

NEWS FROM THE COUNTRY INTERESTING ITEMS FROM ALL PARTS OF CLACKAMAS COUNTY

CLARKES Mr. and Mrs. F. Bauer and daughter, Elsa, of Colton visited Mr. Bottemiller and family Sunday. Miss Mary Marshall has returned from Eastern Oregon. Mr. Sullivan is moving to Portland this week. G. Marquardt was in town Monday. Ed Grace is cutting grain. Mr. William Grace, of Portland, is out visiting his brother, J. T. Grace and family. Henry KleinSmith was repairing Sam Elmer's threshing machine last week. The principal of the Clarkes school is Mr. Guy Larkins and the primary teacher is Miss Ena Stout. Mr. W. G. KleinSmith is cutting grain. Mr. Livingston was buried Sunday by the Highland Grange in the Clarkes Cemetery. The funeral was the largest ever held in Clarkes. Mr. Wilson who purchased Mr. Sullivan's place has taken possession. Miss Esther Hoag returned to Portland last week. Miss Ruby Gard visited in Portland last week.

A GOLD Is not necessarily serious, provided it is taken care of. It is frequently the starting point of many dangerous diseases. When it comes use Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. Look for the bell on the bottle. For sale by Harding's Drug Store.

MOLALLA Settled weather has again smiled on the producer of food stuff and the farmer is joyful. Three clover hullers are busily rubbing out emerald seed. Evermann Robbins has a force of men at work on his house in Everhart's addition. John Sheppard is preparing to move to town soon, as Dr. Powell can vouch for the house. Miss Alice Sprague has been quite ill for a week and was moved to her sister's, Mrs. Cordell's, Sunday. Mr. Warner, of the painting firm of Dougherty and Wagner, is at work again, having recovered from a fall. Another teacher has been added to the Molalla school for next school year.

MULINO Lightning struck a post in Morrison's barn splintering it from top to bottom, Thursday morning. The hay balers finished baling hay in this neighborhood Saturday. Christensen's threshing outfit passed through here Saturday and are threshing just above Mumo. Mrs. Lee and daughter, Nada and Mr. Bert Smith, from Silverton, were Sunday visitors at Mrs. Churchill's. Mrs. Lee remaining for a few days' visit with her old neighbors, the others returning to Silverton in the evening. Jack Ball has sold his place to Harry Burdine. Mr. Carson, who bought the Christensen place, has moved in, we hope they will be pleased with their new home. Mr. Burdine has transferred his crew of men to the Oregon City end of the line of the Clackamas Southern, and is working near Maple Lane.

COLTON George Wallace and Bill Hettman are busy working on the new telephone line, which will extend from Colton to Oregon City. John Wall and son have completed building at J. A. Stromgrens. Born, last week, to the wife of Mr. P. E. Berglund, a son. Two of W. E. Bonney's sisters have been visiting relatives and friends here. Miss Elma Hubbard, of Woodburn, is spending her vacation with Mrs. Elliott at Elwood. Mrs. Tolene and daughter, Martha, were visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Julius Johnson's, of Elwood, a few days last week. Mrs. C. Branlund and daughter, who have been in Portland, on account of the latter's health, have returned home. Although still under the doctor's care, she has improved. Misses Florence and Pearl Stromgren and Elma Hubbard took a fishing trip last Sunday and report a jolly time. Born, last week, to the wife of Mr. Alfred Danielson, a son. Mrs. Jessie Winslow, who has been staying at her nephew's, Claude Winslow, will leave for her home at Oregon City this week. Mrs. Olson, the Colton telephone operator, is having a new house built under the supervision of Alfred Wall.

MARQUAM Cline brothers are baling hay for Dolph Myers. Mr. Russell, of Molalla, is hulling clover for Roy Higgins. Most of the farmers have finished cutting grain and some have threshed. Mrs. J. T. Drake and Guy Larkins and wife returned from Wilhoit Springs where they have been camping for several weeks. J. C. Marquam was in Portland on business Monday. Guy C. Larkins, of Marquam, was elected principal of the Sherwood school. Harry Hubbard, Mr. Shoemaker, Mr. Comstock and T. D. Clap leave for the mountains soon. Echo Larkins is visiting friends in Linn County. Mrs. J. E. Marquam is assisting Miss Bertha Miller, in J. C. Marquam store for a few days.

EAGLE CREEK Mrs. Bertha Douglas and children, returned from Eastern Oregon last week. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Palfrey, of Molalla, were recent guests of Mr. Viola Douglas. Mrs. Cora Udell and children, spent Sunday afternoon, with James Gibson. Miss Helen Brower, was visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Howlett recently. W. A. Baker, of Portland, came out this way Sunday and preached to a small audience at 11 o'clock in the school house. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Woodie were the guests of Mr. Woodie's parents, of Estacada, Sunday. Mrs. Bessie Douglas, accompanied by her sister, Orpha Ciesentr, returned home Monday, after spending a week with their mother at Molalla. The Douglas boys are threshing their fall grain. The German Threshing Crew came down Sunday evening from George, and commenced Monday.

MOUNTAIN VIEW Mr. and Mrs. Haskel's daughter, of Oklahoma, is visiting this week. Miss Lillian Gillett is visiting A. Z. Jones and wife, and L. Sagar and family this month. Garratt Martin, who is threshing grain at Highland, was at home last week on account of rain. John Gillett, Amos Tressow, J. Bar to and Walter Mann went to Roaring River for a two weeks' hunting, and fishing trip. F. M. Darling made a business trip REDLAND E. N. Brock is building a house for John Hendrickson. George Lawrence is having a house built. Mr. Plenum has nearly finished the barn on the Polehn place. Mrs. Emma Fank Wilde, of Seattle, and her two sons, are visiting relatives of this place. Mr. Johnson on the old Sprague place has bought a threshing machine. The parties that bought the Benson store are putting in a large stock of groceries.

WILSONVILLE H. D. Aden, was a business visitor to Portland Tuesday. Dr. Harvey Kelly and family, of Old Mexico, visited the Doctor's sister, Mrs. Brown, this week. Joe Thornton spent Tuesday in Portland on business. Mr. and Mrs. Wall will spend a few days at Seaside next week. Mrs. Black and son, William, spent several days at Astoria and points on the river, last week. J. W. Thornton and wife were in Portland Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Barney Cronin and family are visiting in Vancouver, Washington. Mrs. Fletcher is visiting a sister at Broadacres. C. E. Cook was a city visitor Tuesday. Miss S. M. Graham and niece, Rosetta and Josephine are visiting at Newport. Rev. Bishop is home from the Eastern states, where he went some time ago to claim his bride, and will preach next Sunday evening at eight o'clock on the subject of "Moral Insanity." All are cordially invited to attend. Mrs. Eilers entertained the Wilsonville Club in a delightful manner Thursday afternoon. The popular motorman of our local program during the day. Ice cream and lunch will also be served by some of the village residents and a good time is being looked forward to. Mrs. Marton Young deserves great credit for the amount of work she has been doing for this fair. We Guarantee Every Box of Dr. Bell's Antiseptic Salve to do what we claim. Try it for ulcers, boils, running sores, tetter, ringworm, fungus, pimples, black heads, chaps, bruises, burns or any skin disease. 25c a box. For sale by Harding's Drug Store.

STAFFORD Sharp-brothers have purchased a new engine and began threshing on their own place Tuesday afternoon. The Moser machine has also started in this neighborhood. We are sorry to say Mr. Powell is again confined to his bed. Dr. Mount was called Wednesday morning. Mrs. Aden is greatly improved since her return from the seashore. Mrs. Frindle returned to Mrs. Gage's Wednesday, and will be present at the meeting of the Ladies' Circle Thursday. Harry Gebhardt spent a number of hours Tuesday cleaning Mr. Gage's well. We were told over the phone that Mrs. Clara Oldenstadt-Shaner has a baby girl. The sky was overcast Wednesday morning and a few drops of rain fell, but all are hoping the clouds will pass by, as the majority of the grain is still in the field. Mr. Schatty's eldest daughter, Christina and little daughters, are still with her parents, while she slowly recovers her strength. A card from Mrs. Millem speaks very hopefully of her recovery, but she is still in the Sellwood hospital.

BLAMED A GOOD WORKER "I blamed my heart for severe distress in my left side for two years," writes W. Evans, Danville, Va., "but I know now it was indigestion, as Dr. King's New Life Pills completely cured me." Best for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, constipation, headache or debility. 25c at All Drug-Stores.

and Harold Baker spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Wanker. Mrs. Ernest Whitten spent last week with her parents at Wilsonville. Mrs. Riley J. Hays visited a few days with her mother, Mrs. Wright, at Sherwood. Mrs. Childs also visited with Mrs. Wright. J. F. Cook loaded a car of baled hay at Oswego last week. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wanker and children spent Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hays of Sherwood. Miss Iva Whitten has been visiting since Monday at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Wanker and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wanker. Church Services will be held at the Hazella school house Saturday evening, August 17th, at 8 P. M. Sunday school every Sunday morning at 10:30.

RURAL DELL Mrs. Kate Sounce visited with Mrs. A. L. Wilstead Friday afternoon. Otis Ogle made a business trip to Canby Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith went to Canby Saturday. The Sax boys were up from Portland Saturday and Sunday visiting with Eymans. Miss Mabel Fosmark returned home last week from Aurora, where she has been working for some time. A number of the young folks from here spent a pleasant day at Wilhoit Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Sounce visited with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Mallet, of Molalla, Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Rahl visited with Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Smith Sunday. Miss Lily Finney left for her home in West Woodburn last week. Fred Sailer left last week for the Crooked River country, where he is expecting to get next to the country. T. J. Ogle, Otis Ogle, Jim Ogle and J. W. Noster left the fore part of this week for Sheridan, where the former expects to find a location. George Sawtell has been moving his father down here from Eagle Creek. A large crowd from here attended the ice cream social at Yoderville Saturday night. The work on Eymans' new bungalow

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of... All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS Bears the Signature of The Kind You Have Always Bought In Use For Over 30 Years.

Sandy and East Clackamas

SANDY Oscar Dahlgren, of this place and his brother, Gus Dahlgren, of Red Deer, Alberta, have bought an 80-acre ranch near Wasougal, Washington, of Henry Mills. Oscar is moving his family to the place this week. Ed Wolf is slaughtering for Will Dohm. Harry Thomas, is painting the new Meinig Building. A. L. Deaton transacted business in Portland Saturday. Marshall Davis and Harry Thomas were in Portland Saturday. Warren Wilkins was in Boring Saturday. Chas. Shanko is painting the Shelby Building. Ed Hornstedt transacted business in Portland Saturday. W. J. Wirtz spent Saturday in Portland.

ESTACADA George Ely, who was at one time a merchant at Currinville, and prominent in local politics, died last Wednesday of fever at Los Angeles, Cal., where he had resided for the past five years. The funeral services were held at the Estacada M. E. church Sunday under the auspices of the Odd Fellows lodge, of which he was a charter member, and the first treasurer. He was a past grand. Rev. Mr. Darling preached the sermon. He leaves a wife, a brother, and five sisters to mourn his loss. The church was filled with neighbors and friends. Despite the rain a fair sized crowd gathered in the afternoon at the amusement park of the Garfield country club. A business meeting was held in the morning. G. T. Hunt was re-elected president of the club for the ensuing year. The club decided to build a large addition to the hall on the grounds, so as to have an auditorium and to extend the floor space of the dancing pavilion. The club has three "nos"—No booze, no rowdians, no Sunday dances. The afternoon and evening were spent in dancing, and everyone had a pleasant time.

FIRWOOD W. L. Wilkins' niece, Mrs. Mildred Groves, of Portland, visited the Wilkins families last week. Wm. Bosholt and family, with Mr. and Mrs. R. Eason and Mrs. Elsie Belle, took an auto trip to Estacada Sunday. J. W. Dixon and family, and sisters, Ina and Stella, of Portland, who are spending the week with the Dixon family, have gone to the mountains for a few days. John Kruger, of Portland, visited the Froy family last week. Miss Mena Frey returned to Portland Monday. Mrs. Ethel Harper and son, George, are spending a few weeks in Portland.

DOVER Augustine Miller and wife will leave this week for Marion, Iowa, where they will make their future home. Mr. and Mrs. Sawtell moved to Molalla last week. Mrs. H. H. Udell spent Sunday at Estacada, the guest of Dr. Adix. Mr. Bliss is cutting grain for Mr. Vanatta. Mr. and Mrs. Culver are visiting Mrs. H. Miller. They are on their way to California. James DeShayer and family spent Sunday with Joseph DeShayer. Mrs. Vanatta entertained Mrs. Kitzmiller and son, Walton Sunday. M. M. Reid and Mr. Cupp are on a business trip to LaCenter, Washington. Willis Updegrave has a new horse and a fine new hack for the cream route. Mr. and Mrs. Augustine Miller entertained Miss Alice Berghouse and Birch Roberts at dinner Sunday. C. A. Kelt and wife were Estacada visitors Saturday.

CHERRYVILLE Dr. John H. Boyd preached in the M. E. church to a large and appreciative audience. Dave Douglas has rented the Ed Revenue ranch of some 300 acres near Sandy and moved his family there. Sam Miles has moved on the Douglas ranch and gone into partnership

Farmers Look Up Your Fall Needs in Farm Tools NOW. Includes images of a tractor, a plow, and a harrow. Text: FALL GOODS THAT NEVER FALL DOWN. HOOSIER DRILLS Positive Force Feed. Bloom Manure Spreaders Double Steel Reach. J. I. CASE PLOWS The Plow a man Can Pull. DICKS FEED CUTTERS The Best Possible. Hoover Potato Diggers Dig Clean. Drew Litter Carrier A Genuine Labor Saver. HARROWS Disc and Tooth. MITCHELL WAGONS Monarch of the Road. FREE CATALOG sent upon request. OF QUALITY AT RIGHT PRICES. Mitchell, Lewis & Staver Co. Portland, Oregon. W. J. WILSON & CO. CANBY HARDWARE & IMPLEMENT CO. OREGON CITY, OREGON CANBY, OREGON

Mitchell, Lewis & Staver Co. Portland, Oregon. W. J. WILSON & CO. CANBY HARDWARE & IMPLEMENT CO. OREGON CITY, OREGON CANBY, OREGON

HAZELIA Miss Anna Duncan visited friends in Newberg recently. Mrs. Theo. Steinhaber has been entertaining friends for a number of days. Mrs. Anton Nelson's mother has returned from a visit to her home with her daughter. David Herrold, of Ilwaco, spent the end of the week with relatives in Hazelia. Geo. Nagl had the misfortune to lose a good horse not long since, as the animal's bursting a blood vessel while fighting. Joseph Zimney, who was injured last week, is much improved, and is no longer confined to his bed. Mrs. C. W. Childs took dinner with Mrs. Hugh Baker recently. H. T. Duncan has been putting in a new cement walk. Aven Johnson, who has been ill with tuberculosis for a long time, and an invalid for the last two years, died last Friday at 12:15 A. M. The funeral was held from the home of his parents, Sunday at 10 A. M. Rev. Leisner, the Baptist minister of Williamette, officiating. Interment took place in the Oswego Cemetery. Miss Lucile and Mr. Ray Duncan, low is fast nearing completion. Cornelius Embahl, George Sether and Neils Fosmark left Sunday for an outing at the Brittenbach Springs. The Young People's Society met at their regular meeting Sunday evening. A good program was rendered and enjoyed by the large crowd that was present.

SENATE MAY ALLOW LORIMER $40,000 WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—An allowance of $35,000 or $40,000 may be made by the Senate to help William Lorimer defray the expenses of his three-years' fight to retain his seat. Lorimer has turned in bills amounting to $100,000 or $125,000. They have been referred to the investigating committee, which will make a statement to the Senate, probably tomorrow, that certain items amounting to from $35,000 to $40,000 would be a fair allowance, if any be made. Do not forget Dreblow's shoe and harness sale.

WILLIAM CHRISTIANSEN, who has been suffering from salmon oak, was taken to the hospital Saturday. Miss Hilda Morris, Charlie Sagar, Arthur McGuire and Misses Grace and Iola Goshia were guests of Miss Grace Stanton Sunday. Miss Doris Gibson was one of the many who crossed the river Sunday, enroute to Barton. Mr. and Mrs. Christiansen went to Portland Tuesday to see their son who is in the hospital. Miss Inese Marshall, who has been visiting her grandparents, has returned home. Mr. and Mrs. Moore, of Portland, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lauffer's and McPaddens', Sunday. Dreblow has moved the shoe and harness stock from the Green building down town across the street from Wells-Fargo.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—In the midst of protests from the Republican side, Speaker Clark declares today the wool bill passed over President Taft's veto by a vote of 174 to 80. The vote was 174 to pass it, 80 against it and 10 voting "present." There were 264 members in the hall. Speaker Clark ruled that two-thirds of those voting could pass the bill. Republicans claimed it required two-thirds of those present or 174. A great disturbance followed the ruling.