The "Students' Literary League" of Corral Creek school held a meeting on Friday. After the regular routine of business a program consisting of songs and recitations was given. A feature of the program was an exercise, "Ten Little Pumpkin Faces," by the primary pupils. The next meeting will be December 6th, and it was decided to have a debate, the question at issue being: "Resolved, that the City People are 'Greener' in the Country, than the Country People are in the City." Menga Batalgia has the affirmative side of the question and Lloyd Jones the negative.

About twenty of the family relatives assembled at the Graham ranch near our village to enjoy their Thanksgiving dinner together.

Mrs. Marion Young and family, Mrs. Norris Young, S. Seely and Mr. and Mrs. Aden attended the violin recital, given by Professor W. W. Graham on Tuesday evening at the Masonic hall, in Portland. About five hundred persons were in attendance and were delighted with the skill of Professor Graham and his assistants. This is the first recital the professor has given since his recent return from Germany.

MOLALLA.

The switch board is to be removed from the post office building to the Molalla Telephone Co.'s new home central office. Owing to the rearrangement of many wires talk will be cut out through central for a few days. Mrs. Clifford and Miss Louise Sawyer, who have served as operators almost from the beginning of the telephone mutual operation at this place, served notice a year ago that they did not care to fill the position any longer and duly consented to serve out this year to enable the company to get located in its new home.

Everman Robbins' splendid bungalow is nearing completion, when he contemplates moving for full house-keeping by the first of the year. The Molalla Telephone Company having purchased the Boyles' property. The new operator Mr. Harry Bibbard, of Marquam, will occupy the house vacated by Mr. Robbins after Jan. 1, 1913.

Drs. Todd's and Vernon's new dwelling houses are to be completed by the new year. They are to be painted a cheerful white.

F. C. Perry has a cottage built and is now putting up a water tank tower.

Thanksgiving services were appropriately held at the M. E. church, the pastor in charge, the Rev. Mr. Piper delivered the sermon, after which dinner was served in the basement to a goodly number.

Uncle Jake Harless has recovered from his sick spell and lays it all to the election of Wilson, but the thought of woman's suffrage almost makes him dizzy as he has some apprehension that Molalla might do the rash act of electing a woman mayor when the town incorporates.

Robert J. Moore is severely ill and unable to attend to farming any longer. He will quit his little farm into town property, when we will have a Moore addition to Molalla.

Molalla thinks Oregon City will do a sane and proper thing when she brings about the tripple freight yard on a high water level at the north end of town, as we still expect to be rolling in there on the Clackamas Southern by Xmas 1913.

KELSO.

School closed last week while our teachers, Mr. Purcell and Miss Lamson attended the Clackamas County Teachers' Institute, giving the children a whole week for Thanksgiving.

The children of our school filled two boxes of Thanksgiving contributions which were sent to the Children's Home in Portland.

Steps will be taken soon to get the use of the schoolhouse for social and educational purposes. The schoolhouse should be the educational center, not only for the children but for all the people of the community and there is no valid reason why it should not be used especially as there is no other building in the district where the people may meet.

BARLOW.

Many are on the sick list this week. Jas. Erickson is ill of a cold and fever.

BASKETBALL FOR BOXERS.

Joe Jeannette Says It's Best Exercise For Keeping One in Shape.

Joe Jeannette, the colored heavyweight, is always in shape for a contest. That's what every boxing fan will tell you, and the reason is that Jeannette is a member of the Olympic basketball team of New Jersey, one of the strongest teams in the country, and holds down the position of center. He is regarded as one of the greatest centers in the country.

"This basketball playing is good training for a pugilist," says Joe, "and the surprising thing of it is that other fighters don't take it up as a means of getting into condition. It develops the wind, every muscle of the body, and there is nothing better for what I would call 'quickness of the eye.' Believe me, when a pugilist enters the ring with his muscles, wind and eye in good condition he can ask for nothing more."

W. S. Tull and wife were in Oregon City visiting this week.

U. S. Armstrong has rented the Tiedeman ranch and is moving onto it.

A Des Moines man had an attack of muscular rheumatism in his shoulder. A friend advised him to go to Hot Springs. That meant an expense of $150.00 or more. He sought for a quicker and cheaper way to cure it and found it in Chamberlain's Liniment. Three days after the first application of this liniment he was well. For sale by Huntley Bros. Co., Oregon City, Hubbard, Molalla and Canby.

OLD GUARD IS PASSING.

Evers to Manage New Batch of Chicago Players.

With the passing of Chance and Tinker, Johnny Evers takes charge of a strange horde wearing the old Cub label, the most interesting machine that ever fought for a pennant.

Of that old 1908 grand, which set a record of victories never approached. Those who will fail to answer under Evers include the names of Slagle, Steinfeldt, Overall, Pfelster, Kling, Brown, Moran, Hofman, Tinker and Chance, ten of the old stars who helped to make history.

Evers alone remains of the old infield, and if Sheppard is dropped Schulte will be the only veteran outfielder left.

A. A. U. to Meet in New York.

The Amateur Athletic union will celebrate its twenty-fifth year at the convention of its athletes in America in New York Nov. 18. Many important matters will be discussed, and the records made during the year will be passed upon.

Their Joint Beef.

During the Kimberley siege a colonel in charge of the mess one night addressed this little speech to his fellow officers: "Gentlemen, I am sorry to say we were only able to draw half our ration in beef today. This joint I am carving is beef; at the other end of the table the joint is horse. If any one would like to try the other, perhaps he will carve it for himself." No one cared to try the horse, however, so it was decided that the beef would be content with half rations of beef, and the other joint was left severely alone. After dinner was over, one of the orderlies confessed that he had misplaced the joints, and the beef was still intact.—London Answers.

Points for Mothers

The Rights of Others.

How many of you mothers forget that the older children should be considered as much and as carefully guarded as the little ones that are not so very far past babyhood?

Have't you, times without number, made Tommy or Susie give up to the smaller children just to avoid a cry? Haven't you allowed Master Tom to be interrupted by a small brother or sister when he is trying to get his lessons or busy making something that to him is quite as important as any work that you yourself have planned to do?

Do you think this is fair to the older children? Do you think Master Tom can possibly recite a perfect lesson in history, for instance, when baby brother has been allowed to clamber over his lap demanding to be shown the pictures in the book while he is trying to study?

After awhile Tom's patience gives out and he pushes baby away and tells him to play with something else, but repeated efforts to keep the younger child away proving futile, there is a scene, and the little fellow begins to cry. Nine times out of ten the mother will take baby up in her lap and soothe him while she scolds brother Tom for making baby cry when the poor boy is only trying to do his best school work.

Any little girl of ten or twelve will be perfectly willing to help her mother with the care of the younger children. She will cheerfully lend a hand at dressing, undressing, feeding, bathing and the general care of the smaller children, but mother should not expect her to rush home after school every day and take baby brother for a walk. Neither should she allow the little children to interrupt Susie and her small guests when they are "visiting" with one another.

Little children do not mean to be tyrannical and would not be if mothers would only teach them from the time they are able to understand anything that they must respect the rights of others. Let them understand beyond a shadow of a doubt that they must not expect the older ones to yield to them the moment they express a wish. After awhile, if other babies appear, they in turn will be a greater help to mother and more kindly disposed toward the newcomer.

It requires a vast amount of tact and forethought to adjust the places of the children as they should be. Often the beginning of tyranny is established when the claims of the wee baby take up all the mother's time and the older children are neglected.

In discussing this very subject an eminent writer on the care of children and herself a mother says: "In the ideal home a system of mutual helpfulness reaching around the circle binds the household together in perfect harmony. The little ones have an undoubted claim on the caresses, the care and loving protection of those who are older. This being admitted, it is for the parents to see that the older ones are also immune from interruptions that hinder them from proceeding with the work they are daily obliged to do."

MAKES THE NATION GASP.

The awful list of injuries on a Fourth of July staggers humanity. Set over against it, however, is the wonderful healing, by Bucklen's Arnica Salve, of thousands, who suffered from burns, cuts, bruises, bullet wounds or explosions. Its quick healer of boils, ulcers, eczema, sore lips or piles, 25 cents at all druggists.

SHADELESS FORESTS.

Large tracts of dense forests in Australia are practically shadeless. Many kinds of trees in that strange country turn their edges instead of the flat surface of the leaves to the sun, and thus one may stand under a tree of enormous size and be as fully exposed to the sun as though he were in the open plain. Travel through these forests is said to be exceedingly arduous work, as the trees, while they do not cut off the sun, prevent the breeze from reaching the ground, and thus the traveler experiences a stifling heat.

Original and Unusual Gowns and Trimmings For Modish Women.

Original and smart is a gown with a little orange scarlet cloth coat, the cloth left with cut edges and the sole relief being a handsome black and silver embroidery on the upstanding collar, worn with a black satin stock.

The skirt is of cleverly draped supple black silk of the fallie order. It is finished with a group set in a triangle to hold in place one portion of the drapery, of flat black and silver inter-plaid braid buttons.

Yellows and greens take precedence in evening fabrics. Yellow is used with almost any other color desired.

Many of the new suits have yellow satin linings. Vivid blues and greens are also favored.

In some of the newest street costumes the coats are entirely of fur, mostly in mole, Hudson seal, ermine or sable.

A long stole of black fox looks well with an autumn walking suit.

Pretty little aprons such as these find many uses. They are charming for the changing dish supper and they are pretty and practical to wear when fancy work is in progress.

A Chilly Problem.

How cold is it when it is twice as cold as 2 degrees above zero? There are two zeros, one marked 0 on the thermometer and one known as absolute zero, which is understood to mark the absence of all heat. The zero of Fahrenheit's thermometer is obtained by immersing a tube of mercury in a mixture of snow and common salt and marking the place where the mercury stands in the tube. Absolute zero is 459 degrees below this zero. Now, "twice as cold" is exactly equivalent to half as hot. Therefore, when it is half as hot as 2 degrees above zero, or 451 F., it is 230.5 degrees below the zero on the thermometer.

Humanity Talks Too Much

By M. OSSIP LOURIE, Russian Psychologist

HUMANITY must now inaugurate a campaign against verbosity. Talking is a disease. WORDS HAVE BECOME A MENACE TO SOCIETY, SCARCELY LESS THREATENING THAN ALCOHOLISM OR TUBERCULOSIS. CIVILIZATION IS RESPONSIBLE FOR THIS NEWLY DISCOVERED MALADY, AND NOTHING LESS THAN A SPECIAL SYSTEM OF LAICAL MONASTERIES AND CONVENTS AND A STRICT REGIME OF SILENCE CAN STOP ITS RAVAGES.

Verbomania is a very ancient disease, but its ethical and social dangers are only beginning to be recognized in these days, when the value of creative activity is being emphasized and is becoming a generally accepted belief. PROGRESS IS HINDERED BY VERBOSITY, which has become a widely prevalent disease and vice. As such its importance cannot be overestimated, and its INDIVIDUAL AND SOCIAL CONSEQUENCES CALL FOR THE IMMEDIATE ATTENTION OF THE TEACHER, THE MINISTER AND THE DOCTOR.

Like the pianist who is able after much practice to render a difficult composition without thinking about it, men HAVE ACQUIRED THE POWER TO TALK WITHOUT EVEN THINKING ABOUT WHAT THEY ARE SAYING. Habit transforms conscious activity into a mechanical process. In the use of words habit becomes grafted upon instinct.
