SANDY FAIR DRAWS TO GLORIOUS CLOSE COUNTY TEACHERS

The last day of the second annual fair at Sandy opened with record crowds attending.

The first event of the day was the awarding of the prizes in Shelby's hall at 10 o'clock. Then came a liter-ary and musical program. The afternoon was taken up by horse and foot racea, while in the evening there was an all night dance.

Those present are all satisfied that this is the most successful fair ever held in this district and plans are al-ready being made for a fair for dext year that will be even bigger and better than this one.
