

DON'T TRIFLE WITH COUGHS OR COLDS.

Many Have Filled Consumptive Graves Because They Neglected a Cough or Cold.

You never know how soon a cold will become a serious malady. It may be in the head to-day; in the lungs to-morrow and the next day you may be fighting deadly pneumonia for your life.

Columbia, Mo., "For I believe I would have consumption to-day, if I had not used this great remedy." "I take great pleasure in recommending your Dr. King's New Discovery for the benefit of suffering humanity.

"I feel sure it's a Godsend to humanity," writes Mrs. Elie Merton,

"Yours respectfully," "Wm. Cogger."

Sold and recommended by ALL DRUGGISTS

NEWS FROM THE COUNTRY

INTERESTING ITEMS FROM ALL PARTS OF CLACKAMAS COUNTY

MARQUAM.

There are good prospects for Electric lights in our town, as soon as we get enough residents to install them the company will soon erect the poles.

John Jerg and his wife have the typhoid fever. Mrs. Jerg is improving. She has had it several weeks.

Cyrus Judd, of Idaho, was in town last week, calling on old friends and relatives. He formerly lived here.

Most every one is having their wood sawed now for next year. Archie Thomas is doing the work.

Alfred Olson has returned home from the Portland Hospital much improved.

E. B. Albright has as fine a pack of Fox hounds as ever run, he received two more from Kentucky last week, which makes a total of eight.

J. C. Marquam has a fine display of holiday goods in his store. Mr. Hodson also has a nice display.

Make Up Your Own Mind. When in need of a cough medicine, if you buy Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey we guarantee you get the best.

MACKSBURG.

Macksburg and vicinity are still favored with bright weather, and the farmers are plowing or grubbing.

Work is progressing on the Portland, Eugene & Eastern Railroad, a branch of which is to put Macksburg in touch with the outside world.

Farmers expect to have plenty of produce to ship on this road as soon as it reaches completion.

The American Society of Equity, Kettling, President, is to meet at Scramlin's hall on the evening of Thursday, December 12th.

Our roads are getting mixed up, or plowed up, just north of here, by automobiles.

Our rising generation evidently requires some good, sound instruction outside of the teachings usually gleaned from the text book.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sparks were visiting relatives here for a few days. He left for his home in Omaha, Nebraska Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gibbons were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Heple Sunday.

Henry Gibbons, who has been sick for some time, is improving rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dallas spent Saturday and Sunday with their parents at Damascus.

The basket ball teams at Eagle Creek are progressing rapidly. They expect to play with Springfield in the near future.

Miss Hazel Gibbons and Emma Dowdy were Eagle Creek visitors one day last week.

J. W. Dowdy was a Logan visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sparks were visiting relatives in Portland last week.

Mrs. O. E. Tull and son, Glenn, made a business trip to Portland the first of the week.

Miss Echo and Hazel Gibbons spent Saturday with J. W. Dowdy's.

Antiseptic Remedies destroy disease germs. Dr. Bell's Antipain is an antiseptic remedy for external and internal pains, relief is almost instantaneous.

NEEDY. Mr. M. G. Smith was transacting business in Oregon City Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mitts were calling on the former's parents, the latter part of the week.

C. E. Mitts was in Canby Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mitts were Sunday visitors at the home of their daughter, Mrs. F. A. Hilton.

D. E. Westberg and family and Chas. Kenschik, are attending a convention at Boronia this week.

duce to ship on this road as soon as it reaches completion.

The American Society of Equity, Kettling, President, is to meet at Scramlin's hall on the evening of Thursday, December 12th.

Our roads are getting mixed up, or plowed up, just north of here, by automobiles.

Our rising generation evidently requires some good, sound instruction outside of the teachings usually gleaned from the text book.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sparks were visiting relatives here for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gibbons were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Heple Sunday.

Henry Gibbons, who has been sick for some time, is improving rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dallas spent Saturday and Sunday with their parents at Damascus.

The basket ball teams at Eagle Creek are progressing rapidly.

Miss Hazel Gibbons and Emma Dowdy were Eagle Creek visitors one day last week.

J. W. Dowdy was a Logan visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sparks were visiting relatives in Portland last week.

Mrs. O. E. Tull and son, Glenn, made a business trip to Portland the first of the week.

Miss Echo and Hazel Gibbons spent Saturday with J. W. Dowdy's.

Antiseptic Remedies destroy disease germs. Dr. Bell's Antipain is an antiseptic remedy for external and internal pains, relief is almost instantaneous.

NEEDY. Mr. M. G. Smith was transacting business in Oregon City Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mitts were calling on the former's parents, the latter part of the week.

C. E. Mitts was in Canby Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mitts were Sunday visitors at the home of their daughter, Mrs. F. A. Hilton.

D. E. Westberg and family and Chas. Kenschik, are attending a convention at Boronia this week.

C. E. Mitts was in Canby Saturday.

Jesse Mitts, who has been working near Molalla for some time, is home on account of the heavy rains.

The Bear Creek school will have an entertainment and Christmas tree on Christmas eve, Dec. 24th.

The school has quite an increase over last year. It now has an enrollment of 38.

All are cordially invited.

Miss Katie Ritter and brother, Rude, attended the dance at Canby Saturday night.

You Can Always Get The best cough medicine if you ask for Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey and look for the bell on the bottle.

CLARKES. We are having some rainy weather at present which puts a stop to farming.

Mrs. Ike Cook is on the sick list at present.

Will Wallace sawed wood for Mr. Stark Tuesday.

There is to be a shooting match at R. Bullard's Saturday, Dec. 21st.

Quit a number have potatoes in the ground yet.

A couple of men were in this burr hunting fresh milk cows.

LOGAN. A common greeting among the natives these cool mornings, "My, isn't it cold."

Rev. E. A. Smith preached at the Ravenswood Baptist church Sunday. Saturday was a busy day for the grangers as it was the annual election of officers.

MARQUAM. Mrs. G. W. Bentley is very low. They have sent for their children to be present.

John Jerg is no better. He has the typhoid fever.

Miss Del Marquam has returned home from Differ, Wash. where she has been teaching school for the last three months.

Austin Taylor and wife were in town doing some trading the first of the week.

Ed Hobart was in town the first of the week doing some wiring, preparing to do some fencing.

The merchants of this place are to have a tree and program on the evening of the 24th.

When you have a bilious attack give Chamberlain's Tablets a trial. They are excellent.

MOLALLA. The recent breeze from the south west is a reminder that our winter is at hand.

Our merchants have their stores in holiday attire.

Robert J. Moore is out on the ground again on the way to recovery.

Miss Edith Sawtell, who has been ill for a month is slowly gaining strength.

Our roads are getting mixed up, or plowed up, just north of here, by automobiles.

Our rising generation evidently requires some good, sound instruction outside of the teachings usually gleaned from the text book.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sparks were visiting relatives here for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gibbons were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Heple Sunday.

Henry Gibbons, who has been sick for some time, is improving rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dallas spent Saturday and Sunday with their parents at Damascus.

The basket ball teams at Eagle Creek are progressing rapidly.

Miss Hazel Gibbons and Emma Dowdy were Eagle Creek visitors one day last week.

J. W. Dowdy was a Logan visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sparks were visiting relatives in Portland last week.

Mrs. O. E. Tull and son, Glenn, made a business trip to Portland the first of the week.

Miss Echo and Hazel Gibbons spent Saturday with J. W. Dowdy's.

Antiseptic Remedies destroy disease germs. Dr. Bell's Antipain is an antiseptic remedy for external and internal pains, relief is almost instantaneous.

NEEDY. Mr. M. G. Smith was transacting business in Oregon City Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mitts were calling on the former's parents, the latter part of the week.

C. E. Mitts was in Canby Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mitts were Sunday visitors at the home of their daughter, Mrs. F. A. Hilton.

D. E. Westberg and family and Chas. Kenschik, are attending a convention at Boronia this week.

C. E. Mitts was in Canby Saturday.

Jesse Mitts, who has been working near Molalla for some time, is home on account of the heavy rains.

The Bear Creek school will have an entertainment and Christmas tree on Christmas eve, Dec. 24th.

The school has quite an increase over last year. It now has an enrollment of 38.

All are cordially invited.

Miss Katie Ritter and brother, Rude, attended the dance at Canby Saturday night.

You Can Always Get The best cough medicine if you ask for Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey and look for the bell on the bottle.

CLARKES. We are having some rainy weather at present which puts a stop to farming.

Mrs. Ike Cook is on the sick list at present.

Will Wallace sawed wood for Mr. Stark Tuesday.

LOGAN. A common greeting among the natives these cool mornings, "My, isn't it cold."

Rev. E. A. Smith preached at the Ravenswood Baptist church Sunday. Saturday was a busy day for the grangers as it was the annual election of officers.

MARQUAM. Mrs. G. W. Bentley is very low. They have sent for their children to be present.

John Jerg is no better. He has the typhoid fever.

Miss Del Marquam has returned home from Differ, Wash. where she has been teaching school for the last three months.

Austin Taylor and wife were in town doing some trading the first of the week.

Ed Hobart was in town the first of the week doing some wiring, preparing to do some fencing.

The merchants of this place are to have a tree and program on the evening of the 24th.

When you have a bilious attack give Chamberlain's Tablets a trial. They are excellent.

MOLALLA. The recent breeze from the south west is a reminder that our winter is at hand.

Our merchants have their stores in holiday attire.

Robert J. Moore is out on the ground again on the way to recovery.

Miss Edith Sawtell, who has been ill for a month is slowly gaining strength.

Our roads are getting mixed up, or plowed up, just north of here, by automobiles.

Our rising generation evidently requires some good, sound instruction outside of the teachings usually gleaned from the text book.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sparks were visiting relatives here for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gibbons were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Heple Sunday.

Henry Gibbons, who has been sick for some time, is improving rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dallas spent Saturday and Sunday with their parents at Damascus.

The basket ball teams at Eagle Creek are progressing rapidly.

Miss Hazel Gibbons and Emma Dowdy were Eagle Creek visitors one day last week.

J. W. Dowdy was a Logan visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sparks were visiting relatives in Portland last week.

Mrs. O. E. Tull and son, Glenn, made a business trip to Portland the first of the week.

Miss Echo and Hazel Gibbons spent Saturday with J. W. Dowdy's.

Antiseptic Remedies destroy disease germs. Dr. Bell's Antipain is an antiseptic remedy for external and internal pains, relief is almost instantaneous.

NEEDY. Mr. M. G. Smith was transacting business in Oregon City Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mitts were calling on the former's parents, the latter part of the week.

C. E. Mitts was in Canby Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mitts were Sunday visitors at the home of their daughter, Mrs. F. A. Hilton.

D. E. Westberg and family and Chas. Kenschik, are attending a convention at Boronia this week.

C. E. Mitts was in Canby Saturday.

Jesse Mitts, who has been working near Molalla for some time, is home on account of the heavy rains.

The Bear Creek school will have an entertainment and Christmas tree on Christmas eve, Dec. 24th.

The school has quite an increase over last year. It now has an enrollment of 38.

All are cordially invited.

Miss Katie Ritter and brother, Rude, attended the dance at Canby Saturday night.

You Can Always Get The best cough medicine if you ask for Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey and look for the bell on the bottle.

CLARKES. We are having some rainy weather at present which puts a stop to farming.

Mrs. Ike Cook is on the sick list at present.

Will Wallace sawed wood for Mr. Stark Tuesday.

LOGAN. A common greeting among the natives these cool mornings, "My, isn't it cold."

Rev. E. A. Smith preached at the Ravenswood Baptist church Sunday. Saturday was a busy day for the grangers as it was the annual election of officers.

MARQUAM. Mrs. G. W. Bentley is very low. They have sent for their children to be present.

John Jerg is no better. He has the typhoid fever.

Miss Del Marquam has returned home from Differ, Wash. where she has been teaching school for the last three months.

Austin Taylor and wife were in town doing some trading the first of the week.

Ed Hobart was in town the first of the week doing some wiring, preparing to do some fencing.

The merchants of this place are to have a tree and program on the evening of the 24th.

When you have a bilious attack give Chamberlain's Tablets a trial. They are excellent.

MOLALLA. The recent breeze from the south west is a reminder that our winter is at hand.

Our merchants have their stores in holiday attire.

Robert J. Moore is out on the ground again on the way to recovery.

Miss Edith Sawtell, who has been ill for a month is slowly gaining strength.

Our roads are getting mixed up, or plowed up, just north of here, by automobiles.

Our rising generation evidently requires some good, sound instruction outside of the teachings usually gleaned from the text book.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sparks were visiting relatives here for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gibbons were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Heple Sunday.

Henry Gibbons, who has been sick for some time, is improving rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dallas spent Saturday and Sunday with their parents at Damascus.

The basket ball teams at Eagle Creek are progressing rapidly.

Miss Hazel Gibbons and Emma Dowdy were Eagle Creek visitors one day last week.

J. W. Dowdy was a Logan visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sparks were visiting relatives in Portland last week.

Mrs. O. E. Tull and son, Glenn, made a business trip to Portland the first of the week.

Miss Echo and Hazel Gibbons spent Saturday with J. W. Dowdy's.

Antiseptic Remedies destroy disease germs. Dr. Bell's Antipain is an antiseptic remedy for external and internal pains, relief is almost instantaneous.

NEEDY. Mr. M. G. Smith was transacting business in Oregon City Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mitts were calling on the former's parents, the latter part of the week.

C. E. Mitts was in Canby Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mitts were Sunday visitors at the home of their daughter, Mrs. F. A. Hilton.

D. E. Westberg and family and Chas. Kenschik, are attending a convention at Boronia this week.

C. E. Mitts was in Canby Saturday.

Jesse Mitts, who has been working near Molalla for some time, is home on account of the heavy rains.

The Bear Creek school will have an entertainment and Christmas tree on Christmas eve, Dec. 24th.

The school has quite an increase over last year. It now has an enrollment of 38.

All are cordially invited.

Miss Katie Ritter and brother, Rude, attended the dance at Canby Saturday night.

You Can Always Get The best cough medicine if you ask for Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey and look for the bell on the bottle.

CLARKES. We are having some rainy weather at present which puts a stop to farming.

Mrs. Ike Cook is on the sick list at present.

Will Wallace sawed wood for Mr. Stark Tuesday.

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Dr. J. C. Watson and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS

Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Watson

The Kind You Have Always Bought

In Use For Over 30 Years

but Sunnyside school is still running. Dick Hunter is on the sick list. He is now some better.

Mr. Farrat is having a well dug on his place.

Mrs. M. Reed is sewing for Mrs. A. Stoll for a few days.

A birthday party and wool picking was given last Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. Chas. Hunter at her home.

Nearly everyone is making Christmas presents and anticipating a pleasant gathering of family and friends on Christmas.

MACKSBURG. The recent heavy rains have brought all agricultural pursuits to a standstill.

Mr. Sutherland is absent from school on account of an illness, that seems likely to develop into whooping-cough.

George Lubbins is also seriously ill. A. A. Baldwin attended a meeting of the school principals of Clackamas County which was held at Oregon City on Saturday, Dec. 14th.

Mr. Spalding who has been living in Macksburg the past year is just about leaving with his family for Alaska.

Harriet Spalding, only taking leave of school, presented the library with a very nice collection of books.

Evangelistic services are held every evening in the church of the Methodists at South Macksburg.

The public schools of Macksburg close on Tuesday, Dec. 24th for the Christmas holidays to open on Monday Dec. 30.

NEEDY. Frank Hilton made a business trip to Canby Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Abe Stoffer called on the latter's parents, G. Kenschik Sunday.

Lewis Mitts was visiting at home Saturday and Sunday.

The dance in Miller's hop house Saturday night was enjoyed by all present.

Miss Rachel Spencer is visiting friends in Portland.

Linn Cochran and aunt, of Rural Dell, were calling on the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cochran, Sunday.

Mrs. Harvey Yoder is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. H. Hilton.

Mrs. E. J. Mitts and son, Lewis, who have been visiting in Albany, returned home the first part of the week.

Mrs. Chas. Spencer, who has been visiting in Portland is home again.

J. E. Calavan, of Oregon City, is visiting schools in this section.

Miss Lillian Mitts called on her sister, Mrs. Frank Hilton, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mitts spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Arch Miller, of Molalla.

Wayne Gurley, of Canby accompanied Lewis Mitts home Saturday.

JIM HILL SAYS:

The high cost of living is the cost of living high!

BUT

The Oregon Commission Company says that a part of the cost of living is due to short weight. This is especially true in the weight of bran and shorts.