owing to bridge wreck on the River road. The glorious 4th is past and gone once more. While the weather looked threatening in the morning it was after all an ideal day, and despite the morning clouds a crowd soon collected and enjoyed the day. The program was as follows: Band concert, Redland band; "America," by chorus and everybody; Chorus of "Liberty," by sextette, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Johnston, B. Corless, Mr. W. P. Kirchem, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce; recitation, "Young America," Alma Ross; song "Red White and Blue," Marie Fredericks; recitation, "The Day After the Fourth," Irene Kirchem; "Star Spangled Banner," Mrs. Lindborg with band accompaniment; recitation, "The Americas," Mahala Gill; oration by Hon. G. B. Dimick, of Oregon City, dealt with the present and future. Many said it was the best address they had ever listened to on that day. In the afternoon a game of base ball consumed most of the time, between Price Bros. and the Logan boys with the score in favor of the former. The crowd was orderly and quiet, except the noise of the "rooters," of course, and the firecrackers don't count. In the evening the young folks "tripped the light fantastic toe" till the wee small hours, and report a most enjoyable time. Miss Hazel Sprague, of Corvallis, was a visitor over the Fourth. Mr. Peter Wilson attended Grange Saturday. He looks well and says he likes it fine in San Francisco. Look Ahead. Many a man fails to forge ahead because he has the looking backward habit—Chicago News.

Heart to Heart Talks By JAMES A. EDGERTON. AN EXAMPLE OF AMERICAN MANHOOD. Have you read the story of those business men of Nutley, N. J., who gave patches of their skin to save the life of a child? Many of the newspapers carried the story. The little son of Mr. B. R. Colwell was so severely burned that the doctors said he would die unless new skin could be grafted over a large part of his body. The physicians thereupon called for volunteers. The response was so immediate and general as to warm the cockles of one's heart and make him proud of American manhood. Nutley is made up for the most part of New York business men. The volunteers did not come from the town alone, however. Men from other suburbs and from the big city itself came forward. The newspapers told how these volunteers chatted and smoked on the porch of the Colwell home as they awaited their turns to go on the operating table. The sacrifice meant not only inconvenience and pain to them, but the loss of valuable time from their business. None of these things weighed against saving the life of the child. The best of it all is that the sacrifice was not in vain. The child is recovering. The incident furnishes a fine example of manhood at its highest, of the American brand of it that in some aspects is a little ahead of anything else on the planet. There was no posing about it all, nothing spectacular. It was all taken as a matter of course, a part of the day's work. Yet in its essence it had a touch of the heroic. Better still, it was Christianity put into practice. It was a modern illustration of the brotherhood of man, of the many for the one. So in writing down the things that make life worth while don't forget the men of Nutley.

STOMACH SUFFERERS. May's Wonderful Stomach Remedy is Recommended and Praised by Thousands Who Have Been Restored. BEREAVED. Let me come in where you sit weeping—aye. Let me, who have not any child to die, Weep with you for the little one whose love I have known nothing of. The little arms that slowly, slowly loosened. Their pressure round your neck, the hands you used To kiss—such arms, such hands I never knew. May I not weep with you? Pain would I be of service—say something Between the tears that would be comforting— But, ah, so sadder than yourself am I Who have no little child to die! —James Whitcomb Riley.
