For the Children

Prince Frederick William of Germany.

Prince Frederick William of Germany is the high sounding title of the little boy whose picture is shown above. He is the grandson of Kaiser Wilhelm, the German emperor, who recently celebrated the silver jubilee of his uscent to the throne. His father is the Crown Prince William, who will one day succeed to the title of emperorthat is, if he outlives the present ruler. Frederick William is the oldest of the crown prince's children and is in the direct line of succession. At present that probably doesn't bother him very much. "Having fun," as young America expresses it. is doubtless more to his liking than thoughts of future grandeur. The little prince is seven years old and was born on the Fourth of July-a date that has no significance to him other than that it is his birthday. What boy or girl in this country would not feel an especial pride in having Independence day for a birthday? Then the Fourth of July would mean two celebrations in one

What Is the Answer?

Why is a cat's tail like the ends of the earth? Because it's fur to the end. But if the cat has no tail? Then it would not be so fur (far).

What is the best way to find a person out? Call when she is not at home. Why are printers liable to take cold? Beenuse they always use damp sheets. Why is wit like the shoe on a Chinese lady's foot? Because brevity is the soul

What is the difference between a blacksmith and a safe steed? One is a orseshoer, the other a sure horse, What kind of sickle does Father Time use in winter? Ice sickle. Why is it dangerous to sleep in a

Why is "a" like 12 o'clock?" It is the

When is a boat like snow? When it is adrift.

What is that which works when i plays and plays when it works? A

The Daisy.

The Latin name of the dalsy comes from a word meaning "pretty," and all will agree that it is well named. Our English word dalsy is really "day's eye." and that is what it was called many hundred years ago.

Like the dandellon, each of its flowers is made up of a number of little ones, the tiny golden "disk flowers" in flowers" around them. Dalsies growing on the prairies from Kentucky to Texas have violet or purple rays.

To this same big family or "order" belong the asters, robin's plantsin goldenrod, dahlia, boneset and many the blow to Mr. Stirling?" other common but beautiful wild flow ers which we all know so well.

If we look at the flowers in the yel low center of a daisy through a micro scope we shall find that each is shaped like a little bell and has pointed teeth on its edge.

Robin's Helpers.

On a bloss ming apple tree Robin sang so cheerly, "Come, dear neighbors, for my nest Will you give me of your best?"

Baa, ban," said the sheep, "my wool Is soft, white and beautiful. You shall have some for your nest, My pretty Robin Redbreast."

'Cluck, cluck, cluck," said Mrs. Hen, "You won't have to ask again. I will give to you a feather With the wool to weave together."

Mulley cow said: "Moo, moo, moo! Will a wisp of sweet hay do I should think that would be fine, Robin, for your nest to line."

bbin horse spoke: "Black and strong Is my wavy tail so long. Hair will bind them well together— Wool and hay and fluffy feather."

ofn sat upon the tree, Trilled his song quite merrily:
"Thank you, friends, for of your best Tou have giv'n me for my nest.

"Feathers, hay and long, strong hair, I will serve them all with care. And the wool, so soft and fine— Just the thing the nest to line!"
-Philadelphia Re-

The Old Man's Bluff. Newedd-Did you spend so much money as this before I married you? Mrs. Newedd-Wby, yes. Newedd-Then I can't understand why your father went on so when I took you away from him.-Boston Advertiser.

Profitable Begging.

"Mr. Scribble," called out the old ulillonaire, "I see we received 150 begging letters yesterday, and every one had a two cent stamp inclosed for a reply."

"Well, answer them evasively on postsi cards, and encourage them to write again."-Exchange.

A Secret

By DONALD CHAMBERLIN

The day I was twenty-one years old I was walking on the street when a gentleman accosted me, saying:

"You are Joseph Stirling, I believe." "I am," I replied, surprised, for I had no knowledge of the man what

"If you will call on me at my office will hear something which you may or may not consider to your advantage. But I warn you to say nothing about this meeting until you have eard what I have to say."

Handing me a card with his name, Francis Doyle, and his address on it, he turned away and was soon lost in the crowd.

I was naturally much disconcerted. I walked about simlessly for an hour, then went to the address given me.

"Today you come into an inheritance of $300,000," he said to me. "What?" He repeated.

You don't mean it!" "But I have something else to tell you that you may not wish to hear." I paled and waited.

"You are not the son of either of your parents nor the brother of your supposed brothers and sisters." This was indeed a blow. I dearly oved all of those he had mentioned

I had no heart to ask him to proceed but he did. "When your supposed father and mother were first married no children were born to them. This was a great disappointment to your father especial-

Friction came between them, and they separated. In time your suppos ed mother, believing that the birth of a child would bring back her husband, took you from your mother when you were born and wrote him that a child had been born to her and him. He returned to her, and a reconciliation was established "Those whom you have considered real children of Mr. and Mrs. Stirling. Only Mrs. Stirling knows that you are not her son. Your own mother was of good family who made a runaway match with your father. He was unable to take care of her and died, the cause of his death being his poverty. You were born shortly after his death. and at that time it occurred to Mrs. Stirling to offer an adopted son to her busband instead of a real one.

the persons who had adopted you. That was twenty-one years ago. I was then a clerk in the employ of the firm yours who would have inherited certhe beir. It has become my duty to notify you of your inheritance. This has involved giving you the other information concerning your birth. If your fortune. What change this may make in the present relations between husband and wife it is impossible to tell. train? Because the train runs over a changing wind-two air currents dis- Life Magazine. puting for the mastery. On the one side there was the possession of $300,-000, on the other the reveintion of a secret that would give my dear mother pain-I could not at once consider her as not my mother-make trouble between her and father and make known to my brothers and sisters that I was of a different family. Rut all this was not in complete p session of my mind. The shock I had received on learning that I did not really belong to those I loved was uppermost. I dreaded the first meeting with them all after the information I had received. I should certainly give away the fact that there was something on my mind, and doubtless mother would suspect what it was. What the center and the long white "ray a life she must have led, dreading always that her secret would come out!

"Well," said the attorney, "I presume you will take time to recover from the information I have given you and devise some means of softening "I will think over what is best to be done in the premises," I replied, "and let you know ' I left him a different man from what

I had been when I entered his office. Going to a telephone. I called up my home and informed the household that I was going somewhere with a friend and could not tell just when I would be at home. How I wished I could go father or mother for advice! This being obliged to settle so important a matter without any one to consult with was, to say the least, trying.

The next day I went home. For the others it was the same home it always had been, but an invisible gulf had come between them and me. Father welcomed me; mother kissed me with her wonted affection. The same afternoon I gave in my lot of papers and departed somewhat relieved. The evening I spent at home trying to analyze the madness I felt. was not for the loss of a fortune but for the knowledge that had come

The secret has been kept. Mother does not know that I am aware of it. and she shall never know. We are the same happy family, but-I wish that lawyer could have got rid of my patrimony without my knowledge. When Grandma Was Young.

good old ludy after she had finished the popular povel that had been recommended by her beautiful granddaugh-"Just to think of it! When I was eighteen my mother used to hide the New York Ledger from me because she was afraid the stories in it were too sensutional for a young girl to read!"-

"Dear, dear, dearf' exclaimed the Chlengo Record-Herald. Yeast-I see street gas lamps were first used in London in 1807. Crimsonbenk-Indeed! I didn't know that joke about the fellow holding up a lamppost in the early morning hours was as old as that. - Yonkers Statesman.

TROUSERS SKIRTS.

What the Parisienne te Wearing Now.

SIMPLE GOWN OF WHITE SATIN

In Paris they are wearing fetching stumes like the one pictured. The skirt, looped up at the front, is gathered in about the ankles, and the loose bodice and weighted sash at the front emphasize the oriental effect. This your brothers and sisters came on, the gown is of white satin, and the buttoned strap slippers are of gray suede.

Having Too Many Things.

Many nervous, irritable, dissatisfied, unhappy women would become calm and contented if they would store, give or throw away half of their belongings. Some have abandoned elegant residences and taken their families into botels or boarding houses who could have continued to keep up their homes "Your own mother placed with a if, instead of giving up the houses law firm a record of your birth and themselves, they had done away with the superfluous furnishings.

Some one, often the mistress her self, must clean and care for every ar and am now the firm myself. Cousins of ticle of furnishing, no matter how humble its use or how ornamental its tain property have died, and you are function, and this round of duties proves many times to be a grievous burden on delicate shoulders.

There is such a thing possible as having too many utensils and tools to you accept the fortune the secret must work with, so that taking out, replaccome out, for your supposed father ing and keeping them clean and in or must necessarily know whence came der add to the daily labor; too much furniture in a room, so that walking through it seems a perilous attempt to steer a course without disaster; too many garments to wear, for time is He had given me the situation in a consumed in caring for them and even nutshell. I was like a weather vane in in choosing what to put on.-Suburban

Cure For Nerves

As a rule, sait ment is not adapted to the requirements of the nervous, as nutritions Juices go into the brine to good for them. Raw eggs, contrary to the common opinion, are not as digestible as those that have been well cooked. Good bread, sweet butter and lean ment are the best food for the nerves Those troubled with insomnia and nervous starting from sleep and senentions of falling can often be cured by limiting themselves to a diet of milk alone for a time. An adult should take a pint at a meal and take four ments daily. Those with weakened nerves require frequently a larger quantity of water than those whose nerves and brains are strong. It nids the digestion of food by making it soluble and seems to have a direct ton-

New Baggage Laws.

Women who are traveling this sumer should remember the new baggage rules that went into effect on June 1. It is no longer a question of weight, but of size, where the trunk is concerned. Forty-five inches is the regulation size of trunk, and everything over that is in excess, and nothing over seventy two inches in length breadth and he by will be accepted. The measuring sticks that are used are self computing, five pounds being charged for each inch of excess baggage measurement.

About Stamps,

is to moisten the envelope and not the stamp. When stamps stick together do not soak them spart, but lay them on decision to the attorney. My fortune a smooth surface with a thin paper went into a hospital, the name of the over them and pass a hot iron quickly donor being kept secret. I signed a over them. This separates them without destroying the gum.

How to Freshen Panama Hats.

Get 15 cents' worth of oxalic acid. Dissolve in one quart of water. Use an old toothbrush, if you have one, or buy one that is used for scrubbing Rinse thoroughly and dry in the sun. Work pupidly and be care ful not to alter the shape. It will not be necessary to reblock the hats.

Tattle Tale! Kitty (to her mother)-Mr. Spooner knows that my face is all the fortune I possess. Willie-Yes, ms, and when I sneaked into the parlor he was try ing his best to get at her fortune .-Washington Star.

A Fair Basis.

"Now, girls," began the head of the visiting committee, "we wish to test your powers of observation. I will ask each girl to describe some building she passed on her way to school."

"That seems hardly fair." replied another member of the committee. "Let us rather ask each girl to describe some hat."-Pittsburgh Post.

MAKING A UNIFORM

It Was For the Czar, and He Wanted It In a Hurry.

A SCARED CRIMEAN TAILOR.

When Pounced Upon by His Majesty's General, Who Cloaked His Mission In Mystery, the Knight of the Shears Thought His Time Had Come.

By special permission of the court authorities an amusing account is published of the circumstances attending the ordering of a military unform by the czar from a little tailor in the Crimea, Khaim Kurichkess by name, who lived at Simferopol, the headquarters of the Crimean dragoons. When the imperial family came to nual fete of the Crimean dragoous, the Lividal, and some days before the ancanr told the colonel that he had in store a gift for him and the regimentthe czarina had consented to become their chief. His majesty added; "I shall be there when you and your of ficers are presented to the empress and shall wear your uniform. The only thing is, I believe I haven't the uniform of the regiment. But that doesn't matter, there is time, if you hurry, to have one made. You seem to have an excellent tailor. Your uniform fits beautifully. Who made it?"

The colonel gave the name of Kurichkess, whereupon his majesty asked him to arrange that Kurichkess should make a uniform for himself, adding, smiling, "Tell him to do his best and to turn it out as well as yours."

There is next given a seriocomic de scription of the alarm occasioned among the Kurichkess household, consisting of father, mother and nine children, when a handsome motorcar stopped outside their door and a cloaked general officer descended.

The general said in staccato sentences: "You must come with me. Don't be frightened. You'll know later where I'm taking you. I can't leave without you. We've lost much time already. Get dressed quickly."

The failor obeyed, went with his captor and was absent for four days. Mme. Kurichkess was doubtful wheth er she was a wife or a widow.

Eventually the tailor turned up safe nd recounted his adventures. The drive with the general had lasted two hours and a half. During the whole ourney the general did not address a single word to him. When they reach ed their destination. Yalta, all be said was, "Khaim Kurichkess, get out and

He was assured that he need not be ilarmed; he would be provided with lodging and with food, and the next day he would be told why he had been brought to Yalta and what he had to He was told he need not try to cape, as he would be watched.

His fears were dissipated when a stonet entered the room, and the "general of generals" addressed him to the following effect:

"Great good fortune has fallen upon ron. His majesty the emperor wishes g to make for him a uniform of the Crimean dragoons. But it must be as good as that of the colonel of the regiment. I hope you won't make a mess of it. I will take you at once to the

When the "general of generals" took Kurichkess to the czar's study his majesty was standing reading a document with his back to the door. Some min utes elapsed before he turned around. a good extent. Fish of all kinds is In the meantime Kurichkess was rooted to the floor. The czar on realizing his presence faced him and said: "Oh, you are here niready! You are Khaim Kurichkess, the tailor. I want you to make me a uniform of the Crimean dragoons. Do your best and see that it is a good fit. Get to work at once,"

Kurichkess went on to describe how God had helped him in his work and how satisfied the czar had been with the uniform and thanked him for it.

Kurichkess refused to accept anything in payment, but "his" general insisted that, according to law, he was obliged to receive 50 rubles for his expenses. Moreover, the general added, the minister of the court was aware that Kurichkess was in debt, and he gave the tailor an envelope containing 300 rubles from the minister to discharge his obligations.

Kurichkess was driven back in a motor to Simferopol, and some days later an imperial messenger brought to his shop a case containing a gold watch and chain. The double eagle was engraved on the watch, which also bore the inscription, "To Khaim Kurichkess for Zeal."-Argos.

A "Lady" is Defined.

The definition of a gentleman has puzzled many, but what of the lady? A depositor on opening an account described herself as a factory hand. Do not lick stamps. The best way When withdrawing money she gave her description as "lady." The postmaster was asked to be careful as to identity before paying the money. His reply was, he was quite satisfied-it was the depositor's way of saying she was out of work.-London Spectator.

"The human race is divided into two classes-those who go ahead and do something and those who sit and inquire, 'Why wasn't it done the other way?"-Oliver Wendell Holmes

He is the freeman whom the truth nakes free, and all are slaves beside. Too Placid.

"She doesn't think much of her busband." "No?"

"No. She says even the things he says in his sleep are terribly dull and uninteresting." - Detroit Free Press.

EVIL HABITS.

Do not contract evil habits. If persisted in they will surely change one's nature. The worst penalty of evil doing is to grow into likeness with the bad, for each man's soul changes, according to the nature of his deeds, for better or for worse.

The Price of a Week's Board

By RUTH GRAHAM

Tom Burns, a farmer's boy, who didn't like farm work, went from Illinois out into the wild west. There he wandered about, making a living as best be could, but there was little for him to do, except kill the animals of the wilderness either for their meat or their skins. During his wanderings Tom married the daughter of a settler who had come from Ohio. She wished to get back to that state as much as her husband wanted to return to Illinois. But instead of drifting eastward civilization encroached upon them the wild animals, by which Tom made a living, became scarce, and they were obliged to find new bunting grounds. So at last they found themselves in guich where game was plenty and neighbors were few. It was a desolate life, especially for the woman Tom offered to take his wife east, but she knew he had never fitted himself for the work to be done there, and she preferred to remain where they were rather than run the risk of starving in her former home. One day a man came trudging up the guich and, stopping at the Burus cabin, asked Mrs. Burns if he could be accommodated for a short time. She home soon and then she could give would pay well for his board. When our money. Tom returned it was agreed between the stranger in, though there was only divided into two parts by a curtain.

The man went out every morning the cabin. He remained with the Burns couple a week, then said to

I found it I could have paid you thou-I can't pay you anything."

way, so it doesn't matter much." "It matters more to me than to you substance looked like in its crude form and he would make them rich.

A month passed after the stranger's string of 1,000 of these cash is worth departure and the Burnses would have about 50 cents in our money. Somealmost forgotten his coming had it not times hits of silver are chipped from been for the bottles he had left them the silver shoes and used for small that stood in the cupboard. One day purchases. When traveling in the inpalace, where you will be admitted to John, instead of hunting in the guich terior one must take with him a large nation Land Claim; thence West trace the czar's study to see his majesty's and the region thereabout, went down amount of silver shows, exchanging ing said South boundary of said Do spur, entered a valley. He encounterand there was no use for him to try to selling of it He hadn't gone far before he saw scattered about a substance that an-

and took it home with him. After supper, while his wife was can dollars. Ther also coined an enorwashing the dishes, he took a piece thous amount of subsidiary items in of the substance he had brought from the shape of small sliver coins and Death valley and, putting it in a tin copper pennies pan, poured the chemicals over it and pleusure.

It burned green. various plans to secure what value there might be in their find to themseives. They thought of presenting a claim for the ground where they had found the substance, but realized that they were too poor and too ignorant of the subject to handle !! themselves, so they wrote to their lodger that they thought they had found what he had been looking for. He came to see them, and John showed him a specimen of his find and also that it burned green. The stranger uttered an exclamation of delight. "That is borax," he said, "used for washing purposes in every household in America." He told John that if he would tell him where it lay he would form a company to take the ground, work it and would give John half of all he made out of it himself. John accepted his proposition, and an agreement was written out and signed by both ac cording to the terms.

It turned out the stranger had a large borax company behind him with unlimited capital. A company was form ed, and he retained 20 per cent of the stock. Of this he assigned one-half to fish will be almost exactly the same as John, which gave him more money than he and his wife could spend They went back to the east, where they lived in comfort for the rest of in winter, the average being 82 de-

Japanese and Flowers. Japanese love of flowers is said to mammals is 101 degrees have been bred in the people during the long peace of the Tokugawa era, when their cultivation became fashionable as a relief to the monotony of peaceful days.

Easy Summer Work.

Summer work should be somethin say and yet something that will be useful if not ornamental. One woman is taking half a dozen both towels to the mountains with her. She will edge them with a coarse crochet during th summer and further ornament then with an initial, and then they will be stored in the guest room bureau.

A CRAZY CURRENCY

China Has a Monetary System That Borders on the Chaotic.

UNIT OF VALUE IS THE TAEL.

Yet the Tael Is Neither a Coin Nor an Ingot, but Merely an Abstract Term, and Signifies a Unit of Weight-Silver Shoes and Cash on a String. Of the many strange things in China not the least strange is its currency. To the foreigner it seems a miracle that any business can be transacted successfully with such a medium of exchange. It has been described as they drifted farther westward, for as chaotic. Nevertheless business and trade Bourish in Chins, which speaks volumes for the business acumen of the Chinese Perhaps the fact that trade flourished in China long before such a thing as currency was known accounts for the fact that the Chinese, with such a lax system as they now possess, still stand in the front rank of commercial nations, In China all forms of exchange from part of the country's business is done against the actual delivery of weighed silver. For convenience silver is melted into rough lugots having the shape of the Chinese shoe. These silver shoes have stamped upon them their fineness and weight. The unit of told him that her husband would be weight is the tael, which is equal to a quantity of silver weighing 580 grains an answer. The stranger said he troy and is worth about 60 cents in The taci is not an ingot nor a coin, him and his wife that they would take but simply an abstract term signifying a unit of weight, such as a "pound" of one room in the cabin, and they were butter or an "ounce" of gold. Though all obliged to sleep in the same room. an abstract term, it is the measure of wealth and the unit of value throughout the length and breadth of China. prospecting for something-he didn't A man buys a business for so many say what-and every night returned to tacks of silver. His profits are computed in tuels. ment he weighs out the silver according to this unit. "I'm going away from here, and I The silver shoes vary in weight from can't pay you any board. I have been one to seventy-five taels. All silver told that an erticle is to be found in shops and banks have forges, where this region that is very valuable. Had the silver is melted in iron ladles and poured into molds. The smelters with sands of dollars for my keep. As it is their ladies and molds remind one of cooks. They stir the silver with a pair "That's all right, stranger," said of metal chepsticks. To one not aware John. "We wouldn't have felt war of what they were doing it would be ranted in charging you over $4 any natural to suppose that they were engaged in concecting something good to ent. In the process of recasting the It may be that I've missed the deposit ingots their fineness is often changed, I've been looking for, and some day being either improved or debased. you may stumble on it. But you won't whichever best suits the interests of recognize it if you do. I'm going to the sh . Bankers and money changleave you some chemicals, and if you ers are able to determine the quality ever come across the article I refer to of the silver by the sense of touch. and mix it with the chemicals and burn. The sellers or depositors are always the *compound it will give a green at their mercy and must often submit to the operation of having their silver He gave them some idea of what the discounted on account of "bad touch." In the interior of China small purand, pouring the chemicals from his chases are made with copper coins stock into bottles, left them with him. with square holes in the center. These with his address, telling them if they are called "cash" and are threaded on ever found the article to write him strings so that they may be carried across one's shoulder or on a pole. A to its mouth and, rounding a mountain them for strings of cash at the various nation Land Claim 14.96 chains to the ed a trapper, who told him that noth sets of sentes one to be used in the ing could live there, not even animals. purchase of silver and the other in the get any game there. So desolate was In an affected some contractor are to in the place that it was called Death treature a currence towed on western valley. John had heard of it and con- models the Chinese sovernment mir cluded to have a look at it before go changed and not this circumstant several ing home. So he wandered about in it willion Mexicans delines. The neurib took to the new copies and called for more. The constness governments swered the description his boarder had then set up musts and becan to coin given him. He gathered some of it Chinese doffars of approximately the some weight and fineness as the Mexi-

Soon it was discovered that the new set fire to it. As he did so his wife currency was as unstable as the old. soused in wiping a dish and watched The value of the dollar to relation to him. As the flame burst forth the two the subsidiary cottange varied from day looked at each other with surprise and to day. The cent was never worth the hundredth part of a dollar. Some days 110 cents were required to make up The couple talked that night over $1, and on other days it took 130 cents. Similarly the value of the dollar as compared with the tael was continually fluctuating. Sometimes $100 would bring 70 taels and at other times only 65. It was sickening to the people, barred and estopped from asserting but very profitable to the money changers.-Harper's Weekly.

> CASTORIA The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Chart Hetchis.

See the Bargain Day Announcement on page 3.

Cold Blooded Animals. The so called cold blooded animals vary from the warm blooded in the particular that their blood changes temperature in accordance with their surroundings. The temperature of a that of the water around it, possibly one or two degrees bigher. A snake's temperature is higher in summer than grees. A bird's average temperature is 107. The average temperature of the

Renew your subscription at half

Catarrh Cannot Be Cured

h LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they c remedies. Hall's catarra tors and acts directly upon the blood at Hall's Catarra Cure is not a que accomplished by one of the best no. It was prescribed by one of the best pays in this country for years and it a regular press it is compared of the best tonice known, or with the best bood guarders, acting directly miscous surfaces. The perfect combination is no individual to what produces such wondersufe in curring cutarry. Send for technocolate it is the produce of the produces of the product of the Summons.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Clacks.

J. U. Campbell, Plaintiff,

Adaline Howell, Thomas Howell and Telitia Howell, his wife, Hettie Smith and John Smith, her busband, Smith and John Smith, her busband, Henry Howell and Georgia Howell, his wife, John Howell and Neilie Howell, his wife, William Howell and Howell, his wife, William Howell and Howell, Jr., Joseph Howell and Maud Howell, his wife, Martida Potter and William Potter har husband, Ida Keith and Edgar Keith her husband, Frank Howell and Mabel Howell, his wife, Louis Dolloway Post, John Post and Bess Seiby Post, his wife, Edith Post, Anna Post, Clara Mr. Knight, and Joshua M. Knight, her husband, Thurston L. Johnson and Belle Suilivan Johnson, his wife, Miles S. Johnson and Belle Suilivan Johnson, his wife, Miles S. livan Johnson, his wife, Miles S. Johnson and Sarah Swett Johnson Johnson and Sarah Sweet Johnson, his wife, H. B. Johnson and Sina Holmes Johnson, his wife, Violette Post Foster and E. Lucas Foster, her husband, Rex G. Post and Margery Post, his wife, Henry Fair, Louise Fair Skinner and Guy Elmer Skinner, her husband, the un known heirs of lying known helps of twiston, deceased; the unknown helps of Phinny, deceased; also all other persons or parties unknown claiming any right, title, es-tate, lien or interest in the real estate described in the complaint herein Defendants. To Thomas Howell and Telitia How-ell, his wife, Georgia Howell, Ma-ell, his wife, Georgia Howell, Ma-tilda Potter and William Potter, her husband, Ida Keith and Edgar-Keith, her husband, Louise Dollo-way Post, John Post and Bess Sel-by Post, his wife, Edith Post, An-na Post, Miles S. Johnson and Sar-ah Swett Johnson, his wife, H. B. Johnson and Sina Holmes Johnson, wife, Violette Post Foster and E. Lucas Foster, her husband, Rer G. Post and Margery Post, his wife, Henry Fuir, Louise Fair Stinner and Guy Elmer Skinner, her husband, the unknown heirs of -Ivison, deceased, the unknown heirs -Phinny, deceased and each of you, also all other per sons or parties unknown claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the real estate described in the complaint herein, the above named Defendants. IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON, you and each of you are hereby required to appear and ans-wer the complaint filed against you and each of you in the above entitled suit on or before Saturday, the 2nd day of August, 1913, said date being the expiration of six weeks from and after the date of the first publication for want thereof, the plaintif will ap ply to the above Court for the relief demanded in his complaint on his herein, and will take judament against u and each of you as follows, to wit That you and each of you defend ants be required to set up to your answer to said complaint the actual sture of your several adverse and onflicting claims to plaintiff in and of this summons, and if you and each

f you fall to so appear and answer

rty, to-wit: Situate in Clackaman ounty, State of Oregon; Reginning at the Northeast corner of the Andrew Hood Donation Land laim in Township 3 South, of Range East of the Williamette Meridian, running thence South 0 degrees 10 minutes, West 32.58 chains; thence East 25.00 chains; thence North 9 degrees, 30 minutes, East 13.99 chains to the South boundary of Lot 3, in Section 10, in said Township and thence West 9.95 chains the Southwest corner of said Lot I East 18.63 chains to the South boundary of the Washington Williams De lace of beginning. Also beginning 20.00 chains North and 20,00 chains West of the 14 Sec tion corner, between Sections 14 and Township 3 South, of Range 2 East of the Willamette Meridian, and running thence West 26.87 chains to center of the Oregon City and Highland County road; tuence North 40 degrees, 37 minutes West along center line of said road 13.82 chains; thence North 6 degrees, 36 minutes East 15.51 chains, tracing East boundary line of Andrew Hood Donation Land Claim; thence East 25.30 chains, thence North 0 degrees, 30 minutes. East 13.90 chains to the South boundary of Lot 2, in Section 15, in said Township and Range; 10.21 chains to the Southeast corner grees, 30 minutes, East 39.83 chains the place of beginning, and for a decree that plaintiff is the absolute owner in fee simple of said real prop erty above described and every par thereof, and that you defendants and each of you, and any person or persons claiming or to claim by, through or under said defendants, or any of them, have no right, title,estate,liei erty or any part thereof, and that they and each of them be forever or claiming any right, title, lien or interest in said real property or any part thereof. That plaintiff's title in and to said real property and the whole thereof, be forever quieted, for plaintiff's costs and disbursements herein such other and further relief as to he Court may seem just and equi able in the premises. This Summons is published by 0 der of Hon. R. B. Beatie, Judge of the County Court of the State of Oreon, for Clackamas County, which of der was made and entered on 18th day of June, 1913.

Date of first publication of this sum ons, Friday, the 20th day of June 1913, and the date of the last publi cation thereof is Friday, the 1st day of August, 1913, and the time of the publication of said summens is so full weeks from and after the date of the first publication thereof.

DIMICK & DIMICK,

Attorneys for Plaintiff.

Notice to Creditors.

Notice is hereby given that the ! ersigned has been appointed admis-stratrix of the estate of August Geb-ardt, deceased. All persons having hardt, deceased. All persons having claims against said estate are here by notified to present the same will proper vouchers, duly verified accord-ing to law, to the undersigned as ministratrix at her residence. wood, Oregon, R. F. D., No. 1, within sia months of the date of the first pub-lication of this notice. Dated, July 11, 1913. GRACE GEBHAEDT. Administratrix of the Estate of August Gebhardt, Deceased.

The King of All Laxatives For constination, headaches, india New Life Pills. Paul Mathulia. Buffalo, N. Y., says they are the 'S of all laxatives. They are a bicsan to all my family and I always here box at home." Get a box and get well Price 25c. Recommended by Hoalis Price 25c. Recommended by Huali-Bros. Co., Oregon City, Hubbard as