

FIREMEN WIN BIG STRIKE VICTORY

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—Complete victory for the firemen's brotherhood in their strike proceedings against the Eastern railroads was secured today in the railroad's acceptance of arbitration under the Erdman act. This was the only concession the firemen demanded. The brotherhood named Albert Phillips of Sacramento, Cal., as its representative on the arbitration board. The railroads named W. W. Atterbury, general manager of the Pennsylvania system. It is declared the railroads' manifesto insists on a public hearing of their side of the strike question. They rejected their objections to the Erdman act, the principal one being that "the responsibility which ultimately would rest on a third member of the Erdman arbitration board is too great to impose on one man." They insist the act does not guard the public interest. The manifesto warns the public of another similar demand for increased wages by conductors and trainmen adding: "We desire to put before the public the notice that a crisis will confront them when these demands are considered by the railroads." Letters stating their demands were sent by the railroad heads to Commerce Court Judge Knapp and acting United States Labor Commissioner Hanger today.

Finds Cure for Epilepsy After Years of Suffering

"My daughter was afflicted with epileptic fits for three years, the attacks coming every few weeks. We employed several doctors but they did her no good. About a year ago we heard of Dr. Miles' Nervine, and it certainly has proved a blessing to our little girl. She is now apparently cured and is enjoying the best of health. It is over a year since she has had a fit. We cannot speak too highly of Dr. Miles' Nervine."

MRS. FRANK ANDERSON, Country, Minn. Thousands of children in the United States who are suffering from attacks of epilepsy are a burden and sorrow to their parents, who would give anything to restore health to their sufferers. Dr. Miles' Nervine is one of the best remedies known for this affliction. It has proven beneficial in thousands of cases and those who have used it have the greatest faith in it. It is not a "cure-all," but a reliable remedy for nervous diseases. You need not hesitate to give it a trial. Sold by all druggists. If the first bottle fails to benefit your money is returned. Woman's World

Honor For New York Folk Dance Expert.

A remarkable honor has been paid a New York woman by the committee in charge of the congress on playgrounds, recreation and physical exercise for school children, which is to be held in the city of San Francisco the last week in February. Miss Elizabeth Burchenal is the young woman in question. She has been selected as the expert par excellence in the United States on folk dancing and athletics for girls. The New York board of education has granted Miss Burchenal leave of absence to attend the congress, where she will make an address. The folk dancing which Miss Burchenal has so successfully introduced in the New York schools is not only the solution of the problem of physical work for girls, but the ideal of freedom and grace in movement. It has been noted that in a school population made up of such diverse races as New York city can show these folk dances have proved an inspiration. To the Russian child the Russian dance is an expression of individuality. So with the Swedish, the Dutch and Italian dances.

ANNUAL PENN RELAY RACES.

Big Athletic Meet to Be Held in Philadelphia April 25. Athletes all over the country are interested in the announcement of the annual intercollegiate and interscholastic relay race carnival given by the Athletic Association of the University of Pennsylvania yearly. The races will be held April 25, at Franklin Field, Philadelphia. Sprinters and runners from schools in all parts of the country are making preparations to send entries for the events, which are open to all colleges and universities in the United States and Canada. The relay races have now become well known. Each year all the big colleges and schools, with hardly an exception, are on hand. The championships and special events are very high class while the group races are most interesting. Over 200 teams have been present for several years, making this the biggest meet of the year.

CATCHER MAKES LAW.

Trinity Backstop a Member of Legislature in Connecticut. A. J. Henreux, the Trinity college catcher, probably is the only college athlete still in college who occupies a seat in the state legislative body. As a Democrat, he best the Progressive and Republican candidates in Griswold county last fall and regularly attends the sessions of the house at Hartford, Conn. If he finds time to take his college degree and also play and coach baseball he will surely be a busy man.

STRIKE SYMPATHIZERS ARE MADE PRISONERS

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Feb. 13.—A company of militia, commanded by Major Davis, at daylight surrounded Holly Grove, on Paint Creek, and captured 69 men, every man in the town. They were taken under heavy guard to Paint Creek Junction where they will be tried for alleged participation in the disorders early this week, when a dozen or more men were killed and many wounded. There are now about 125 strikers and sympathizers at Paint Creek Junction awaiting trial by the military commission, which planned to begin its work this afternoon. Military officers were sent into the country north of the Kanawha River today to inquire into a report that miners at a mass meeting at Smithers' Creek last night had adopted resolutions in which the death of Governor Glasscock, General Elliott and other leaders was decreed.

MAKING A LIVING.

How One Woman Saved the Financial Problem For Herself. In the Woman's Home Companion appears an account of a woman who, left in financial difficulties, made a good living by starting a shop in which she prepared delicately cooked foods so reasonable in price that families of two bought from her instead of cooking for themselves. She had a regular schedule of things for sale each day in the week and developed a good business. Following is an extract: "She worked from 7 to 11 o'clock each morning, then from 2 until 5 o'clock each afternoon. Each month she sent out every one of her items that was not popular and substituted novelties. Her list of customers grew slowly but surely, and with many she had standing orders. The day she delivered orders the boy collected the dishes left the day before, and as she made him responsible for them he was careful. "She asked her friends to save her all their empty one-half pound baking powder boxes, and in these she cooked her little sweet puddings. She bought little paper ice cream shells and served sauces, etc., in them. "There were only a few dishes to wash, she found as everything came back clean, and she had only to scrub them. If the dishes she made were more than enough to fill her orders the surplus was put on sale in her front room. She also had an assortment of cakes and pies. "As her fame spread she often made salads, cakes, etc. for parties and made a rate for larger quantities. She put up special luncheons for picnic parties and at various times directed the suppers given to business men's clubs. "She has today a steady paying business and a substantial bank account, and while many have suggested that she make up her dishes in larger quantities and move to a larger place, she prefers her safe, though small, business. "So the little capital of $100 left her by her husband has become, in the hands of this resourceful woman with a good practical accomplishment, the basis of a self-respecting livelihood."

EAGLE CREEK

Mrs. Murphy and Miss Meda Murphy called on Mrs. R. S. Clark, who has been sick, last Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. R. B. Gibson called on Mrs. Howlett last Tuesday afternoon.

E. E. Elliott has sold his Eagle Creek property to a Mr. Cogswell, so Eagle Creek now has a new merchant.

Mrs. Tracy Clester is visiting with her parents, who reside in Portland, while Mr. Clester is at his parents' home, as his father is quite ill.

The regular monthly meeting of Eagle Creek Grange was held last Saturday. About 21 members were present, also several visitors. Six of the officers were installed, the others having been installed at the January meeting. J. D. Chitwood, of Damascus, assisted by Homer Glover, installed the officers. Supervisor James was at the Grange and delivered an interesting talk on the school fairs last Saturday.

James Bell, of Sandy, was a Grange visitor Saturday.

M. V. Thomas visited Eagle Creek Grange Saturday.

Last Friday evening a valentine party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kitmiller. About fifty were present and all spent a pleasant evening in playing games and listening to the photographs. One delightful feature of the evening was the valentine box and distribution of valentines. Soon after partaking of a fine supper all departed for their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cooke, of Damascus were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howlett over Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Douglass were Portland visitors the first of the week. Roy butchered some hogs and shipped them to town.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglass and Mrs. R. H. Gibson were Sunday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Strahl.

Orpha Clester, Mildred and Florice Douglass spent Sunday afternoon with Alta and Pauline Borgh.

H. S. Gibson was a Portland visitor Tuesday.

GREENWOOD

This beautiful weather the farmers are busy plowing their ground for spring grain.

The song birds with tunes are a sure sign of early spring. Several of the young people from this vicinity attended the entertainment at Mount Pleasant school house last Saturday night and reported a good social time.

David Jones has put up a fine new barn which is quite an improvement to his ranch.

Mrs. Green went to Portland this week to work at her barber trade.

Henry Strom bought a fine mare from Mr. Newton this week.

Mr. Brakes and sons and Hugh and Ernest Jones are doing a lot of clearing on their land this winter.

WILSONVILLE

Mrs. Henry Schwartz has been very ill for the past week.

Walter Brown, of Madras, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Batalgia last Saturday and Sunday.

Edna Baker went to Sherwood recently to have a felon on her hand lanced.

Miss Hayman is spending some time in Wilsonville, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Norris Young, and recuperating after an illness of typhoid fever, at the Oregon City Hospital.

Mrs. Pottinger and daughter, of Oswego, were accompanied to Wilsonville on Friday by Mrs. Gillespie, of Portland.

Mrs. Marlon Young spent Saturday in Portland with relatives.

The I. O. O. F. held a pleasant social session at the close of a recent meeting, enjoying an oyster supper.

A meeting was held in the Wilsonville school house on Monday evening, February 17th, by the parent-teachers' association in observance of "Child Welfare Day," and to celebrate the founding of the "Mothers' Congress."

Valentine's Day was observed in all the surrounding schools including Wilsonville, Corral Creek and Union, delighting the hearts of the lads and lassies.

The Hood View ladies' aid society gave an entertainment on Wednesday evening, which included a splendid program at the church and an oyster supper at the parsonage, netting the society $20 for their treasury.

The "Students' Literary League," of Corral Creek school met February 7th. The program consisted of a recitation by Geo. Batalgia and a geography match, the leaders of the match being Anna Baker and George Batalgia. George Batalgia's side won by a close margin.

The Wilsonville basket ball team beat Company L, of Oregon City, a week ago by a big score, and we heard a prominent citizen remark that he noticed "they always took Andy along, when there was a real good stiff game to play," which was complimentary to Oregon City's Company L, as well as our "Wandy Andy."

Mrs. Marlon Young is making preparations for the fair next fall and will doubtless receive the aid of all persons interested in the boys and girls.

Wilsonville's school can now boast of a traveling library, a girls' sewing class, a manual training department under an expert carpenter, Mr. Johnson, as well as having two of the best teachers in the county.

Mr. Batalgia is very ill at his home and is in the care of Dr. Brown.

Mrs. McKibben and two children, of McCormick, Wash., are visiting at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. Wm. Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Turner, of Portland spent Sunday with Mrs. Turner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed Graham spent Saturday in Sherwood visiting relatives and friends and incidentally attending the telephone meeting.

Mrs. Pettinger, of Oswego, lectured in the school house on Friday evening last, and made us all wonder how such an amount of brain power could possibly be stored away in such a dainty little piece of humanity. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Chas. Wagner, president of the parent-teachers' association, who announced this to be the second of the series of lectures planned for the winter by the association. Mrs. Brown, wife of Dr. Brown, recited a very appropriate school piece, much to the delight of the audience. Mrs. Joe Thornton, accompanied by Mrs. Frank Brobst, gave a splendid musical selection, and was forced to respond to a rousing encore. At the close of the lecture, articles, which the girls have made, were placed on sale, for a special fund. The beautiful handwork of the girls indicated capability and industry in this part of their work, and should repay the progressive teachers and trustees of the school for seeing the advisability of having sewing taught in the school room.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Baker were delightfully surprised Sunday morning, when their relatives arrived, laden with baskets full of good things, making an announcement that they had come to spend the day, and help them to celebrate the 30th anniversary of their marriage. A sumptuous repast was spread in the spacious dining room. Mr. and Mrs. Baker were the recipients of many handsome gifts, which included a silver cabinet and many hand-embroidered articles for beautifying the home. Those present on this happy occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. Alison Baker and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Baker, Mrs. McKibben and two children, Mae Baker, Pearl Baker, Anna Baker, Edna Baker, Messrs. Sydney, Orvid and Jeral Baker and Mattie Reinsner.

aunt, hastened to help care for it, as the mother has a baby girl, only ten days old.

Lucy Nemet, who has been in the Oregon City Hospital four weeks, is still very weak and none but his mother and a few other relatives are as yet permitted to see him.

Mr. and Mrs. Gage went to see Mr. Shary, who has been very sick with the grip, on Tuesday, and were pleased to find her up again.

A number of ladies belonging to the same church as Mrs. Meint Peters, from Frog Pond and Wilsonville, went to see her at her daughters, Mrs. Shipley's in Willamette on Tuesday, it being her birthday. She has been very sick, but is reported somewhat better.

Mrs. Gage and Mrs. Zack Ellegren visited Mrs. Baker on Wednesday last week and found her able to take dinner at the family table.

Mrs. Schatz and daughter, Miss Loy, Mrs. Ellegren and Mrs. Gage, all called to see Mrs. Claus Peters on Thursday.

Some young men were going down to a bachelor's one evening recently to have a spread. A couple of boys hitched up their horse and buggy, then wrung the neck of one of their mother's chickens to take along as their contribution, and threw it on the ground. In its dying struggles it flopped under the horse's feet and she promptly bolted. They ran across the lot to head her off, but just as they got ahead of her in jumping over the wire fence they made a rattling which scared her more, when she turned square around and ran the other way, the boys in hot pursuit, and they finally found her about a mile away in a neighbor's barnyard, where she had found the gate conveniently open, with nothing serious broken, but the cushion and whip had been shed along the road, but they drove back and gathered up their chicken, now thoroughly dead, and proceeded on their way to join their companions, and all declared that chicken supper was the best ever as others had captured chickens also and the bachelor knew how to cook them.

Mrs. Gage received a picture last week of the Slaughter of the Innocents, where six thousand rabbits were driven into a wire enclosure and killed, near Burns, Oregon. The whole country, men, women and children turned out, mostly on horseback and drove them before them, till the ground looks like the wind in a field of grass, with the jumping animals, then men enter the corral and kill them with clubs. This was, we believe, the fourth drive they have had, and they had rid the country of about twenty-five thousand rabbits. They are said to be very destructive, and let a band of them get into a man's stock yard and they eat and destroy hay like a herd of hogs, hence they are obliged to get rid of them in some way.

Mrs. Schaefer, wife of Michael Schaefer, near the mouth of the Tualatin, lies at her home very low, of a complication of diseases.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Borland have been up in Washington state visiting Will Borland and wife and returned home Sunday evening.

Gordon Hayes ordered a new woodshed to be built in the place of the old one that fell with the weight of wet snow and left money with Fred Baker for that purpose.

A potato buyer was to have been around Tuesday, but failed to put in an appearance.

They now have a trained nurse for little Christina Delkar, and her symptoms at the present writing are favorable.

A real estate man was looking after places to buy last week. But Stafford people are pretty well satisfied with Stafford.

MACKSBURG

If unprecedented numbers of song birds are any harbinger of good, this part of Oregon may count on the enjoyment of peace and prosperity the coming year. As if these little songsters knew of the protection our government is providing them, they are appearing in incredible multitudes in our forests and fields. They follow the work of the land clearers and feast on the insects with which newly upturned soil is teeming. None of us may know the good they are doing the coming crops by exterminating the destructive parasites that have hitherto been the farmer's bane. All the while, this matchless orchestra keeps the air vocal with songs of which one can never tire. The robins were the first to come and are the most numerous, but their close rivals in beauty and in tone, the blue birds, have begun to appear, showing that winter will soon be gone and spring preparation, and rid yourself of the cold as quickly as possible. This remedy is for sale by Huntley Bros. Co., Oregon City Hubbard and Canby.

Do you know that more real danger lurks in a common cold than in any other of the minor ailments? The safe way is to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, a thoroughly reliable preparation, and rid yourself of the cold as quickly as possible. This remedy is for sale by Huntley Bros. Co., Oregon City Hubbard and Canby.

ALSPAUGH

We are enjoying some spring weather just at present.

Mrs. William Davis and Jessie Jacobs who lives near the mouth of Columbia, was visiting with her cousin, Ray Dallas, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Eby, Sr., spent Wednesday in Canby.

Mr. and Mrs. Freyer, of Oregon City, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Kraxberger.

Nils Petersen and John Green have moved into their houses at Smith's mill.

Geo. Walsh is constructing a road from his own ranch to that of Mr. Liebig.

The roof of Mr. Baldwin's ranch cottage took fire from an overheated pipe on Wednesday morning. That the building was not reduced to ashes was due to the prompt and kindly aid given by Pete Christner and Frank Hilton. Mr. Christner, who was working in an adjoining lot, came promptly and soon had the blaze under control. Mr. Hilton followed in a few minutes, and with their united efforts they succeeded not only in extinguishing the fire but in repairing the damaged roof, making it safer than it had originally been.

Mr. Baldwin's illness proving more serious than was at first thought, the Macksburg Grammar School is closed for another week. He is gaining, however, and hopes to be back in school on Monday, the 24th. The primary department, under the care of Mrs. Baldwin, observed Valentine day in a way that was pleasing to all. She had prepared some very pretty boxes to receive the valentines and the children had them well filled with these tokens of regard for their teacher and for each other.

Although Washington's birthday comes on Saturday, the school children have no idea of allowing it to pass unnoticed. They are preparing to decorate their rooms with what flowers they can procure, and also to use some of the bright foliage that grows along the roadside.

MILWAUKIE TO MAKE IMPORTANT DECISIONS

MILWAUKIE, Or., Feb. 17.—(Special.)—At a special election the voters will decide five important questions: Authority to purchase or construct a municipal water plant by issuing water bonds to the amount of $20,000; a new method of condemning property for street extensions; power to organize and maintain a fire department; use of the initiative and referendum, and providing for biennial elections, registration of voters and the division of Milwaukie into wards.

City Auditor David Matthews has issued printed statements of these measures in detail, and begun circulating them to the voters. The most important measure is the water bond issue. It is set forth in the act that Milwaukie is to acquire by condemnation proceedings or construct a plant and acquire Minthorne Springs. This opens the way for the purchase of the present water works in Milwaukie if terms can be arranged, but Minthorne Springs are to be the source of supply. The bonds are to run for 20 years, and bear interest at not less than 3 per cent.

For the creation of a fire department authority is asked to levy a special tax of not more than 1 per cent. It is set forth that the department shall consist of 30 active members, beside honorary members. A fire commission of three members, of which two shall be members of the council, is to control the department. It is provided that there shall be two fire stations, one near Main Street and one in the Eastern part of town. The commission is authorized to purchase suitable grounds for these stations.

The election act provides for biennial elections and registration of voters. At present voters are not registered and primaries are not held, but if this amendment carries voters must register. It is provided that there shall be two or more wards. Milwaukie has over 200 voters.

JENNINGS LODGE

The parent-teachers association held its first regular meeting at the school house on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Margaret Curran spoke on play and playgrounds and gave some very practical suggestions in which the playgrounds of the rural school may be improved with slight expense. Superintendent Gary of Oregon City was also present and spoke encouragingly of the school work and requested that the association name a committee to help with the juvenile fair. Mrs. B. M. Hart was chosen the primary grades favored with two songs. At the business meeting it was decided the playgrounds be given attention first. The committees were then named by the president and are taking up their work with fervent zeal. A question box will be one of the features of the next regular meeting which will be held on Thursday, March 13th.

Perhaps the most successful social ever given by the entertained club was when they entertained their families and friends with a hard time old fashioned dance which was given at the Batdorf hall on Friday evening. Everyone seemed to be bent on having a jolly good time. Many comical costumes were worn and prizes were given to Mrs. B. M. Hart and Harry Robinson. Special mention might be made of the costumes worn by Cal Moran and Mrs. Robinson and the cleverest was worn by Mrs. Chas. Redmond who used "Best, Out West for the large new barn that he is planning to build.

Mr. Struhbar has so far recovered from the grip that he went down town one day last week.

The names of the primary school children who have been neither absent nor tardy in the month of February will appear in next week's issue of the Enterprise.

Mr. and Mrs. John Githens made a business trip to Portland last Monday. Miss Emma Dotter sold "Glenn" her valuable trotting horse to a party in Portland one day last week.

J. W. Doty had a family reunion Sunday. Fred Ely and family of Moro have been visiting there for a few days. Emma and Frank of Portland were also present.

Mr. Fensel and Mr. Harrison from Los Angeles are the guests of Mr. J. W. Doty.

Miss Echo Githens was an Estacada visitor Sunday.

Quite a number of people attended the dance at Eagle Creek Saturday night and reported a fine time.

Miss Hazel Githens was the guest of Mrs. Hal Gordon one day last week.

The Eagle Creek basket ball team played with the Portland Trade school. The score was 34 to 21 in favor of the Portland team.

The Eagle Creek athletic club will give a dance at Eagle Creek March 1. Everybody is invited.

IMMIGRATION BILL PASSED OVER VETO

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Overriding President Taft's veto the Senate today passed by 72 to 18 the Dillingham-Barnett immigration bill containing a literacy test. Those who supported the President's veto were Carson, Clapp, Clarke of Arkansas, Curtis, Gronna, Dupont, O'Gorman, Oliver, Paynter, Shively, Stopbeson, Stone and Warren.

The bill as passed provides that no person shall be eligible to enter the United States who cannot read and write his native language. It is expected to exclude hordes of coolies and other cheap labor.

EGGS SELL FOR 19 CENTS IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—Fresh eggs are selling in Chicago today for 19 cents, a figure lower than that for any time in 20 years at this season. The markets were swamped with thousands of cases which resulted in a 3-cent break in price. Retailers, in many instances, sold them for 21 cents, although most of them held out for 23 and 24 cents. Storage eggs were quoted at from 12 to 13 cents wholesale. Most of these were stored last summer, costing at that time 12 to 17 cents. Extremely mild weather all over the West is said to be responsible for the increased receipts.
