

YOU SHOULD TAKE PURE AND PLEASANT DR. KING'S NEW DISCOVERY. YOU WILL GET QUICK AND PERMANENT RELIEF.

Stops Cough, Loosens Chest, Soothes Inflamed Throat, Nose, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs. Start Taking It at Once.

Dr. King's New Discovery was originated 43 years ago. Its wonderful power to stop coughing, cure colds, relieve bronchial and lung affections, made it quickly popular. Its use steadily increased. Now it is undoubtedly the most used prescription for coughs and colds in the world. Millions of bottles are sold annually, and thousands testify to its merits by testimonials and continued use.

Typoid pneumonia had left me with a dreadful cough," writes Mrs. J. E. Cox of Joliet, Ill. "Sometimes I had such awful coughing spells I thought I would die. I could get no help from doctor's treatment or other medicines, till I used Dr. King's New Discovery. I owe my life to this wonderful remedy, for I scarcely cough at all now." Quick, safe, and reliable for all throat and lung troubles. Sold by

ALL DRUGGISTS

NEWS FROM THE COUNTRY

INTERESTING ITEMS FROM ALL PARTS OF CLACKAMAS COUNTY

NEEDY

Mrs. Rachel Spencer, who has been on the sick list is improving. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Mitts and son, Erman, of Albany, visited the former parents the latter part of the week returning home Friday. I. L. Lantz and son, Cecil, went to Canby Saturday. The sale at Mrs. B. F. Smith's Friday was a great success. Everything sold high. About a hundred teams were present. Carl Casady who has been working for J. E. Mitts returned to his home at Canby Monday. Austin Taylor made a business trip to Canby Saturday. J. E. Mitts and son, Lewis, are working on the telephone lines in the Crooked neighborhood and through to Hubbard. Many people were taken by surprise when they heard Wednesday, that Miss Kate Spauld was married. The Ladies club held its last meeting at the home of Mrs. H. Jackson. A very enjoyable time was had by all present. The next meeting will be March 22nd at the home of Mrs. Eugene Mitts.

MOLALLA.

Fifty new buildings for 1913 will be no mean pace for growing Molalla. Gravel is being hauled for the concrete work of the Molalla State Bank building. No new cases of scarlet fever have developed in the Echerd family. With two railroads coming to town this year, and two more dentists to locate here, there will be no urgent need of going abroad for dental treatment unless you just want to ride on the new railroad any way. C. W. Herman has secured a sawmill to be moved on to his ranch this summer. Ties will be cut for the P. E. & E. railroad and hauled to Molalla, a distance of 5 miles, this will be the nearest sawmill to town.

CLARKES.

Mrs. Lewis, of Highland, was rolling logs, one log rolling back crushed his leg. Mr. Lewis Maxson jumped down from the hay loft, his foot hit the tongue of the sled and hurt his ankle. Miss Esther Stout is home from Portland. Mr. Widner purchased some sheep from Mrs. Lee last week. Miss Bernice Schute, of Highland, is working for Mrs. William Marshall at present. Mr. Gorman and Mr. Roche are plowing on the Sherrill place. Sam Elmer is breaking new land to sow grain. Otto Buol is plowing on the home place at present. Jerome Parenter was working for Mrs. Lee on Lewis Maxson's place. Mrs. Nicholas and Mrs. Graves, of Highland, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Larkins last Sunday. Mr. Widner purchased some hogs in Clarkes last week.

COLTON.

John Arquette, one of the Colton pioneers died recently at the hospital in Portland, where he had come for treatment. The Young People's Lutheran League met in the church Sunday evening. A good program was rendered, including a very interesting debate. The matter of erecting a hall was also mentioned. The League elected a committee of three to look into the feasibility of erecting one. Charlie Swas drove to Colton Monday.

Dolph and Charlie Freeman, of Elwood, were business callers in the Colton vicinity last week.

L. S. Dix hauled some oats from Clarkes last week.

Frank Hendricks and Wm. Scheffler called on Oscar Muller a week ago last Sunday.

The Farmers' Equity Society met in Danielson's store Saturday evening. Charles Swan bought Delbert Benney's shingle mill and will move it up on his place soon.

Hilse Lohndorf called on Oscar Muller last Tuesday.

Walter Gerbert did some team work for A. Arleson last week.

J. Engstrom bought a team last week.

A. N. Swanson did some plowing for Ches. Brandland last week.

The Colton school went down to James for an Arithmetic match with the school at that place last Friday. We are proud to say our school was victorious.

F. E. Berglund had the misfortune to lose one of his horses last week. Phillip and Robert Putz were in Oregon City last Tuesday.

There were some local buyers looking over Bill Romney's place last week. Gust Gottberg was a business caller at Colton last Tuesday.

H. C. Hayner, of Clarkes, was in the Colton vicinity last week posting sale bills.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stromgren made a business trip to Colton last Tuesday.

MACKSBURG

Could the originators of the Juvenile Fair witness the enthusiasm of the rising generation in Macksburg they might feel that they had not worked in vain. The children are preparing the grounds for seed, putting the young stock in, caring for the poultry and working generally with a degree of earnestness that promises a creditable exhibit of fruit stock and handwork in the coming fall. This new opening for the showing of youthful skill is also an incalculable advantage in the home. Many

MEADOWBROOK.

Mrs. P. O. Chidgren, daughter, Miss Mabel Chidgren, Mrs. Milton Chidgren and daughter, Vivian, called on Mrs. Shepherd Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Geo. Hofstetter and daughter, Miss Eunice, went to Portland Saturday to see George Hofstetter, Jr., who is in the hospital.

A few of the parents and friends attended the program given by the pupils Friday, consisting of songs, "Beautiful Belles" by the school; recitation, Pauline Hofstetter; reading, Gilbert Hutchinson; song, "Dip, Dip, Dip the Oar," by school; recitation, Myrtle Hutchinson; reading, Paul Schiewe; song, "Kind Words Can Never Die," Lillie Schiewe; dialogue, two teachers, Nettie Larkins and Ella Schiewe; recitation, "The Blind Girl," by Gladys Batey; dialogue by three boys, Willard Kerns, Oliver Orem and Wallace Hutchinson; song, "Darling, Nellie Gray," by school ended by a debate by the small pupils. The question was, "Resolved, that the horse is more valuable than the cow," led by on the affirmative, Ora Hutchinson, negative, Katie Hofstetter, the judges decided was for the affirmative. The little folks did well.

Miss Myrtle and Hazel Larkins spent Sunday afternoon with Maude and Blanche Trullinger of Union Mills. Herman Chidgren took a load of fat hogs to Canby Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kerns and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Chidgren.

Mr. Stewart, of Portland, has the surveyors out surveying the place, which he bought of I. D. Larkins, R. H. Snodgrass and Mr. Vaughn. He also has a man plowing.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown, of Portland, visited his sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Chase.

J. M. Larkins is visiting his brother, A. L. Larkins.

WILSONVILLE.

Attorney Ames, of Portland, was in Wilsonville, on legal business Saturday.

Mrs. Dodson, of Sherwood, visited her brother, Elmer Jones, and family not croaking about hard times, but are surprised at the way business has kept up, despite the fact that potatoes and onions have been away below normal.

The Onion Growers' Association shipped another car of onions last week.

Mr. Batalia's many friends are glad to know that he is able to be about his farm again, after his severe illness.

H. D. Aden has purchased a new piano.

Clive Henry, one of the Newberg High School pupils accompanied Harold Say home on Friday evening, remaining until Sunday.

While waiting at a station not many miles from Wilsonville recently, where the waiting room door was locked, and no seats outside we thought of our own little village depot, with its well equipped waiting rooms, and obliging station master.

Mrs. Elmer Jones entertained the members of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Hood View Congregational church, also a large number of neighbors in a very delightful manner at her home on Thursday, March 14th. Dinner was served at noon.

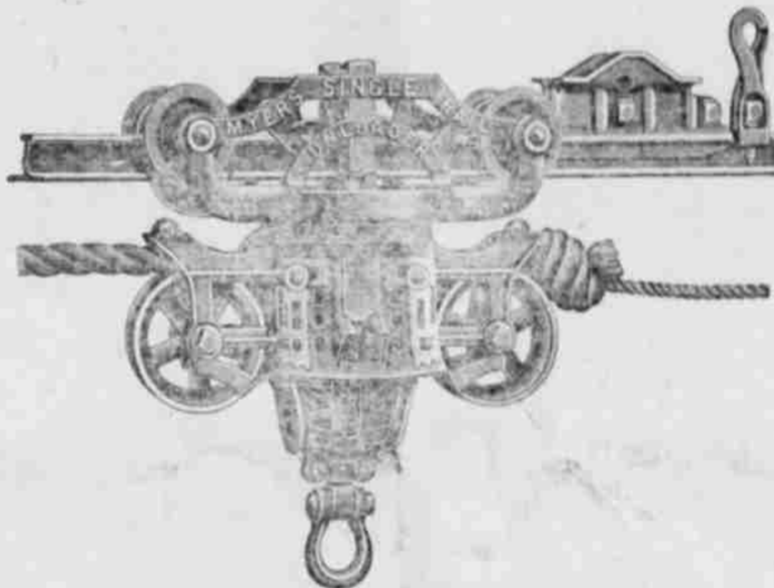

The regular meeting of the society was held in the afternoon, and the ladies sewed carpet rags during the day. Mrs. Jones was ably assisted by Mrs. Dodson, of Sherwood.

STAFFORD.

A hook was caught in some way in the nose of one of Mr. Weddle's horses. A veterinary surgeon was called, who sewed the wound up, but it is very sore yet, and the horse is unable to work.

On Friday last, Henry Baker and Louisa Shilve went to Oregon City, armed with a paper from the mother of the girl, who is but sixteen, to the effect that the mother gave her consent, and obtained a license and on Sunday they were quietly married at the home of the mother, Mrs. P. A. Baker, who is an invalid. The pastor of the Baptist church, of which the bride and mother are members, Rev. Lucas, officiating. The groom is the youngest son of P. A. Baker, a highly respected young man, and the bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. P. A. Baker and John Schiewe, her first husband who died a number of years ago. The young bride is well liked

THE LULL BEFORE THE STORM

IS THE TIME TO MAKE PREPARATIONS—PUT IN YOUR MYERS HAY UNLOADER NOW and you will be in tip top shape to handle your crop this year—Take our advice and come in and look them over next time you are in town.

A LOT OF TIME IS LOST THROUGH BAD DOOR HANGERS

HANG YOUR DOORS ON

Myers Stayon Hangers

Or the New Tubular Track Hanger and you will have no more trouble—This is another matter that should be attended to before busy season.

W. J. WILSON & CO.

OREGON CITY, OREGON

CANBY HARDWARE & IMP. CO.

CANBY, OREGON

CHAMPION MOWERS—BINDERS—RAKES ARE THE BEST

an hour would otherwise be mispent is now occupied in healthful, pleasing work with such gratifying results as well tended gardens, finely stocked poultry yards and no ends of beautiful flowers.

The high school department of Macksburg opened Tuesday, March 19th. Mr. Baldwin having so far recovered from his recent illness that he returned to his work on that day.

A little son was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Girster Friday, March 15th. Special services are to be held in the new church of the Mennonites on Easter Sunday.

Mrs. George Walsh was the guest of Mrs. Wesley Eby on Tuesday last. Mrs. John Hippler's mother, who has been seriously ill, is recovering. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dawson was gladdened by the birth of a little daughter Thursday.

Mrs. Frank Hilton with her little son, visited Mrs. George Walsh last Friday.

Miss Margaret Zenger with her two brothers, Messrs. Hans and Andy Zenger, visited Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Baldwin on Friday evening.

Mr. Hubbard's large new barn is completed and is a material enhancement to the appearance.

Very pleasing is the news that the P. E. & E. R. R. has completed the last week.

Gov. Batalia has been sick for a week past.

The revival meetings have been well attended.

The Vincent family have moved to Sherwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Thornton were Portland visitors recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Gould returned to their home in Salem after enjoying a visit here with friends.

Mrs. Young was a Portland visitor last week.

Mr. J. Peters received a carload of farm implements last week.

by all who know her and in common with all their friends we predict for them a happy future. We heard this, the neighboring boys were well provided for, as it was feared the din of a charivari would be had for the sick mother.

Joe Nemece has been repairing the barn where the horses kicked their stalls to pieces.

Stafford had quite an exodus on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Ellegren, Mr. and Mrs. Claus Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Kruse, Mrs. Powell and Mrs. Gage were among those seen on the streets of Oregon City, while Mr. Nussbaum and Mr. Powell went to Portland with a load of potatoes and hogs.

Hogs are quite a profitable crop late years. Last week Mr. Schatz sold a load alive at his door, which brought him the net sum of $113.05 and he said the sum was pretty near all gain.

Mr. Gage has a few white seed oats to sell.

Mr. Powell returned from Portland Sunday night at 9 o'clock, having been in Portland since the previous Friday on business, and walked from Willamette, which indicates he is better in health than for some time.

It looks quite as if the "powers that be" in Oregon City were trying to drive the outside community away from that little burg, in the first place banishing the hitching posts, then resting one if his horses are hitched outside a livery barn over two hours. We sometimes go to town upon business of our own, and prefer to have our team in the open, where it gets pure air and is ready to start when we have attended to business, but by this short-sighted ruling we stay away from Oregon City except when obliged to go to our county seat to pay our taxes. It looks like the interval of the livery stables is paramount to all others.

Advertisement for Castoria, featuring a bottle image and text: 'CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Hathorn. In Use For Over Thirty Years CASTORIA.'

A lady living two miles out, said she would like to drive into town, but there was no place to tie her horse, and she didn't feel like paying for her horse while she stopped for an hour or so, and she therefore takes a car or boat for other places.

F. A. Jones, of Crescent, had the misfortune to break his leg while logging for Patterson's.

Mr. Avitt and wife are moving to Lents to work in brick yard.

John Bergfield is preparing to put up a building. He has informed as to whether it will be a barn or a garage.

The famous Redland Brass Band is preparing a play and will give an entertainment at the Logan Grange hall March 22.

N. S. Odham has moved to Clackamas Heights and is hauling ties for Schwartz & Co.

Miss Ineliah Elin, of Lewiston, Idaho, has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. M. Smith.

The O'Connor Bros. are clearing land for Mr. Boland.

Redland was covered with a blanket of snow 2 inches in depth, March 19.

An open land has been completed running from A. Olson's place to the main road.

Henry Hatler has been getting some hop poles.

Cans Herman, a prominent Molalla farmer, was transacting business in Marquam Wednesday. Rudolph, the German boy, is again working for him.

Mr. Herman calculates to have a steam saw mill running on his place in the near future. By so doing his timber will be sawed into lumber, furnishing him material to build a house, barn, and other necessary buildings on his place.

Alfred Olson has moved his family into Dolph Myers house in Marquam and renting the Schumaker building has opened up a pool room. Judging from the crowd in attendance on the opening night we would predict that it will prove a money making business.

Mrs. Christine Jones having improved in health of late, her nurse has returned to Salem and her granddaughter, Miss Webb of Woodburn, is attending her.

A trained nurse has lately been employed to wait on Mrs. Bentley.

Mrs. Holden of Marquam, accompanied by Mrs. Annie Riddings spent several days in Portland last week procuring an up to date supply of millinery.

Mrs. Alspaugh and Ella Lockley were the guests of Mrs. J. W. Dowty Saturday.

Mrs. H. Barton called on Mrs. John Gibbons Saturday afternoon.

John Gibbons has all kinds of music at his house now as they have purchased a piano and sewing machine.

A number of young people from sure attended the dance at Eagle Creek Saturday night. Another dance will be given there April 2 by band.

William Gibbons, of Canby, has been spending a few days here visiting his parents and friends.

Myrtle Butler attended the entertainment given at Garfield Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ely spent Saturday evening at the home of John Gibbons.

We are pleased to be able to report Mrs. Chas. Jenkins much improved. She was very low for a few days. Dr. Strickland was attending her. Mrs. Earl Jenkins was with her a few days.

Will Graham and others, of John Howard, are clearing land on the Steuffer place.

J. H. Ripley sold two fine cows last week in a cow buyer from Portland.

Several of the boys in this neighborhood have good teams and are very busy after school hours training them.

The Redland band is making arrangements for a concert at Logan Grange Hall Saturday night, March 22nd, also one March 29, at the Fir Grove school house.

We were greatly shocked to hear of the death of Justice of the Peace Jameson. Our hearts go out in sympathy to his family.

Redland has had a touch of the Eastern blizzards, and we all hope this will be the end of winter.

The ground was covered with snow at this place Wednesday morning, but has nearly all melted.

A basket social was held at Sunnyside school house Friday night for the benefit of the telephone Co. All who attended enjoyed a pleasant evening. The house was full, the highest basket was auctioned for $3.00. They made $41.00. The program was as follows:

Selection, Orchestra; reading, Harry Schmidt; solo, Mrs. R. Crady; reading, Adlie Reed; Duet, Zella Conklin and Gladys Davis; reading, Ruth Hudson; selection, Orchestra; reading, Earle Johnson; duet, Mrs. R. Crady and Frank Hunter; reading, Frank Eberhart; selection, Orchestra.

A new family has moved on the Hargrove place.

Misses Mary and Hilda Stoll are at Adolph Stoll's and intend to make a good visit of a couple of weeks in the neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Conklin returned home from California last Saturday. She had enjoyed good health while there, but the first night at home she could not sleep on account of the asthma. We sorry she is troubled that way again.

Mr. and Mrs. Schopert's granddaughter was burned severely Tuesday evening by tipping the tea kettle over herself. It is reported the skin came off from the knees down. The telephone line is out of order so the particulars have not been had.

The mail carrier on route No. 1 had the misfortune to get his buggy and harness kicked to pieces and had to borrow another to finish delivering the mail.

Adolph Stoll's horses ran away last Saturday. He was clearing land and the horses got frightened at a falling tree and ran, one stopped at Soderberg's place and the other was caught near Frank Stoll's. The harness was broken some.

Frank Stoll has been having a severe cold.

We are glad to take note that President Wilson and wife will serve no wine or liquor at the White House.

Advertisement for Poultry Fencing, featuring an image of a fenced area with chickens and text: 'Poultry Fencing. One Or Two Generations Ago Most Farm Animals Roamed At Large But We Have Gradually Found That This Did Not Pay. Enough of our poultry fencing to keep your fowls properly will cost very little and will be the best investment you ever made on the farm. Ask for prices. FRANK BUSCH Furniture and Hardware.'

Advertisement for Mohair and Wool, featuring text: 'WE WANT YOUR MOHAIR and WOOL. WRITE TO HERMAN METZGER 226-228 FRONT ST. PORTLAND, ORE. YOU CAN DELIVER IN OREGON CITY TO OREGON COMMISSION CO.'