

Enterprise News Service Covers Clackamas County

CANBY

CANBY WINS VICTORY

AT EVERY MOMENT OF PLAY TEAM LEADS O. C.

CANBY, Ore., Jan. 31.—(Special)—During every part of the game, from the first basket until the whistle on the last half was blown; the Canby High school basketball team lead the Oregon City team in the game tonight. The score was 23 to 16.

The game was fast from start to finish but at no time did the invaders show signs of catching up with the local team. Individual stars were numerous on both sides, brilliant flashes of team work and speedy trick plays were the features of the game.

This is the second time that the two fives have met during this season, the first being on the Oregon City floor and a victory for the home team to the score of 17 to 14. The line-up was:

Canby—Ken Knight, Royce Brown, guards; Coleman, Gurley, forwards; Beetz, center.
Oregon City—Hutton, Milliken, guards; Orms, Miller, forwards; Green, center.
Gurley on the Canby team and Orms and Green on the losers were the stellar players, although every man on both sides showed up well.

MEASLES FINDS MANY VICTIMS

TWO OR THREE NEW CASES ARE REPORTED EACH DAY

Canby, Ore., Feb. 4.—(Special)—That there are more cases of measles in Canby than for several years is the statement of several persons who are acquainted with the local conditions. Two boys, Harry Romig and Champ Vaughn, were taken from the local school today with well developed cases and one or two other new cases were reported today.

For some time there has been an unusually large number of persons ill with measles but within the last few days the number seems to have increased. Three or four new cases are reported each day.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Vaughn planned to move to Gresham but are forced to stay until their son recovers.

VICTIM OF ACCIDENT IS BURIED

JOHN RYMAN, KILLED BY PILING—INTERMENT AT CANBY

Canby, Ore., Feb. 2.—(Special)—The interment of John Ryman, who was killed by a falling piling Friday morning at Townsend, was made this morning in the Zion cemetery after a brief service held under the auspices of the local order of I. O. O. F.

Funeral services were held yesterday at the home of the family in Woodburn and the body brought to this city on the morning train, arriving here at 9:45 o'clock. The procession went direct from the depot to the cemetery. The pallbearers were Edward Kruger, William Evans, Charles Thomas, Andie Knight, J. L. Combs and George Hendrickson.

Ryman, who was superintending a gang of men unloading a car of piling on the Southern Pacific track at Townsend Friday morning, was struck in the head by a falling piling and died a few minutes later in a doctor's office in Woodburn. He has lived in Canby more than 10 years and made frequent visits here.

FUNERAL OF CANBY MAN HELD

Services Are Conducted in the Methodist Church Thursday

Canby, Ore., Jan. 29.—(Special)—The funeral services of I. F. Price, who died yesterday at the Oregon City hospital, was held in the Methodist church here this afternoon. Rev. T. H. Dowd officiating. Interment was in Zion cemetery.

I. F. Price has been a resident of Canby for the last six months and was 67 years of age at the time of his death. He is survived by his wife. The pallbearers were: J. L. Combs, A. Kocher, H. Miller, A. Boyd, C. Millan and J. F. Eckerson.

LUMBER CONCERN FILES SUIT

Canby, Ore., Jan. 31.—(Special)—Suit was brought in the justice court today by the Stefani Lumber company against L. B. Gorbham for the sum of $48 which the lumber concern claims is for material delivered to the defendant.

ADOPTED CHILD DIES AT HOME

Melvine Zollener, Age 22 Months, Passes Away at Canby

Canby, Ore., Jan. 31.—(Special)—Melvina Zollener, age 22 months, the adopted child of Mr. and Mrs. F. Zollener, died at the home of his foster parents at 9 o'clock this morning. The child was taken into the Zollener home about a year ago. Funeral services will be held at the house tomorrow at 2 o'clock and interment will be made in the Zion cemetery.

PHONE COMPANY HAS ELECTION

J. P. Cole and J. L. Combs Elected to Office in Mutual Line

Canby, Ore., Jan. 31.—(Special)—The Mutual Phone company held a meeting this morning in the Canby city hall. Their regular business was transacted and then two directors were appointed J. P. Cole and J. L. Combs to hold office for one year. F. Zollener and J. W. Smith held the position before but resigned.

HAUL MUD OFF IN WAGONS

Attempt Made to Relieve Condition of Streets in Canby

Canby, Ore., Feb. 4.—(Special)—In order to relieve the muddy condition of the city streets, a gang of men has been busy today scraping the mud up in piles and taking it away in wagons. Main street is the principal thoroughfare which is being so treated but several other streets will be cleaned.

REPAIRS COMPLETED

Canby, Ore., Feb. 4.—(Special)—The new building front and kitchen for the Willis Bros. building has been completed.

CANBY LOCALS

Canby, Ore., Feb. 4.—(Special)—Henry Anderson, who has been visiting his parents here for several days, has returned to Portland.

W. S. Hurst, of Aurora, is in town today on business.

Miss Farrell, who is employed in the Carlton-Rosenkrans store, was absent today for the first time in three years. She is ill at her home.

James Wilkinson who has been ill for some time, will be able to return to his mail route Monday.

Miss Bagner Swardstad, a Portland trained nurse, came to this city today to attend Mrs. Clara Melham who is seriously ill.

Misses Lillia Wang, Mildred Wang and Helen Krebs spent today in New Era where they visited Miss Huffman.

MOLALLA

QUARTERLY CONFERENCE SUCCESS

CHURCH WORKERS MEET SUNDAY AT MOLALLA

Molalla, Ore., Feb. 2.—(Special)—The Second Quarterly conference held at the Methodist church yesterday was considered a successful affair.

The district superintendent, Dr. Moore, preached to a crowded house in the morning and dinner was served in the basement of the church, followed by the business meeting.

The conference was attended by delegates from Central Point, Carus and Malina. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Albright of Oregon City were also present.

The next conference will be held at Central Point in May.

MOLALLA TO GET NEW BUILDING

MODERN BUSINESS STRUCTURE FOR WILLIAM MAKRELL

Molalla, Ore., Feb. 2.—(Special)—William Mackrell, who owns a harness shop on Molalla avenue, is planning the erection of a new building to be constructed just south of where his present shops now stand. It will be two stories, 25x50 feet, with living rooms up stairs and an elaborate store front. The building will be wired for electricity and piped with hot and cold water. With more room at his disposal, Mr. Mackrell plans to put in a larger stock and will be able to display his goods to better advantage.

QUICK ACTION SAVES THE DAY

Lamp is Upset and Oil Thrown All Over Room in Molalla Home

Molalla, Ore., Jan. 30.—(Special)—What might have been a serious accident with loss of life and property, occurred at the home of Ira C. Stielinger last night; but was averted by the prompt action and presence of mind of Mr. Stielinger.

For some unknown reason a night lamp sitting near the table and floor, throwing oil over the table and floor. The family was awakened by the sound and Mr. Stielinger, seizing a rug, immediately covered the table, removed the lamp and extinguished the flames before they had time to spread.

ENGINE INJURES MOLALLA MAN

LOCOMOTIVE JUMPS TRACK AND SMASHES RIGHT FOOT

Molalla, Ore., Feb. 4.—(Special)—Abe Russell was injured this morning while working at the Morritinson saw mill near this city by a logging locomotive which jumped the track and smashed his right foot. He was taken to Dr. E. R. Todd in Molalla and the wound dressed.

Russell was walking besides the engine when he noticed that the locomotive was about to leave the rails. He attempted to dodge but was unable to escape. The injury will probably keep him from his work for some time.

STUDENTS WORK FOR TEST

Molalla Class of Eleven Pupils Skip Usual Examinations

Molalla, Ore., Feb. 2.—(Special)—In order not to lose any time preparing for the recent county examination the eight grade class of the Molalla school did not take the usual mid-winter test. This is considered an exceptionally fine class of eleven pupils all of whom will probably pass with flying colors in the spring. Mrs. E. M. Jay of Milwaukie, is their teacher and C. F. Cooper of Albany the principal.

HOOD RIVER MAN OPENS STORE

Buys Lot and Begins Construction on One-Story Structure.

Molalla, Ore., Feb. 2.—(Special)—L. A. Knapp, who formerly owned a store in Hood River and one in Woodland, has taken up his residence in Molalla and is constructing a general merchandise store on the lot formerly belonging to Mrs. Lizzie Trullinger, located on Molalla avenue. It is to be a one-story building 25x50 feet and one-story high.

FEW REGISTER IN MOLALLA

But Little Interest is Displayed in Coming Election

Molalla, Ore., Feb. 4.—(Special)—But three or four women have registered in this city and but little interest is being displayed, according to Judge Dungan. Mr. Dungan is of the opinion that although registration is slow at the present time, the usual number of voters will have enrolled by the first of May when the books close.

CLEAR TRACT

Molalla, Ore., Jan. 30.—(Special)—Frank Friedrich, Royal Davidson and Grover Friedrich have secured a contract of R. Friedrich to clear his land. They have hired Fred Schaefer's son, key engine, put eight men at work. The tract includes more than 20 acres and it will require about one month to complete the job.

ENTERTAINS MANY IN HONOR OF MOTHER

Molalla, Ore., Jan. 29.—(Special)—Mrs. F. G. Havemann entertained in honor of her mother, Mrs. J. B. Thompson, yesterday. The guests included: Mrs. M. E. Engle, Miss Clara Engle, Mrs. M. L. Evans, Mrs. M. E. Davidson, Mrs. W. T. Eberd, Miss Ellen Kayler, Mrs. Wm. Mackrell, Mrs. W. A. Beck, Mrs. I. M. Toliver, Mrs. Olliver Robbins and Mrs. J. R. Wolf.

PLAN SOCIAL TO HELP FUND FOR NEW CHURCH

Molalla, Ore., Jan. 29.—(Special)—In order to help raise their pledge of $50 for the new Methodist church, the Epworth league will give a social at the Methodist church Friday night. There is to be special music.

SHOP CHANGES HANDS

Molalla, Ore., Jan. 30.—(Special)—A. H. Newman, who has purchased the Molalla Meal Market from A. R. Reynolds, will take possession of the shop which is located on Main street, the first of February.

MOLALLA LOCALS

Molalla, Ore., Feb. 4.—(Special)—Arthur Stielinger was in Portland yesterday buying repairs for his automobile.

The officers and teachers of the Methodist Sunday school will hold a meeting at that church tomorrow and discuss plans for the ensuing year.

Thad Stipp has purchased 3400 feet of tiling and is draining his farm land.

Don't You Believe It.

Some say that chronic constipation cannot be cured. Don't you believe it. Chamberlain's Tablets have cured others—why not you? Give them a trial. They cost only a quarter. For sale by all dealers.

WILSONVILLE

Mrs. Bliss and little son, from Gooding, Idaho, have been visiting Mrs. Bliss' daughter, Mrs. H. D. Aden and Miss Fern, Illas for a week.

The spelling match to have been held on Friday evening was postponed on account of the measles.

Mrs. Elmer Jones and young son arrived in Wilsonville on Monday evening, after visiting for three weeks with the former's sister in Washington.

Rev. and Mrs. Foster have been entertaining relatives for a few days.

Mrs. Gray and Mrs. Dodson have been visiting relatives and friends in the Hood View district for a week.

Wm. Ridder is building a nice new fence in front of their farm.

The telephone lines were out of repair for a very short time after the storm.

A young son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Murray on Saturday, Jan. 31st. We hope he will be the splendid artist that his father is.

The few children who have had the measles here are better and no new cases have been heard from for several days. The school has been thoroughly fumigated and we hope the trouble is gone.

Mrs. Norman Say spent the week end in Newberg visiting relatives.

Elmer Hasselbrink, of Portland high school, spent last week at the home of his sister, Mrs. Jake Peters, being exempt from examinations.

All our high school students attending Newberg, Portland and other schools are receiving credit for high markings, and it looks as though our grammar schools in the country and our village are above the average, and they will be as long as we continue to pay fair salaries and thereby secure and hold our good teachers.

Supt. Calavan has sent out "red letter tests" in spelling, which will doubtless be a great help to pupils all over the county.

Miss S. M. Graham spent a few days in the Rose City last week visiting relatives.

The Gleaner's Club of the M. E. church will give a basket social on Friday evening in the A. O. U. W. hall, to which everyone is cordially invited. A splendid program is being arranged by the young folks and doubtless it will be one of the best entertainments given here, judging from the splendid talent taking part.

The county court has sent out cards to men and women in the past week, giving them all an equal chance to accept or decline serving on the board at the coming elections.

DON'T KNOW THEY HAVE APPENDICITIS

Many Oregon City people who have chronic appendicitis, which is not very painful, have doctored for years for gas on the stomach, and sour stomach or constipation. The Jones Drug Co. states if these people will try SING-LE DOSE of simple buckhorn bark, glycerine, etc., as compounded in Ad-ler-ka, the remedy which became famous by curing appendicitis, they will be surprised at the INSTANT benefit. (Adv.)

STAFFORD

C. Thompson is going the rounds of this precinct registering voters. He is paid ten cents for everyone he registers, but in this way numbers would not or could not go to Oregon City to register and vote if it stops raining, if they wish to.

The second of February held from time immemorial as the harbinger of good or bad weather for the next six weeks, was bright and beautiful all day, allowing the ground hog to bask in the sun and admire his shadow if he wanted to, but the question arises, "Are there any ground hogs in this country?" If anyone knows, please answer, and settle a serious question, and sendy Candemas or Children's day as the second of February is called should be selected for him to crawl out from his winter's hibernation to look for his shadow. At all events farmers around here saw the sun and forthwith resumed their plowing and seeding.

Miss Lucile Holton came to visit her grandparents when her mother went home, and stayed until Monday, as she had no examinations in the East Portland High School where she is a Freshman this year.

The Misses Holton and Aerni visited the school on Friday.

We fear that a man proposes putting on an auto truck to run between Wilsonville and Portland with a capacity of three tons, daily, carrying everything from eggs to cordwood and passengers. Such an undertaking would be a great convenience often, but whether the promoter could pay for his machine from the customers he would get, would be a question.

COLTON

We have had a number of wind storms lately, but could not complain of any damage until last week when trees were blown down and blocked roads and blew half of the roof of J. Jones' barn and uncovered his hay.

Mr. England and son-in-law, who Shoberg are busy clearing land which they bought from W. B. Gorbett.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirrus Kandle returned to Highland Saturday from their visit at Lee Hills with some beef cattle.

Annie Stromgreen visited with Mrs. Klau on day last week.

Oscar Miller and friends from Puc land are out on the former's home stead.

Miss Florence Stromgreen who is attending High School at Oregon City visited with her parents at Colton a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Elliott left for last week, where Mr. Elliott was called on account of the illness of his mother.

Persons who were victims of the measles around here are better, and no more cases have been reported.

Some of the pneumonia patients are able to be up and others are improving nicely.

Frank Wilson, of Elwood is sawing wood for U. B. Dix.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Freeman, the newly weds, were in Colton on business Saturday.

Gus Wickburg is still busy mending things to the Petterson place which he has rented.

Rev. Rhinehart made a call at J. A. Stromgreen's Monday.

Mrs. Carl Stromgreen and daughter, Florence, visited school Friday afternoon.

Henry Grossmiller, of Clarks is in the neighborhood buying cattle last week.

Carl Stromgreen made a business trip to town Monday.

BARLOW

Mrs. Ormsby and son, Murie, but were visiting Mrs. Ormsby's parents at Sherwood the last two weeks.

Viney Kinsey, niece of Mrs. T. passed to a higher life Saturday 11:45 a. m., with tubercular meningitis. The remains were taken to McEwen Monday for burial. Viney came here in October to attend school. She had been ill for over a month. She was a child who was loved by her teachers and friends and one whose loss is felt greatly, but what is our loss is his gain.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Oak, a daughter. Mother and child doing well.

A wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Hayes, when their daughter, Miss May, was united in marriage to Willie Year. The young couple were married at noon by Rev. Smith and shown to their new home by Mrs. J. Hayes. Many presents were given. Gifts were played by the younger set and cards by the older ones. They returned by came here from Oklahoma.

Mrs. Wm. Nason came up to see her father, William S. Tull, Sunday Oregon City.

Mr. Wood, of Portland, came to attend Miss Kinsey's funeral Monday.

W. B. Tull went to Portland Sunday.

Leonard Parmenter and Albert Tull were left for the logging camp near Ma, Washington, Sunday, where they will work for the year again.

Mr. and Mrs. Pearson and daughter of Portland, were visiting at R. E. E. win's last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey, of Portland, were visiting Mrs. Harvey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burdick, Tuesday.

Mrs. W. J. Baurer, of Aurora, and sons visited at Irwin's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Yearly

charivari Tuesday night.

Mrs. Smith, of McMinnville, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Anderson.

Literary Friday night. Entertainment urged to attend.

(Continued on page 6.)

The big baseballs are attracting a lot of attention already.

LITERARY TO TALK GOOD ROADS

SHOWS LIFE AND SPIRIT BY TAKING SUBJECT OF INTEREST

Willamette, Ore., Jan. 31.—(Special)—Resolved, that Clackamas county should issue bonds to the value of $500,000 for the purpose of building good roads.

This is the subject for debate at the next regular meeting of the Willamette Literary society which will be held two weeks from tonight, as decided at their meeting last evening. An attempt is being made by the society to choose subjects which are before the voters at the present time and which are of interest to everyone in the community.

The program Friday evening was opened by a song by the third grade pupils. This was followed by music by the primary pupils, the boy's quartet, the ninth and tenth grade pupils a duet by Victor Oliver and Frank Bennett, a duet by Misses Meta Higginbotham and Rose Ziellnack. Recitations were given by Miss Helen Fromong, George Craft, the fourth grade pupils, and Miss Lydia Burke. One of the most pleasing features of the evening was the dialogue, entitled, "Deacons of the Glass," by Misses Ruth Wright, Vivian Bartholemew, Nellie Capen, Emma Linguist and Willys Elliott, Clyde Morrel, Harold Van Nee and Raymond Wright. A dialogue rendered by the primary pupils was well received.

The debate for the evening was "Resolved, that the development of character depends more upon heredity than upon environment," and resulted in a tie.

Among the other business of the evening was the nomination of officers. I. D. Garmoler and Miss Ruth Wright were nominated for president, Miss Gladys Baker for vice-president, Miss Elsie Snidow for secretary, Miss

WILSONVILLE

Mrs. Bliss and little son, from Gooding, Idaho, have been visiting Mrs. Bliss' daughter, Mrs. H. D. Aden and Miss Fern, Illas for a week.

The spelling match to have been held on Friday evening was postponed on account of the measles.

Mrs. Elmer Jones and young son arrived in Wilsonville on Monday evening, after visiting for three weeks with the former's sister in Washington.

Rev. and Mrs. Foster have been entertaining relatives for a few days.

Mrs. Gray and Mrs. Dodson have been visiting relatives and friends in the Hood View district for a week.

Wm. Ridder is building a nice new fence in front of their farm.

The telephone lines were out of repair for a very short time after the storm.

A young son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Murray on Saturday, Jan. 31st. We hope he will be the splendid artist that his father is.

The few children who have had the measles here are better and no new cases have been heard from for several days. The school has been thoroughly fumigated and we hope the trouble is gone.

Mrs. Norman Say spent the week end in Newberg visiting relatives.

Elmer Hasselbrink, of Portland high school, spent last week at the home of his sister, Mrs. Jake Peters, being exempt from examinations.

All our high school students attending Newberg, Portland and other schools are receiving credit for high markings, and it looks as though our grammar schools in the country and our village are above the average, and they will be as long as we continue to pay fair salaries and thereby secure and hold our good teachers.

Supt. Calavan has sent out "red letter tests" in spelling, which will doubtless be a great help to pupils all over the county.

Miss S. M. Graham spent a few days in the Rose City last week visiting relatives.

The Gleaner's Club of the M. E. church will give a basket social on Friday evening in the A. O. U. W. hall, to which everyone is cordially invited. A splendid program is being arranged by the young folks and doubtless it will be one of the best entertainments given here, judging from the splendid talent taking part.

The county court has sent out cards to men and women in the past week, giving them all an equal chance to accept or decline serving on the board at the coming elections.

DON'T KNOW THEY HAVE APPENDICITIS

Many Oregon City people who have chronic appendicitis, which is not very painful, have doctored for years for gas on the stomach, and sour stomach or constipation. The Jones Drug Co. states if these people will try SING-LE DOSE of simple buckhorn bark, glycerine, etc., as compounded in Ad-ler-ka, the remedy which became famous by curing appendicitis, they will be surprised at the INSTANT benefit. (Adv.)

STAFFORD

C. Thompson is going the rounds of this precinct registering voters. He is paid ten cents for everyone he registers, but in this way numbers would not or could not go to Oregon City to register and vote if it stops raining, if they wish to.

The second of February held from time immemorial as the harbinger of good or bad weather for the next six weeks, was bright and beautiful all day, allowing the ground hog to bask in the sun and admire his shadow if he wanted to, but the question arises, "Are there any ground hogs in this country?" If anyone knows, please answer, and settle a serious question, and sendy Candemas or Children's day as the second of February is called should be selected for him to crawl out from his winter's hibernation to look for his shadow. At all events farmers around here saw the sun and forthwith resumed their plowing and seeding.

Miss Lucile Holton came to visit her grandparents when her mother went home, and stayed until Monday, as she had no examinations in the East Portland High School where she is a Freshman this year.

The Misses Holton and Aerni visited the school on Friday.

We fear that a man proposes putting on an auto truck to run between Wilsonville and Portland with a capacity of three tons, daily, carrying everything from eggs to cordwood and passengers. Such an undertaking would be a great convenience often, but whether the promoter could pay for his machine from the customers he would get, would be a question.

COLTON

We have had a number of wind storms lately, but could not complain of any damage until last week when trees were blown down and blocked roads and blew half of the roof of J. Jones' barn and uncovered his hay.

Mr. England and son-in-law, who Shoberg are busy clearing land which they bought from W. B. Gorbett.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirrus Kandle returned to Highland Saturday from their visit at Lee Hills with some beef cattle.

Annie Stromgreen visited with Mrs. Klau on day last week.

Oscar Miller and friends from Puc land are out on the former's home stead.

Miss Florence Stromgreen who is attending High School at Oregon City visited with her parents at Colton a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Elliott left for last week, where Mr. Elliott was called on account of the illness of his mother.

Persons who were victims of the measles around here are better, and no more cases have been reported.

Some of the pneumonia patients are able to be up and others are improving nicely.