

The Enterprise is the only Clackamas County newspaper that prints all of the news of this growing County.

CLACKAMAS COUNTY FAIR, CANBY, ORE. SEPT. 24, 25, 26, 27.

FORTY-SEVENTH YEAR—No. 30.

OREGON CITY, OREGON, FRIDAY, JULY 25, 1913.

ESTABLISHED 1866

"ECONOMY AND EFFICIENCY" COUNTY OFFICIALS SPEAK AT MOLALLA

Before a gathering of some 2,500 members of the Clackamas County Verel, Grant B. Dimick, of Oregon City, Sunday announced himself as a candidate for the republican nomination for governor of the state at the forthcoming election.

At the last gubernatorial primary Mr. Dimick was a candidate for the nomination, and secured next to the largest number of votes cast.

In his speech at Mackaburg, delivered in the afternoon as part of the program of the all-day picnic of the Verel, Judge Dimick, while not definitely stating his platform, spoke upon a variety of subjects of interest to the state, and his auditors took this address as a declaration of his principles.

This burden of taxation, which all farmers are feeling alike, Judge Dimick laid to the habit of the state legislature in creating commissions to handle the various affairs of the commonwealth.

Speaking of the multifold commissions to which the business of the state is entrusted, Judge Dimick argued for a central board to handle many of these departments—such as the newly created "department of agriculture" in the commonwealth of Washington.

Enthusiasm for Judge Dimick was high at the meeting, and the speaker was loudly applauded at the close of his address. His announcement of becoming a candidate for governor seemed to meet with popular approval.

With the decision of the supreme court that the Day bill, providing for a special referendum election on measures passed by the last session of the legislature, is constitutional.

The bill in question was offered for filing with the secretary of state on July 3, one day before the time limit on measures to be submitted to the people at the forthcoming election expired.

With the supreme court's action assuring the holding of an election on November, Mr. U'ren will at once start proceedings to get the bill before the people at the first opportunity.

HOSTON, Mass., July 23.—One of the oldest wills that has ever come before the Essex county probate court was brought up for hearing at Salem today.

GRANT B. DIMICK Who announces himself Republican candidate for governor

NORRIS REMOVED BY STATE BOARD

Members of the county court were notified Wednesday that the state board of health, at a special meeting held Tuesday, had determined to remove Dr. J. W. Norris from the post of county health officer.

This action on the part of the state board of health is the first definite movement that body has taken in regard to complaints in regard to the manner in which Dr. Norris has conducted his office.

The notification from the state board of health arrived one day after the adjournment of the July term of the county court, and no action towards appointing a successor to Dr. Norris will be taken until the court convenes for the August term.

Frank Jagger, whose integrity was attacked by a communication in a recent issue of The Courier, in which it was charged that he received payment from the county for the use of a steam roller on county roads.

While road supervisor he desired the use of a steam roller, but was unable to get one of the county at that time. He therefore purchased one from the Buffalo-Platts company.

There is a week's issue of The Courier in this a well-earned retraction of the letter that roused Mr. Jagger's ire.

STREUBENVILLE, O., July 18.—Elaborate plans are nearing completion for the three wars' celebration to be held here next week.

LONDON, July 18.—Dr. William G. Grace, known throughout the English-speaking world as the "grand old man of cricket," received the congratulations of a host of admirers today on the occasion of his sixty-fifth birthday anniversary.

STATE OFFICERS ENGINEER RAID

Sheriff Mass and Deputies TAKE SIX PRISONERS AT ISLAND FOR TOM KAY

Constable Frost has had a hard fight with four-inch knife objects briefly to being put under arrest—alleged parasites taken

A raid on a colony of alleged parasites, engineered by Tom Kay, special state deputy, and pulled off under management of Sheriff E. T. Mass and deputies, Tuesday night netted a total of six prisoners, two women and four men.

County Clerk Mulvey spent considerable time Monday going over the recall petitions submitted by Ed. Olds and W. H. Hagemann, calling for the dragging down from office of County Judge R. B. Beattie and County Commissioner N. Blair.

Five days are allowed the county clerk for an examination of the petitions, and at the end of this time, any less than the required number of signatures will be rejected.

In checking over the requirements for the recall, County Clerk Mulvey has found that according to the statutes 1,540 signatures are needed on the petitions.

Those backing the recall movement, while admitting that there may be a rigid court inquiry and legal action in the matter, say that they believe that the result will be that the election will be held.

Those arrested gave their names as: Adrean Lebeau, L. Lane, Julian Pelmsahas and G. Massie, alias "Andre Cabot." The two women gave their names as Almonde Sallence and Jeanie duPain.

Postmaster Thomas Randall has notified patrons of the Oregon City post office that by a ruling of the postal authorities parcel post stamps hereafter will be received as "latter postage," and that ordinary stamps may be used on parcels sent by the new mail service.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 17.—Patrons of the theater and members of the theatrical profession everywhere will learn with regret that the famous Walnut Street Theater in this city is to be sent into history.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 19.—Secretary of State Bryan left the capital today to fill a series of lecture engagements contracted before he accepted a seat in President Wilson's cabinet.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 21.—The National Leather and Shoe Finders' association began its annual convention in this city today with an attendance that includes many prominent representatives of the trade throughout the country.

MANY EYES TURNED TOWARD CLACKAMAS

Secretary Freytag, of the publicity department of the Commercial club is beginning to believe that Oregon City is known in many places, and that residents of other communities have been impressed with publicity matter sent out from here.

Information in regard to opportunities in Clackamas county will be sent to all the inquirers, and as they have been filed just before closing time of the county clerk's office Tuesday afternoon, Edward Olds and W. H. Hagemann presenting the petitions.

County Clerk Mulvey has five days in which to check over the names, and if satisfied that the required number are on the petitions, must then call a recall election within 20 days.

It is quite possible that before the five days have elapsed some sort of court action will be instituted to have the names on the petitions carefully examined and checked.

Those backing the recall movement, while admitting that there may be a rigid court inquiry and legal action in the matter, say that they believe that the result will be that the election will be held.

Those arrested gave their names as: Adrean Lebeau, L. Lane, Julian Pelmsahas and G. Massie, alias "Andre Cabot." The two women gave their names as Almonde Sallence and Jeanie duPain.

Postmaster Thomas Randall has notified patrons of the Oregon City post office that by a ruling of the postal authorities parcel post stamps hereafter will be received as "latter postage," and that ordinary stamps may be used on parcels sent by the new mail service.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 17.—Patrons of the theater and members of the theatrical profession everywhere will learn with regret that the famous Walnut Street Theater in this city is to be sent into history.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 19.—Secretary of State Bryan left the capital today to fill a series of lecture engagements contracted before he accepted a seat in President Wilson's cabinet.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 21.—The National Leather and Shoe Finders' association began its annual convention in this city today with an attendance that includes many prominent representatives of the trade throughout the country.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 19.—Secretary of State Bryan left the capital today to fill a series of lecture engagements contracted before he accepted a seat in President Wilson's cabinet.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 21.—The National Leather and Shoe Finders' association began its annual convention in this city today with an attendance that includes many prominent representatives of the trade throughout the country.

ANDERSON AND SMITH OFFERED

RECALL CANDIDATES NAMED AT SLIMLY ATTENDED PRECINCT MEETING

BUT 18 DELEGATES CAME TO VOTE

Ed Olds, as Chairman, Dislikes to See "Strangers" Present and Adjourns Convention to Clear the Hall

A meeting of delegates from several precincts of the county assembled this afternoon in Woodman hall to nominate candidates for the recall election, petitions in which will be filed with the county clerk on Wednesday of this week.

H. S. Anderson, of Harding precinct, sales manager of the Clear Creek creamery company, was nominated as candidate for county judge, to run against County Judge R. B. Beattie; and J. W. Smith, of Mackaburg, was nominated as a candidate for commissioner, to run against Commissioner N. Blair.

Finally the names of Anderson and William Gressenthwaite were placed in nomination. Anderson received 11 votes and Gressenthwaite 7. Following this ballot it was moved to make Anderson's nomination unanimous, and the motion carried.

At the close of the nominations, the delegates named George Lantelle, William Gressenthwaite and H. W. Hagemann as financial committee; and H. S. Anderson, J. W. Smith, A. A. Allen, W. P. Kirchem, George Brown, P. W. Meredith, J. W. Reed and a Mr. Haines, of Oswego, as executive committee.

The meeting was not entirely harmonious. Ed Olds presided as chairman, and seemed impressed with the necessity of being unduly dignified. At other times he forgot this, as once when he rose to make a suggestion to the delegates, and ended his remarks by saying: "There, I've said something and now George C. can't say that I haven't said anything."

When candidates for county judge were being discussed, Ed Olds presided as chairman, and seemed impressed with the necessity of being unduly dignified. At other times he forgot this, as once when he rose to make a suggestion to the delegates, and ended his remarks by saying: "There, I've said something and now George C. can't say that I haven't said anything."

When candidates for county judge were being discussed, Ed Olds presided as chairman, and seemed impressed with the necessity of being unduly dignified. At other times he forgot this, as once when he rose to make a suggestion to the delegates, and ended his remarks by saying: "There, I've said something and now George C. can't say that I haven't said anything."

When candidates for county judge were being discussed, Ed Olds presided as chairman, and seemed impressed with the necessity of being unduly dignified. At other times he forgot this, as once when he rose to make a suggestion to the delegates, and ended his remarks by saying: "There, I've said something and now George C. can't say that I haven't said anything."

When candidates for county judge were being discussed, Ed Olds presided as chairman, and seemed impressed with the necessity of being unduly dignified. At other times he forgot this, as once when he rose to make a suggestion to the delegates, and ended his remarks by saying: "There, I've said something and now George C. can't say that I haven't said anything."

OVER 1700 SIGN RECALL PETITION

ED OLDS AND W. H. HAGEMANN FILE REQUEST FOR SPECIAL ELECTION

PAPERS PUT IN AT LAST MINUTE

1,748 Names On Appeal for Removal of Judge Beattie; 1,720 Against Commissioner N. Blair

Petitions for a recall election against County Judge R. B. Beattie and County Commissioner N. Blair were filed just before closing time of the county clerk's office Tuesday afternoon, Edward Olds and W. H. Hagemann presenting the petitions.

The petition asking for the recall of County Judge Beattie carries 1,748 names, according to the men who filed it; while that asking the recall of Commissioner Blair bears 1,720 signatures.

It is quite possible that before the five days have elapsed some sort of court action will be instituted to have the names on the petitions carefully examined and checked.

Those backing the recall movement, while admitting that there may be a rigid court inquiry and legal action in the matter, say that they believe that the result will be that the election will be held.

Those arrested gave their names as: Adrean Lebeau, L. Lane, Julian Pelmsahas and G. Massie, alias "Andre Cabot." The two women gave their names as Almonde Sallence and Jeanie duPain.

Postmaster Thomas Randall has notified patrons of the Oregon City post office that by a ruling of the postal authorities parcel post stamps hereafter will be received as "latter postage," and that ordinary stamps may be used on parcels sent by the new mail service.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 17.—Patrons of the theater and members of the theatrical profession everywhere will learn with regret that the famous Walnut Street Theater in this city is to be sent into history.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 19.—Secretary of State Bryan left the capital today to fill a series of lecture engagements contracted before he accepted a seat in President Wilson's cabinet.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 21.—The National Leather and Shoe Finders' association began its annual convention in this city today with an attendance that includes many prominent representatives of the trade throughout the country.

MAY TAKE NAMES FROM PETITIONS

CITIZENS IN ROAD DISTRICT 53, OFFERED

AMONG THOSE WHO FORMERLY SIGNED

RECALL PETITION

AMONG THOSE WHO FORMERLY SIGNED RECALL PETITION

AMONG THOSE WHO FORMERLY SIGNED RECALL PETITION

AMONG THOSE WHO FORMERLY SIGNED RECALL PETITION

AMONG THOSE WHO FORMERLY SIGNED RECALL PETITION

AMONG THOSE WHO FORMERLY SIGNED RECALL PETITION

AMONG THOSE WHO FORMERLY SIGNED RECALL PETITION

AMONG THOSE WHO FORMERLY SIGNED RECALL PETITION

AMONG THOSE WHO FORMERLY SIGNED RECALL PETITION

AMONG THOSE WHO FORMERLY SIGNED RECALL PETITION