ASTORIA'S FOUNDER BORN 150 YEARS AGO

NEW YORK, July 17.—One hundred and fifty years ago today there was born at Waldorf, near Heidelberg, Germany, the son of a lowly butcher, who lived to stand before kings, and to acquire the largest fortune ever accumulated by a single individual in America up to his time. The butcher's son was John Jacob Astor, the founder of the Astor family in America. He crossed the Atlantic at the age of 20 and from the day of his landing he was an American. At first he acted as an agent for a London firm that manufactured musical instruments and he became the first dealer in musical instruments in the United States.

RHODES' SCHEMES TOLD IN DETAIL

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, July 17.—"What is the use of having big ideas unless you have the money to carry them out," asked Prof. H. G. Merriam, of Beloit, in the second of his lectures before the University of Oregon summer school on "Oxford as an Educational Ideal." By "money" Prof. Merriam meant big money, for he was quoting Cecil Rhodes, and trying to explain the type of man the South African empire builder hoped to develop among the youth of England and America. Prof. Merriam was Rhodes scholar from the state of Wyoming.

VALIANT OFFICER IS GIVEN PRAISE

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 17.—Major General Bell, commanding the Philippine department, warmly praises Brigadier General John J. Pershing for the manner in which he conducted his campaign to disarm the Moros. It is not the first time that Gen. Pershing has been mentioned in despatches, and when the history of the Philippines comes to be written it is probable that the firgher from Missouri will be given the credit for doing the biggest share of the "rough work" incident to the pacification of the islands.

General Pershing has been fighting in the Philippines the greater part of the past two years. In 1906 he was singled out by President Roosevelt in one of his messages to congress for his distinguished services in his fight against the Moros in the Lake Liano country. There, his senior officer being incapacitated, the command of a battalion devolved upon him. For seven months he kept open his base of operations, supplied his own subsistence, and with his men, fought every day and part of the night. He started at the lower end of lake and fought clear around its circumference, exterminating hostile natives or making peace with their chiefs.

WILSON DIDN'T, SAYS TUMULTY

WASHINGTON, July 21.—So delicate is the Mexican situation considered in official circles that the White House issued the following statement tonight to clear up misrepresentations: "On his attention being called to the following statements appearing in certain afternoon newspapers (1) that the president had stated that he would not recognize the Huerta administration and that it would not last a year; (2) that the president had stated that this country would establish a protectorate over all Central American countries to guard the Panama Canal. Secretary Tumulty stated that there was absolutely no foundation in truth for either of the above statements and emphatically denied that the president had expressed any opinion today or at any other time regarding the Huerta administration or its stability or stated any intention as to its recognition."

MINOR LEAGUERS SEE NO PROFITS

CHICAGO, Ill., July 23.—With the baseball season half over, outward and visible signs are abundant that the year 1913 is not likely to establish a high record for prosperity among the minor leagues. The larger organizations are reported to be coming along nicely, but many of the smaller ones are finding it hard going. Several threw up the sponge before the season was many weeks old. Some are endeavoring to weather the storm by shortening or otherwise changing their circuits, while others are believed to be very close to the rocks.

WEALTH A HANDICAP.

One of the greatest handicaps that some young men have in the outset of their career is the possession of an income which will relieve them of the necessity of independently earning their own livelihood. This removes a great incentive for endeavor and is a decided disadvantage. For that reason I have always had a considerable sympathy for the sons of rich men. They are seriously handicapped in life unless they are young men of exceptionally high character and imbued with lofty aspirations. — John Hays Hammond.

DOG DAYS PROMISE WEEK OF DULLNESS

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 18.—With the exception of the proceedings in congress, the week promises little of interest or importance in the field of politics and public affairs. A state election will be held in Arkansas, Wednesday to select a governor to succeed Governor Joseph T. Robinson, who resigned to accept election to the United States senate.
