

HELEN GOULD AND R. R. MAN MARRIED

ONE OF WORLD'S RICHEST WOMEN IS BRIDE OF F. J. SHEPARD

JEWELS OF FORMER EMPRESS WORN

Comparatively Simple Ceremony is Performed in New York Town—100 Persons are Present

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., Jan. 22.—Miss Helen Miller Gould was married at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon at Lyndhurst, her country estate, to Finley Johnson Shepard, son of a New England clergyman, an American railroad man, who has risen from the ranks.

The bride went to the altar half hidden with roses, asparagus ferns and palms, on the arm of her brother, George J. Gould, who gave her in marriage. An orchestra, screened by masses of flowers in the music room played the Brahms Wedding March, while the Rev. Daniel D. Russell, pastor of the Irvington Presbyterian Church, performed the ceremony. Helen and Dorothy Gould, nieces of Miss Gould, stood with her. Garbed in pale pink satin, they acted as flower girls and were her only attendants. Louis J. Shepard, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

The couple stood during the ceremony beneath a bower of American Beauty roses with festoons of gray-white asparagus reaching almost to the ground. The bride carried a modest bouquet of lilies of the valley, her favorite flower.

A rope of exquisite pearls, said to have once adorned the Empress Josephine, Napoleon's wife, and pear-shaped diamond pendant, the latter the bridegroom's gift, were the only jewels worn by the bride. The pearls were a request from Miss Gould's mother.

The wedding gown was of duchess ivory satin, with a sweeping train 3 1/2 yards long, trimmed with duchess and rose point lace, and with seed pearl embroidery. The lace and veil were gifts from the Duchess de Talleyrand, formerly Miss Anna Gould, the bride's sister. The veil was held with a spray of orange blossoms and swept in flowing lines to the end of the long train. Orange blossoms also caught up the lace at the sides of the skirt. The bride's slippers corresponded with the gown, and were trimmed with small rosettes of orange blossoms.

Each of the little flower girls carried a basket of pink roses, which matched their gowns. Their stockings were of white silk, their slippers white and mounted with golden butterfly buckles. The bride handed to Dorothy her bouquet of lilies of the valley, while the bridegroom placed the ring upon her finger.

Less than 100 persons were bidden to the ceremony. They included close relatives of the bride and bridegroom and friends of long standing. Among the relatives were: Mr. and Mrs. George J. Gould, Kingdon Gould, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Gould, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Drexel, Jr., George Jay Gould, Jr., the Misses Edith and Gloria Gould, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gould and their sons, Edwin and Frank, Duc and Duchess De Talleyrand and their son, little Prince De Sagan, Howard Gould, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Gould, Mr. and Mrs. Burton H. Wright, Mrs. D. W. Cutter, Miss Cutter, of the bridegroom's family, Mr. Shepard's mother is ill and was unable to be present.

Among the friends present were: Dr. and Mrs. Charles R. Snow, Miss Helen Gould Snow, Gordon and Howard Snow, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Bush, Mrs. William Northrup, Miss Ida Northrup, Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Perrell, Miss Lita Perrell, Rex Perrell, Mr. and Mrs. Lyndhurst, the great country house of the bride, was redolent with the scent of flowers. In every room there rested on the mantels big bunches of moss, covered with cut lilies of the valley and edged with amaranth. Mingling their fragrance with the lilies were showers of American Beauty roses.

Mail Carriers Will Fly. This is an age of great discoveries. Progress rides on the air. Soon we may see Uncle Sam's mail carriers flying in all directions, transporting mail. People take a wonderful interest in a discovery that benefits them. That's why Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs, Colds and other throat and lung diseases is the most popular medicine in America. "It cured me of a dreadful cough," writes Mrs. J. F. Davis, Stickey Corner, Me. "After doctor's treatment and all other remedies had failed." For coughs, colds or any bronchial affection it's unequalled. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at all druggists.

Cramped Quarters. "She doesn't open her mouth wide enough when she sings." "She learned to sing in a flat." "What has that got to do with it?" "She didn't have room to open her mouth."—Houston Post.

Necessary. "Every crank must have his turn." "How wise could the world go around?"—Buffington American.

SNOW STORM DOES MUCH DAMAGE HERE

One of the worst snowstorms that Oregon City has experienced in years began Friday afternoon and continued until Saturday morning. The storm which was more severe on the hill sections began earlier than it did in the downtown sections where the river tempered the air and caused the earlier snow to melt as soon as it fell.

The snow, which was unusually heavy and deep, caused many trees and wires to fall. The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company reporting at least 200 instruments in the city out of commission and a great many of the country phones out. The Home Telephone reports an equally bad condition. The wires carrying the electric current into the city went down early Friday evening and the city was without electric current until Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. The wooden awning in front of Reddaway's grocery store on Seventh and Monroe Streets fell at 5 o'clock Saturday morning and in falling caused the entire front of the building to fall with it. No one was hurt. Several other awnings on the hill were caused to fall by the weight of the snow. When the awning of the Oregon City bakery fell much glass was broken.
