

These Are The Week's Latest Fashions

LINEN CRASH.

A distinctive model in linen crash is presented above. This has a kimono blouse with applique closing showing a glimpse of heavy lace and closing band of linen, trimmed with tiny buttons and side frill of batiste. The sleeves are also trimmed with a frill. The skirt has a double tunic effect of the crash over a simulated underskirt of lace. A trimming line of buttons and loops runs along the closing of bodice and tunic. These also trim the lace cuffs on the sleeves. Smart pleated white hat of taffeta ribbon with dainty wreath of white roses.

EVENING GOWN.

A girlish evening frock is this with modified panner and high waistline. The little short waist is gathered very slightly into the square neck which is outlined by a band of lace insertion. A garland of dainty roses is draped over the front of the bodice and a similar garland catches up the drapery of the sleeve. The gown is made of blue marquisette over self-tone silk, the latter showing between the "pannier" drapery of marquisette. The fullness of the panner is gathered at the bottom of the skirt into a narrow band of lace, below which are two ruffles of lace edging.

NATURAL COLOR PONGEE

Black velvet ribbon run through embroidery heading is the striking trimming in this little frock. Natural color pongee was used for this, combined with heavy ecru lace and ecru beading. The blouse has a vest of lace on either side of which the ribbon run heading is placed. On the other side of the heading is a length of lace edging applied flat. The sleeves are also trimmed with this combination of lace and heading. The velvet and heading finished in front with a flat bow of the velvet are used for the girl. The upper half of the skirt is slightly draped into a band of the heading, while the lower portion hangs straight and is trimmed with a broad band of lace.

COTTON CREPE BLOUSE.

An easily made blouse of cotton crepe is shown in the drawing above. This popular material is used even more than formerly, and together with marquisette has practically supplanted other blouse materials. This little blouse is made on the new costee model with slashed peplum. Irish lace heading is used for the trimming, running horizontally on the bodice portion which opens over an embroidered and lace trimmed vest trim the sleeves and outlines the slashed peplum. Another novelty displayed on this smart blouse is the use of tiny pearl buttons to form the flowers of the embroidery design.

A SMART HAT.

With her usual perversity, Fashion favors two extremes in millinery modes this year. To be in the extreme of fashion a hat is either high of crown, often to the point of exaggeration—or flattened out to great breadth of brim and practically no crown at all. One design on the latter lines slightly modified is given above. This is a smart tailor style with wide, slightly rolling brim having a becoming dip in the front, and a low broad crown. Around the crown is a plain folded band of green taffeta. The taffeta is made into two wings and placed on the left side of the crown.

WEST AUTHORIZES TRIAL OF GUARDSMEN

PORTLAND, July 23, (Special).—Adjutant General W. E. Finzer, of the Oregon National Guard today received the authorization of the governor for holding a courtmartial to try Major R. O. Scott, Captains H. E. Williams and Walter L. Toole and Lieutenant Richard Delch and H. C. Brun-Lough and stated that he will appeal the officers of the court as soon as the charges are formally placed in his hands.

The courtmartial will include not less than five officers. Under the articles of war, the court must be named within 30 days after the offense charged, and the trial must be within a "reasonable time," which is usually fixed at 10 days after the charges are formally made. Officers of the Oregon national guard are now preparing the charges, which probably will be signed by Colonel Poorman. No court of inquiry will be convened, General Finzer explains; as that is not necessary in a case where the incident is so open and testimony so abundant as in the present case.

"Never before has such an incident as this taken place among Oregon troops," said General Finzer. "It is much more serious than the officers may have supposed. It tends to bring discredit upon the Oregon military organization, and calls for immediate attention. The articles of war were not framed for fun.

"As soon as the officers engaged in preparing the charges submit them to me the courtmartial will be appointed, and it will probably sit in about 10 days. There were many witnesses to the conduct of the officers accused, and there will be no necessity for calling General Maus. The language addressed to him, alleged to be insulting and abusive of discipline, was heard by many."

A representative of General Maus has reported to General Finzer the conduct of the five officers. With this statement the direct connection of General Maus with the affair is said to be closed. He will take no part in the prosecution of the charges.

BOOSTER CLUB IS STARTED IN LOGAN

LOGAN Or., July 31.—(Editor of the Morning Enterprise.)—I wish to occupy some space in your columns regarding our new formed "Booster Club." We have had our first meeting and at the meeting most of the prominent farmers in our progressive district turned out to discuss the different ways of advanced farming and give ideas how each could improve his method of farming.

At this, our first meeting, we had an election of officers and adopted our by-laws and transacted other important business that came before the club.

There was a committee appointed to see if we could not interest some of the business men of Oregon City to build a railroad through this fertile district, so it would be an easier matter to bring our products, hay, fruit and grain to market.

We will hold our meetings the first Saturday of each month, now let more of us attend these meetings and work together so things will soon come our way as a great many of the Clackamas county citizens realize that we have some of the richest land to be found in this good "Old State of Oregon."

"JOSH BILLINGS."

JAPAN'S NEW RULER BEGS AID OF SUBJECTS

TOKIO, July 31.—Yoshihito, the Emperor of the new era of Taisel, read his first proclamation this morning before an immense gathering of officials and representatives of all branches of the service. The emperor said:

"The death of the former Emperor has caused great sorrow to the nation but the throne cannot be left empty and the state administration cannot be neglected even for a day. We therefore immediately ascended the throne of the country under the protection of our imperial ancestors and under the provisions of the constitution.

"In this administration we hope not to be misled. We shall endeavor to sustain and further the great work done and undertaken by the former Emperor.

"You, our subjects, do your best for your country, as you did for the former Emperor and be loyal to us."

The proclamation of the new Emperor pays a lengthy tribute to Mutsuhito, the dead ruler.

Marquis Saionji, the Japanese Premier, replied to the Emperor's proclamation, beginning his speech with the words:

"I most respectfully reply to your imperial majesty."

After a laudatory tribute to the late Emperor, Premier Saionji pledged his unremitting loyalty to the new sovereign.

REBEL MEXICAN LEADER SPURNS U. S. GOVERNMENT

JUAREZ, Mex., July 31.—General Pascual Orozco, commander-in-chief of the Mexican rebels, late today coolly declared that he did not recognize the United States Government. He made the remark to Thomas Edwards, American Consul here, who called at the rebel leader's quarters to deliver a message from Secretary of State Knox.

The message from Washington concerned the treatment of the American settlers in Northern Mexico by the rebels, growing out of the disarming of the Mormon colonists last week.

General Orozco told General Edwards that he did not regard the American as a representative of the United States, which Government, Orozco said, he did not recognize. However, he was glad to see Mr. Edwards, he said, and to receive him as an American citizen. Orozco accepted the message from the American Consul without further comment, Edwards then left the room.

GARY TO CANVASS HIGH SCHOOL VOTE

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT ASKED FOR AN OPINION IN RECENT ELECTION

CONTROVERSY NOT NEAR SETTLEMENT

Residents Who Advocated Establishment of School Favor Proposition To Call Another Election

The controversy regarding the establishment of a high school in Gladstone has been appealed to County School Superintendent Gary, who will canvass the vote of the recent election and probably render a decision Saturday. The board of directors has decided that the vote was against the city having a high school or furnishing high school instruction to its pupils elsewhere. Heretofore the city has provided transportation and paid tuition for high school pupils in Oregon City.

Voters who favored establishing a high school in Gladstone, say in case the final decision is against the proposition, they will immediately ask for another election. They feel confident that the majority of the residents desire a high school in the city, and in substantiation of their contention point to a vote of 46 to 40 at the recent election favoring the proposition. This vote, however, was not considered valid by the directors, because the first proposition, which provided for the furnishing of four years' high school instruction, either in Gladstone or Oregon City was defeated. It is contended that the second proposition although carried, was contingent upon the first which was defeated. The residents favoring a high school say they misunderstood the ballot, and at least 20 did not vote on the first question.

In case the final decision is against the establishment of a high school and an election is not called to vote directly upon that question again, an election may be held to determine whether a tax shall be levied to provide for high school instruction in Oregon City.

Another election to vote on the same proposition may be held if one-third of the voters petition for it, or if the school directors think the sentiment of the voters is for an election.

GOV. WILSON DENIES NEW YORK CLUB STORY

SEA GIRT, N. J., July 31.—Governor Woodrow Wilson, Democratic presidential nominee, today ridiculed reports that he had applied for membership in the Manhattan club of New York city, and withdrew his name when he learned that friend of James Smith Jr. planned to blacklist his application. Wilson denied that he had applied for membership.

Smith and Wilson are bitter political enemies. Smith never having forgiven Wilson for his efforts in behalf of Senator Martine when Smith was a candidate for the senatorial nomination. Smith attributed his defeat to Wilson's activities.

It is reported here today that Governor Wilson favors two vice chairmen of the national Democratic committee, and that William McAdoo of New York and Senator Gore of Oklahoma would be named. All arrangements were completed today for the ceremonies to be conducted when Governor Wilson is officially notified of his nomination by the Democratic convention.

"UNCLE JOE" MAY ATTEND CEREMONY WITHOUT COAT

WASHINGTON, July 31.—"Uncle Joe" Cannon, wearing a thin pongee silk suit and a gray hat, hurried out of the White House executive offices today after a few minutes conversation with Assistant Secretary Forster. "I just came to find out if I had to wear my Prince Albert at the notification ceremonies tomorrow," said the former speaker.

"They told me it would be entirely informal; that I could come in my shirt-sleeves if I wanted to."

PORTLAND WINS IN EYELASH FINISH

OAKLAND, July 31, (Special).—With the game 5 to 4 against them at the beginning of the ninth the Beavers crossed the home plate twice, winning one of the closest games played here this season. Gregg allowed 11 hits and the visitors made 10 off Parkins' delivery.

The results Wednesday follow:

FIGHT AGAINST COUNTY DIVISION PLANNED

The Publicity Committee of the Commercial Club of Oregon City is continuing its good work. While the protest against County Division has been regularly filed, the committee of business men is not resting on its oars, by any means. The plan now is to raise a fund of at least $5,000 for this purpose alone and from the work already done, there seems no doubt that this amount will be obtained. The committee insists the county is in no position for division; that there is only enough income for one management; that the officials are capable men and that the majority of the residents of the county are against the plan. The committee argues that more political jobs are not needed, and with the Publicity Committee at the head of the fight together with funds with which to fight the voters of the state will be fully informed of the situation. Only a misunderstanding on the part of the voters at large, it is declared, can defeat the anti-division movement and it is not the intent of the committee in charge that such shall be the case.

INGRATE SQUIREL DEVOURS YOUNG ROBIN

A tragedy occurred a few days ago in the yard of John Lewthwaite, superintendent of the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company. A squirrel ate a young robin. The squirrel's life had been saved several times by the family of Mr. Lewthwaite from the cat "Peter," and had been given the name of "Theodosius," having become a pet of the household. A few days ago several robins were hatched in a nest a few feet from the veranda, and careful watch had been taken that the cat should not molest the young birds. To the horror of one of the young women "Theodosius" Monday afternoon climbed the tree and ate one of the robins and disappeared. The young woman gave chase, but her efforts were in vain for the bird and squirrel did not appear again. "Theodosius" will be given a cool reception when he appears again.

ESTATE OF WOMAN VICTIM OF TRAIN GETS $500

TRAPPED ON SPAN, HE FALLS TO DEATH

CHINAMAN CLINGS DESPERATELY TO TIE AS TRAIN PASSES OVER HIM

FRIENDS WITNESS FATAL PLUNGE

Hop Yard Worker Had Been Warned By Brakeman Of Danger—Skull Crushed And Leg Broken

Joe Gee, a Chinaman, was instantly killed in a fall from a trestle, which is the approach to the bridge that crosses the Clackamas River, near Wilsonville, Tuesday night. The man had walked several hundred feet on the trestle when he was startled by a train approaching from the rear. He did not have time to cross to the other side of the river and he could not go back. Several men beneath realized the Chinaman's predicament. Suddenly Gee lowered himself at the end of a tie clinging to the timber desperately. The train rattled over him and about half of it had passed when he released his hold and fell sixty-five feet, his head striking a timber during the descent. His skull was crushed, and his left leg was broken. Death was instantaneous.

Gee was employed at the hop yard of A. C. Mueske, and Oh Kow, superintendent of the yard, was one of the witnesses of the fatal plunge. A freight train passed just before Gee started to cross the trestle and a brake man warned him that there was another train close behind. The Chinaman, however, paid no attention to the warning. It is said that he had been drinking. He evidently was unfamiliar with the trestle for it is said he could have saved himself by climbing to supporting timbers. Coroner Wilson viewed the body Wednesday night and had it brought to this city. Gee has wealthy relatives in Portland who will come for the body today. The man was sixty-five years of age and had been in this country many years.

WIFE, SUING, SAYS HUSBAND STRUCK HER

Rose Majewski, of Portland, Wednesday filed suit for a divorce against Martin Majewski, charging cruel treatment. The plaintiff alleges that her husband struck her July 18, 1912. She says she had to work two years in order to earn her own living. They were married in Vancouver, Wash., November 2, 1905. Alleging that her husband deserted her August 9, 1910, Auds Stone filed suit for divorce against Kelse Stone. They were married in Portland May 17, 1908.

$75,000,000 LAND SUIT GOES TO TRIAL

SAN FRANCISCO, July 31.—The Government's suit to recover 2,300,000 acres of valuable agricultural and timber lands in Oregon, valued at $75,000,000, from the Oregon & California Railroad Company, a subsidiary of the Southern Pacific Company, was resumed here before Miss M. A. Fleming, United States Special Examiner. William Singer Jr., representing the company, asked B. D. Townsend, special assistant to Attorney-General Wickersham, if it was desirable to admit newspapermen, who, he said, if they were admitted, "would write whatever they wanted."

"I think by all means," answered Mr. Townsend, "that this should be a public hearing."

B. A. McAllister, land commissioner of the Oregon & California, the Central Pacific and the Southern Pacific and formerly for the Union Pacific, testified that he kept full records of land grants and that there had been no sales of importance since the present suit was brought.

Attorney W. D. Fenton, for the company testified that it was the policy of the company to induce settlement by every means possible and that such would be the policy now if the Government had not brought the present suit.

The Government's suit, which is the largest land suit ever filed in the United States courts, was filed in September, 1908. The complaint charges that prior to the filing, the railroad had sold $20,000 acres of land of which $26,000 acres were sold in violation of the terms of the original grant.

Under the grant, the railroad was allowed to sell land only to actual settlers, in lots not exceeding 160 acres, each. The Government seeks to show that 400,000 acres were sold in parcels exceeding 1000 acres each. Among the larger alleged sales are 77,000 acres to the Booth-Kelly Lumber Company, and 60,000 acres to A. B. Hammond, of San Francisco, and his lumber companies, at prices ranging from $5 to $40 an acre.

Associated with the railroad attorneys in the defense is John M. Gearin, of Portland, formerly United States Senator, representing the Union Trust Company.

NURSE UNCONSCIOUS WHEN TOSSED IN CREEK

SATSKILL, N. Y., July 31.—That Miss Dorcas J. Snodgrass, the Mount Vernon nurse, whose body was found in Catskill creek, after she had been mysteriously missing for several days may have been the victim of foul play, was indicated here today in a report returned by Dr. Rooney of Albany, who made a post mortem examination.

Although Dr. Rooney admits that death was due to drowning, he maintains that the shallowness of the water in which the body was found proves that Miss Snodgrass was unconscious and inert when placed in the creek.

District Attorney Wilbur ordered a thorough investigation of the case today and startling developments are expected. The body was sent to Mount Vernon today for burial.

Miss Snodgrass disappeared from her home on the day she was to leave for Oakland, Cal., where her brother-in-law is superintendent of construction of a trolley line.

INDIAN ATHLETE PRAISED BY TAFT

WASHINGTON, July 31.—Warm praise of James Thorpe, the Carlisle Indian who rolled up more individual points than any other athlete at the Stockholm Olympiad, is expressed by President Taft in a letter to Thorpe. The letter, made public today, says: "I have much pleasure in congratulating you on account of your noteworthy victory at the Olympic games in Stockholm. Your performance was one of which you may well be proud."

"You have set a high standard of physical development which is only attained by right living and right thinking, and your victory will serve as an incentive to all to improve those fine qualities which characterize the best type of American citizen. "It is my earnest wish that the future will bring you success in your chosen field of endeavor."

FIREBUG CONTINUES WORK IN ALBANY

ALBANY, Or., July 31.—Another fire of probably incendiary origin started at 2 o'clock this morning at 122 Montgomery street and destroyed the house at that place. The building was owned by Dr. J. L. Hill and but light insurance was carried. It is said that it has been used as a storeroom for blind pig supplies. A number of liquor barrels was found in the basement, empty but smelling strongly of kerosene.

This fire, following so closely the burning of the Franklin house two days ago, has aroused the city and various possible solutions of the situation are being offered. The Franklin house a notorious old hostelry, had been vacated almost entirely just the days before it burned and kegs and demijohns of kerosene and gasoline were found among the ruins by the firemen, one keg of kerosene still having a halfburned wisp of hay in the open bung.

Insurance detectives are now in the city working on the two cases.

1,000 MEN IN STRIKE ON GRAND TRUNK LINE

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 31.—The extent of the workmen's strike on the Grand Trunk Pacific east of Prince Rupert, has been underestimated by the public through the reports of travelers who did not realize the private motive in making it appear that there was no particular trouble. The fact is, and this is vouched for by a mining engineer who has been in the Olinda country as a pioneer on Graham Island, that at least 1000 men have quit work on the grade, and most of them are at the present time in Prince Rupert. The Industrial Workers of the World are at the bottom of the trouble.
