on the basis of quality and price only

We put Quality first, and so we offer you no goods so cheap that we cannot unqualifiedly guarantee them.

¶ In the matter of prices we expect to meet any competition in this State. On account of our large buying (for 4 stores) our prices are often lower than would be possible for smaller dealers; on account of our lower cost of doing business in Oregon City it is not possible for Portland Stores to compete in prices in very many lines.

¶ So not as a matter of duty or pride to a home store do we ask your business, but only on the basis of Quality, Prices and Service. Come in and look over our big stock, get our prices, consider the quality and then if you can do better elsewhere it is your duty to do so.

BROWNELL CONDUCTS HUTCHENS' DEFENSE

MEMPHIS, Or., Dec. 11.—"Not guilty" was the verdict of the jury that sat on the trial of James Hutchens, who was indicted for murder in the first degree for the shooting of Walter A. Rodgers. The jury was out about two hours, and when the verdict was read by Judge Holmes the audience applauded for three minutes. James Hutchens, 35 years old, lives with his aged mother on her homestead, about 12 miles west of this city. In the mountains, where Walter A. Rodgers, the deceased, also had a homestead. Nearly every resident of the mountain district known as Pea Vine Ridge was in attendance upon this trial as witnesses. Hutchens thanked the jurors cordially and shook hands with them as they filed out of the jury box.

Mr. Bartsch Explains.

GLADSTONE, Or., Dec. 11.—(Editor of the Enterprise.)—To correct the article which appeared in your valuable paper December 3, would say to the readers and C. F. Hagerman that the trouble is of two years' standing. I do not object to baby buggies or bicycles on sidewalks, but do positively object to the horrible racket and noise caused by your boys' rackets and early morning until late at night with the hollow wooden sidewalk. You would also be driven to desperation to get up in the morning to find the front fence and gate on the sidewalk and the mail box stuffed full with dirt and many other mean tricks too numerous to mention. All I ask of my neighbors and their well trained (?) children is peace and freedom, on account of my 65 years of age. I kindly ask my neighbors to be lenient. My declining years and health compel me to be in bed a great deal and this terrible noise is not apt to better my physical distress.

LILLIE FIGHTS HIS OWN CASE AND WINS

About a year ago William Lillie was arrested on a criminal charge against his daughter. The case has gone through justice courts, grand jury and to the circuit court. Lillie has won out and the case been dismissed.

WOMEN ROAD WORKERS.

Philippine Females Do as Much Work as the Men on Highways. One would hardly think that a woman could ever outwear a man when it comes to heavy road work, but such is nevertheless the case in the Philippines. In the construction of the Paoy-Currin road it is recalled that at one time there were approximately 500 women and girls employed daily, notes the Engineering News. These feminine workers, receiving from 20 to 25 or 35 centavos per day, according to their strength and ability, are most efficient when materials for subgrade, surfacing or gravel and sand for concrete are to be carried a short distance. They tie up their skirts or "pandling" to be less hampered as they work and wield shovels, load, carry and empty their baskets with a zeal that outclasses the men.

Stomach Troubles Disappear.

Stomach, liver and kidney troubles, weak nerves, lame back and female ills disappear when Electric Bitters are used. Thousands of women would not be without a bottle in their home.

The Secret of England's Fine Roads.

"What must impress every visitor to England," said a man who had just returned from that country recently, "is their wonderful country roads and city streets. Although I did considerable touring, I did not find a single country road nearly as rough as our own city boulevards, and the pavements of London are just as fine, although the traffic is very much heavier than in any of our cities. It does not appear that the English build much better street pavements and roads than we do. The secret seems to be in the fact that they take care of them. Most of the streets in London are paved with crossot block, and as soon as a small hole or depression appears anywhere there is a man on the job repairing it. They follow up these slight imperfections immediately with small repair gangs and outfits. A little fence is put around the bad spot, and with their tiny kits of tools and materials the men quickly replace the blocks with fresh ones or relay them with new foundations. In a short time there is no indication of any break in the absolute smoothness of the pavement, and only the fresh tar reveals the fact that the pavement has been repaired. In this way there is no chance for a pavement or a country road to get into such a condition that it finally has to be rebuilt, and this method also saves a great deal of money."

TEACHERS' EXAMINATIONS

Notice is hereby given that the County Superintendent of Clackamas County, Oregon, will hold the regular examination of applicants for State certificates at the Court House, as follows:

And every girl wants to swipe a name for herself—by marrying. Marriage is apt to be a failure if the female of the species spends more money at the millinery shop than the butcher shop.
