CANBY

NATIVE SON OF SCOTLAND BURIED

W. C. CLARK, OF CANBY, LAID TO REST MONDAY

Canby, Ore., Feb. 9.—(Special)—The funeral of W. C. Clark, who died here at his home last Saturday was held today in the Methodist church. About 100 of his friends attended the services which were conducted by Rev. W. T. Milliken, of Oregon City. After the services the body was laid to rest in the Zion cemetery. The pallbearers were: E. H. Carlson, F. A. Rosenkrans, F. H. Hilton, William Knight, Dr. Weaver and F. H. Fleming.

Walter Cross Clark was born in Lenarkshire, Scotland, on January 2, 1847. He was educated in that country. At the age of 19 he came to this country where he staid a short time working as a draftsman. The same year he returned to America, where he married Miss Isabella Ramege in 1868. The newly married couple returned to Scotland and while there Mr. Clark was offered a position as a draftsman of one of the largest firms in London. Soon afterwards he was transferred to Glasgow, where he was given a position as chief draftsman.

After a few years in this country Clark's health became poor. He returned to America, then the worked two years as chief draftsman in a ship building establishment in New Port, New York. Again he was forced to move on account of his health, this time he came to the Willamette valley and settled in Canby, where he has lived for the past thirty years. Mr. Clark is survived by his widow.

SUPERINTENDENT TALKS INSTITUTE

J. E. CALAVAN AND N. C. MARIS SPEAK BEFORE SCHOOL

Canby, Ore., Feb. 10.—(Special)—J. E. Calavan, county superintendent of schools, and N. C. Maris, spoke before the pupils and teachers of the Canby school today. Mr. Maris explained the prizes that will be given to the students having the best farm products on exhibition at the fair. The pupils of the Canby high school and grammar grades are planning to have a large exhibition of farm products this year.

Mr. Calavan told of the speakers that will be present the twenty-first of this month at the gathering of the teachers in Canby. F. Rieger, of Portland, who has been the school superintendent in that city for the last seventeen years, will be here. J. A. Churchill, the state superintendent, and N. C. Maris will speak. This meeting is especially for the parents and Mr. Calavan hopes that all of the people who possibly can will be present. The Ladies' Aid society will serve dinner in the basement of the Methodist church.

CITY BEAUTIFUL IS SUGGESTED

PORTLAND MAN SPEAKS BEFORE CANBY BUSINESS MEN

Canby, Ore., Feb. 12.—(Special)—"A more beautiful Canby" was the subject of the lecture by Howard Week, of Portland, before the Canby Business Men's club last night at its regular meeting. The talk was illustrated with stereopticon slides. Shade trees on every street was the principal recommendation which the speaker made, although many other ideas were suggested. The club will have a special meeting February 23 at which time the improvements, suggested by Mr. Week, will be discussed and some steps taken to carry them out in this city. While here Mr. Week was the guest of Mayor and Mrs. W. H. Hair.

TEACHERS OF COUNTY TO MEET

WILL GATHER IN CANBY FOR DAY OF SPECIAL INSTRUCTION

Canby, Ore., Feb. 5.—(Special)—On the fourteenth of this month the teachers of Clackamas county will assemble in this city for one day of special instruction. Many of the mid-term examination papers will be exhibited and the work for the rest of the school year will be discussed. Several school authorities of state-wide importance will speak besides many from this county. Preparations are being made here to receive the teachers. Many of them will be forced to remain over night and it will be necessary to make extra provision to accommodate them.

MOLALLA

FORM NEW FARMER CLUB OF PUPILS

PLAN EXPLAINED BY EXPERTS; OFFICERS ELECTED

Molalla, Ore., Feb. 11.—(Special)—Superintendent J. E. Calavan and N. J. Maris, field assistant of the extension department of the O. A. C., gave a talk to the school children at the Grange hall yesterday afternoon for the purpose of organizing an agricultural club of industrial workers, in connection with the school fairs.

The members of this club must be between the ages of 10 and 19 years. There are no dues, but in case money is necessary, an assessment of not more than 25 cents a year per member may be made if two-thirds favor the levy. No student may take an exhibit to the state fair unless a member of this club.

Such a club was organized and the following officers elected: President, Ross Sawtell; vice-president, Miss Naomi Robbins; secretary, Miss Ethel Wells; and treasurer, Berrel Cole. Fifty-two pupils signified a desire to become members. Mr. Maris said he had never organized a club with more than forty-three members.

HE HITS BABY BROTHER WITH AXE

FOR SECOND TIME IN THREE WEEKS BOY IS CUT IN HEAD

West Linn, Ore., Feb. 11.—(Special)—For the second time in three weeks Jimmie McEfferly, age eight, accidentally chopped his brother, Patrick McEfferly, age three, in the forehead with an axe at about 12:30 o'clock this afternoon. Patrick was taken to an Oregon City doctor and the wound, which is not serious, was dressed.

At the time the accident happened, James was chopping wood. Patrick was watching his older brother and playing with the sticks as they fell from the axe. The hand of the wood splitter slipped and the axe descended on the forehead of the younger boy. The fact that the axe hit a glancing blow and with but little force was all that saved Patrick from probably serious injury.

STANDING ROOM ONLY AT PROGRAM

MOLALLA BAND HAS SUCCESSFUL ENTERTAINMENT

Molalla, Ore., Feb. 9.—(Special)—A house so crowded that even standing room was at a premium greeted the entertainment given Saturday evening by the Molalla band at Tobin's hall here. The hall was lighted by electric lights, for the first time, the current being furnished by Bergstrom and company, who operate the moving picture show here.

Among the interesting features of the sixteen number program was a solo, "Dovour Troupe," by J. H. Stone, instrumental music on the flute by William Staley and a solo by little Miss Bertha Redmond. The music by the band was also excellent and was highly appreciated by the enthusiastic audience.

GET LETTER FROM FAR OFF LAND

LIBERAL PUPILS RECEIVE WORD FROM HONOKAA

Molalla, Ore., Feb. 9.—(Special)—Letters all the way from the Kapulea school, Honokaa, Hawaiian Islands, and written by children of nine and 10 years, were received today by the pupils of the Liberal school. The letters are said to be very interesting and tell about the country, the people, the public school system, and other conditions of the islands.

Although the children are but nine and 10 years old, the writing is said to be far better than many of the high school students are able to produce. The object of the correspondence is to bring the pupils of the different parts of the country in close personal touch with each other.

KILL THREE OFFERS AT ONE SESSION

MOLALLA COUNCIL SURE DEATH TO FRANCHISES

Molalla, Ore., Feb. 11.—(Special)—Two electric franchises were voted down, and a third laid on the table at a meeting of the city council last night. The franchise proposed by Fred Schafer was the first to be taken up by the council and the first to be voted down. This was quickly followed by similar action on the one brought up by M. J. Lee. The Molalla Electric company's franchise was laid on the table. Schafer will present a new franchise at the next meeting of the council.
