The market for potatoes is showing an signs of improvement. Califor sta mail advices indicate that trade there is still over-supplied with purls and no changes are shown in The extreme quotation for Oregon potatoes in the San Francis on market is $1 per cental and this is obtained only for branded sacksand very few even of that class went above 95c. The general run of stock went a nickle below this.

The absence of a demand for seed sinch is causing much disappointment the local trade, as well as to Calfornia interests that had speculated this stock earlier in the season While the planting of potatoes in the south has been quité liberal to date this sesson, outside seed requirements were nominal because of the berry purchases of Oregon stocklast
