAL LODGE AND COMMERCIAL CLUB KEEP OPEN HOUSE

BADGES ARE READY FOR WOMEN

Delegations From Medford, Klamath Falls And Los Angeles Are Given Fine Reception

A large crowd of Elks and their families attending the convention in Portland are expected to visit this city today and every day this week excepting Thursday when the big parade will be held. There were not as many visitors Monday as had been expected but those who came were shown a good time. A committee consisting of E. E. Brodie, chairman; William Sheehan, O. D. Eby, E. J. Daulton, M. D. Latourrette, W. A. Huntley, W. H. Blair and R. C. Parker, showed the visitors about the city and county in automobiles. They also were entertained at the Elks Home and the Commercial Club, where open house will be kept all week.

More buildings were decorated Monday and the city has assumed a gala appearance. All the stores, mills, public offices, etc., will close Thursday in order to give the employees an opportunity to see the parade. B. T. McElain is chairman of the committee which will entertain the visitors today. O. D. Eby is chairman of the committee named for Wednesday. E. J. Noble Friday and Theodore Ogmund Saturday.

The Oregon City lodge has provided 250 ribbon badges to be worn by the mothers, wives, daughters and sisters of members of the lodge in connection with the official women's badges. The badges may be obtained by persons entitled to them upon application to Esteemed Loyal Knight F. W. Humphrys.

The hospitable hands of the members of Oregon City Lodge No. 1189, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks were outstretched Sunday to the delegations of the Medford and Klamath Falls lodges, who arrived here at noon on a special train to the number of 160,20 from Klamath Falls and 140 from Medford. The train was scheduled to go through to Portland, but Dr. A. L. Beale, chairman of the entertainment and reception committee for visiting Elks, was taking no chances on the delegations evading the local herd and he, with a host of other Elks and their wives and daughters, were on hand at the Southern Pacific depot to meet the train and the conductor of the train was promptly handcuffed and the train held here 30 minutes.

The excursionists were escorted to the basement of the Elks new home on Water street where a buffet luncheon was served, consisting of sandwiches, coffee, Elks milk and other edibles. The Kazoo glee club of the Medford Lodge sang a number of entertaining selections, giving local hits on Oregon City and the visitors gave three cheers from the steps of the Elks Home for Oregon City and the local Elks responded in kind when the visitors departed.

Exalted Ruler Reames of Medford Lodge and Exalted Ruler Savage of Klamath Falls Lodge, as well as the other visitors, were delighted with their reception at Oregon City. Badges were exchanged and the Southern Oregon delegations left for Portland in high glee at their unexpected reception from the members of No. 1189.

CUPID AGIAN MAKES PLEA TO POSTMASTER

Postmaster Randall, Dan Cupid's aide in Oregon City, is in a fair way to add another marriage to his long list. Mr. Randall receives a letter about once a week from a man or woman who wishes to wed asking him to assist in finding the helpmate, and only in one or two instances has he failed. The following letter was received Tuesday by the postmaster:

"As I read in the Morning Enterprise where there is a man in Oregon who wants to marry, although the story does not say where he lives, I am writing to ask if you know where he lives and if there is any other man in your state who wants to marry. The senator's name is George Chamberlain and maybe he can aid you in finding a man. If you can tell me anything about this I would be glad to hear from you. Will look for answer soon."

"ROSA MYERS,
"18 Chestnut Street, Asheville, North Carolina."
"I am a little afraid to communicate with Senator Chamberlain, who narrowly escaped being named for the vice-presidency by the Democrats," said Mr. Randall, "although I know he would aid me. I shall do my best to find the girl a husband, however."

JUSTICE MARRIES PAIR
Justice of the Peace Samson Friday officiated at the marriage of Frank Page, of Camas, Wash., and Jessie Munro, of Portland.

MILL TO HAVE HOME SITE PLATTED AT ONCE

The Willamette Pulp & Paper Company, has engaged Don E. Meldrum to survey the property purchased by it near the school house on the West Side for homes for its employees. Mr. Meldrum will begin the work at once. The property will be divided into 200 lots and the erection of homes will be begun by the company in about two months. Employees of the mill will be enabled to buy homes at a price per month about the same as is now paid by them as rent. About thirty homes will be built this year, and it is expected that the demand will be such that the entire property will be utilized next year.

20 DIE IN TORRID HEAT OF CHICAGO

50 OTHERS ARE PROSTRATED AND 18 ARE BITTEN BY RABID DOGS

CROPS AIDED BY BLAZING SUNSHINE

Shifting Winds Bring Slight Relief For Brief Period—Men And Horses Drop In Ovens Like Thoroughfares

CHICAGO, July 6.—Twenty deaths in the two days of torridity Chicago has experienced was the record tonight when the statistics were footed up. In addition there were half a hundred serious prostrations and 18 persons were bitten by rabid dogs. Meanwhile the heat wave has "flattened out," to use a technical expression of the weather forecasters. Over the grain fields of the West and South the blazing sunshine was making millions in agricultural wealth. The suffering in the cities meant the fortune of the farmers.

The temperature today did not reach yesterday's extreme height and the humidity was 71, or four degrees below that of yesterday, but men and horses continued to drop in the streets, which were like hot tunnels. Some relief came in the afternoon, when shifting winds brought a light breeze off the lake. It was confined to that portion of the city within a half-mile of the lake front, however, as the breeze was so light it lost its coolness after traveling over belching chimneys.

By way of comparison, it may be noted that San Francisco, with a maximum of 60 and a minimum of 50, was the coolest spot in the country. Portland had 62-52. Los Angeles, with 78-58, comes next, more than 20 degrees cooler than Montreal and Toronto. Phoenix, Ariz., claims the heat record, with 104. Boston reported 90. New York 82 and Washington 90. Various Texas points had an average of 96. Cincinnati was comparatively cool at 80, or eight degrees cooler than St. Louis, which had precisely the same temperature as St. Paul, 88, and was four degrees cooler than Madison Wis., Sainte-Marie, usually the abiding place of the chilly wave, sweltered at 92, 10 degrees hotter than Memphis, Tenn. Green Bay, Wis., also some of the "cold spots" on the tourist circulars, reported 94, or 10 degrees warmer than Denver.

In addition to 20 deaths in Chicago, five deaths were reported from Philadelphia, one from La Crosse, Wis., and five others from various points. In Michigan there were disastrous forest fires, and two cloudbursts in North Dakota did great damage to property.

DRIVER IS FATALLY HURT IN AUTO DIVE

PORTLAND, July 9.—A stone, tossed upon the Country Club track, or dislodged from an abutting hillcock by the foot of a spectator, resulted in the marring of the Portland Automobile Club's race meet today with an accident which may bring death to Chris Dundee, a Portland automobile driver. His injuries are thought fatal.

Rounding the east turn of the mile dirt track at the daring clip of nearly a mile a minute, determined to take second place in the first lap of the five-mile free-for-all race, Dundee's nerve and the power of his racing car, "Whistling Billy," fell victim to the stone, the car careened sharply failed to right itself, and then crashed through the board fence, casting its driver 25 feet into the air and upon a mass of grass-hidden rock at the foot of a 40-foot grade.

A fracture of the skull over the right eye, a badly injured left leg, broken nose, broken middle finger on left hand and contusions of the face, with an automobile shattered beyond repair, were the results of the hazardous effort of the Portland man successfully to pit his skill against that of the best racing drivers in the world.

2 DECREES GRANTED
Judge Campbell has granted decrees of divorce in the suits of Anna Barton against Raymond W. Barton and E. F. Widup against Helen Widup.

CHAUTAUQUA HAS AUSPICIOUS START

TROUBADORS LITTLE LATE BUT OTHER ATTRACTIONS APPEAL

REV. SPURGEON PLEASERS CROWD

Portland Coits Take Exciting Ball Game From Mount Angel—Tent City Grows Fast

As a result of the Elks' traffic congestion in Portland, Byron's Troupe of Troubadours, which was to have auspiciously opened the Nineteenth Annual Assembly of the Gladstone Chautauqua, arrived on the grounds just a half hour too late for their program.

William Spurgeon of London, England very bravely came to the rescue and the 1,500 patrons who had gathered in the main auditorium to hear the dusky troubadours, were given an unusual and entirely satisfactory treat in Rev. Spurgeon's great lecture, "An Englishman's Impression of Uncle Sam and America." Rev. Spurgeon gave a most optimistic view of conditions and faith of our own people, gently criticizing our lack of law enforcement and pointing out many things that could be improved in our system, suggesting a more strict immigration law among other things. Rev. Spurgeon's lecture teemed with a brotherly spirit that made a decided impression with the audience. He lauded Woodrow Wilson, though disclaiming allegiance to any American political party, and spoke of him as a "big man who would honor the highest chair in the nation." He spoke and commented most favorably of the friendly relation existing between England and the United States. He gently hinted at the growing struggle of capital against labor in this country, but throughout his mastery address his friendly attitude of a broad minded Englishman was uppermost.

An extra large program was the reward for the patient crowd that waited in vain for the Troubadours in the afternoon. The dusky musicians provided a rare treat in the evening entertainment, and before a bigger crowd than had assembled in the afternoon, furnished an ideal entertainment and a high class musical program, both instrumental and vocal. The saxophone quartet and the violin, flute and cello trio were most popular numbers and the novel "Byrondolin" with its sixty seven tones and four capable operators made a big hit.

The formal opening of the grounds was at 10:30 with a most interesting talk by the president of the Association, Colonel C. H. Dye, tracing the Gladstone Chautauqua movement from its infancy, nineteen years ago. Rev. Charles A. Phillips, secretary of the Oregon State Sunday School Association responded on behalf of the patrons, in the absence of S. Platt Jones who was blockaded in Portland on account of the immense traffic at that place. Rev. Spurgeon who will conduct daily Bible Classes and Professor Lee Emerson Bassett, who will conduct the Shakespeare department outlined their work, and Miss Gage whetted up the appetites of the patrons by telling of the good things a store for those interested in domestic science.

The platform manager, S. Platt Jones, though exhausted from a fifteen-hour ride from Eastern Oregon, stepped onto the main auditorium at the conclusion of Rev. Spurgeon's address and made a most favorable impression with the audience. Mr. Jones has a most striking personality and is an entertainer of large ability. He has just completed a most successful session as manager of the platform at La Grande.

The tent city jumped in numbers from two hundred to almost three hundred and fifty during the day and camping outfits are still pouring into the park. It is expected that fully two thousand will be in the auditorium for the two features today. McCormick and "Bronze" and Judge Sadler for the evening.

Miss Leah Slusser was the soloist for Professor Chapman's orchestra concert at 1:15 in the afternoon, and hearty encores greeted her appearance. Professor Chapman's orchestra is one of this year's features and is on the program for two concerts daily.

Mount Angel and the Portland Colts officially opened the chautauqua base ball series, and almost the whole attendance watched the first game. The score was: Mount Angel, 8; Colts, 11. Batteries, Mt. Angel, White, Sharck and White; Colts, Tucker and Scott. Umpire, William Burnside of Portland.

The game was a good exhibition featuring the circus catches of B. Mascot for the Colts.

FIGHTING BEES, SHE IS HURT IN FALL

Mrs. Pearl Kalmbach, of Parkplace, sustained a serious injury Friday afternoon, while picking cherries from a high step ladder, she came in contact with a yellow jacket's nest, and in trying to escape from the bees the ladder capsize with her. She sustained a painful fracture of the right elbow besides many bruises on the body. Mrs. Kalmbach was also stung by the bees. It will be some time before she will have the use of her arm.
