

MEN HIGHER UP ARE MURDER SUSPECTS

IMPORTANT ARRESTS SOON TO BE MADE IN BIG NEW YORK TRAGEDY

POLICE FIND MAN WHO HIRED CAR

District Attorney Whitman Declares Trail Leads Where He Thought It Would—Mayor Aids in Investigation

NEW YORK, July 18.—The trail leads where I thought it did, remarked District Attorney Whitman late today.

This was just after he had heard the statement of Jack Rose, the friend of Police Lieutenant Charles Becker and the man who hired the gray automobile in which the slayers of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, drove to the crowded corner where they shot him early Tuesday morning.

Little by little the tangled skein of motives and personalities behind the murder is being unraveled and tonight it seems probable that other important arrests will follow speedily.

Rose's surrender and confession that he hired the "murder car" although declaring he was not in it, were the big events today, but other developments were not lacking.

Mayor Gaynor took a personal hand in the investigation. He sent for Lieutenant Becker, against whom were lodged Rosenthal's first charges that the police force was both protecting and bleeding gamblers.

Little by little the tangled skein of motives and personalities behind the murder is being unraveled and tonight it seems probable that other important arrests will follow speedily.

Rose's surrender and confession that he hired the "murder car" although declaring he was not in it, were the big events today, but other developments were not lacking.

Mayor Gaynor took a personal hand in the investigation. He sent for Lieutenant Becker, against whom were lodged Rosenthal's first charges that the police force was both protecting and bleeding gamblers.

Little by little the tangled skein of motives and personalities behind the murder is being unraveled and tonight it seems probable that other important arrests will follow speedily.

Rose's surrender and confession that he hired the "murder car" although declaring he was not in it, were the big events today, but other developments were not lacking.

Mayor Gaynor took a personal hand in the investigation. He sent for Lieutenant Becker, against whom were lodged Rosenthal's first charges that the police force was both protecting and bleeding gamblers.

Little by little the tangled skein of motives and personalities behind the murder is being unraveled and tonight it seems probable that other important arrests will follow speedily.

Rose's surrender and confession that he hired the "murder car" although declaring he was not in it, were the big events today, but other developments were not lacking.

Mayor Gaynor took a personal hand in the investigation. He sent for Lieutenant Becker, against whom were lodged Rosenthal's first charges that the police force was both protecting and bleeding gamblers.

Little by little the tangled skein of motives and personalities behind the murder is being unraveled and tonight it seems probable that other important arrests will follow speedily.

Rose's surrender and confession that he hired the "murder car" although declaring he was not in it, were the big events today, but other developments were not lacking.

important evidence so far available; that men known to have talked over the prospective assassination of Rosenthal the day before it occurred either have not been arrested or were taken and let go on small bail, or, in the case of one, held only because the District Attorney insisted upon it.

The independent course of the District Attorney was indicated today when he summoned Louis Libbey and William Shapiro, owners of the automobile used by the murder party, and heard them make what may be important disclosures in support of the theory of connection between the gamblers and the "police system."

Neither Mr. Whitman nor Assemblyman Levy, counsel for the two men, would discuss what Libbey and Shapiro had revealed. Mr. Levy said he and Mr. Whitman had agreed to give out no further information. Not long before, however, the lawyer had had a two-hour conference with his clients and made a brief statement regarding it.

"They have told me things that I did not know of before," he said. "If Mr. Whitman desires to hear my clients he will learn of disclosures which will make the public gasp when they are published."

SLAYERS ESCAPE FROM NEW YORK

POLICE DECLARE MEN WHO KILLED GAMBLER HAVE FLED FROM CITY

AUTHORITIES HAVE NAMES OF ALL

Suspects Are Well Known And Could Not Have Eluded Watch With Money

NEW YORK, July 20.—The men who rode to the Metropole Hotel early Tuesday morning in Louis Libbey's gray automobile and there shot and killed Herman Rosenthal, the gambler who had so long been a thorn in the side of certain police officials, have fled from this city.

This is the explanation which the police offer for their failure to arrest a single one of the murderers.

Deputy Commissioner Dougherty, who has been in charge of the investigation of Rosenthal's death, virtually admitted today that the reason none of the men had been caught is because they cannot be found.

Mr. Dougherty made no secret of the fact that the names of all of the men are in his possession. He does not hesitate to say that they are well known men who are in ordinary circumstances could be rounded up in a few hours. He refused positively to give their names or say if he had clues as to where any of them have gone. He would not predict how long it will be before he is able to run down the assassins, although he did say that the progress he had made so far is more than satisfactory and that he is confident he will ultimately get the criminals.

It is known that descriptions of certain men have been sent broadcast throughout the country by the police of this city. In connection with these circulars the police of other cities have been asked to keep secret the names of the men wanted.

Mr. Dougherty said that there is no certainty that the men he is after know that they are wanted. If their names become public, he said, they will know it and the difficulty of getting them would be greatly increased.

In "Jack" Rose, the gambler friend of Lieutenant Becker, and the man who hired the car in which the murderers of Rosenthal rode to and from the scene of their crime, Mr. Dougherty declares he has a prisoner more important than all of the others put together. The Deputy Commissioner says that he is confident the murderer of Rosenthal was plotted in the afternoon or early evening and that the men who rode in Libbey's car were fully aware of what was to be done.

FIVE ARE HELD IN NEW YORK MURDER

NEW YORK PROSECUTOR HAS LITTLE CONFIDENCE IN POLICE AIDING HIM

ROSENTHAL KILLING AROUSES CITY

Citizens Declare That Plot To Assassinate Gambler Was in Wide Circulation in Resorts

NEW YORK, July 19.—Private detectives were brought into the Rosenthal murder case today by District Attorney Whitman. They were engaged by a committee of citizens who shared the prosecutor's dissatisfaction with the lack of results achieved by the police in tracing the slayers of the gambler who was shot after making charges of police partnership with gamblers.

In connection with the bringing in of these outside agencies attention was called to what were declared lamentable omissions by the police in guarding against the escape of Rosenthal's slayers Monday night and lack of properly directed activity since.

NEW YORK STIRRED BY NEW ARREST

STATEMENT OF HARRY VALLON CAUSES OTHER PRISONERS TO WEAKEN

WIFE OF MURDERED MAN IS HEARD

Dictagraphs To Be Used in Taking Testimony And Detective Burns Will Be Hired To Probe Case

NEW YORK, July 23.—Signs of weakness on the part of the defense of the men accused of complicity in the assassination of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, became apparent this afternoon after Harry Vallon, who had surrendered during the night and been held without bail on a charge of complicity in the Rosenthal murder, had made a statement to the police and the District Attorney.

Evidently Vallon's statement was of great importance, for it stirred the police and the District Attorney's force to immediate action. Vallon admitted that he was in the vicinity of the Metropole Hotel at the time of the murder; that he had previously been a passenger in the touring car which conveyed the assassins to and from the scene of the crime, and that he was conversant with phases of the plot which the police had previously been unable to reach.

The assertions of Vallon were widely at variance with statements that had been made by "Jack Rose," whose real name is Jacob Rosenweil, the man who, by his own admissions hired the murder car from Shapiro and Libbey and rode in it from Fourteenth street to Harlem and back to Forty-second street and Sixth avenue.

The variations in the two statements were so important that the District Attorney and Deputy Police Commissioner Dougherty determined to bring the two prisoners together face to face and question them on their respective stories.

James M. Sullivan, counsel for Rose was notified of the plan of the District Attorney. Mr. Sullivan hurried to Mr. Whitman's office and held an excited conference with the District Attorney and Inspector Hughes.

Vallon's statement was shown to him and it appeared to set him back. He promptly announced that he would not allow his client to face Vallon and undergo an examination.

Rose, in his statement to the police, has said that Vallon was not in the gray automobile car in which the murderers escaped. Vallon admitted today that he was a passenger in that car during the time when Rose was running around town gathering up men who assembled in the vicinity of the Metropole when Rosenthal was killed.

In the course of a long examination before the grand jury today under the direction of District Attorney Whitman and Assistant Moss, Mrs. Herman Rosenthal, widow of the murdered gambler, gave in detail all the knowledge in her possession concerning the charge of Rosenthal that certain police officers were sharing in the profits of the tender gambling houses.

OTHER MURDERS EXPECTED IN N. Y.

KILLING OF GAMBLER ON BROADWAY IS THOUGHT TO BE ONLY START

DISTRICT ATTORNEY IS IN FEAR

Whitman Employs Burns To Run Down Band Of Slayers—Habeas Corpus Writ Denied

NEW YORK, July 24.—That other murders may follow the sensational killing of Herman Rosenthal, to prevent revelation of the alleged complicity of New York police with the gamblers' ring, is generally believed here today following an alleged attempt to "wipe out" Attorney Levy's counsel for Louis Libbey and William Shapiro, now in the Tombs for complicity in the Rosenthal crime.

Levy, whose clients are believed to have confessed their share in the gang murder, declares that last night his plane was "jimmied" and ransacked in his absence. He believes his life was sought.

The burglarizing of Levy's home, following upon receipts of various threats by anonymous persons to kill District Attorney Whitman unless his fight on the police is dropped, is said to be causing Whitman the greatest uneasiness. Despairing of obtaining the evidence he seeks against Rosenthal's slayers through the medium of his own detectives, Whitman is said to have concluded arrangements with William J. Burns to take their trail and all the acumen of Burns' agency is understood to have been brought into play today to solve what still is one of the greatest mysteries uncovered in New York in years.

Circulars asking for the arrest of Whitley Lewis, "Lefty" Lowe, Samuel Sheps, Harry Horowitz and "Lago Frank," in connection with the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the New York gambler, were sent to the police departments of all big cities today by the local authorities. This action follows the testimony given before the grand jury yesterday by Rosenthal's widow, and conversations in the Tombs between William Shapiro and Louis Libby gotten by means of dictagraphs.

The application for a writ of habeas corpus sought for Webber was denied by Justice Gierish and the hearing of the application in behalf of Samuel Paul was continued.

it, while the real slayers walked away unnoted. That the dictagraph has played an important part in the collection of evidence against the men alleged to be concerned in the conspiracy to put Rosenthal out of the way was fully established today. Deputy Police Commissioner Dougherty asserts that a "murder house" was collected and paid over to the murderers on the night of the crime. The men who received the money and the amount each received is known to both Whitman and Dougherty. This evidence was gotten through the dictagraph. Dougherty resorting to a ruse to arrange Webber's house with the instrument.

When Webber was brought down from his house to have a talk with Dougherty he was treated courteously the commissioner explaining that he merely went you as a witness. Dougherty was quite willing when Webber's attorney suggested that he be released on $100 bail.

The commissioner wanted to give Webber time to bring his suspected allies into the case. Soon on Saturday morning he was taken again for Webber, and after two veiled women were brought down to headquarters it later developed that these women were connected with the Webber household. While Webber and the members of his family were away from home the dictagraph was being installed, and Commissioner Dougherty declares that it has done its work thoroughly.

It is admitted in the federal court room that the startling evidence brought out Saturday against Hanford involving him in a financial deal with the Northern Pacific railway finally determined him to quit the bench.

EXCHANGE OPENS OFFICE IN LONDON

PORTLAND, Or., July 20, (Special).—A permanent branch office of the Northwestern Fruit Exchange was opened in London on July 1, according to W. F. Gwin, general manager of the exchange, who has returned to Portland after a two months trip to Europe.

"We have always felt," said Mr. Gwin, "that the foreign market, while valuable, is also dangerous, especially to the uninitiated. It is unfortunate how little real knowledge there is on the part of growers and shippers in the Northwest, of fruit trade conditions in Europe. I have often heard growers complain that they had shipped cars to foreign brokers on assignment, with rooseate prospects but disastrous results. Others have complained that the manifold and complicated handling charges of the foreign receivers."

"In still another instance, an English operator made his appearance in the Yakima Valley, settled down for a season's stay and offered to buy for cash. He was welcomed, of course, especially as he was not very particular as to the price he paid. When the season was over he left very quietly owing the growers a good many thousand dollars, and one association was reported to have lost $10,000, wiping out their entire surplus. These are only a few of the snags that have been run up against mostly due to ignorance of foreign trade and foreign trade conditions."

"It was in order to put the Exchange in possession of complete, up to date information concerning conditions that I made this trip, and it is because trade conditions on the other side are complicated and full of pitfalls for the unwary that the exchange found it advisable to establish an office of its own in London. This office was formally opened on July 1, and is conveniently located in the Country Life buildings, 17-21 Tavistock St. W. C., right across the street from Covent Garden Market."

At 10:30 Judge Hanford, Chairman Graham of the investigation committee, and Attorney Hughes, counsel for Hanford, left the federal building and went to a telegraph office. Judge Hanford went in his resignation at that time, while Chairman Graham wired to the house judiciary committee asking that a resolution be passed by the house instructing its committee whether to continue the investigation.

Attorneys for Hanford went into conference behind closed doors with the congressional committee this morning and it was then rumored they were discussing what effect the resignation of Hanford would have on the impeachment charges. A subpoena had been issued for Erasmus Brainerd, until a year ago editor of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer, and it was reported that he was expected to give sensational testimony.

That a climax to the Hanford investigation might come today was the suspicion of those closely identified with the case. Judge Hanford was on the bench a few minutes this morning and then left.

At 10:30 Judge Hanford, Chairman Graham of the investigation committee, and Attorney Hughes, counsel for Hanford, left the federal building and went to a telegraph office. "What is it all about?" Chairman J. M. Graham was asked as he left the telegraph office.

"I am on honor not to tell you," he replied. "There is a rumor," said a newspaper man, "that Judge Hanford just sent in his resignation to President Taft."

But Graham refused to make any comment whatsoever.

HANFORD PROBE IS TO BE CONTINUED

SEATTLE, Wash., July 23.—That Attorney General Wickersham should take up the Hanford investigation where it was dropped by the congressional committee, is the opinion of many Seattle attorneys today.

Attorney John H. Perry who worked with the congressional committee here, declares that men involved with Hanford should not be allowed to escape under the cover of Hanford's resignation.

"The resignation of Hanford," said Perry, "naturally closes the case so far as he is concerned, but it is most certainly the duty of the department of justice to follow up the work of the committee with criminal prosecution if it is justified by the facts which are now obtainable. Hanford at first issued a statement saying 'ill health' was the cause of his resignation. In later statements, however, nothing was said about this, but various other reasons were assigned. He declared that he was satisfied with the outcome of the investigation, proud of his record on the bench and of the enemies he had made."

Chairman J. M. Graham, of Illinois and Representative W. L. McCoy, of New Jersey, left at 11 o'clock this morning for Tacoma where they will spend the day. They will leave Tacoma tonight for the east. Representative E. W. Higgins, of Connecticut, left on the Canadian Pacific for the east, yesterday.

HANFORD, UNDER FIRE, RESIGNS

SEATTLE JURIST DECLARES HEALTH IS TOO POOR TO MAKE FIT

INQUIRY CHECKED FOR TIME BEING

Aged Jurist Declares He Cannot Stand Strain—Defence Collapses When Committee Continues Investigation

SEATTLE, Wash., July 22.—Judge Hanford has telegraphed his resignation to President Taft. He gives as his reason that he cannot stand the physical strain and that he desires to retire while he still has some health left. The committee will wait for word from congress as to whether or not to proceed with the impeachment probe.

It is admitted in the federal court room that the startling evidence brought out Saturday against Hanford involving him in a financial deal with the Northern Pacific railway finally determined him to quit the bench.

There was no longer a semblance of doubt but that Hanford would have to stand impeachment before the senate. Members of the congressional committee in confidence have said that they considered the evidence against Hanford most damaging.

The Hanford defense collapsed apparently when the investigating committee showed a determined effort to get at the bottom of Judge Hanford's alleged business dealings with litigants. The Hanford decision reducing the Northern Pacific railway's taxes while he was negotiating for the purchase of thousands of acres of land from the railway, was a staggering blow to the defense when Representative McCoy read it into the records.

On top of this come the committee's sensational move to investigate the whole relationship existing between Kerr and McCoy, attorneys, and Hanford. About 9:35 the committee went into executive session. A few minutes later, Representative McCoy called in the conference all three of Hanford's attorneys, E. S. Hughes, Harold Preston and C. W. Dor.

Rumors became rife at this juncture that the committee was discussing what procedure to follow in case Judge Hanford should resign. About 10:30 Chairman Graham, Judge Hanford and Attorney Hughes left the federal building and went to a nearby telegraph office. Judge Hanford went in his resignation at that time, while Chairman Graham wired to the house judiciary committee asking that a resolution be passed by the house instructing its committee whether to continue the investigation.

Attorneys for Hanford went into conference behind closed doors with the congressional committee this morning and it was then rumored they were discussing what effect the resignation of Hanford would have on the impeachment charges. A subpoena had been issued for Erasmus Brainerd, until a year ago editor of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer, and it was reported that he was expected to give sensational testimony.

That a climax to the Hanford investigation might come today was the suspicion of those closely identified with the case. Judge Hanford was on the bench a few minutes this morning and then left.

At 10:30 Judge Hanford, Chairman Graham of the investigation committee, and Attorney Hughes, counsel for Hanford, left the federal building and went to a telegraph office. "What is it all about?" Chairman J. M. Graham was asked as he left the telegraph office.

"I am on honor not to tell you," he replied. "There is a rumor," said a newspaper man, "that Judge Hanford just sent in his resignation to President Taft."

But Graham refused to make any comment whatsoever.

MITCHELL IS GIVEN 9-MONTH'S SENTENCE

WASHINGTON, July 23.—John Mitchell, vice-president of the American Federation of Labor, was sentenced today in the District of Columbia Supreme Court to nine months' imprisonment for contempt of court growing out of the Bucks Stove & Range Company case. An appeal was taken and $4999 bail furnished to abide by the decision of the upper court.

In the same case President Samuel Gompers recently was sentenced to one year, and Secretary Frank Morrison to six months.

Mitchell was not in court, but sent a written statement waiving his right to be present. He was to have been sentenced last week, but Justice Wright then declined to pass sentence because he objected to the form of waiver submitted for Mitchell.

During the summer months mothers of young children should watch for any unnatural looseness of the bowels. When given prompt attention at this time serious trouble may be avoided. Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy can always be depended upon. For sale by Huntley Bros. Co., Oregon City, Hubbard, Molalla and Canby.

TAMMANY HALL AIDED W. J. BRYAN IN 1908

WASHINGTON, July 20.—Herman Ridder, treasurer of the Democratic National committee in 1908, produced today for the inspection of the senate committee investigating campaign expenditures, official reports of the National committee's receipts and expenditures he had filed with the Secretary of State of New York in 1908.

J. J. Martin, private secretary to the Secretary of State, produced the reports, as official custodian of them. These showed the total receipts were $620,644.77 and the total expenditures $819,410.06.

Ridder told the committee how he raised the money for William J. Bryan's last Presidential fight. "I was the largest contributor," said Mr. Ridder. "I gave $7,000. Mr. Bryan made a rule that no one should contribute more than $10,000. So $10,000 was subscribed in my name and each of my sons gave $3000."

"Did August Belmont contribute anything in 1908," asked Chairman Clapp. "No, he did not," said Mr. Ridder. Mr. Belmont had told the committee recently that he contributed about $250,000 to the Democratic National committee in 1904.

"Did Mr. Thomas F. Ryan contribute in 1908?" continued Senator Clapp. "No, he did not."

"Might they have contributed to some one else?" "No, unless Mr. Sheehan—no I am sure they did not through Mr. Sheehan because the amount he contributed was too small."

Tammany Hall contributed $10,000, mostly in five and ten cent pieces. Witness recalled, with the aid of the official record, that 25,000 names were enrolled on the list of contributors. He picked the largest ones, putting into the record contributions by W. F. Sheehan, Edward Coltra, John W. Cox and David R. Francis, of $3000 each; John T. McGraw, $2000; Edward M. Sheppard, H. H. Lehman, Delancey Nicoll, D. E. Conway, Norman E. Mack and J. Sergeant Cram, $1000 each; Morgan J. O'Brien, $500; Nathan Strauss, $1250, and Samuel Untermeyer, $2500. No money was received from corporations for the campaign, Ridder assured.

SUFFRAGETTES TRY TO KILL PREMIER

DUBLIN, July 19.—Eight suffragettes were arrested today charged with complicity in the plot last night to burn the Theatre Royal, where Premier Asquith spoke tonight. Gunpowder petroleum and other inflammables were found in their lodgings.

The authorities are investigating whether the suffragettes plotted to dynamite or to burn the theatre, and whether the eight women under arrest acted independently or had organized support.

All the prisoners are English women. It is believed that the woman who threw a blazing chair from a box in the Theatre Royal last night is among those arrested. Another of the eight is the woman who threw a hat- chest at Asquith as he rode to the Gresham hotel after his arrival here from London.

The person of the premier is being carefully guarded. The police believe that the prisoners came here to start a disturbance and a demonstration of violence which would far overshadow any of the window smashing and riotous recently conducted by suffragettes in London.

MINISTER SAYS SATAN IS IN ASCENDENCY

ST. LOUIS, July 22.—Rev. Louis S. Burgh, pastor of the Windsor Methodist Episcopal Church, declared the following ten commandments of his Satan's Majesty have taken the place of those of Moses:

"1. You can have as many gods as you want."
"2. You can make for yourself one graven image in the likeness of the almighty dollar. You can bow down to the god of greed, for he is the lord thy god, visiting the iniquity of the fortunate who happen to have plenty upon the unfortunate who happen to have less, showing mercy only to the blind parasites who love him."

"3. You can take the name of the Lord in vain, provided you wish to hyperbolize in conversation with no malice aforesaid."
"4. Remember the sabbath up to date Sabbath. In it you shall get up at noon, go to the ball game and visit a variety show in the evening, for in six days we are compelled to work for a living and we need a good time on the Sabbath."

"5. Don't honor your father and mother, lest the old pair enjoy life too long."
"6. Don't commit any premeditated murders except on the principle of temporary insanity."
"7. You may commit adultery, but look out you don't have to pay alimony."
"8. You may reasonably steal anything within the law of the land, even a railroad."

"9. You can bear false witness against your neighbor behind his back if there is money in it."
"10. You can covet your neighbor's house and his wife (whether you are married or not) and everything that belongs to him. Also eat one another according to the law."

BRITISH SPURRED BY GERMAN NAVY

ENGLAND PLANS TO 'BUILD, BUILD' SHIPS AS LONG AS OTHER NATIONS DO

MONSTER FLEET IS GENERAL DEMAND

Balfour, Former Leader Of Opposition Is Prompt In Support Of Program Of Government

LONDON, July 22.—The speech of Winston Spencer Churchill, First Lord of the Admiralty, in introducing today the supplementary naval appropriation $5,000,000 in the House of Commons, fully endorsed as it was by the Prime Minister, will cause graver concern to the country than to any warnings which have gone before.

Without the least offensiveness, the First Lord of the Admiralty sketched the "unprecedented" rise of the German fleet, which he described as "extremely formidable."

In order to bring home its size to his hearers, Mr. Churchill likened it to the great fleet which all saw at Spithead a short time ago. His text was "build, build, build" through successive years, as the only means of meeting the menace of the North Sea.

Mr. Churchill also told the House that if the information received by the Admiralty that a Mediterranean power—meaning Austria—was contemplating another considerable naval program proved true, "it will constitute a naval factor requiring our prompt attention and not included in any forecast I had given of future naval construction."

Mr. Balfour, the former leader of the opposition, was prompt in his support of the government program.

"Those who have listened to this speech of the First Lord," he said, "must now be convinced that there is no use talking about dropping our shipbuilding. The cost of the navy must increase as long as insane competition in shipbuilding goes on elsewhere. And though modern peace is as expensive as ancient war, it is much cheaper than modern war."

JAPAN'S EMPEROR IS SLOWLY SINKING

TOKIO, July 22.—The emperor of Japan was slightly stronger late tonight, and those at his bedside were hopeful of his recovery. Physicians, however, declare that his trouble has been allowed to go too far, and that his case is hopeless.

After a fair night's sleep the patient awakened at 6 o'clock this morning, spoke intelligently to the watchers at his bedside and swallowed some liquid food. Following an examination, the doctors issued a statement that the mikado's condition was improved.

Later the patient suffered a relapse and lost consciousness for long intervals. The empress slept briefly during the night, Crown Prince Yoshito asked permission today to be present in the sick room, and the physicians acceded to his request.

Members of the cabinet are awaiting the end of everything in readiness to transfer imperial authority to Prince Yoshito when the mikado expires.

Although no disorders are anticipated in Japan upon the accession to the throne of Prince Yoshito, much apprehension is felt concerning Korea, and the government troops there are prepared for outbreak.

Prince Katsura arrived at St. Petersburg Sunday, but the date of his return to Tokio is unsettled.

ARCHBALD GIVEN 10 DAYS FOR DEFENSE

WASHINGTON, July 16.—Sitting as a high court of impeachment, the Senate today gave Judge Archbald of the commerce court until July 29 to prepare his defense to the charges against him.

Indications are that the senate desires to push the trial to a conclusion before the adjournment of the present session.

After Archbald's defense is in, the house prosecutors will be given until August 2 to reply.

Attorney Worthington, for Archbald stated today that the jurist would plead not guilty.

Archbald's name was thrice shouted aloud by the sergeant-at-arms when he entered the senate chamber. Attorney Worthington then announced the jurist's presence and presented a written request for a reasonable time to formulate a defense.

Senator Clark, Wyoming, moved that Archbald be ordered to reply by July 24 but the date was later changed to July 29. Even to this Worthington objected requesting 20 days. Congressman Clayton thought four or five days would be ample for the house prosecutors and on his statement August 3 was set as the time limit when all pleadings, including the house prosecutors' reply to Archbald's answer, should be presented.

A Girl's Wild Midnight Ride

To warn people of a fearful forest fire in the Catalina a young girl rode horseback at midnight and saved many lives. Her deed was glorious, but lives are often saved by Dr. King's New Discovery in curing lung trouble, coughs and colds, which might have ended in consumption or pneumonia. "I cured me of a dreadful cough and lung disease," writes W. R. Patterson, Wellington, Tex., "after four in our family had died with consumption, and I gained 87 pounds." Nothing so sure and safe for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by All Druggists.