BOSTON, Oct. 15 .- For the first Merkle. No runs. time in the world's series history, the championship battle goes to the eighth game. Rushing the peerless and unbeaten Joe Wood even more savagely than they had rushed Buck GIANTS WIN BY O'Brien yesterday, the New York Glants drove "Smoky Joe" from the field with the worst beating he has ever received in his big league career

In the first assault they stripped his hide off with seven hits and six runs. Before this fusillade of shrapnel and canister Boston seemed stunned and crushed. The impossible had happened-the world was coming to an end Gibraltar could be toppled over by hu man hands, for a ball club had faced Wood at home in a test game and shot him to death in one round. Conceding defeat after this shoal of hits and runs, Stahl derricked Wood to give him his chance again in to morriw's duel with Mathewson. The Boston Makes Two Runs and Collins big gun will blaze with the eighth and deciding game for his people, and it is almost a certainty that Wood will oppose him. Tesreau, working in a driving gale, which must have raced down from one of Greenland's icy mountains with a sting and a whip was wild, unsteady and far below form. The Red Sox hit him fiercely but brilliant support pulled him through.
