COMPLETE LINE THEN SELL; PLAN

TO BUILD LINE JOINTLY WITH WEST LINN WOULD COMPLICATE MATTERS

JOINT COMMITTEE PLAN IMPRACTICAL

West Linn Would Probably Want Third Interests in Water System is Hint of Citizens There

That the best and only legal way to sell to the city of West Linn a share of the proposed Clackamas river water system would be to complete the line under the control of Oregon City and with the money derived from the sale of the Oregon City bonds, is the opinion of City Attorney Chris Schuebel.

It is probable that the city across the river would want a third interest in the plant. If, when the work was completed, the city was found to be $300,000 in the neighborhood city would pay a full $100,000 for its third share, and would bind itself by contract to pay one third of the upkeep costs of the line.

It was learned Wednesday evening that negotiations between Mayor Jones, of Oregon City, and several of the leading taxpayers of West Linn had been underway for several weeks but the first public announcement was not made until the resolution was passed by the West Linn city council Tuesday evening.

At first it was thought that the line could be built under a joint agreement between the two cities and that a committee, composed of representatives from both cities, would have charge of its construction. Carrying out this plan, instead of Oregon City bonding itself for the full amount of the cost of the line, Oregon City would issue bonds for two thirds of the cost and West Linn for the remainder. This plan was referred to the Boston bond experts, who have been employed by the city, and they replied that such a plan would make the issuing of bonds difficult.

REPAVE MAIN IS COUNCIL RESOLVE

TEMPLETON DECLARES FOR NEW PAVEMENT ON PRINCIPLE THOROUGHFARE

COUNCILMAN WILL OPPOSE PATCHING

Liquor Ordinance Passes, Initiative Measure is Read for First Time, Much Other Business Transacted

That he, as chairman of the street committee, would open a campaign for the improvement of Main street with nothing less than a hard surface pavement, was the statement of Councilman Templeton at the council meeting Wednesday night.

"I will oppose any patching or attempted repairing of the street," said Mr. Templeton after the meeting. "Nothing but a hard surface street, replacing the present brick pavement will do." The statement is the result in an indirect way, of the unsuccessful attempt to bring about the improvement of the street some time ago through the property owners.

Property Owners Oppose Plan. At that time the statement was made that the work would never be done through the property owners and that the only way such an improvement was ever made was from the outside. Mr. Templeton is chairman of the street committee and a prominent good road advocate in this city. He is of the opinion that macadam, dirt and gravel thoroughfares are a detriment to the city and has stated that his committee will never recommend that any street in this city be improved by such method.

About two weeks ago the council met at a special meeting to hear protests from the property owners along Main street and almost every one preferred either to patch the present surface or to wait another year before any improvement was made. Mr. Templeton has openly declared himself against patching.

Liquor Ordinance Passes. The ordinance which regulates the bringing of liquor into the city was read for the second time and passed without one vote against it. The measure provides that all liquor which is shipped into Oregon City must be in the original package and plainly marked with the name and address of the consignee and that all express and freight companies must keep a register of the liquor handled. A second liquor ordinance, regulating the activities of mail order houses and companies sending solicitors to this city, was brought up for first reading. It provides that solicitors can not work in Oregon City, that liquor companies can not distribute hand bills or circulars and covers the handling of liquor in drug stores.

Bring up Initiative Ordinance. An initiative ordinance, which gives the city the power to call a special election of voters within a period of 21 days, was read for the first time. This measure was made public several days ago and will be used for the first time upon the amendment to the charter creating the water committee and issuing the $325,000 bonds for the construction of the pipe line. The ordinance is merely an application of the state law to the city and can be used in cases of emergency in the future.

Amend Electric Sign Ordinance. An amendment to an ordinance, passed May 7, 1913, was read before the council for the first time. It provides that all electric signs protruding over 18 inches over the sidewalk, must be on hinges but does not provide, as did the original measure, that they must be swung against the building during the day. The change was due to the request of several of the business men along Main street.

Improvement bonds to the value of $24,387.50 to pay for street and sewer work done on Jackson, Tenth, Fourth, J. Q. Adams, and Main streets, were authorized in an ordinance which was brought up for first reading at the meeting. The bonds extend over a period of 10 years and bear 6 per cent interest.

To Condemn Property for Sewer. The council instructed the city attorney to start condemnation proceedings against property owners along the route of the Tenth street sewer. Several have refused to come to terms with the city and the plans are being blocked by their actions. About 1500 lots are within the district covered by this sewer, according to Councilman F. J. Toose, who spoke on the question, and who considers it important that the matter be rushed as fast as possible.

City Attorney Schuebel announced that after a meeting with the county court the county will pay the city its share of the road money collected in the city for street work. He also said that conditions were being circulated among the property owners on the county side of Division street to secure their aid in the repair of that road and that the county court would decide to what extent it would be able to aid in the work during the present session.

To Buy Hydrants. The city council instructed the water board to order a dozen new fire hydrants. At the present time the city has one and this will be installed on Sixth and High streets leaving the city without a hydrant in case of emergency.

A pool hall license was granted to Ruehlich and Gross to operate a pool hall on Main street between Sixth and Seventh.

The salary of J. Stafford, who is employed in the office of the city engineer was increased from $90 to $100 a month. This matter caused considerable discussion on the part of the councilmen, some claiming that a raise in the salary of a city employee under the present financial conditions in the city was unwise and inconsistent with the policy upon which many of the present councilmen were elected. Petitions, signed by residents from the Molalla avenue district, were read which asked for street lights on Holmes avenue and on May street. Both were referred to the street committee.

Entertainment Committee Planning for House Warming in New Home Within a Few Weeks

With its indebtedness wiped off the slate, the Oregon City Commercial club is facing a prosperous future. At a meeting of the board of governors Wednesday afternoon bills for furnishing the club's new home were ordered paid, leaving a comfortable balance in the treasury. The membership, too, is increasing, and it is noticeable that in the new quarters the attendance is better than in the former club rooms, which were not nearly so well located nor so accessible as now. Among the recent acquisitions to the membership roll are W. F. Tipston, A. Schneider, O. W. Elliott, E. Bauer, W. A. Beck, of Molalla, Fred A. Metzner, George Sullivan, D. E. Frost, H. Livendroff, Charles H. Crawford, Percy Caulfield, Lloyd Riches, Charles Holmes, F. P. Sullivan, W. W. Hedden, H. E. Vernet, T. A. Burke, W. S. Hodges and Wallace McCord.

It is planned to formally open the new club rooms within the next few weeks with an entertainment, the exact character of which the entertainment committee is keeping carefully concealed. It is expected that almost the entire membership of the organization will turn out to attend the house warming.

The board of governors has promulgated several rules. The club rooms to be kept open from 9 a. m. to 11 p. m., and only the bona fide members and their out-of-town guests will be entitled to the privileges of the rooms. All of the rooms are to be open for the free use of club members and their guests, and any woman member of the family of any club member shall be entitled to the use of the club parlor any afternoon for private social gatherings, upon application to the house committee. Any gathering of men or women may use the parlor or dining room for meeting purposes wherein the public will be resented by their efforts, provided reservations are made in advance with the house committee. The new house rules were submitted by Secretary M. D. Latourette, and their purpose is to popularize the club rooms.

MOTORISTS PLAN COMING YEAR

CLACKAMAS COUNTY AUTOMOBILE CLUB OPENS SEASON WITH MEETING

BANQUET TO BE IN FEW WEEKS

Reports of Committees are Read; and New Members are Welcomed. To Arrange for Site for Home

More than a score of motorists attended the monthly meeting of the Clackamas County Automobile club Wednesday night in the parlors of the commercial club, rounded up new members, harkened to committee reports, paid their dues and listened to plans for the season's work. They learned that the officers expect to arrange for the purchase of a tract at a suitable spot in Clackamas county as a site for a home for the club. The annual banquet of the club will be had early in April or late this month. M. D. Latourette, E. E. Brodie, M. E. Park and Ralph C. Parker were named as a committee to take entire charge of the affair, which may be held at some place nearer Oregon City than the club house of the Portland Automobile club on the banks of the Sandy river, where last year's banquet took place. The 1913 affair was a splendid success, however, and those who enjoyed the banquet then would not be adverse to making another visit, under similar circumstances, to the home of the Multnomah county motorists.

The following standing committees were appointed: Good roads—T. W. Sullivan, E. G. Caulfield, C. W. Risley, L. D. Walker, O. F. Hegdale. Social runs—W. R. Logus, R. C. Parker, B. T. McCain, A. A. Price, Dr. Guy Mount. Finance—William Sheahan, W. L. Mulvey, M. E. Park, George H. Bancroft, W. A. Huntley.

COUNCIL CHECKS OVER AMENDMENT

CITY FATHERS MAKE BUT FIVE CHANGES IN PURE WATER MEASURE

EXPECTS TO EXAMINE EVERY FEATURE

Plans Must be Filed With City Recorder and Reports Must be Made at Regular Meetings as Changes

But five changes or additions were made in the charter amendments, creating a water committee to superintend the construction of the pipe line from the south fork of the Clackamas river to Oregon City, and allowing the bonds for the project was brought before the city council Tuesday afternoon.

The amendments were drawn up by a Portland firm of attorneys upon suggestions of the local council. The measure will be taken to Portland Wednesday and returned to the attorneys there who will redraft the measure, making the changes as suggested by the city council. As soon as this is done, the amendments will be sent to consulting attorneys in Boston who will pass upon the legality of the proposed amendments. It is expected that word will be received in this city in about 10 days from the Boston bond experts.

Prepare for Election.

In the meantime, the city council will amend the city charter so that a special election may be called to bring the issue before the voters. By the use of this measure, which has already been framed, it will be possible to call the election and decide the matter within a space of 21 days while under the general state law it would take 60 days. This plan would allow construction to begin about 40 days earlier than otherwise possible. It is thought by the local authorities that the proposed amendment can be brought before the voters at an election sometime next month.

To File Plans.

The most important change which was made at the council meeting in the proposed amendment was one which instructs the water committee to file all plans and specifications with the city recorder. This would, in this way, give the city a complete and detailed description of the plant. At first the matter of additional expense in preparing these plans was brought up but City Engineer Noble showed that all which would be necessary would be blue print copies of those which would be used for construction purposes.

No Salary for Committeemen

At the request of the members of the water committee the clause was put in the measure that no member would receive a salary or compensation for their work. Such had been the understanding on the part of the council but the members of the committee thought that it would be best to have the matter settled in the measure itself.

The original amendment as it was read before the council provided that the committee should report to the council once each month but did not specify any definite time. Councilman Toose thought that it would be better if the committee had some regular meeting time to report and suggested that it be made the regular monthly meeting. After some discussion the proposal was adopted and worked in to the measure.

It is probable that during the construction of the line or during that time preceding when the right-of-way is being secured, it will be necessary for the committee to bring suits and probably to use such. Unless provision was made, all of the suits would be brought in the name of the city of Oregon City. But as the committee is to have the entire charge of the work, it was thought best by the members of the council to make the provision that all suits would be in the name of the committee. The only other alteration which was made was slight, being merely the changing of the word "fair" to "accurate" in describing the report of the secretary.

A SIMPLE, but pretty wedding took place Wednesday evening at 8:15 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Gardner on Eleventh and John Adams street, when Mrs. Gardner's sister, Miss Mamie Roake, became the bride of Mr. Leslie Spencer Harlow, of Milwaukie.

Mrs. Lynn Marsh, of Milwaukie, played Mendelssohn's wedding march, as the bride entered the parlor on the arm of her father, Samuel Roake, who gave her in marriage. Under an arch of smilax she was met by her maid of honor, Miss Alta Chamberlain, of Portland, the groom and his best man, Mr. C. D. House, also of Portland. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. S. Bollinger, pastor of the Highland Congregational church of Portland in the presence of about seventy relatives and friends.

The bride was charming in a gown of white crepe de chine and wore a wreath of orange blossoms in her coilure, she carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Alta Chamberlain, as bride's maid, wore lavender crepe de chine and carried pink carnations.

Mrs. Harlow is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Roake, of Clackamas. She was born in Oregon City and resided here the greater part of her life until four years ago she accepted a position with the Home Telephone company of Portland, as long distance operator, afterwards she was transferred to Milwaukie in the same capacity, where she met Mr. Harlow, a well known business man of that place.

Many pretty gowns were worn by those present. Mrs. Samuel Roake, mother of the bride, wore blue silk and Mrs. C. F. Harlow, moth of the bridegroom, was dressed in gray.

MRS J. M. WARNOCK was hostess Friday afternoon at her home in Mt. Pleasant for the third of a series of silver teas given by the Mt. Pleasant Civic Improvement club. Mrs. Edw. McLain, assisted Mrs. Warnock in receiving. The coffee urn was presided over by Mrs. Wm. B. Stafford and Miss Ella Williams poured tea.

The reception hall, large living room and the dining room were beautifully arranged with ferns and spring blossoms, which made a pleasing contrast with the soft brown tones of the Warnock home.

The table appointments were pretty, the center piece being a large vase of California violets, with sprays of violets dotted over the snowy cover.

A number of ladies called during the afternoon and the proceeds were very satisfactory to those having the tea in charge.

This club is the oldest civic club in the county and will soon enter the ninth year of its work. During the past eight years hundreds of dollars have been used for the advancement of civic work in Mt. Pleasant.

MISS BESSIE N. LOWE, of this city, and Axel Barthold Melgreen were quietly married Thursday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Lowe on Thirteenth and J. Q. Adams streets. Rev. George Nelson Edwards, pastor of the First Congregational church, performed the wedding ceremony.

The bride wore a becoming gown of white embroidered silk. She carried bride's roses and lilies of the valley, and was unattended. Only a few relatives of both parties witnessed the ceremony.

After a short honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Melgreen will reside in Portland, where Mr. Melgreen has business interests.

Club Elects.

J. M. Warnock, was chosen as president; T. C. Thomas, vice-president; Mrs. A. C. Warner, secretary, and Mrs. J. M. Warnock, treasurer at the meeting of the Mt. Pleasant Civic Improvement club Tuesday evening. The advisory board for the ensuing year was named as Mrs. Edward McLain, J. Christenson and A. C. Warner.

Constipation, if Neglected, Causes Serious Illness

Constipation, if neglected, leads to almost innumerable complications affecting the general health. Many cases of typhoid fever, appendicitis and other severe diseases are traceable to prolonged clogging of the bowels. Regarding the effects of constipation, C. E. Ayer, 6 Sabin St., Montpelier, Vt., says:

"I was afflicted with constipation and dizziness for years, and at times became so bad, I would become unconscious. I have been found in that condition many times. Physicians did not seem to be able to do me any good. I would become weak and for days at a time could do no work. Not long ago I got a box of Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets, and after using them found I had never tried anything that acted in such a mild and effective manner. I believe I have at last found the remedy that suits my case."

Thousands of people are sufferers from habitual constipation and while possibly realizing something of the danger of this condition, yet neglect too long to employ proper curative measures until serious illness often results. The advice of all physicians is, "keep your bowels clean, and it's good advice." Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets are sold by all druggists, at 25 cents a box containing 25 doses. If not found satisfactory, your money is returned.

MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

The financial standing of the club was discussed at length at this meeting and the proposition of the new sidewalk which is almost completed to the city limits was also brought up. Another social time will be planned in the near future. The club is entering into its ninth year of active service.

Celebrate Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hull celebrated the sixth anniversary of their wedding Wednesday evening at their home in Mulino.

Dinner was served at 7 o'clock to a few invited guests, after dinner a musical evening was enjoyed.

Those who enjoyed the hospitality of the Hull home were: Mr. and Mrs. Philip Hull and baby Juanita, Mrs. and Mrs. G. G. Graves, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Maple, Mildred Maple, Mrs. Masterton, Miss Olive Jones and E. R. Jones.

Couple Quietly Married.

Earl C. McMullen and Miss Meta Welch-Stuff were quietly married Wednesday afternoon at the parsonage of the Methodist church by Rev. T. B. Ford, the pastor. Mrs. Strouton and Miss Sable Sullivan acted as witnesses.

The young couple left immediately for a short honeymoon and afterwards will reside in Oregon City.

Teacher Marries.

Word was received in this city that Miss Ethel Sharp, a former teacher in the Gladstone school, was recently married to Mr. C. E. Peterson. Mrs. Peterson taught school in Gladstone a number of years and made many friends by her pleasing manner, she was a graduate of the University of Oregon.

Chronic Stomach Trouble Cured.

There is nothing more discouraging than a chronic disorder of the stomach. Is it not surprising that many suffer for years with such an ailment when a permanent cure is within their reach and may be had for a trifle? "About one year ago," says P. H. A History of Clackamas Roads

DISTRICT NO. 29. Across the river south of Wilsonville, via the old "Boone's Ferry," lies District No. 29. The boundaries of the district are between the Willamette and Pudding rivers on the north and east, and include about seven sparkle miles all told. Parts of the Boone's Ferry road and the Aurora and Portland road lie within this road district. Seven year's disbursements in this district amount to only $6,335.10, incidentally the smallest expenditure in any district yet discussed by the Enterprise. The figures are as follows: 1907.....$ 904.87
1908.....788.67
1909.....714.45
1910.....738.65
1911.....1,290.55
1912.....1,111.77
Total.....$6,335.10
With this comparatively small road expenditure the people of District 29 have not attempted anything big in the line of permanent road building. In fact statistics from that district show the condition of the roads of No. 29 to be about as follows: Total number of miles.....15
Number miles gravel.....9.8
Number miles crushed rock.....6
Number miles plank.....4.2
Number miles dirt.....14.2
The eight-tenths of a mile gravel was built during the past year. The total amount spent in 1913 was $1,376.24, or just about the sum the district was entitled to for that period under its assessed valuation of $319,399.20. Noticeably there have been no special levies in District 29. This district is about 5 miles south and 8 miles west of Oregon City in Twp. 3 south, range 1 W, and 1 E. Preservation has been in charge of W. L. White, 807 1/2 E. Keok, 13821. Aaron McConnell, 1909, 1910 and 1911; W. A. Rogers, 1912 and 1913.
