

STOP ANNOYING PEOPLE BY COUGHING. STOP ATTRACTING UNDESIRABLE ATTENTION.

Pure and Pleasant Dr. King's New Discovery Drives Away Cough and Cold. Makes You Feel Fine.

You know how very embarrassing it is to constantly cough at parties, in church and other public places. Besides suffering the distress of coughing, you regret the annoyance to those with whom you are brought in contact, and decide not to go out again while your cold lasts, causing yourself much inconvenience.

"Every winter," writes Mrs. M. O. Cross, Granbury, Texas, "I suffered with severe coughs and colds, but since using Dr. King's New Discovery, I have not been bothered or annoyed with either for over two years."

Ask your druggist for a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery. He will refund your money if not satisfied.

ALL DRUGGISTS

NEWS FROM THE COUNTRY INTERESTING ITEMS FROM ALL PARTS OF CLACKAMAS COUNTY

MACKSBURG

Plowing, planting and blasting covered till the end of Thanksgiving week. Mr. Harry Sherwood, principal of the city school, was married to Miss Esther Edgar of Dallas on Monday, November 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitts, senior gave a dinner to the children and grandchildren on Sunday last in honor of the marriage of their son, George to Miss Hawley of Canby. The young couple have gone to housekeeping near Canby.

Mrs. Wesley Eby is enjoying a visit from Mrs. DeMay of Nebraska. Mrs. DeMay is from the town in which Mrs. Eby formerly lived. They have been friends since the latter's childhood.

Clara, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Walsh fell and dislocated an elbow four weeks ago. She is so far recovered, however, that she is to return to school the present week.

Little Dex, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Barth, cut his hand very seriously with a lawn mower while visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Grimmes. While resting on nicely Dex is still unable to go to school.

Frank Gribble is in Portland having dentistry done. The two children of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Eby are ill with chicken-pox.

Mrs. J. Gibson visited a visit last week from her daughter, Mrs. Smack and her son from Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Balwin were dinner guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. Gibson's. On their way home from Seaside where they spent Thanksgiving.

School opened Monday, December 2 following are the names of the Macksburg pupils who were neither absent nor tardy during the month of November: Hilda Barth, G. Fred Barth, Thasulda Drabergner, Margaret Claus, Myrtle Lorenz, Irene Keesling, Hazel Keesling, Walburga Kraxberger, Lydia Kummer Little Harms, Harrietta Spauldings, Elmora Kraxberger, Hilda Kummer, Sam Moresen Ozer, Eric Bosche, George Gruver, Adams Kahl, George Lubben, Herman Eysel, Alvin Lorenz, Rosin Kraxberger, Adolph Kraxberger, Erna Eysel, Sonja Eysel, Rex Barth, Berna Barth, Fred Ganske, Mildred Keesling, Vastia Keesling, Hattie Sample, Arden Harms, Charles Noack, Gertrude Kraxberger, Oswald Kraxberger, Alfred Bosche, Harold Gribble, Louis Lorenz, Lother Lorenz, Martha Noack, Emma Ganske, Henry Ganske, Paul Moresen Ozer, Elsie Kahl, Mattie Keesling, Norma Nus, Frank Gribble and Heeting Kraxberger.

You will find that druggists everywhere speak well of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. They know from long experience in the sale of it that in case of coughs and colds it can always be depended upon, and that it is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Huntley Bros. Co., Oregon City, Hubbard, Molalla and Canby.

MULINO

Otis Dix who was injured in the saw mill here last week is greatly improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Douglas and three daughters of Salem and Mrs. Perry Parker and son of Plainview Linn county, took dinner with Mrs. Churchill Thanksgiving day.

Mr. Evans has sold his store and other property in Mulino to Mr. Graves of Willamette who takes possession at once. Mr. Evans will build a house on his property on the townsite.

GRANULATED EYE LIDS

are easily cured—Cautic is not necessary. Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve is Painless and harmless and guaranteed to cure. Has never failed on a case, costs 25c. For sale by Harding's Drug Store.

GLAD TIDINGS

John Wooster has completed an apple and potato house such as is very useful to all living on a farm. Mr. Rue is thinking of visiting his father, he being eighty-four years of age and lives in Minnesota and is very low and not expected to live long. He is suffering with a complication of diseases incident to such an advanced age.

Mr. Rue's daughter, Clara and husband, are talking of moving here and farming the tract of land west of the road.

C. A. Bengie returned from a trip to the mountains Wednesday. A young man has taken the contract of slashing for Mr. Price who owns a portion of the old Jeff Herman's place.

Mr. Dave Bengie and wife have been visiting their daughter, Leah Beers, he past two or three days. A card from Jack Faulkner and family now located in Arizona, informs their many friends they are doing nicely in their new home and that Mrs. Faulkner's health is very much improved since their arrival there.

We understand that the Anderson Brothers of near Cairus, who own a tract of land here calculate to do a large amount of slashing next spring. Several pupils of this district are absent from school on account of sickness. Miss Percival resumed her school duties on Monday morning after a week's vacation.

Mrs. George Wooster's parents, residents of Salem, visited her Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Ida Peilers, sister of Tom Garrett is at the point of death at her home in Woodburn with paralysis combined with dropsy. Her many friends hope she will recover.

Harrison James has taken a relapse and is in a serious condition again. He has been sick for many weeks.

A shooting match was held at Marquam day before Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Marquam have returned home from visiting with their daughter and friends in Cottage Grove. They report an enjoyable time but after all concluded that their own home in old Clackamas County was the "best ever."

Mrs. Leah Beers' sister, Sarah and husband of Liberal spent Thanksgiving with her.

Our new neighbor, Jacob Schnack, is very busy these times plowing. He appears like a very industrious man and an all around good fellow.

Rev. Childs is visiting with his family who lives near Boring, Oregon.

The Allen boys took a load of apples to the cider mill near Mount Angel and the cider obtained will be converted into good old fashioned apple butter.

The basket social given by the Ladies Aid Society, at Marquam on Thanksgiving evening proved a success. Marquam Band, Prof. Parvin instructor, and was well rendered and the supper was of the best. The cake-walk was really the main feature of the entertainment, as regards genuine innocent fun and amusement, and the best of order prevailed as usual, each one attending returning home with a better opinion of himself than before coming and with a kinder feeling toward his fellowmen. Amount obtained was $25.45.

If you are troubled with chronic constipation, the mild and gentle effect of Chamberlain's Tablets makes them especially suited to your case. For sale by Huntley Bros. Co., Oregon City, Hubbard, Molalla and Canby.

RURAL DELL

This weather is certainly grand if it will continue for another week or so, nearly all the fall work will be done.

Misses Mamie and Ruth Widstrand went to Portland Tuesday. A few of the young people from here attended the dance at Millsett Saturday night.

Mrs. T. H. Scence and Mrs. F. T. Smith spent the latter part of last week in Portland visiting with friends and relatives.

John Donahue was a Portland visitor last week.

The Rural Dell bachelor's club is there such a thing in existence is being diminished at such a remarkable rate that by spring there will be but very little to it.

Herman Eliason has also joined the married ranks he having wedded Miss Burnice Finney Woodburn last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gunduson of Portland spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Gunduson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Amdahl.

The Young People's Society met crowd was present to hear the program that was rendered.

Fred Smith transacted business in Aurora and Donald Friday. Miss Lulu Eymann visited with her sister, Mrs. Ed. Mitts, Monday. Elmer and Ruth Widstrand went to Molalla Monday morning. Miss Viola Franklin is home now. She has been working at Molalla for some time.

Mrs. Joe Kaufman visited with her mother, Mrs. Troyer of Zion, Tuesday. John Fosmark went to Hubbard Monday after the new organ that the young people's society purchased.

Fred Saller has not completed digging his potatoes yet. Herman Eliason returned home Saturday. Miss Rosetta Eymann attended the teachers institute last week. Her sister, Lulu, and brother Fred accompanied her.

Not Good for everything. Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve is good for nothing but the eyes. If you use it and are not satisfied come back and get your 25c. You be the judge. For sale by Harding's Drug Store.

SUNNYSIDE AND ROCK CREEK Married at the parsonage on Wednesday, November 20th, by Rev. E. E. Crider, pastor of the Sunnyside Free Methodist church, Marion E. Reed and Carrie M. Fredolph. The bride is well known in this community having acted as central girl at Damascus for some time. Martin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Reed of Sunnyside but has made his home in eastern Oregon for a number of years. They will live in Fremont, where they are building a house. We wish them much joy and prosperity through life.

Mrs. Joe Desardoff and Elva also daughter of Portland and Burton G. R. Ellis on Thanksgiving day. Mr. Ellis came near having a serious accident the evening before. Nita being alone in the house washing dishes set too many on one leaf of the table which turned over. She showed great presence of mind, grabbing the lamp and throwing it out doors, thereby saving the house from catching on fire as the lamp cracked as it fell from the table.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hunter took dinner at Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Stoll's last Sunday.

Joe Desardoff makes regular trips to Portland every Saturday with butter, eggs, pork and other produce.

Move On Now! says a policeman to a street crowd, and whacks heads if it don't. "Move on now!" says the big, harsh mineral pills to bowel congestion and suffering follows. Dr. King's New Life Pills don't bulldoze the bowels. They gently persuade them to right action, and health follows. 25 cents at all druggists.

LOGAN

Sylvester Johnston, brother of A. J. Johnston of this place, who died of typhoid fever at Sellwood, was laid to rest Thursday at one o'clock in the Pleasant View Cemetery.

Mr. Alan W. Hutchins became a benedict Thanksgiving. The happy bride being Mrs. Crawford of States. Our best wishes for a happy future.

There was social hop at Gills hall Wednesday night, November 27.

Saturday, December 1st, the school board of district No. 4 met at the school house and cleaned up in good old fashioned style.

Mrs. Bert Corliss is in the hospital at Oregon City for treatment. Her many friends hope she will soon be able to come home.

One thing Logan needs is a humane officer. It is reported on good authority that a horse was beaten until it had to be shot, now another at the same place has a broken tail from a beating. There is surely a way to punish such owners of dumb animals.

Antiseptic Remedies Destroy disease germs. Dr. Bell's Antipain is an antiseptic for external and internal pains, relief is almost instantaneous. Sold by all dealers. For sale by Harding's drug store.

REDLAND

The Redland Sunday School children are preparing a program for a Christmas tree.

W. H. Bonney got his hand hurt on a sawing machine Saturday. Dr. Mount dressed it and Mr. Bonney is getting better.

The Linn brothers are clearing the Strickland place.

A. S. Allen is building a large wood shed.

E. N. Brock is building a large barn for Frank Sprague.

Vernon Smith is going to California soon to work in a garage with his wife.

James Puffer is putting new planks on the Redland road.

Gus Lesch and family are moving from the Bates place to their own.

You Can Always Get The best good medicine if you ask for Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey and look for the bell on the bottle. Guaranteed to give satisfaction. Sold everywhere. For sale by Harding's Drug Store.

WILLAMETTE

Mr. R. F. Carey and Miss Kate Bowlan arrived from Ada, Ohio, Saturday evening to spend the winter with their relatives, A. W. Bowland, of Oregon City and Prof. J. R. Bowland of this place.

The Literary Society had its second meeting at the school house Friday evening with a very good attendance. The program was an interesting one.

The Oregon Grape was first sung, each girl singing wearing a spray of it. Gustav Schoney gave a German recitation. The debate was, "Resolved That the U. S. Army and Navy should be made smaller not larger." Affirmative, Elizabeth Ray and Audrey Tour, negative, Fred Junkin and Agnes Pollock, the latter won. Mandolin and piano, Beatrice Oliver and Mrs. Bowland. May Waldron played for Ethel Gordon to sing. An amusing little dialogue by the Misses Lucy Rice, Beatrice Oliver and Eliza Beth Ray was one of the numbers. Frank Bennett was assisted at the piano by Mrs. Bowland.

The pie social at the Willamette Church Tuesday evening was well attended. The following short but excellent program was given: Song of the Flag, chor.; recitations by Frances Bowland, Katharine Lyons, Terry Barnes, Frances Waldron and Florence Froming; duet by Frances Bowland, Ethel Gordon; mandolin solo by Beatrice Oliver. A quilt the ladies had made was sold to the highest bidder, George Batdorf, purchasing it for $2.25. The sale from pies, coffee, sandwiches and home made candy brought the proceeds of the social to $11.00.

Mrs. Stiner gave birth to a son Saturday, November 24. Mother and child doing well.

Mrs. Hansen, her son and two daughters from Portland were guests of Mrs. Hyatt Sunday afternoon and evening.

Everette Donney has not been at all well for a week but was able to get out Monday. Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Bowland from Oregon City spent Thanksgiving with Prof. J. R. Bowland and family. Mrs. M. Hyatt and children were guests of her sister, Mrs. Barber for Thanksgiving.

A big dinner was given at the mess house for Mr. Cummins and Mr. Christian's sawmill hands. They did not run the mill Thursday.

Mrs. J. B. Cummins and daughter Mabel, went to Oregon City Friday. Mr. Claude Anshrum went to Mr. Johnson's sawmill Friday morning and came back in the afternoon.

Mr. William Burghardt was looking at Mr. Cummins sawmill Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Anshrum spent Thanksgiving at Mr. McMurray's. Mrs. Myers went to her home at Gresham Friday after spending Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Myers at Logan.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Anshrum went to Portland Saturday morning.

Old People Need something to all nature. Try POLY-LAX and if you are not satisfied it costs you nothing. Good for children also. 50c bottles. No gripping. For sale by Harding's drug store.

ALSPAUGH Jack Frost visited in this part of country recently. Quite a number of young people from this section of the country attended the basketball game at Eagle Creek Saturday night. The score was 21 to 26 in favor of the second team. Mr. George Douglas has been visiting with Doty's for a few days.

Mr. Edgar Heiple made a business trip to Oregon City last week. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shold of Portland were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Gibbers last Saturday.

Mr. Alspaugh has moved in his new home. Roy Alspaugh who is attending the Oregon University was home during Thanksgiving week.

Mrs. Mary Heiple and granddaughter, Mamie have returned from Lib- and relatives for the past week. Mrs. Edgar Heiple attended the banquet at Estacada last week. The Clackamas River Milling Company are doing big business.

When you have a bilious attack give Chamberlain's Tablets a trial. They are excellent. For sale by Huntley Bros. Co., Oregon City, Hubbard, Molalla and Canby.

GLAD TIDINGS. The Neason Brothers will finish digging their potato crop in two or three weeks and 15 acres in all.

Wm. Giger and wife were visiting Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bengie.

Alfred Olson has returned from the St. Vincent hospital in Portland, and is settling along nicely.

Quite a little excitement in Marquam Sunday when Joe Jackson's boy rode a bucking cayuse. He stayed with it and for doing so received 50 cents.

The ground on Sunday morning showed plainly the most severe frost or freeze of the winter so far; and from indications we would naturally expect a genuine freeze-out.

Mrs. Jane Mosher, of Silverton, Oregon, has been visiting the past few days with her brother, Tom Garrett and family.

Mr. Ericson is doing some carpenter work for C. V. Carpenter. Schuyler Usher will start work the coming week on his granary. Henry Barth will do the building.

Mrs. Anna Bengie is sewing wood for Mr. Maxson in Timber Grove. Lou Maxson and Mrs. Mary Lee were in town last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Maxson were in town last week. Mr. and Mrs. Maxson spent Sunday with Mrs. W. T. Kleinsmith and family.

Mrs. William Marshall and two children and Mrs. E. Kleinsmith spent Sunday with Mr. Bottemiller and family.

Lon Maxson purchased chickens from John Larkins a few weeks ago. Kenneth Bottemiller was struck and knocked down by a horse last Saturday and received painful injuries to his leg. He is getting along nicely. Edward Buol is working in the sawmill for A. Larkins and M. Robbins.

William Kleinsmith moved his wood saw outfit to Timber Grove on Monday.

Mr. Haag was in town last week. A pleasure seeking party went through Clarks in an automobile last week.

MACKSBURG Macksburg and vicinity are still favored with bright weather, and the farmers are plowing or grubbing. Work is progressing on the Portland, Eugene & Eastern Railroad, a branch of which is to put Macksburg in touch with the outside world. Farmers expect to have plenty of produce to ship on this road as soon as it reaches completion.

The American Society of Equity, Keelling President, is to meet at Scramlin's hall on the evening of Thursday, December 12th. A cordial invitation is hereby extended to everyone who is interested in the progress and welfare of Macksburg to be present as important business is to be transacted.

Lloyd Bowers is married and has come to housekeeping in Joe Gibson's house. Mr. and Mrs. Bowers are the third pair of newly-weds, who have begun life in this house of Joe Gibson's in the last two years.

MY GUARANTEE REDUCED PRICES and extra high quality work in ABSTRACTS, LOANS AND LAW. Also High Grade Insurance and Bonds. E. C. DYE, 5th and Main, S. W. Corner

ELDORADO We are having very good weather at the present writing. Sid Spick spent Saturday evening and Sunday at home attending the

Mrs. William Barth visited school on Thursday. Rexford Barth is recovering rapidly from the effects of his injured hand but it is not thought that he will be able to return to school for some time.

The children of Fred Walsh are ill with chicken-pox. Frank Hilton is plowing Mr. Baldwin's eight-acre lot, preparatory to planting it in wheat.

Miss Lillie Mitts, of the Bear Creek school, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Frank Hilton.

John Kummer is now able to go outdoors after a three months' sojourn of typhoid fever.

Evangelistic services are being held at the new Mennonite church in East Macksburg.

By mistake sixteen of the forty-seven names of Macksburg pupils, who had been neither absent nor tardy in the month of November, were omitted from the list that was sent to the Enterprise last week. Following are the names: Rosie Kraxberger, Adolph Kraxberger, Erna Eysel, Sonja Eysel, Rexford Barth, Berna Barth, Fred Ganske, Mildred Keesling, Vastia Keesling, Hattie Sample, Arden Harms, Chas. Noack, Gertrude Kraxberger, Hedwig Kraxberger, Oswald Kraxberger and Alfred Boeche.

Something Just as Good Can only be the case when it is another bottle of Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. Every bottle the same. Look for the bell on the bottle. For sale by Harding's drug store.

RURAL DELL. Tom Scence went to Canby on business last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Olson made a business trip to Canby Friday. Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Scence spent Monday with the latter's parents at Molalla.

John Fosmark is building a cafeteria, which will be completed soon. Miss Elva Conrad left Friday for a few days visit in Portland.

Haakon Kylo and family made a business trip to Canby last week. Fred Smith took a load of hogs to Canby Friday.

George Sawtell is busy plowing whenever the weather permits. H. Scoble helped Joseph Kaufman butcher last Wednesday.

Mrs. Josephine Bratsburg spent a few days in Portland last week. A large number of Rural Dellites went to Smyrna Sunday to hear Rev. Butler preach.

WILSONVILLE. Shorman Seely had 2,900 sacks of good potatoes. Can anyone in the county beat that?

Mrs. H. A. Aden entertained the members of the Wilsonville Club on Wednesday.

Mrs. Larsen spent the week end in Salem. Edna Dill was a Portland visitor on Sunday.

John Brobst and family, of Portland have been visiting relatives in our village. John Batson sold two farms near Wilsonville last week.

The village stores have some attractive Christmas goods. Mrs. E. E. Wright, Mrs. McKinney, Emil Tanehman and wife, were some of the city visitors during the week.

The Parent-Teachers' association held a very interesting meeting on Thursday in the school house. This society has planned to give a series of free lectures this year, which will give the people of our village a chance to hear the prominent men of our state. The first of the lectures was given last Friday evening, when Senator W. H. Hollig, of Forest Grove, gave a very interesting address on "New View of Education."

The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church will hold a bazaar in the basement of the church on Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 18th, at 2 o'clock. Many beautiful things will be on sale, which will be useful Christmas gifts for your friends. Supper will be served from 7 to 9 o'clock, which will consist of oyster soup, sandwiches, salad, pickles, cake and coffee. He on hand for a good supper, and to assist the ladies who are so faithful to their village, whenever their assistance is needed.

Alfred Baker, Mr. second oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Baker died at his home on Monday, Dec. 9th, after a short illness. He was twenty-five years and six months old, having been born and reared here. Alfred was a mechanic of marked ability, having held positions of importance in Chehalis, Portland and Oregon City. The funeral service was held at the family residence on Wednesday morning. Rev. Eldridge of Sherwood, officiating at the burial. The Hood View choir sang appropriate songs. The floral offerings were numerous and handsome. The deceased was a very exemplary young man, and the sympathy of the entire community goes out to the bereaved parents and family. Out of town relatives present at the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Whitmore, Mrs. Poasche, Mrs. Eymann, Mrs. Krantz and daughter, Mrs. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Baker, of Portland.

STAFFORD. The Dellar Brothers have rented all the plow land on the Game place, and began plowing there on Wednesday morning.

The Parent-Teachers' meeting was held at the school house Friday. It was decided that a Christmas tree would be had and committees were appointed. It was also decided to have the entertainment and tree on the evening of Tuesday, Dec. 17th, as the teachers could not be here later, and a committee of ladies will meet at Mrs. Nussbaum's on the afternoon of Monday, the 16th, to make and fill candy sacks, and attach the names.

A number from here and vicinity went to see the Golden Spike driven in Oregon City, but we shall feel more enthusiastic if ever a Golden Spike is driven to mark the completion of a railroad through Stafford.

Mrs. Fred Oldenstadt, and Mrs. Claus Peters are still sick. Mrs. Fred Ellegren was able to ride to Oregon City Saturday, after her recent sickness.

Mr. and Mrs. Spansberg visited Mr. Gobhardt's Sunday. The officers of the school district met at Mr. Larkins' home Monday evening to transact school business. The teachers seem to be giving good satisfaction so far, and the grades are improving rapidly.

Mrs. Zack Ellegren has been having a real work done in Oregon City.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Hatcher. In Use For Over Thirty Years CASTORIA. 900 DROPS. ALCOHOL 3 PER CENT. Vegetable Preparation for Assimilating the Food and Regulating the Stomachs and Bowels of INFANTS & CHILDREN. Promotes Digestion, Cheerfulness and Rest. Contains neither Opium, Morphine nor Mineral. NOT NARCOTIC. Perfect Remedy for Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Worms, Convulsions, Feverishness and LOSS OF SLEEP. 35 DROPS - 35 CENTS. Guaranteed under the Food and Drug Act.

dance at Anderson's place Saturday evening. The farmers are very busy plowing and seeding this fine weather.

Mrs. I. C. Dix has been doing some sewing for Mrs. Smith. The dance at Mr. Anderson's was very much enjoyed by those present.

Mrs. B. J. Heilvey is contemplating taking a visit with relatives in the near future. Mr. Diell has been doing some plowing lately.

Our teacher, Desale Oswald, has returned after attending the teachers institute in Oregon City. B. J. Heilvey has a crew of men digging potatoes this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wallace and children spent Thursday and Friday with Mr. and Mrs. C. Smith. Mr. Utiger place and will move down soon, the latter to rent Mr. Crook's farm.

The firm of Evans and Dix are thinking of going out of business.

Will Bauer took his little son, Donald, who has typhoid fever, to the hospital in Oregon City Monday. His wife also being in the hospital at Oregon City, having had an operation performed.

Mrs. Armstrong and son of Macksburg called on Donald Bauer Friday. Donald is a grandson of Mrs. Armstrong. Mr. and Mrs. Irvin, of Aurora, also called on Donald Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Winkle went to Eugene Tuesday after visiting relatives here for several weeks.

Mr. Johnson arrived home from Alberta, Canada, Friday and has come to stay as he was not favorably impressed with the climate of that country. It was twenty degrees below zero there at times.

Mrs. Wurfel is improved and able to be in the store again after a severe attack of rheumatism. Mrs. Churchill is recovering from her illness and is able to be out.

Teacher's Examinations. Notice is hereby given that the Clackamas County will hold the regular examination for applicants for State papers at the banquet room in the Masonic Building, Oregon City, as follows:

Commencing, Wednesday, December 18th at 9 o'clock A. M. and continuing until Saturday, December 21st, at 4 P. M.

Program: Wednesday Forenoon—Writing, U. S. History, Physiology. Wednesday Afternoon—Physical Geography, Reading, Composition, Methods in Reading, Methods in Arithmetic. Thursday Forenoon—Arithmetic, History of Education, Psychology, Methods in Geography. Thursday Afternoon—Grammar, Geography, American Literature, Physics, Methods in Language, Thesis for Primary Certificate. Friday Forenoon—Theory and Practice, Orthography, English Literature. Friday Afternoon—School Law, Botany, Algebra, Civil Government, Saturday Forenoon—Geometry, Geology. Saturday Afternoon—General History, Bookkeeping. T. J. GARY, Co. School Supt.

JIM HILL SAYS: The high cost of living is the cost of living high! BUT The Oregon Commission Company says that a part of the cost of living is due to short weight. This is especially true in the weight of bran and shorts. WE SELL 80 lbs. in a Sack of Shorts 60 lbs. in a Sack of Bran LOOK OUT FOR YOUR WEIGHTS Oregon Commission Co. 11TH AND MAIN STREETS. Again at your Grocers' WHITE RIVER FLOUR BETTER THAN EVER Makes Whiter, Lighter Bread