GREAT RURAL PROBLEMS STUDIED

Austrian System Found By Commissioners to be One of Best in Use Abroad to Aid Farm Development

After a long and interesting trip through the Old World, Harvey Starweather, well known throughout Clackamas county, has returned to his home. Mr. Starweather was a delegate from Oregon upon the American commission...

FAMILY CELEBRATES PIONEER BIRTHDAY

Born in Germany, a resident of Oregon for 33 years, but hale and hearty on her eightieth birthday is the record held by Mrs. W. R. Carr, one of the oldest pioneers of Clackamas county.

Blown across the Atlantic for eight long weeks in a sailing vessel, Mrs. Carr was brought from the fatherland by her parents when an infant, and since that time her fortunes have been those of the borderers of several west-ern states...

Mrs. W. R. Carr

With their neighbors began to gather closer and closer about them. From their port of entry, the family's first move was to the then frontier in Illinois where they spent a number of years developing with the country and carving from the forests of that state the home where Mrs. Carr spent her girlhood days.

YOUTH IS SLAIN WHILE HUNTING

GUS MELVIN, OF WEST SIDE, FALLS OVER SHOTGUN IN MOUNTAIN WOODS

While hunting in the mountains Saturday afternoon seven miles beyond Colton, Gus Melvin, 15 years old, whose home is in West Oregon City, stumbled over the 12-gauge shotgun he was carrying and accidentally discharged the weapon, sustaining wounds from which he died an hour or so afterwards.

WILD AUTOMOBILE RIDE IN VAIN

Efforts to Carry Dying Boy to Hospital Prove Futile, and Injured Lad Dies Before Oregon City Reached

While hunting in the mountains Saturday afternoon seven miles beyond Colton, Gus Melvin, 15 years old, whose home is in West Oregon City, stumbled over the 12-gauge shotgun he was carrying and accidentally discharged the weapon, sustaining wounds from which he died an hour or so afterwards.

JANETTE JAGGAR SEEKS DIVORCE

One of the most sensational divorce cases ever filed in Clackamas county has been entered at the county clerk's office by attorneys Farrington & Farrington and C. M. White, of Portland, in behalf of Janette Jaggar, who seeks freedom from Frank Jaggar, and who also petitions the court for $12,000 attorney's fees, $100 per month for the care of her minor children, and $6,000 alimony.

VALLEY CATTLE SOUGHT

Reporting that cattle are scarce in southeastern Washington, and that Yakima stockmen are buying every thing in sight, A. R. Youngquist, of Goldendale, is making Oregon City his headquarters while seeking a carload of prime stock in the Willametta valley. A year or so ago Mr. Youngquist obtained a carload of stock here, and was so pleased with it that he has returned for more.
