A very prettily appointed home wedding took place on Wednesday, Oct. 15th, at high noon, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Antone Batalga, when their daughter, Mary, became the wife of Wm. Ridder. At twelve o'clock the bride, looking like a queen in a handsome gown of white silk and lace, and carrying a bouquet of white carnations, entered the room upon her father's arm, and preceded by her youngest sister, Margaret, as flower girl, proceeding to archway, which was artistically decorated with autumn leaves and flowers, and from the center of which a wedding bell was suspended, where the groom and bridesman were already awaiting them. Miss Christina Batalga, the bridesmaid, was attired in white Swiss dotted with blue flowers. Rev. Ulrich, of the German Reform church, officiated with the beautiful ring ceremony. After the bride and groom had received the congratulations of relatives and friends, a bountiful banquet was served in the dining room. The wedding gifts were numerous and handsome, among them being articles of value from Scotland and Germany, where the bride and groom have relatives and friends. The groom is one of our village boys, who has grown to manhood here, where his many friends admire him for his loyal and kindly disposition. The young couple have gone on a honeymoon to Madras, the former home of the bride, and upon their return will be at home to their friends at the Ridder farm. The hosts of friends in wishing them much happiness and prosperity.

CHRONIC DYSPEPSIA.

The following unsolicited testimonial should certainly be sufficient to give hope and courage to persons afflicted with chronic dyspepsia: "I have been a chronic dyspeptic for years, and of all the medicine I have taken, Chamberlain's Tablets have done me more good than anything else," says W. WILLAMETTE Merritt Willson, Agent Mrs. Greaves Entertains A delightful party was enjoyed by the relatives and friends of Harold Willis Greaves and Lydia Gertrude Greaves at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Greaves in Willamette, Tuesday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in playing games and music by their phonograph, after which a delightful dinner was served by Mrs. Greaves and Mrs. Greaves who are grandmothers of the children. The table was decorated with candles and flowers. In the center of the table there was a large center piece which contained dainty jars of candy to which was attached pink baby ribbon leading to the plates. The party was given in honor of the fourth birthday of Harold and second birthday of Gertrude. Those present were Letha, Katrina, Virginia Schadle, Pauline and Ann Brown, Kenneth Montgomery, Theodore Gary and Caroline Gary, Harold and Gertrude Greaves. Avoid Sedative Cough Medicines. If you want to contribute directly to the occurrence of capillary bronchitis and pneumonia use cough medicines that contain codine, morphine, heroin and other sedatives when you have a cough or cold. An expectorant like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is what is needed. That cleans out the culture beds or breeding places for the germs of pneumonia and other germicidal diseases. That is why pneumonia never results from a cold when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used. It has a world wide reputation for its cures. It contains no morphine or other sedative. EGGS ARE FIRMER; RISE IS EXPECTED Firmer tones were noted in the markets for eggs yesterday though the prices held at the same point and no changes in quotations were reported. The condition of the market in this product has been tending toward higher prices for several days though the advance has not been made. Egg scarcity seems to be common all over the country from the reports and the prices have as a result, held firm with a tendency to take a slight upward within the next few days. The commission men have been expecting this change for sometime. Onions are firm and the demand strong, though the supply has not been liberal. The market for country wool is slow and the general tendency seems to be downward. BIG SURPRISE TO MANY IN OREGON CITY Local people are surprised at slight QUICK results received from simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., mixed in Adler-Ka, the German compound which became famous by curing appendicitis.
