

IRRITATING COUGHS. DISTRESSING, DEPRESSING COLDS.

Surely and quickly yield to Dr. King's New Discovery. It soothes the inflamed and irritated bronchial tubes, stops the cough, in many cases instantly loosens the cold and aids expectoration.

ALL DRUGGISTS

NEWS FROM THE COUNTRY INTERESTING ITEMS FROM ALL PARTS OF CLACKAMAS COUNTY

MARQUAM. The Mariene Bond will have a basket social and entertainment in the hall on the evening of January 18th.

MACKSBURG. The universal storm in which the year 1912 closed has abated and the last day of 1912 was bright with sunshine.

MEADOWSBROOK. Mr. and Mrs. Jake Bohlander, the newlyweds and Fred Bohlander were visiting their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bohlander, one day last week.

COLTON. The concert which was given by the Young People's Society New Year's eve was well attended.

CLARKES. There will be a dance at Clarkes Grange hall Saturday evening, Jan. 25th, given by Ed McIntyre.

CLARKES. A local union was organized by the farmers at Clarkes last Saturday night, which is called Farmers Society of Equity.

CLARKES. Mr. L. Maxson, of Clarkes, was visiting Mr. Ed McIntyre, Jr., last Sunday and spent a pleasant day.

CLARKES. Miss Helen Lee and her sister, called on Miss Ellen McIntyre Sunday evening.

CLARKES. Mr. Steve Saker, of Graves Harbor, is visiting friends at Clarkes for the last week.

CLARKES. Ed McIntyre, Jr., of Clarkes, has made a new sled. His friends won't know him when he starts out on a joy ride.

CLARKES. It is quite cold at Clarkes now for about 3 inches of snow fell in the last three days.

CLARKES. W. M. McIntyre, of Rainier, is home for a five day's visit with friends before he starts to work again at Rainier, where he is working for the Portland Lumber Co.

CLARKES. Mr. C. W. Larkins, of Clarkes, got back from Portland Saturday, where he was on a business trip.

CLARKES. There is quite a demand for horses and buggies at Clarkes. Any young man that has a horse and buggy is O. K.

CLARKES. The young folks of Clarkes met at the church house Sunday evening and had a very nice time.

CLARKES. A meeting was held at the school house Dec. 30 for the purpose of organizing a branch of the Farmers Society of Equity.

CLARKES. The following names appear on the roll as charter members: Chas. A. Menko, Albert Moehle, John Bluhm, Arthur Hornshak, Henry Hettman, Robt. Moehle, Peter Hoyer, L. P. Duffy, Henry Grossmiller, Elmer Swope.

CLARKES. The following officers were elected: President, Chas. A. Menko; Vice-President, Albert Moehle; Secretary-Treasurer, Elmer Swope.

CLARKES. Sunday is getting to be the favorite day for the stork. A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Capel, December 29. A son to Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dehler, the 23rd and a girl to Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bacon the Sunday before that.

CLARKES. Mr. and Mrs. Will Critter and baby Julia, spent Christmas week at Arlington, Oregon.

CLARKES. Mrs. Wright, Miss Ruth and Master Raymond, were in Portland at her brothers for Christmas.

CLARKES. The fancy dress party given in honor of Fred Jenkins and Waldron Hyatt Friday evening, December 27 at the farmers home was a lively and joyous time.

CLARKES. The Christmas tree and entertainment at Willamette church Monday evening, December 23 was well attended and enjoyed by all.

CLARKES. The 7th, 8th and 9th grades had a watch party at the school house Tuesday evening.

CLARKES. Mrs. Frank Shipley was called to Stafford to see her mother, Mrs. Peters, who is very ill.

CLARKES. Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Gross are very happy over the arrival of a nine pound boy at their home Monday evening.

CLARKES. Mr. Haneen from Portland, made Mrs. Hyatt and family a visit Xmas. Mr. Jennie Burnett of Portland, spent Christmas with her mother, Mrs. Nelson Waldron.

CLARKES. Walter Leisman is at home sick.

CLARKES. This must be a moontide and the weather man is hanging up; any way we don't like that "moontide" sensation it produces.

CLARKES. The sick folks are about the same, Miss Minnie Steinman of Eagle Creek, is a Logan visitor this week.

CLARKES. School district No. 4 is given credit for some other district's taxable. Nothing wrong here, it must be Viola district. We have a good school this winter.

CLARKES. Harding Grange held one of the best meetings of the season Saturday, the 6th. Members and some visitors were present. The hall and barn have had a new coat of paint which improves the appearance of both.

CLARKES. The secretary's report shows the Grange has had a successful and very prosperous year. The average attendance being 86.712. Have now 112 members in good standing.

CLARKES. The newly elected officers were installed by L. Funk assisted by H. S. Anderson. Had a good program and chicken dinner.

CLARKES. Peter Wilson, one of our old residents and all around substantial citizen, has rented his farm and gone to California to live with his youngest daughter, Mrs. Lizzie Long, who has been here visiting.

CLARKES. Mrs. Annie Polson of McMinnville, visited her old home here last week.

CLARKES. A Boston man lost his leg from the bite of an insect two years before. To vent such calamities from stings and bites of insects use Buckle's Arnica Salve promptly to kill the poison and prevent inflammation, swelling and pain. Heals burns, boils, stings, piles, eczema, cuts, bruises. Only 25 cents at all druggists.

CLARKES. J. A. Ridings has completed some wire fencing, also built a commodious smoke house.

CLARKES. O. L. Hammond butchered one day last week.

CLARKES. Ella Hiddings and others took a night hunt during the cold snap. Their dogs numbered 8 or 10, but they caught no game.

CLARKES. We are very much pleased to hear that Neva, daughter of Geo. Wooster, who has been very ill with pneumonia is on the sure road to good health again.

CLARKES. Wm. Allen has again returned to Portland, as has also Wesley Stockwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Stockwell, of Marquam, who spent Christmas with them.

CLARKES. Stanley Ray is moving some furniture this cold weather. He hauls the rails on a sled, believing that the best way to keep the condition of the ground.

CLARKES. There is much delayed and necessary farm work that can be accomplished now that could not be done during the rainy weather.

CLARKES. Mrs. Clara Schneck attended Catholic church services at Mt. Angel Sunday.

CLARKES. John Wooster is having some shambled done this winter which will add much to the appearance of his place.

CLARKES. Little Maggie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lowe, who has been spending the holidays with her parents, has returned to Portland to attend school.

CLARKES. Ben Jackson, of Pratum, Marlon county spent two or three days visiting his mother last week.

CLARKES. N. Beer lately purchased a young horse. Consideration, $120.

CLARKES. Again at your grocers WHITE RIVER FLOUR BETTER THAN EVER Makes White Lighter Good

Guard Your Children Against Bowel Trouble

Many children at an early age become constipated, and frequently serious consequences result. Not being able to realize his own condition, a child's bowels should be constantly watched, and a gentle laxative given when necessary.

The form and flavor of any medicine is very important, for matter who is to take it. The taste and appearance are especially important when children are concerned.

There will be a dance at Clarkes Grange hall Saturday evening, Jan. 25th, given by Ed McIntyre.

A local union was organized by the farmers at Clarkes last Saturday night, which is called Farmers Society of Equity.

Mr. L. Maxson, of Clarkes, was visiting Mr. Ed McIntyre, Jr., last Sunday and spent a pleasant day.

Miss Helen Lee and her sister, called on Miss Ellen McIntyre Sunday evening.

Mr. Steve Saker, of Graves Harbor, is visiting friends at Clarkes for the last week.

Ed McIntyre, Jr., of Clarkes, has made a new sled. His friends won't know him when he starts out on a joy ride.

It is quite cold at Clarkes now for about 3 inches of snow fell in the last three days.

W. M. McIntyre, of Rainier, is home for a five day's visit with friends before he starts to work again at Rainier, where he is working for the Portland Lumber Co.

Mr. C. W. Larkins, of Clarkes, got back from Portland Saturday, where he was on a business trip.

There is quite a demand for horses and buggies at Clarkes. Any young man that has a horse and buggy is O. K.

The young folks of Clarkes met at the church house Sunday evening and had a very nice time.

A meeting was held at the school house Dec. 30 for the purpose of organizing a branch of the Farmers Society of Equity.

The following names appear on the roll as charter members: Chas. A. Menko, Albert Moehle, John Bluhm, Arthur Hornshak, Henry Hettman, Robt. Moehle, Peter Hoyer, L. P. Duffy, Henry Grossmiller, Elmer Swope.

The following officers were elected: President, Chas. A. Menko; Vice-President, Albert Moehle; Secretary-Treasurer, Elmer Swope.

Sunday is getting to be the favorite day for the stork. A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Capel, December 29. A son to Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dehler, the 23rd and a girl to Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bacon the Sunday before that.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Critter and baby Julia, spent Christmas week at Arlington, Oregon.

Mrs. Wright, Miss Ruth and Master Raymond, were in Portland at her brothers for Christmas.

The fancy dress party given in honor of Fred Jenkins and Waldron Hyatt Friday evening, December 27 at the farmers home was a lively and joyous time.

The Christmas tree and entertainment at Willamette church Monday evening, December 23 was well attended and enjoyed by all.

The 7th, 8th and 9th grades had a watch party at the school house Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Frank Shipley was called to Stafford to see her mother, Mrs. Peters, who is very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Gross are very happy over the arrival of a nine pound boy at their home Monday evening.

Mr. Haneen from Portland, made Mrs. Hyatt and family a visit Xmas. Mr. Jennie Burnett of Portland, spent Christmas with her mother, Mrs. Nelson Waldron.

Walter Leisman is at home sick.

This must be a moontide and the weather man is hanging up; any way we don't like that "moontide" sensation it produces.

The sick folks are about the same, Miss Minnie Steinman of Eagle Creek, is a Logan visitor this week.

School district No. 4 is given credit for some other district's taxable. Nothing wrong here, it must be Viola district. We have a good school this winter.

Harding Grange held one of the best meetings of the season Saturday, the 6th. Members and some visitors were present. The hall and barn have had a new coat of paint which improves the appearance of both.

The secretary's report shows the Grange has had a successful and very prosperous year. The average attendance being 86.712. Have now 112 members in good standing.

The newly elected officers were installed by L. Funk assisted by H. S. Anderson. Had a good program and chicken dinner.

Peter Wilson, one of our old residents and all around substantial citizen, has rented his farm and gone to California to live with his youngest daughter, Mrs. Lizzie Long, who has been here visiting.

Mrs. Annie Polson of McMinnville, visited her old home here last week.

CLARKES.

There will be a dance at Clarkes Grange hall Saturday evening, Jan. 25th, given by Ed McIntyre.

A local union was organized by the farmers at Clarkes last Saturday night, which is called Farmers Society of Equity.

Mr. L. Maxson, of Clarkes, was visiting Mr. Ed McIntyre, Jr., last Sunday and spent a pleasant day.

Miss Helen Lee and her sister, called on Miss Ellen McIntyre Sunday evening.

Mr. Steve Saker, of Graves Harbor, is visiting friends at Clarkes for the last week.

Ed McIntyre, Jr., of Clarkes, has made a new sled. His friends won't know him when he starts out on a joy ride.

It is quite cold at Clarkes now for about 3 inches of snow fell in the last three days.

W. M. McIntyre, of Rainier, is home for a five day's visit with friends before he starts to work again at Rainier, where he is working for the Portland Lumber Co.

Mr. C. W. Larkins, of Clarkes, got back from Portland Saturday, where he was on a business trip.

There is quite a demand for horses and buggies at Clarkes. Any young man that has a horse and buggy is O. K.

The young folks of Clarkes met at the church house Sunday evening and had a very nice time.

A meeting was held at the school house Dec. 30 for the purpose of organizing a branch of the Farmers Society of Equity.

The following names appear on the roll as charter members: Chas. A. Menko, Albert Moehle, John Bluhm, Arthur Hornshak, Henry Hettman, Robt. Moehle, Peter Hoyer, L. P. Duffy, Henry Grossmiller, Elmer Swope.

The following officers were elected: President, Chas. A. Menko; Vice-President, Albert Moehle; Secretary-Treasurer, Elmer Swope.

Sunday is getting to be the favorite day for the stork. A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Capel, December 29. A son to Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dehler, the 23rd and a girl to Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bacon the Sunday before that.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Critter and baby Julia, spent Christmas week at Arlington, Oregon.

Mrs. Wright, Miss Ruth and Master Raymond, were in Portland at her brothers for Christmas.

The fancy dress party given in honor of Fred Jenkins and Waldron Hyatt Friday evening, December 27 at the farmers home was a lively and joyous time.

The Christmas tree and entertainment at Willamette church Monday evening, December 23 was well attended and enjoyed by all.

The 7th, 8th and 9th grades had a watch party at the school house Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Frank Shipley was called to Stafford to see her mother, Mrs. Peters, who is very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Gross are very happy over the arrival of a nine pound boy at their home Monday evening.

Mr. Haneen from Portland, made Mrs. Hyatt and family a visit Xmas. Mr. Jennie Burnett of Portland, spent Christmas with her mother, Mrs. Nelson Waldron.

Walter Leisman is at home sick.

This must be a moontide and the weather man is hanging up; any way we don't like that "moontide" sensation it produces.

The sick folks are about the same, Miss Minnie Steinman of Eagle Creek, is a Logan visitor this week.

School district No. 4 is given credit for some other district's taxable. Nothing wrong here, it must be Viola district. We have a good school this winter.

Harding Grange held one of the best meetings of the season Saturday, the 6th. Members and some visitors were present. The hall and barn have had a new coat of paint which improves the appearance of both.

The secretary's report shows the Grange has had a successful and very prosperous year. The average attendance being 86.712. Have now 112 members in good standing.

The newly elected officers were installed by L. Funk assisted by H. S. Anderson. Had a good program and chicken dinner.

Peter Wilson, one of our old residents and all around substantial citizen, has rented his farm and gone to California to live with his youngest daughter, Mrs. Lizzie Long, who has been here visiting.

Mrs. Annie Polson of McMinnville, visited her old home here last week.

CLARKES. There will be a dance at Clarkes Grange hall Saturday evening, Jan. 25th, given by Ed McIntyre.

A local union was organized by the farmers at Clarkes last Saturday night, which is called Farmers Society of Equity.

Mr. L. Maxson, of Clarkes, was visiting Mr. Ed McIntyre, Jr., last Sunday and spent a pleasant day.

Miss Helen Lee and her sister, called on Miss Ellen McIntyre Sunday evening.

Mr. Steve Saker, of Graves Harbor, is visiting friends at Clarkes for the last week.

Ed McIntyre, Jr., of Clarkes, has made a new sled. His friends won't know him when he starts out on a joy ride.

It is quite cold at Clarkes now for about 3 inches of snow fell in the last three days.

W. M. McIntyre, of Rainier, is home for a five day's visit with friends before he starts to work again at Rainier, where he is working for the Portland Lumber Co.

CLARKES.

There will be a dance at Clarkes Grange hall Saturday evening, Jan. 25th, given by Ed McIntyre.

A local union was organized by the farmers at Clarkes last Saturday night, which is called Farmers Society of Equity.

Mr. L. Maxson, of Clarkes, was visiting Mr. Ed McIntyre, Jr., last Sunday and spent a pleasant day.

Miss Helen Lee and her sister, called on Miss Ellen McIntyre Sunday evening.

Mr. Steve Saker, of Graves Harbor, is visiting friends at Clarkes for the last week.

Ed McIntyre, Jr., of Clarkes, has made a new sled. His friends won't know him when he starts out on a joy ride.

It is quite cold at Clarkes now for about 3 inches of snow fell in the last three days.

W. M. McIntyre, of Rainier, is home for a five day's visit with friends before he starts to work again at Rainier, where he is working for the Portland Lumber Co.

Mr. C. W. Larkins, of Clarkes, got back from Portland Saturday, where he was on a business trip.

There is quite a demand for horses and buggies at Clarkes. Any young man that has a horse and buggy is O. K.

The young folks of Clarkes met at the church house Sunday evening and had a very nice time.

A meeting was held at the school house Dec. 30 for the purpose of organizing a branch of the Farmers Society of Equity.

The following names appear on the roll as charter members: Chas. A. Menko, Albert Moehle, John Bluhm, Arthur Hornshak, Henry Hettman, Robt. Moehle, Peter Hoyer, L. P. Duffy, Henry Grossmiller, Elmer Swope.

The following officers were elected: President, Chas. A. Menko; Vice-President, Albert Moehle; Secretary-Treasurer, Elmer Swope.

Sunday is getting to be the favorite day for the stork. A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Capel, December 29. A son to Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dehler, the 23rd and a girl to Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bacon the Sunday before that.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Critter and baby Julia, spent Christmas week at Arlington, Oregon.

Mrs. Wright, Miss Ruth and Master Raymond, were in Portland at her brothers for Christmas.

The fancy dress party given in honor of Fred Jenkins and Waldron Hyatt Friday evening, December 27 at the farmers home was a lively and joyous time.

The Christmas tree and entertainment at Willamette church Monday evening, December 23 was well attended and enjoyed by all.

The 7th, 8th and 9th grades had a watch party at the school house Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Frank Shipley was called to Stafford to see her mother, Mrs. Peters, who is very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Gross are very happy over the arrival of a nine pound boy at their home Monday evening.

Mr. Haneen from Portland, made Mrs. Hyatt and family a visit Xmas. Mr. Jennie Burnett of Portland, spent Christmas with her mother, Mrs. Nelson Waldron.

Walter Leisman is at home sick.

This must be a moontide and the weather man is hanging up; any way we don't like that "moontide" sensation it produces.

The sick folks are about the same, Miss Minnie Steinman of Eagle Creek, is a Logan visitor this week.

School district No. 4 is given credit for some other district's taxable. Nothing wrong here, it must be Viola district. We have a good school this winter.

Harding Grange held one of the best meetings of the season Saturday, the 6th. Members and some visitors were present. The hall and barn have had a new coat of paint which improves the appearance of both.

The secretary's report shows the Grange has had a successful and very prosperous year. The average attendance being 86.712. Have now 112 members in good standing.

The newly elected officers were installed by L. Funk assisted by H. S. Anderson. Had a good program and chicken dinner.

Peter Wilson, one of our old residents and all around substantial citizen, has rented his farm and gone to California to live with his youngest daughter, Mrs. Lizzie Long, who has been here visiting.

Mrs. Annie Polson of McMinnville, visited her old home here last week.

CLARKES. There will be a dance at Clarkes Grange hall Saturday evening, Jan. 25th, given by Ed McIntyre.

A local union was organized by the farmers at Clarkes last Saturday night, which is called Farmers Society of Equity.

Mr. L. Maxson, of Clarkes, was visiting Mr. Ed McIntyre, Jr., last Sunday and spent a pleasant day.

Miss Helen Lee and her sister, called on Miss Ellen McIntyre Sunday evening.

Mr. Steve Saker, of Graves Harbor, is visiting friends at Clarkes for the last week.

Ed McIntyre, Jr., of Clarkes, has made a new sled. His friends won't know him when he starts out on a joy ride.

It is quite cold at Clarkes now for about 3 inches of snow fell in the last three days.

W. M. McIntyre, of Rainier, is home for a five day's visit with friends before he starts to work again at Rainier, where he is working for the Portland Lumber Co.

CLARKES.

There will be a dance at Clarkes Grange hall Saturday evening, Jan. 25th, given by Ed McIntyre.

A local union was organized by the farmers at Clarkes last Saturday night, which is called Farmers Society of Equity.

Mr. L. Maxson, of Clarkes, was visiting Mr. Ed McIntyre, Jr., last Sunday and spent a pleasant day.

Miss Helen Lee and her sister, called on Miss Ellen McIntyre Sunday evening.

Mr. Steve Saker, of Graves Harbor, is visiting friends at Clarkes for the last week.

Ed McIntyre, Jr., of Clarkes, has made a new sled. His friends won't know him when he starts out on a joy ride.

It is quite cold at Clarkes now for about 3 inches of snow fell in the last three days.

W. M. McIntyre, of Rainier, is home for a five day's visit with friends before he starts to work again at Rainier, where he is working for the Portland Lumber Co.

Mr. C. W. Larkins, of Clarkes, got back from Portland Saturday, where he was on a business trip.

There is quite a demand for horses and buggies at Clarkes. Any young man that has a horse and buggy is O. K.

The young folks of Clarkes met at the church house Sunday evening and had a very nice time.

A meeting was held at the school house Dec. 30 for the purpose of organizing a branch of the Farmers Society of Equity.

The following names appear on the roll as charter members: Chas. A. Menko, Albert Moehle, John Bluhm, Arthur Hornshak, Henry Hettman, Robt. Moehle, Peter Hoyer, L. P. Duffy, Henry Grossmiller, Elmer Swope.

The following officers were elected: President, Chas. A. Menko; Vice-President, Albert Moehle; Secretary-Treasurer, Elmer Swope.

Sunday is getting to be the favorite day for the stork. A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Capel, December 29. A son to Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dehler, the 23rd and a girl to Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bacon the Sunday before that.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Critter and baby Julia, spent Christmas week at Arlington, Oregon.

Mrs. Wright, Miss Ruth and Master Raymond, were in Portland at her brothers for Christmas.

The fancy dress party given in honor of Fred Jenkins and Waldron Hyatt Friday evening, December 27 at the farmers home was a lively and joyous time.

The Christmas tree and entertainment at Willamette church Monday evening, December 23 was well attended and enjoyed by all.

The 7th, 8th and 9th grades had a watch party at the school house Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Frank Shipley was called to Stafford to see her mother, Mrs. Peters, who is very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Gross are very happy over the arrival of a nine pound boy at their home Monday evening.

Mr. Haneen from Portland, made Mrs. Hyatt and family a visit Xmas. Mr. Jennie Burnett of Portland, spent Christmas with her mother, Mrs. Nelson Waldron.

Walter Leisman is at home sick.