

SUFFERED AWFUL PAINS

For Sixteen Years. Restored To Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Moratown, Vermont.—"I was troubled with pains and irregularities for sixteen years, and was thin, weak and nervous. When I would lie down it would seem as if I was going right down out of sight into some dark hole, and the window curtains had faces that would peep out at me, and when I was out of doors it would seem as if something was going to happen to me. My blood was poor, my circulation was so bad I would be like a dead person at times. I had female weakness badly, my abdomen was sore and I had awful pains.

"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used the Sanative Wash and they certainly did wonders for me. My troubles disappeared and I am able to work hard every day."—Mrs. W. F. SAWYER, River View Farm, Moratown, Vermont.

CITY WINS ITS CASE IN COURT

ACTION BROUGHT BY GRANT B. DIMICK IS LOST BY THE RULING OF JUDGE EAKIN

COUNCIL'S AUTHORITY IS UPHELD

Decision Holds City Had Right to Make Appointment and that it was its Duty to do so—Warrants to be Paid

Oregon City won its fight in the circuit court before Judge Eakin Saturday when the demurrer of the plaintiff was overruled and the court held that the city had the right to make the appointment of Ed Shaw as chief of police and to pay him the salary of $1100 for the 11 months of his service.

TOOZE WANTS SEX SEGREGATION

BELIEVES COULD BE APPLIED TO LIMITED EXTENT IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

DISCUSSES SUBJECT AT LENGTH

Gives Reasons Why Separation Would Work to Advantage in the Administration of System—Added Expense

Professor F. J. Tooze, superintendent of the Oregon City public schools, is in favor of sex segregation.

Monday he said that in this city he was in favor of sex segregation in a limited sense, and in a limited sense because of the added expense that complete segregation would cause.

He said: "Sex segregation has been discussed pro and con for many years and has been tried with varying degrees of success and failure. One of the main objections that is advanced is that the training that fits the boy for his future life is not adapted to the vocation of the girl, but this objection lacks force because it is a fact that women are more and more invading those fields that were once considered for men alone.

Sex Differences. "It has been stated by those in favor of segregation that there is a difference in the ability of boys and girls to grasp different subjects; for instance, a boy is considered to be able to handle mathematics better than a girl, while a girl excels in the culture subjects. Now this has been disproved by actual investigations which show that girls rank higher in the mathematical subjects and the boys higher in culture.

"Another point often discussed in this interesting subject is in regard to the social demands of the young. There is no doubt but that the development of the social life of the young is a function that the public schools must exercise.

School Functions. "There has been much argument resulting from discussion as to whether segregation would act as a protection for their moral safety. There is no question as to whether there is a social demand of the young or not. The question is whether the social and moral instincts can be entrusted to the training and influence of the school.

Some authorities claim that neither sex can do best work when surrounded by those of the opposite sex, but this can be made the object of much debate, both pro and con.

"In a large school with larger income, the added expense of segregation can be met with ease, but in the small school segregation means that more teachers must be employed and additional classes must be organized.

When asked if he was in favor of segregation in this city, Professor Tooze replied: "In a city of this size, I am in favor of segregation in a limited sense."

COURT TO BE ASKED FOR LIBRARY FUNDS

Effort was made some four years ago to start a library for Oregon City people. The effort was productive of results. The library grew until now it is housed in its own home on one of Oregon City's beautiful parks.

About a year ago the limits of book service were extended to take in all the small cities about Oregon City and recently the trustees decided that the service might be extended over the entire county, if the people will ask for it.

Under the law, the county court is authorized to levy for library purposes. Every county in California and some in Oregon have already provided library service for the rural districts.

From an educational standpoint there is nothing more valuable than a library can be had by personal order; if on rural routes, delivery can be made by parcel post.

If one wants county library service without expense, petitions should be addressed to the county court asking that a levy for that purpose be included in the budget which must be made in December.

It is said that John McGraw, the Giant's boss, has not abandoned hope of putting over a trade whereby he can land Ed Konetchy, of the Cardinals.

BOY TAKES MONEY AND PLANS TO SHIP

Trusted with $2750 with instructions to deposit it in the bank for the Fred Jacobs real estate firm of Portland, Louis Fellebaum, 15 years of age, boarded a car for Oregon City, bought new clothes from some of the stores here, and paid his fare to San Francisco when he was captured by William Heil and turned over to Detective B. F. Smith of Portland.

The boy was on the point of taking the 9 o'clock train for San Francisco when he was arrested. He had bought the ticket and still had a good deal of the money on him when found. He spent about three hours in the city buying clothes with his new found wealth and making friends on the streets.

The firm had given him the money to place in the bank to its account. Instead, he took the next car to this city and planned to make his get away at 9 o'clock. The officers caught him just before the train arrived on its way to San Francisco and turned him over to the detective who took him back to Portland on the 11 o'clock car.

CHICKENS AND EGGS SHOW FIRM IN TONE

Prices on eggs and chickens show an advance with resulting firmness in the general tone. The trade in the birds is brisk with all offerings taken on sight.

The potato trade has held steady with an ample supply coming into the market and a strong demand for the product. The note has been strong through the day. Cheese supplies have been limited with an increasing temporary tendency to a firmness in the quotations.

CATTLE AND SWINE RECEIPTS ARE HEAVY

Receipts for the week at the Portland stockyard have been: cattle 1523; calves 192; hogs 2471; sheep 5639.

A large increase in both cattle and swine receipts has been noticeable the last few days, but sheep liquidation was much lighter. With the advent of sizable quantities of live stock the market became active and interesting. Monday's cattle receipts were among the largest of the year and contained a lot of good beef. The 58 steer top was not disturbed and a few choice lots brought $8.19, $8.15 and $8.25. Bulk of steer calves $7.30 and $7.79. Cow staff never attained the 77 mark but a lot of good ones sold for $6.75 and $6.85. Calves steady at $5.50 to $9 and bulls $6 to $6.50. Beef outlook is better and absorbed over 1500 head this week.

The swine trade suffered a sudden set back and is in process of adjusting itself for the annual fall liquidation. Prices broke a quarter and best light hogs sold in bulk at $8.75 to $9. Receipts were liberal and demand fair.

Sheep house business was more or less drab, due to lack of supply of lambs and mutton, and inferior quality of arrivals. Prices steadied Thursday and are in firmer position but only for strictly prime stock. Trade is easily filled up on mutton and too much at one time causes a price flurry. Choice weathers, $4 to $4.25; ewes, $3.50 to $3.85, and lambs $4.50 to $4.75 and $5.25 are steady price levels.

EGGS AND CHICKENS ARE HOLDING FIRM

Eggs and chickens are holding high and the markets show a firm tendency although the demand has not been great and the trade has been quiet.

Ducks are firmer though geese are generally low with the demand weak. Graps prices are giving away and local firm is finding little call.

Turkeys, on the other hand, are in demand, the limited arrivals in the market holding the tone firm and the price strong.

HIGH EGG PRICES BRING REACTION

Reaction has set in through the egg markets and the general tone has shown weaker as a result of the recent climb in prices.

There has been a shortage in the cabbage market and the first-class variety is now hard to buy, but it is not believed that the shortage will continue nor that the prices will remain as firm as they now are.

Crapes are coming into the commission houses from the local yards and is well packed. The peach market continues active and the tone is generally firm.
