JOHN MITCHELL TO SPEAK AT CHAUTAUQUA

PORTLAND, July 17, (Special.)-John Mitchell, one of the foremost leaders of organized labor in the country slipped quietly into Portland last night and registered at the Oregon. His presence was not suspected until this forenoon, when he walked to Fourth and Alder streets, and, taking the dingy elevator in the Labor Tempie, entered the office of the Portland Labor Press. Unlike Samuel Gompers who visited Portland a few months ago, he does not carry a press agent.

Vice President of the American Federation of Labor and former president of the United Mine Workers of America, John Mitchell has been active in organized labor circles from his sixteenth year, and as he was 42 years old at his last birthday, February 4, he has been in harness for the cause 26 years. The present visit is part of a tour of the chautauqua circuit. Mr. Mitchell will speak at Gladstone Park next Saturday afternoon on "Organized Labor, Its Purposes, Problem and Ideals," using the same material as is in his book under that title.

A dash of human interest enters into his brief sojourn in Portland, however. Coming now from his ranch near Klamath Falls is Robert Mitchell brother of the noted organizer. John Mitchell is looking forward to this meeting, for he says that it is the first time in 20 years that he and Robert have seen each other. Robert Mitchell came West and settled in Oregon long ago and now has a ranch in the South-

PORTLAND WINS AND PENNANT IS RAISED

PORTLAND, July 17, (Special.)-With about as much pomp and fuss as attends a cremation, Portland raised its 1911 pennant today and incidentally won a victory over the Vernon league leaders, 8 to 7. The day was hottest of the season and the five pitchers trotted out by the rival managers sweltered under an avalanche of hits for two hours and 15 minutes, un- | die. til Bill Rapps broke up the baking by a single to center, scoring Krueger with the winning run.

BORDERED MUSLIN.

For the woman planning a bordered nuslin gown the design above is offered as a suggestion, charming in every detail. In this instance the material was a cream colored muslin, with a conventional border in Persian shades. The blouse is cut from the material with the border placed at about the bust line, the here being completed by an inverted band of echru lace edging. The shallow round yoke and epaulets formed of strips of narrow lace sertion. The sleeve bands are wide lace. The border design on the skirt is placed a little above the knees, below which are three flounces of echru lace.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY OF NEW YORK DECLARES PURSUIT WAS PRETENSE

SLAYING OF GAMBLER IS PROBED

Prosecutor Will Hire Detectives To Solve Greatest Mystery of Metropolis-Rosenthal Was Defiant

NEW YORK, July 17.-Charged with having knowledge of the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, who was killed here in front of the Metropolitan hotel and whose death has opened up New York's biggest gambling scandal in years, Webber was arraigned in police court today. Webber was remanded for a

Webber was given the third degree today ,and it is reported that he revealed certain details of the plot which culminated in the shooting down of Rosenthal in the heart of the

The Rosenthal murder has started hot feud between the police and District Attorney Whitman. The police deny Whitman's charges that the murder was a result of the present police system. Whitman said there were five policemen 300 feet from the spot where the shooting occurred, two within 100 feet and one within 50 feet, yet five men shot down Rosenthal, entered an automobile and escaped while ily, Mrs. Annie Rath and children at the police scarcely pretended to pursue and, instead arrested a man who tried to give them the automobile's right number.

The public generally believes that the Rosenthal murder was the work of a secret organization which is defying the law and Whitman's declaration, "I will not rest until everyone concerned is punished" is generally approved. Whitman promises to engage detectives to investigate the poice evidence furnished him.

The police intimate today that Louis Libby, who drove the automobile in which the murderers escaped and shapiro, its owner have given them the full facts of the tragedy, declaring that seven men participated in the

The grand jury today is investigating Rosenthal's testimony given before his death, when he declared that Lieutenant of Police Becker had lent him $1500, in return for which he demanded 20 per cent of Rosenthal's gambling profits. It is reported Rosenthal also said he was forced to pay tribute to one of the highest police officials in the city, a man of international reputation.

Police Commissioner Rhinelander Waldo today wrote to District Attorney Whitman a letter disputing the charges that the police system of New York is responsible for the murder of Rosenthal. The letter said in part:
