JOHN LIVINGSTONE DIES SUDDENLY

FORMER SLAVE, WHO CAME HERE IN 1864, WAS SOUL OF HONOR

MASTER REWARDED HIM LIBERALLY

Negro, Fearing Soldiers Might Force Him To Quit Home, Rode Many Miles in Box on Way To Oregon

John Livingstone, who was a playmate of Mark Twain, was found dead in bed Friday. Livingstone, who was a negro, was one of the best known men in Clackamas County, and his life's story is romantic throughout.

Livingstone was born in 1836 in Northeastern Missouri, being a son of slaves. When about twelve years of age he was sold to Joseph Daugherty of Hannibal, Mo., who was an uncle of F. A. Miles, a deputy Sheriff of Clackamas County.

FARMERS TO HAVE MEETING AT O. A. C.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Or., Aug. 10.—A rural conference for the discussion of farm problems is to be held at the Oregon Agricultural College this fall, and a big farmers' excursion to the college will be organized.

All the organizations interested in rural life, including all religious denominations and those interested in the country schools and the improvement of the farming communities, are expected to join in thrashing out vexed questions.

Professor R. D. Hetzel, director of extension, has been reading and relaying letters from all sections of the state commending the plan and offering assistance.

The date is not yet set, as the college wishes to avoid conflict with other important meetings, but announcement will be made as soon as possible.

OREGON HOP CROP TO BE NEAR RECORD

The Oregon hop crop now is counted practically safe, and that it will be one of the biggest and best ever harvested in the state is all but a certainty.

RAIN AID TO HOPS, DECLARE GROWERS

Rains falling over the Willamette valley the last 12 hours have been a distinct benefit to hops, say leading hop growers.

CATTLE PRICES HIGH WITH SMALL SUPPLY

The Portland Union Stock Yards Company reports as follows: Receipts for the week have been, cattle 2652; calves 34; hogs 1641; sheep 4265; horses 48.

POTATOES WANTED IN NORTHERN MARKETS

There is a demand for well matured potatoes for northern shipment. One firm alone has an order for about 13 cars and some difficulty is expected in filling it.

Although there are record-breaking supplies of ordinary potatoes offering there is little stuff that is good enough to ship. Most of the stock now offered shows slipping skin, therefore barring it from the outside trade.

ONION CROP TO BE LATER THAN LAST YEAR

Oregon's first 1912 onions will be offered about August 29 or a few days later. Last year the first carload was shipped out September 16.

ONION CROP TO BE LATER THAN LAST YEAR

Announcement of the excellency of the 1912 onion crop in Oregon was made by W. I. Swank, who has been reappointed general selling agent for the Confederated Onion Growers' association which practically controls the late onion business in the Pacific northwest.

POTATO MARKET HAS ANOTHER DULL SPELL

A lull has again appeared in the potato trade. Orders for early shipment to Alaska have been filled and some additional business, composing only a few cars, will be secured after the first of the month.

POTATO MARKET HAS ANOTHER DULL SPELL

Contrary to expectations dealers experienced no difficulty in securing all the matured potatoes they needed and many more orders for the month can be filled at this time.

Potato market in general has remained very slow. Buying has been from hand to mouth with sales by producers at 60 to 65 c per sack.

Owing to the likelihood that much Oregon, Washington and Idaho potatoes will be pressing upon the California trade this season, it is expected that speculators from there will come to Oregon and by purchasing a car here and there at a higher price, fool the growers and force them to hold while the speculators unload.

Prevailing Oregon City prices are as follows: DRIED FRUITS—(Buying), Prunes on basis 6 to 8 cents.

EGGS—Oregon ranch eggs 23c case count; 24c candeled. FEED—(Selling), Shorts $25; bran $27; flour barley $38 per ton. FLOUR—$4.60 to 5.60.

POULTRY—(Buying)—Hens 11c; spring 17c; and rooster 8c. HAY—(Buying)—Clover at $8; oat hay, best, $10; mixed $10 to $12; alfalfa $15 to $16.50; Idaho Timothy $20.

BUTTER, Poultry, Eggs. BUTTER—(Buying), Ordinary country butter 20c to 25c; fancy dairy 60c roll.

LIVESTOCK, Steers, Hides 5 1-2 and 6 1-4c; cows 4 3-8c; bulls 3 1-2c. MUTTON—Sheep 1c to 1 1-2c. VEAL—Calves 10c to 12c dressed, according to grade.
