WASHINGTON, July 16 .- A quarter a million dollars was the estimate which August Belmont, testifying today before the Senate committee investigating, campaign contributions placed upon his contributions to the Democratic National fund in 1904. He was not sure that was the sum, but was "satisfied to let it go at that."

"My habit has been that if I feel responsible for anything, my obligation is not measured by dollars and cents," said Belmont, when Senator Paynter asked if his large contributions embarrassed him. Belmont was a member of the campaign executive committee that year.

Belmont told first of advancing $50,-00 to the Democratic National committee. He said he had been reimbursed $42,000.

"Those committees always start out that way," he explained. "They ask for advances and then begin to raise funds. Later they reimburse me so that the balance of $8000 only was a ontribution."

NEBRASKA PORKERS ARRIVE IN MARKET

UNION STOCKYARDS, Portland, July 12.-The livestock run at the yards today was one of liberal proportions all around, the total of arrivals for the two days being 374 cattle, 13 calves, 3486 sheep and 1249 hogs. The hog supply was the biggest seen at the yards in months, and included a consignment of eight carloads of Nebraska porkers, the first shipment from that part of the country for the year to date.

For more than six months the Portland market has been independent of the East for its pork supplies. Now, as today's shipment from Nebraska indicates, available supplies in the Northwest are a little short of prospective requirements, and the chances dence of a good general interest on the part of buyers, and a considerable volume of trade in all lines was put were not available at noon.

Three carloads of medium-grade steers changed hands early in the day at $6,25 and a few lots of cows of various grades were disposed of at $4 to $6. Heifers sold at $5.30 to $6.15. On the whole the cattle market appeared to have undergone no material change.
