

SALEM RAILWAY BRIDGE DEDICATED

GREAT SPAN OF PORTLAND, EU. GENE & EASTERN OPEN FOR TRAFFIC

EAST AND WEST SIDE ARE LINKED

Territory Formerly Widely Separated—Geographical Divisions Now Merged into One

SALEM, Or., March 15.—(Special.)—With blasts of whistles, shouts from thousands of throats and the blast of bands, the new Portland, Eugene & Eastern bridge that links the west and east sides of the Willamette River together formally was dedicated to the commercial development of this section today.

It was but a few minutes before noon when the great American flags, bridges, were nosed aside by the pilot of the locomotive and little Miss Helen West, daughter of Governor West, standing erect on the pilot, cast into the river on each side of the new structure large armfuls of flowers.

As the engine and its three cars came to a stop and the crowd surged in to congratulate President Strahorn on his new achievement, a new epoch was marked for the Willamette Valley. The dream that had been alive in the minds of railroad men ever since a locomotive whistle was first heard in this vicinity had come true.

The mighty river has been spanned and what hitherto have been practically two widely separated geographical divisions are now merged into one.

President Strahorn and his party arrived shortly after 10 o'clock and, after a brief rest at the Hotel Marion, were escorted to the intersection of Union and Front Streets, where the special train, given the distinction of formally opening the new bridge, was awaiting.

On the front of the locomotive, which was richly decorated, a small throne had been prepared for Miss West. With her were President Strahorn, Judge H. D. Arcey, president of the Salem Board of Trade, G. S. Sergeant, August Huchstein and Superintendent Fields, of the Southern Pacific, as well as a number of newspapermen.

BRYAN CAUTIOUS IN ILLINOIS FIGHT

SECRETARY OF STATE PROVES THAT HE IS FIRST-CLASS DIPLOMAT

2 DEMOCRATS CANNOT BE ELECTED

Balloting is Unavailing and Indications are That Lewis Will Not Wear Senatorial Toga

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 18.—William Jennings Bryan, Secretary of State, talked about the Illinois senatorial muddle today in sentences so diplomatically turned that every fraction tonight is reverting to the speech as a vindication from Washington of its position.

At the same time the candidates and Illinois folk generally are a bit puzzled by the Delphic character of the Nebraskan's talk.

To the democrats he said: "Vote for our primary candidates," but he mentioned no names.

To Republicans he said: "Vote for your primary choice."

"To Progressives: "You had no candidates in the primaries; hence you are in a position to vote for whom you please and to retain your standing at home."

Shortly after Secretary Bryan had concluded his address the 11th ballot was taken on the senatorships, and the democrats were worse split than ever. Four of the party refused to vote for James Hamilton Lewis, the party nominee.

Theodore Roosevelt had sent a new message—this time to Emil J. Zolna, a Chicago Progressive—advising against a Bull Moose Republican combination if the votes of the democrats who helped elect William Lorimer were necessary to elect Colonel Lewis.

Medill McCormick and Walter support of Lawrence Y. Sherman, Clyde Jones are standing out against Republican, because consent of Lorimer is necessary to the victory of Mr. Sherman.

John Barton Payne, said to have been suggested at the White House as a good compromise candidate for the democrats in case Lewis could not be elected, received one vote today.

Interpreters of Secretary Bryan's speech in the Dunne camp say that the speaker endorsed the Lewis-Sherman combination proposed by Governor Dunne. National Committeeman Boeschstein, democratic candidate for the short term, declared Secretary Bryan did not endorse Colonel Lewis, but instead the Nebraskan had spoken in favor of two democrats.

U. S. QUITS AS COLLECTION AGENCY

WASHINGTON, March 18.—The United States government as long as President Wilson remains as its active head will not act as collection agent in South and Central American republics for big business, or guarantee any W. H. street loans to any foreign power.

Although official announcement to this effect may not be forthcoming for several days, it was learned from a private source here this afternoon that President Wilson's administration is determined that his administration shall adopt this course from the outset.

President Wilson and his cabinet this afternoon discussed a request by J. P. Moran & Co., Kuhn, Loeb & Co., and other financiers participating in the Six Power loan proposed to be made to China. They wanted the state department to sanction the loan so as the security may be unquestioned and the return of the loan guaranteed by Chinese custom collections.

President Wilson, however, is determined, it is learned from an authoritative source, that this government shall not collect private debts or guarantee any loans and it is understood Secretary of State Bryan strongly favors such an attitude. Immediately after Wilson's inauguration, representatives of certain financiers tried to secure Bryan's endorsement of the loan plan, saying it was favored by the former Secretary of State Knox. Bryan gave these emissaries no satisfaction.

It is understood the cabinet discussed the advisability of recognizing the new Chinese republic headed by President Yuan Shi Kai.

MORE THAN 90 ARE KILLED BY STORM

SCORES INJURED AND PROPERTY LOSS GREAT IN GULF STATES

29 PERISH IN GEORGIA, IS REPORT

Loss of Live in Alabama Estimated at 13—Seven Deaths in Louisiana and Mississippi

CHICAGO, March 14.—Indications from late reports are that more than 90 persons were killed, scores severely injured, and great property loss sustained in the disastrous electrical storm which swept parts of Georgia, Tennessee, Alabama, Louisiana, Mississippi and Texas Thursday afternoon and night.

Eighty-four deaths have been reported and the total loss of life probably will be increased when wire communication is restored in remote sections devastated by the cyclone. The damage to property will have to be computed in millions.

Twenty-nine persons are reported to have perished in Georgia and damage to property is roughly estimated at $1,000,000. Calhoun, Gordon County, Georgia, and vicinity bore the brunt of the storm, and 11 persons are reported to have been killed. The other fatalities in Georgia were three at Tucker, four at Eaglesville, three at Clarkston and two at Columbus.

Late reports from Tennessee have increased the death toll in that state to 23 persons.

The loss of life in Alabama is estimated at 13, although several persons still are reported missing. Five negroes were killed near New Decatur, three persons perished at Calera and two each at Hoke and Bluff, Gainesville and Duke.

Only one death has been reported from Texas.

Reports from Louisiana and Mississippi say the death lists remain at seven in each state.

GOOD FRIDAY IS GOOD TO HUMPHREYS

SALEM, Or., March 14.—Because the date of their execution falls on Good Friday, George and Charles Humphrey will be given one more day of life, but they will not receive further clemency at the hands of the Governor.

This statement was made by the Governor today, who announced that he had reprieved the Humphrey brothers for one day. They will be executed Saturday, March 22, instead of Friday, March 21, for the murder of Mrs. Eliza Griffith at Philomath, in Benton County.

Rev. Barr G. Lee, rector of the Episcopal Church here, has been administering to the condemned men whose family are members of the Episcopal Church. He joined with others in asking for a commutation of the death sentence, and made a final request that if the Governor would not commute the sentence, then to arrange for the executions on some other day than Good Friday. Rev. Mr. Lee said he desired to be with the two men at the last and he would be unable to be at the prison on that day.

This is the first time that the Governor has definitely stated that he would not commute the sentence of death in this case. Attorney H. J. Parkinson, who defended the brothers, and others have been pleading for clemency for the men.

WOMAN, LEADING REBELS, IS KILLED

ATTACKING PARTY IS ROUTED BY CHARGE OF FEDERAL SOLDIERS

REINFORCEMENTS ARE AWAITED

Gallant Leader of Men Is Felled by Bullets as She Leads Charge Against Army of Government

LAREDO, Texas, March 17.—Rebels, led by a woman waving a red flag, who shouted encouragement to her men as they charged on Nuevo Laredo, were defeated today by a larger force of federal defenders. The woman was killed as she led the little band of Carranzistas in a final charge on the breastworks.

Defeated in their first attempt to capture Nuevo Laredo, the little band of Carranzistas, who surprised the federal garrison of the Mexican border town early today, encamped in the hills several miles to the south tonight evidently to await the arrival of reinforcements before attacking again.

It is reported that more troops are hurrying to the aid of both forces and possibly will arrive late tonight. In this event a renewal of the battle will be expected at daybreak. Machine guns and ammunition are being hurried to the federals, it is reported.

The woman who was killed was identified as a relative of Carza Rivas, a rebel leader.

Twenty rebels and 15 federals are known to have been killed. About 40 wounded have been cared for at an improvised hospital by American physicians and with women from Laredo, who crossed the border immediately after firing ceased and volunteered their services, acting as nurses.

The rebels, numbering about 200, followers of Carranza, entered the city last night and opened the battle at daybreak with a fusillade fired from a factory building. The federal garrison of 350 men was in action within a few minutes and the battle continued for an hour and a half, the rebels finally being driven to the hills.

A number of rebel wounded were shot to death by the federals, it is said, and an accurate estimate of the casualties will not be possible until a more complete exploitation of the streets and alleys through which the battle raged is made.

Apparently it was a fight without quarter. One rebel soldier was seen to fall, as if dead, but when the charging federals reached him, he raised his head. A federal leveled a rifle, blowing off part of the wounded man's head, whereupon several of the federals kicked the body out of the way until it rolled down an embankment. It was reported that the federals received orders to exterminate the Carranzistas.

Mrs. Harriet Dixon and Miss Alice Paul, chairman of the Congressional Committee seeking woman suffrage, said the question was equivalent in importance to the emancipation of the negro.

"Every word you have said," they told the President, "for the political liberty of men, can be applied to the political liberty of women."

Mrs. Harper smilingly informed the President that there were never such arguments made for women suffrage as he himself had given in his last book. She quoted the following passage: "I don't want a smug lot of experts to sit behind closed doors in Washington and play Providence to me. If any part of our people want to be taken care of, if they want to have guardians put over them, if they want to be children, patronized by the government, why, I am sorry, because it will sap the manhood of America."

Mrs. Harper declared that women did not want men playing Providence. Mrs. Harper reminded the President that Mrs. Susan B. Anthony pleaded with Roosevelt shortly after he took office, and during his administration appeals were made to him not to leave the presidency without recognizing suffrage. A similar but futile appeal, she said, had been made to President Taft.

"Almost a century ago the greatest step which has ever been taken by the democratic party occurred with the enfranchisement of the working man. We ask the democratic party to take another great step in giving the vote to women."

BROOKLYN BRIDGE "SOLD" TO DUTCHMAN

NEW YORK, March 19.—After "buying" the Brooklyn Bridge for $500 and paying $100 for a contract to have 13,000 policemen every morning, Karl Hoopes, a Holland barber, is on his way back to The Hague.

Hoopes came here with several thousand to "blow" an investment, that would realize enormous margins. The first individual he confided in was a manufacturer of gilded cobbles. Hoopes "fell" readily for the information that the stranger owned the Brooklyn Bridge, but was soured on it because it didn't realize $5000 a day. He readily accepted $500 for the big structure.

Seeing Hoopes was "okay" the knight of the ochre bricks then sold him the barbering contract. He was just pawing the Flat Iron building to Hoopes when the Dutchman smothered a rat. The "con" man escaped with all the coin.

WILSON IN DOUBT ABOUT SUFFRAGE

PRESIDENT ASKS WOMEN TO WAIT UNTIL QUESTIONS ARE SETTLED

REFUSES TO COMMIT HIMSELF NOW

Advocates Tell Chief Executive That He Has Advanced Best Arguments for Cause They Advocate

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Suffrage for the women of the United States by a constitutional amendment, was formally presented to President Wilson today by a committee of national leaders in the movement. Wilson was urged to recommend to the special session of Congress action on such an amendment, but he told his visitors he had not made up his mind on the woman suffrage question.

"The President was courteous and sympathetic throughout," said Mrs. Eliza Husted Harper, of New York, and prominent in the National Woman's Suffrage Association. He said there were many pressing questions to come up at the extra session and that if he did not recommend action on woman suffrage, he did not want it to be taken as an indication of his general attitude, as he was not committing himself yet."

Other members of the party said the President viewed woman suffrage as a question of great importance. There were indications, they said, that the President was open minded on the subject.

Harvey A. Wiley, of the Housekeepers' Alliance, set forth the value of suffrage from the viewpoint of the mother influencing society.

Mrs. Claude V. Stone, wife of Representative Stone, of Illinois, argued that only by amendment to the federal constitution could there be immediate general action.

Mrs. Harriet Dixon and Miss Alice Paul, chairman of the Congressional Committee seeking woman suffrage, said the question was equivalent in importance to the emancipation of the negro.

"Every word you have said," they told the President, "for the political liberty of men, can be applied to the political liberty of women."

BRYAN LAUDED BY HOME FOLK

SECRETARY OF STATE GIVEN GREAT OVATION ON RETURN TO LINCOLN

COMMONER MODEST IN ADDRESS

Speaker Declares That He has Done no More Than Man Thrice Honored by Party Should Do

LINCOLN, Neb., March 19.—W. J. Bryan heard himself lauded tonight for the foremost exponent of the ideals of Democracy, as the man who more than any other made the nomination and election of Woodrow Wilson possible and as the leading factor in bringing about a return of the "government of the people."

In his reply Mr. Bryan disclaimed credit for doing more toward bringing about the triumph of his party than should be expected of one who had three times been honored by receiving the nomination for the Presidency.

Mr. Bryan gave away no secrets of state, nor in his speech did he commit himself on any national policy which is not well known to the reading public. He discussed the causes that led to Democratic victory, and in general promised that President Wilson and all Democrats would devote themselves to the government closer to the people. As to the praise bestowed upon him, he said that he was only one of 6,000,000 men who had aided in bringing about the result.

The banquet tonight was in honor of the 32d anniversary of Mr. Bryan. More than 1000 men sat at tables in the Lincoln Auditorium.

The stage was filled with tables and the galleries were occupied by men and women who had been unable to find seats in the building.

Speakers for the evening, who lauded the achievements of Mr. Bryan, were Governor Moorhead, of Nebraska; Governor Hodges, of Kansas; Governor Duane, of Illinois; Dr. Charles R. Scoville and Jerry H. Sullivan, of Iowa; Edgar Howard, of Columbus, Neb., presided as toastmaster, being introduced by C. W. Mier, president of the Lincoln Bryan Club.

The Auditorium was decorated with huge flags and colored lights, over which hung portraits of Bryan, Wilson and Marshall Governor Moorhead, in welcoming the visiting speakers and guests, told of the progressive legislation enacted in Nebraska in recent years, for which he gave Mr. Bryan a measure of credit.

Jerry H. Sullivan, introduced by the toastmaster as one who fought the battles of Democracy in Iowa, paid Bryan the tribute of having secured the Democratic platform. He announced as one thing for which the party did pledge itself, "Untaxed clothing and food." A minimum wage and better social conditions, he said, had been pledged by his party. These, he said, were secured because of Mr. Bryan, and the platform pledges would be kept.

Governor Hodges, of Kansas, in the course of his address, said: "We come tonight bearing to him from the people of Kansas, a message of congratulation, of love and loyalty, and by bringing to him the assurance that in my state his name is still made, and its mention is still greeted with the old-time applause."

"With Mr. Bryan's soundness of heart, roses indomitable energy, courage and persistence. Like another Hercules, he has come from each laborer feeling that he has done a day's work, but always ready for another. If he wrestled with a lion yesterday, he is ready to strangle the hydra today. If it were pointed out to him that he had not brought up Cerberus from Hades he stood ready to tackle the job."

"If he twitted him with not bringing back the golden apples from the Garden of Hesperides or with not cleaning out the Augean stables, he redoubled his efforts, took off his coat and in the year 1912 he completed both tasks."

CINCINNATI, March 18.—George B. Cox, former president of the refund Cincinnati Trust Company, two former officers of the company and eight members of the board of directors were named in the sealed indictments returned by the Hamilton county grand jury yesterday. The envelopes containing the indictments were opened by Common Pleas Judge Cosgrove today.

One of the nine counts charges the "misapplication" of $115,000 of the bank's money through alleged illegal loans to the Ford and Johnson chair company, now in the hands of receivers. Indictments on this count were returned against George B. Cox, C. H. Davis, Norman G. Keenan, James F. Healy, James M. Hutton, E. N. Miller, N. S. Keith and F. R. Williams.

Cox, J. M. Crawford, Davis, David C. Edwards, Heady, Hutton, Keith, Williams and C. V. Parrish, having control of the funds of the company, were indicted on a charge of having converted to their own use a promissory note of the Cincinnati Trust Co. for $32,000. It is charged that the men who were liable for the note cancelled it and entered it as paid in the company's books when it had not been paid.

Each of the nine counts of the indictment charges misapplication of funds relating to a separate loan to the Ford and Johnson chair company, and part of 15 Rosewood; $775; Caroline Gregory and wife to J. E. Short, land sections 27, 28, 33 and 34, township 4 south, range 2 east; $10; Will C. Smith to Iva G. Selwood, lot 22, block 9 Quincy Addition to Milwaukee; $10.

Mathews and wife part Willam Meek D. L. C., township 1 south, range 1 east; $10; Otto H. Meink and wife to Clem Bartsch, lots 5 and 6, block 1, Otto Meink's Second Addition to Sandy; $1; Joseph McComb and wife to John

FAMILY ACCUSED OF ROBBING BANKS

NEW ORLEANS, March 19.—Charged with defrauding banks in this country and Europe of approximately a million dollars, Antonio Musica, of New York, and his three sons, George, Arthur and Phillip, were arrested today on the Steamer Heredia. Two daughters of the elder Musica, Louise and Grace, also were detained. The party was taken into custody just before the departure of the Heredia for Colon.

When searched at police headquarters $50,000 was taken from Arthur Musica and about $10,000 more from other members of the party.

The Musicas carried with them nine pieces of baggage, which the police hauled to headquarters. It is believed that much more money and valuable papers will be recovered when their trunks are opened. The party will be taken back to New York at once.

Highland Deaths.

Pennant in his "Tour of Scotland" tells that on the death of a Highlander, the corpse being stretched on a board and covered with a coarse linen wrapper, the friends placed a wooden platter on the breast of the deceased containing a small quantity of salt and earth, separate and unmixed—the earth an emblem of the corruptible body, the salt an emblem of the immortal spirit.

Two Inscriptions. Gladstone was once staying at a country house where it was the practice for each guest to write in the visitors' book his name and profession when he went away. It so happened that his great rival, the Earl of Beaconsfield, was staying in the same house at the time. Lord Beaconsfield, in signing the book, characteristically wrote as his profession, "Patriotism." Mr. Gladstone who probably did not know what Beaconsfield had written signed as his profession "Apprentice."
