RANDALLS HAVE GOLDEN WEDDING

THREE GENERATIONS AT CELEBRATION OF PROMINENT OREGON CITY COUPLE

DR. FORD MAKES SHORT ADDRESS

Pair Received Handsome Presents From Children—Married Soon After Coming Here From England

One of the most enjoyable family reunions ever held in this city was that Wednesday when Mr. and Mrs. George Randall celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home on Sixth and Jefferson streets. Their children and grandchildren were in attendance.

At noon a dinner was enjoyed, Mrs. Randall being assisted by her daughters and daughters-in-law. The table was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and after dinner a very impressive ceremony was performed. Mr. and Mrs. Randall standing beneath the electric lights, which were decorated with bright colored autumn leaves and around them stood the children and grandchildren. Rev. T. B. Ford, pastor of the Methodist church delivered a short address, presenting Mr. Randall, in behalf of his children with a handsome gold watch box, while Mrs. Randall was presented with a handsome gold watch. Mr. and Mrs. Randall responded feelingly.

Rev. Arthur Brown, of Seattle, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Randall, followed with prayer, after which "Blest Be The Tie That Binds" was sung impressively by the guests.

The Randall home was attractively decorated, bright colored autumn leaves being used in the reception living room and dining rooms. The leaves were intermingled with white waxen berries, which formed a very pretty effect.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall are well known residents of this city, having come to Oregon in 1855 by way of the Isthmus of Panama. Mr. Randall and his wife were born in England, the former in the county of Wiltshire, April 18, 1841. He was the son of George and Maria Randall. Mrs. Randall whose maiden name was Mary Ann Frestone, was a daughter of James and Ann Frestone. She was born at Trobridge, Wiltshire County, England, August 19, 1838, and was married October 2, 1862, at Rockville, Conn. Mr. Randall coming to America in 1857, and Mrs. Randall in 1862, the year she was married. Residing in that city for eight years they decided to come West, and after reaching Oregon City, remained here for three months when they moved to the Ben Male Donation Land Claim, where Mr. Randall purchased 230 acres which he tilled until he made it one of the finest farms in Clackamas County, and which is now in charge of his son, George Jr. After farming for thirty-eight years Mr. and Mrs. Randall moved to Oregon City, where they have resided for eight years.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall have been prominent in church work in this city, both being members of the Methodist Episcopal church. They are members of the Warner Grange. Mr. Randall is a member of the Oregon City Commercial Club, and is one of the "boosters" of Clackamas County as well as for the whole state. Through his ambition and hard work he has been able to retire from active work.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall have five children, who were at the family reunion and twelve grandchildren, who also attended their children being Wilburn Grant Randall, of Central Point; Mrs. Ada Brown, of Seattle; Mrs. Gustina Pollard, of Springfield, Oregon; George Garfield Randall, of Central Point; Lottie Jane Crawford, of Portland; Wilbert Samuel Randall, the eldest son, died in April, 1912. The grandchildren are Mildred, Ralph and George Brown; Irene J. Randall, Florence Randall, Lottie Randall, the latter being the daughters of the late Gilbert Randall; Ada Randall, Alma Randall, Anna Randall, William Theodore Pollard, Jule Johanna Pollard, the youngest granddaughter attending being only seven weeks of age, Dorothy Crawford.

NON-SUPPORT DUE TO CROP FAILURE

County Judge Beatie, after a hearing, dismissed the charge against Ellis Hughes, of Greenpoint, of non-support. The evidence showed that Hughes had for six years paid his wife a large part of his wages. For four years, according to the witness, he paid her $50 a month, for one year, $40 a month and for two years about $25 a month. Recently, owing to a failure of his crops, he said, he has not paid her anything. He formerly worked near Seaside but two years ago began farming on the Tuallian. The defendant was represented by J. E. Hedge.

WIFE OF OREGON BOY IS GIVEN DIVORCE

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 2.—Superior Court Justice Connolly has granted a divorce to Mrs. Emily Johnson, from James Goodwin Johnson, of Medford, Or., a former Harvard university ball player. The divorce was granted a fortnight ago but extraordinary efforts on the part of the lawyers kept the information exclusively in the court files until today.

The libel alleged cruel and abusive treatment but no specific instances were named in the document. Mrs. Johnson's given the right to assume her maiden name, Emily Brown Mitchell. They were married in 1906 shortly after Miss Mitchell graduated from high school.

"Jimmy" Johnson, who was an all around athlete at Harvard and popular, was but one of many suitors for her hand, another being a wealthy young Canadian railway man. News of the divorce was received with much surprise here.

GLADSTONE PUTS BAN ON UNSIGHTLY POLES

The City Council of Gladstone, at a meeting Tuesday evening, declared in favor of a joint ownership of poles by the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, the Pacific States Telephone & Telegraph Company and the Home Telephone Company. Representatives of the companies acquiesced in the decision. It also was decided that the lowest wires must be at least twenty-two feet above ground. Representatives of the Pacific States Company announced another cable would be installed in Gladstone at once. Hills for the grading of Hereford street were audited.
