

CHILDREN ALL SICK WITH COLD. COUGHING, FEVERISH, AWAKE ALL NIGHT

Use Pure and Pleasant Dr. King's New Discovery. Relieves the Cough, Loosens the Cold, Promotes Rest and Sleep.

When your family is visited by a cold epidemic and your home seems like a hospital, your children all have colds, cough continually, are feverish and restless at night, sleep little and then not the sound, refreshing sleep children need. You yourself are almost sick and awake most of the night, caring for them. You need Dr. King's New Discovery. It quiets the children's cough instantly. It is pure and pleasant. Children like it. By relieving the cough promotes sleep and gives you and the children the much needed rest.

NEEDY. Rain! Rain! We hope the new year will bring a change in the weather we are having now. Mr. and Mrs. Myers were in Canby Tuesday. Jesse Mitts, who spent Christmas with Southern Oregon friends, returned home Monday. High Jackson and sons, Will and Ben, are getting out telephone poles, which seems to indicate they will soon have a phone. Mrs. J. E. Mitts is visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. M. Miller, of Molalla. Mrs. Miller is the proud possessor of a fine eight pound boy, born December 26th. David Westberg and family, who have been attending convention at Boring, returned home the forepart of the week. Lewis Mitts visited his sister, Mrs. F. A. Hilton, Sunday. Mrs. Stuckey, who has been ill for some time, is now able to be up part of the time. The program and Christmas tree, given by the pupils of Miss Lillian Mitts, teacher of the Bear Creek school, Christmas eve, was enjoyed by a large crowd. The tree was loaded with presents for all, both large and small. School closed Tuesday, Dec. 24th, to open Monday, Jan. 6th. Following is the program: Song, "Holy Night," by the school; recitation, "Opening Address," by Melissa Kyniston; recitation, "When Pa Shaves," Earl Sturver; recitation, "A Mortifying Mistake," Ruth Moshberger; recitation, "Not So Easy," Cecil Lantz; recitation, "The Lost Doll," Ida Kyniston; recitation, "A City Boy's Discoveries," Eldo Miller; song, "You Mustn't Pick Plums From My Plum Tree," Pearl Miller and Clinton Christner; recitation, "Be Cheerful," May Kyniston; recitation, "What I would Be," Six little boys; recitation, "Our Christmas," Pearl Miller; song, "Just for a Girl," Lewis Mitts; recitation, "Their Wishes," Emma Sturver and Earl Christner; recitation, "What's the Use," Charlie Lantz; recitation, "Anybody's Business," Bessie Oswald; recitation, "Santa Claus," Leo Lantz; dialogue, "The New Boy," six characters; recitation and tableau, "Nobody's Child," Inez Christner; song, "Silver Bell," mixed voices; recitation, "Money in de Business," Guy Lantz; recitation, "Little Blossom," Pearl Miller; recitation, "Sister's Best Feller," Clinton Christner; stump speech, "Christmas," Winnie Lantz; recitation, "Betty and the Bear," Bessie Oswald; song, "Oceana Roll," Lewis Mitts; dialogue, "The

A Nervous Woman Finds Relief After Many Years

Women who suffer from extreme nervousness, often endure much suffering before finding any relief. Mrs. Daniel Kintner, of DeFiance, O., had such an experience, regarding which she says: "I had stomach trouble when I was eighteen years old that broke down my health, and for years I suffered with nervousness, headache, indigestion and nervous spasms. The spasms got so bad I would have been three or four times a week. After trying nearly every remedy recommended, I began taking Dr. Miles' Nervine, and I must say it helped me wonderfully. I have had no severe nervousness for several years."

On Monday evening, the 16th of Dec., the many friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. White gave them a surprise, and served a banquet for them in the basement of the M. E. church, the occasion being in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. A purse was presented to this loving couple as a token of the loving esteem in which they are held in our community. After singing the "Golden Wedding Day," all joined in congratulations and good wishes for these elderly people, of whom it may easily be said "none knew them but to love them, none named them but to praise."

DAMASCUS AND ROCK CREEK.

The rainy season has evidently set in for good. The farmers who have not finished their plowing are now wishing they had taken advantage of the past good weather. Christmas week has passed and the New Year is upon us. People in this vicinity all enjoyed Xmas trees and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dalles and son, Leslie, spent Xmas with their daughter, Mrs. Orren Hatten, of Stone. The Sunday School at Rock Creek, has been lightly attended of late on account of the bad weather. There was a special road meeting at Damascus Saturday, Dec. 28. A special tax of ten mills was voted. The north and south road between Newell's corner and Sycamore had one-fourth. The Damascus and Portland road received one-fourth, the Devil's Cut-off road one-sixth, and the Damascus-Oregon City road received one-sixth. It is every citizen's duty to boost for good roads, as there are many roads in Clackamas county that are almost impassible. The meeting went off very quietly. There being four ladies present to keep peace. Mrs. Robt. Robertson and children, of Fairview, visited her sister, Mrs. Nathan Rawley Christmas week. Mrs. Rawley accompanied her sister to her home at Fairview to attend the opening dance at the new hall at Fairview. Singing in the neighborhood was postponed last week on account of the rainy weather. It will be held at Mrs. Walter Smith's Friday evening. Everybody is invited to attend. Mrs. Ruth Young spent Christmas week at her home. She is teaching school near Bull Run. Damascus Grange, No. 266, held its regular meeting in December, the first Saturday. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Master, Roy White; Overseer, J. D. Chitwood; Chaplain, Mrs. Emma Chitwood; Lecturer, Emma Chitwood; Secretary, Mrs. Marion Dalles; Steward, Henry Mellien; Assistant Steward, Roy Kerr; Gatekeeper, Frank Mellien; Lady Assistant Steward, Mrs. E. Newell; Pomona, Yvonne G. Newell; Ceres, Mrs. Burr; Flora, Mrs. Walter Hall. The next meeting will be the first Saturday in January, when the public installation will be held. The patrons of the grange extend a cordial welcome to those who don't belong to inspect the work of the grange. Bring your dinner and stay all day. Parcels Post commences January first. Thanks to the grange. Pomona will meet with the Oswego Grange January 8. Dr. Bell's Antiseptic Salve is good for anything for which a salve is indicated. Such as pimples, blackheads, sores, chaps, ulcers, sunburn and all skin affections. 25c at Harding's drug store.

GLAD TIDINGS.

Little farm work of any kind is going on owing to the continued rain and disagreeable weather. Mrs. Spurilla and daughter, and Neal Jackson and son were visiting Mrs. C. V. Jackson a few days last week. Henry Hatler and the Bentley Bros. butchered Saturday. Amanda Rue, who has made her home in Portland the past few months is spending the holidays at home with her father and mother, who reside in Glad Tidings. Miss Neva Wooster is still very ill of typhoid pneumonia. She had been attending school in Woodburn and had returned home to spend the holidays when taken sick. Frank Erickson will build a porch on his house this coming week. Snow to the depth of three inches fell on the foothills near Scotts Mills on the night of December 27, and we expect a snowfall closer home in the near future.

ESTACADA and Eastern Clackamas

ESTACADA. The city of Estacada, which is a road district, was organized by a vote of the people on the 10th of December, 1912. The roads built by the city are the following: The road from Estacada to the surrounding country, the road from Estacada to the surrounding country, the road from Estacada to the surrounding country. The high winds wrecking the telephone wires and keeping this community with very poor telephone service. The old year, 1912 will soon be gone and seems to be dying hard. Mr. Crook is building a new sidewalk along his property. Mr. Evans, the Molalla merchant, is contemplating moving his store across the street near his residence. At the telephone meeting last week, Lewis Churchill was elected lineman for the eleven. Born, Dec. 23, a boy, to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Erickson. Christmas was spent very quietly in this neighborhood. Mr. and Mrs. Davis celebrated the day with a family reunion. Mrs. Cato White and two children, from Portland spent Christmas with Mrs. White's mother, Mrs. Crook, of this place.
