

IRRITATING COUGHS. DISTRESSING, DEPRESSING COLDS.

Surely and quickly yield to Dr. King's New Discovery. It soothes the inflamed and irritated bronchial tubes, stops the cough, in many cases instantly loosens the cold and aids expectoration. Don't be annoyed and suffer from coughs and colds. Take Dr. King's New Discovery and be cured.

"Owing to a severe cough and lung trouble I could not work at all for several months," writes Lewis Chamblin, of Manchester, Ohio. "Two of the best doctors could not help me. My weight ran down to 115 pounds. Dr. King's New Discovery cured me, and I now weigh 160 pounds."

"I am an old lover of your most valuable Godsend to suffering humanity—Dr. King's New Discovery," writes Jennie Fleming, New Dover, Ohio, "for it cured me of a dreadful cough of three years' standing. It was so bad that I would cough until I would be speechless, but, for the quick relief of your wonderful remedy gave me, it's worth more than all the remedies I ever used before."

Thousands have been helped in the same way, by Dr. King's New Discovery. It is not a new medicine, but one that has been used effectively more than forty-three years for the cure of coughs and colds. Your druggist will refund your money if Dr. King's New Discovery does not help you. Start taking right now. Sold by

STAFFORD.

We are enjoying some summer weather these days.

Mr. Nushbaum has been playing the good Samaritan, by plowing little patches for people unable to plow for themselves. He plowed a new piece for Mr. Miller, then he plowed a piece of low land for Mr. Powell, and lastly he plowed Mr. Gage's garden on Monday.

Mrs. Mient Peters died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Shipley in Willamette and was buried by the side of her husband on Friday afternoon in the Lutheran cemetery on the Meridian road. She had been in poor health for a number of years, and a peculiarity of her disease, she had for a number of years lost the sense of taste almost entirely, and also had a good deal of stomach trouble, and from a large, fleshy person she had shrunk to a shadow of her former self. We hear that one doctor diagnosed her case as cancer of the stomach, while another was just as positive it was not. She leaves besides her children a host of friends and neighbors, who miss her kindly smile and cheerful presence. Not long ago a number of her old friends from this place and Frog Pond went to her daughter's, and helped her celebrate her birthday.

Archie Weddle is sick at home since last Wednesday and the unusually hot day of Tuesday was almost too much for him, but his family and friends hope to see him about again soon.

The mercury went up to 89 degrees on Tuesday.

Fred Moser and Mr. Roadlin have been quite unfortunate the past week. Mr. Roadlin lost a valuable cow, and Fred in trying to break a new span of horses had a runaway, which smashed up the wagon pretty bad, but luckily no one was hurt, then one of his horses was found dead one morning last week. Quite a loss for any farmer.

Mrs. P. A. Baker was taken Friday at the dinner table with another of those dreadful attacks of the heart to which she is subject.

Mrs. Spancenberg went to visit her mother near Portland, and is sick there, but we hope to see her home again soon.

Mrs. Adolph Delkar made a week-son, and D. W., of Woodburn, Oregon, also a father, E. A. B. Howard, of Clearwater, Idaho.

Mr. Howard was born October 19, 1873, in Knox County, Kentucky, and came to Oregon with his parents and brothers and sisters, May 20, 1875. The family settled in Maric Prairie, Oregon, where they lived about fourteen years, then moved to Eastern Oregon. He was married to Laurel Geer in Woodburn January 23, 1906. The funeral services were held from the house Thursday morning, May 8.

LOGAN.

Old Solo Hays are very welcome these days. Well his about time he was warning things up a little.

Mrs. F. S. Hutchins will conduct the 8th grade examinations at the Lower Logan school May 8th and 9th.

A number of people are planting potatoes and will try it again.

Monday, May 6th, the Clear Creek Mutual Telephone Company held their annual meeting. The board for the ensuing year is W. P. Kirchem, President; Henry Babler, Vice-President; Frank Wilson, Loren Tenny, A. M. Kirchem, and O. D. Robins, Secretary.

Mrs. N. L. Kirchem and children accompanied by her sister, Miss Louise Duns is visiting in Eastern Oregon, for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Fleet and Mrs. Marsh, of Brooklyn, N. Y., are visiting their sister, Mrs. H. S. Anderson, at Fair Oaks Farm.

Saturday, last was old folks day at the Grange and a very pleasant time was enjoyed by those attending. Some reminiscences of old pioneer days and crossing the plains was the principal topic. One member, who was a boy of ten at the time related some interesting experiences away back in 1845. The young folks will entertain the old folks at the June meeting. Children's day will be May 24, Saturday. There will be a general good time for the kiddies, a picnic will be given and ball games played. All are welcome, bring the children and enjoy lunch in the park.

There is a story going the rounds, to the effect that some dogs affected with rabies had been killed, also that pigs and calves bitten by one had the disease now. A suspicious acting coyote is being hunted. One brave fellow, when in close rang threw his

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gill's baby was painfully injured Monday evening when it got its hand in the clothes ringer. One finger was quite badly mashed and necessitated the attention of a physician.

This community was shocked to learn of the sudden death of M. H. Taylor Friday evening. Mr. Taylor resided about three miles northwest of Estacada. Friday afternoon, while he was at his home riding a load of hay to a wagon, the pole broke, precipitating him to the ground on his head. A doctor was summoned and found that the injured man was suffering from a fractured skull. He was placed on a stretcher to be taken to Portland, but died before reaching the city.

Mr. Taylor was about 60 years old, and had lived in this locality for four years. He was well respected by all who knew him and had many friends who extend to the bereaved family their heartfelt sympathy. A wife and four children survive him, one daughter being a student in the Estacada high school.

Funeral services were held at Portland Sunday afternoon, and the interment was made in the cemetery at East Portland.

A deal in dirt was made this week when Howard James bought the five acres belonging to A. E. Sparks, just Southeast of the river bridge. Mr. Sparks comes into the possession of the property north of his own residence, now occupied by Mr. Belfus, through the deal.

A car load of students from the agricultural school at Corvallis, were in Estacada last Friday. They came here to visit the large mills.

PORTLAND—A committee of 100 citizens has been named to suggest candidates for the commission form of government, so that undesirable office seekers will not be elected.

One Or Two Generations Ago Most Farm Animals Roamed At Large But We Have Gradually Found That This Did Not Pay

The barn yard fowls have been the last to feel the effects of business methods on the farm but at last they have to get in their place (in the poultry yard) and stay there.

The farmer who reads the magazines knows that today many a chicken farm of a few acres pays a bigger profit than a big farm did a few years ago.
