MEADOWBROOK

The good weather lasted long enough so that some of the farmers got in most of their grain. A short program was given at the school house last Friday, consisting of song, "America" by all; recitation, "Lincoln's Birthday," Walter Hofstetter; song, "Flag of the Free," by school; recitation, "Where the Spunkweed Grows," Allen Larkins; recitation, "Don't Cry Little Girl, Don't Cry," Ora Hutchinson; recitation, "Baking Day," Nettie Larkins; song, "From the City," Lillie Schiewe; song, "Mass's in the Cold Ground," resolved that Lincoln was the greatest man in history. The leaders were affirmative, Glenn Larkins; negative, Ruth Chindgren. The judges' decision was for the affirmative. Miss Yoder decided to have a debate every two weeks. The question next time is: "Resolved, that the white men were more cruel than the Indians." Leaders, affirmative, John Hofstetter; negative, Gilbert Hutchinson.

Poultry Fencing

One Or Two Generations Ago Most Farm Animals Roamed At Large But We Have Gradually Found That This Did Not Pay

The barn yard fowls have been the last to feel the effects of business methods on the farm but at last they have to get in their place (in the poultry yard) and stay there.

Enough of our poultry fencing to keep your fowls properly will cost very little and will be the best investment you ever made on the farm. Ask for prices.

MULINO.

The basket social at the Grange hall Saturday was a decided success. After a fine program, rendered by the young people, Mr. D. W. Smith presided at auction of the baskets of which there were 23, which brought forty-eight dollars and ten cents. After the baskets were all sold Mr. Smith, who is a public spirited citizen proposed to give ten dollars to help build the sidewalk and asked if there were two men in the crowd who would do the same, but no one responded. He then called for one man to donate ten dollars, but there was not another man in the room who felt like giving that much. He then asked if there was three men who would give five dollars, when Mr. Berdine, Mr. Snodgrass and Oscar Hult stepped forward and deposited the coin, making twenty-five dollars more to the sidewalk fund. The ladies of Mulino donated cake and coffee was sold to the amount of $8.25, and a few persons contributed to the fund until it totaled $32.60. Now Mulino will have a sidewalk beginning at the school house and building both ways along the county road as far as the money goes.

The Trials of a Traveler.

"I am a traveling salesman," writes E. E. Young, E. Berkshire, Vt., "and was often troubled with constipation and indigestion till I began to use Dr. King's New Life Pills, which I have found an excellent remedy. For all stomach, liver or kidney troubles they are unequalled. Only 25 cents at all druggists."

DAMASCUS.

The cold snap is over and is followed by rain.

W. W. Cooke has been doing some good road work. Last week he put crushed rock on Berry's hill.

H. G. Lays has returned from San Francisco after a three months absence. He has been doing carpenter work. He reports Frisco a big town in every way, but is glad to get home again. He says old Clackamas county beats them all for climate, pleasant homes, good land, good crops and a place for a man to make a comfortable home and a good living, besides a snug bank account.

Mr. Lingle, who was shot Saturday evening by highwaymen, is getting along splendidly. The bullet entered the right side and at present is lodged below the right shoulder blade. It will be removed as soon as his condition will permit. We all hope for his speedy recovery and also for the quick dealing of justice to the criminals. The robbers got nothing for their trouble, although Mr. Lingle carried in the neighborhood of $100, but he is made of pluckier material than the average man and doesn't believe in holding up his hands for every Tom, Dick and Harry.

Mrs. J. W. Hilborn spent the weekend at her sister's, Mrs. Lave.

A masquerade was given in Elliott's hall on the evening of February 14. Reports tell of a very good time. A dance will be given again in three weeks, March 8.

The dramatic people are talking of preparing entertainments soon.

The base ball club is again thinking of ball and bat, digging out musty suits and lumbering up arms to be ready for spring and summer work.

Dr. Angus McDonald, the veterinarian, was called out to Mrs. Churchill's Monday to see a couple of sick cows that have been attacked with some strange disease. One of them being found in the barn two weeks ago Monday morning stretched out like a dead cow. Young Churchill thinking that she had hurt herself some way called Dr. Morey in and she is getting better and is now able to stand without support. Yesterday evening, while driving the cows up from pasture, another one fell and had to be hauled to the barn and fearing it was some contagious disease the doctor was called. He says it is caused by keeping them on too wet pasture and thinks that
